Emerickville.

Mrs. Mary Cable buried her girl on the 24th inst. Patrick, her son, was buried on the 16th inst. Both died of diphtheria.

One of our store keepers recently got up, ate his breakfast and had started to his work when he discovered it was only three o'clock. He returned to bed to finish his sleep.

W. W. Fales is doing a large business in butchering and selling vehicles. Wal. is a hustler in both branches.

One of our country boys, Blaise Fyock, done up the Brookville sports at C. M. Wetzel's shooting match. We understand he got eleven turkeys out of thirteen.

Plenty of rain and mud in our streets. It kept the people from church Sunday, being a perfect Waterloo over Sabbath.

Mrs. Joseph Stormer is visiting friends in this vicinity. Her home is at Colk, Ohio.

Miss Gertrude Haines is doing a good business in her new dressmaking establishment, being noted for the fine work she and her help are turning out.

O. F. Haines has purchased the old Emery homestead. He has quit saw milling and will try farming in place. We wish him success, as he is a jolly good fellow.

H. E. Fuller, near Fuller Station, is quoted on the list to have the largest hogs in Pine Creek. But this is only a usual thing for Mr. Fuller to do.

F. C. Swartz, a teacher of one of the Pine Creek schools, was in Pittsburg over Sunday.

Daniel Cable sustained a very painful injury while butchering one day last week. He slipped and when falling caught his right hand on a rusty nail, making an ugly wound that will keep him from his work for some time.

We would like to know if any one has lost a team of horses and wagon, as our postmaster was seen leading the same up and down our streets one day last week, presumably looking for the owner.

Frank Martz has found a new way to scare up rabbits when on a hunt. He fastens a sheep bell around his dog's neck and this being a strange noise starts a good many rabbits towards Frank's game sack.

The election is over and politics takes a back seat now, to give room for hunting and butchering stories, which are quite numerous.

A. D. Deemer's saw mill at Iowa, has started for a few days sawing.

A progressive "Weight Social" will be held in the Baum school next Saturday night, Dec. 1, 1900. Everyone is cordially invited.

Fred Ishman and William Ishman came home from Pittsburg, where they were employed building the new depot at that place.

John Swartz is kept busy butchering in the vicinity of Emerickville. He killed 113 hogs last season.

Our village is bound on the north by Stony Hollow, on the east by Frog Hollow, on the south by Gobbler's Point, on the west by rain and muddy roads.

Protracted meeting will begin at the Church of God on Thanksgiving eve. Everybody is invited to come.

Letter to W. H. Ford, Reynoldsville, Pa.

Dear Sir:—There is going to be, from now on, in Reynoldsville a good deal of painting done, that will last in good condition from 3 years up—10 years is common; we know of it good in 15; and we know no limit—it seems to be likely to last as long as the house lasts, in favorable conditions.

The painter that uses this paint will get all the business he can do.

Devco lead and zinc is the paint. It looks as good as any; costs no more; and is ready—no tinting or mixing to do.

The zinc is ground in with the lead by machinery—you can't do that.

Test it yourself, if you like; but there's plenty of evidence for it. We take the risk of how it turns out—there is no risk.

Do you want this work?
Yours truly,
13 F. W. DEVCO & CO.

Six Frightful Failures.

Six terrible failures of six different doctors nearly sent Wm. H. Mullen of Lockland, O., to an early grave. All said he had a fatal lung trouble and that he must soon die. We Steadfastly Hold to the Supreme Clothing Offerings Which Have Won Us Fame.

Level Headed Customers

Are not swept about by the prevalent extravagant advertisements which, like a weather vane in a gale of wind, blow all around the compass from $80 suits to $15; $20 suits to $10; $10 suits to $5; $25 overcoats to $15; $20 overcoats to $10, and $10 overcoats to $5. The public wants the best for its money and prefers to ridiculous claims as to worth. Fictitious boasting how much business some merchants do is no proof that they do the business. The goods that we sell at small profits is the proof that satisfaction is the best policy and our past dealings with the public is the best proof.

Quality in the Garment
