OUR COOKING CLUB.

Several girl friends and myself came to the conclusion several weeks ago that we would organize a cooking school. I felt sure that our cook, Biddy, would be willing to help us one afternoon each week. We had our first meeting that afternoon and each came with material for cakes and fancy desserts. Imagine our surprise when Biddy announced that unless we began by cooking "common things," as she expressed it, such as cooking meat or making coffee, she would not help.

We consented to do this, although we thought we knew all there was to know of such things. We found that in this we were mistaken and that it usually is better to do the "common things" first.—Christine Brown '02.

One of the most interesting and pleasing entertainments given in this season's course was the lecture Friday eve by Frank R. Roberson on "China of To-day." Mr. Roberson having dwelt in China for over two years, was familiar with his subject, and being delivered, as it was, at a time when all eyes are riveted on the thrilling and diverse scenes which are being enacted in the far-off Orient, more than ordinary interest was manifested in his remarks. He depicted China in a new light, and ascribes the cause of her troubles to conditions other than those we have been led to believe. The manners and customs of the people were vividly impressed upon the audience by the aid of stereopticon views, and personal narrative of the lecturer. If Mr. Roberson returns to our town he may feel assured that he will be greeted by an appreciative audience.

For some time we have been noting in the columns of our neighboring towns' papers where various High School teams have been contesting on the gridiron with the High School team of Reynoldsville. But upon investigating the matter we find that our High School is not represented by a team, and neither has it conferred the privilege of representing it to others. So, while realizing that the title is one to be craved, yet we hope that teams will dub themselves with other titles when they visit neighboring towns.

At a special meeting of the Shakespearean Literary Society a formal invitation was extended to the DuBois High School to meet us in a joint contest to consist of music, oration, debate and declamation. We are patiently awaiting a reply.

What is hoped to be one of the most interesting and amusing programs given by the Society this year, will be rendered Dec. 7th, when the Bandless Bachelors will meet in convention. The committee on arrangements is working hard and leaving nothing undone to make it a memorable occasion.

Thursday and Friday have been set apart as Thanksgiving holidays.

Brave Explorers.

Like Stanley and Livingstone, found it harder to overcome Malaria, Fever and Ague and Typhoid disease germs than savage cannibals; but thousands have found that Electric Bitters is a wonderful cure for all malarial diseases. If you have chills with fever, aches in back of neck and head, and tired, worn out feeling, a trial will convince you of their merit. W. A. Null, of Webb, Ill., writes: "My children suffered for more than a year with chills and fever; then two bottles of Electric Bitters cured them." Only 50 cents. Try them. Guaranteed. Sold by H. Alex. Stoke, druggist.
