The company which will present "A Wise Woman," the latest musical farce at the Reynolds opera house in the near future has a really wonderful array of well known people enlisted in the ranks of the organization. The management do not believe in the too common system of "one or two giving the whole show," but have organized what is undoubtedly one of the strongest farce comedy casts ever brought together.

Died Yesterday.
Elijah McClelland, father of Mrs. M. Mohney and Mrs. Thomas Tappor, died in West Reynoldsville late yesterday afternoon. Obituary notice will be published in our next issue.

Publish on Monday Next Week.
For the benefit of our advertisers THE STAR will be published Monday morning of next week, December 24th. Our correspondents and any persons wanting notices published next week, will please remember this and have their communications or notices in by Saturday noon.

Will Go to Arizona.
Ralph E. McKee, of this place, and his brother, W. T. McKee, will start for Arizona next Monday where Ralph has been advised to go by his doctor. His brother goes with him for company. Ralph's numerous friends wish and hope that the Arizona climate will restore him to health again.

Wrist Broken.
Thomas Black was thrown off the spring seat of a wagon while making a short turn at the Reynolds coal bank yesterday forenoon and broke his right wrist. Mr. Black drove his team to Hotel McConnell with his left hand and then walked to the doctor's office to have the broken bones set.

Biten by a Dog.
Harry Bryan, who has somewhat of a reputation as a "yarn spinner," was holding his dog up and giving it a "tongue-lashing" last Thursday when the canine snapped at him twice, the first time hitting his upper lip and second snap caught Harry's lower lip. The doctor who was called had to put three stitches in Bryan's upper lip.

County Institute.
People who can and are not attending the county institute this week, both day and evening, are missing a rare treat. Russell H. Conwell, America's eminent lecturer, delivers the closing lecture of the institute, Thursday evening. Subject: "Heroism of Private Life, or Romance of Real Life." Prof. Teitrick, our worthy county superintendent, deserves praise for the excellent institute he is giving the teachers and public.

Syphrit-Holman.
J. W. Syphrit, of Homestead, son of Noah Syphrit of Paradise, and Miss Blanche Holman, daughter of V. R. Holman, of Westville, were married yesterday at West Reynoldsville by Rev. J. C. McEntire. Mr. Syphrit, who has taught school several terms in Winslow township, is a promising young man, and his bride was one of Sykesville's prominent and highly esteemed young ladies. THE STAR extends congratulations and best wishes for a pleasant and successful voyage on the matrimonial sea.

Burned in Muriatic Acid and Hot Water.
August Boulanger, general manager of the Star Glass plant, is now nursing a very sore leg. Sunday night August was walking near a dip, which was filled with boiling water and muriatic acid, and his left foot slipped and his leg ran into dip up to knee. His shoe was laced tight and his foot was not burned, but his leg was so badly burned that the flesh is falling off. The dip is eight feet deep, 26 inches wide and it was only by a narrow escape that August did not go to bottom of pit. Ice on heel of his shoe caused him to slip.

C. K. Hawthorne Elected Principal.
At the meeting of the DuBois school board last Thursday evening Prof. C. K. Hawthorne, of Ohi, Pa., at one time principal of the West Reynoldsville school, who is a son-in-law of Phillip Koehler, was elected principal of the First Ward schools of DuBois. In speaking of the election the Express says: "On the first ballot C. K. Hawthorne of Jefferson county, was elected, receiving eight votes, the total number cast. The vote was a very flattering one for Mr. Hawthorne, who has been a teacher in Jefferson county for a number of years and is said to be an instructor of ability and worth."

"The Union Scout."
"The Union Scout," which was billed for the Reynolds opera house for two nights last week, was only played one night, much to the disappointment of the people in the surrounding community who may not even now know that the drama was to be produced at this place. The management did a wise act to cancel the date for second night, as the vacuum would have been so great that the play would hardly have been produced any how. The drama is a good one, but some of the players were evidently "stage struck." "Rube" Waddell, the noted ball player, was one of the attractions of "The Union Scout."

Injured in the Mines—Taken to Hospital.
William Matthews, of this place, was badly injured in Big Soldier mine yesterday forenoon by a fall of slate. It was first reported that he had been killed, but the doctors think he will recover. He was brought to his home on Fourth street in the afternoon. Matthews is a trip rider and he was riding out on rear end of a trip when the accident happened. His escape from instant death was miraculous. His right shoulder was badly lacerated, the arm was almost torn off, his right leg was broken in two places and his left foot mangled. Dr. J. H. Murray took Matthews to the Adrian Hospital this morning.
Ed. Jones, of Sykesville, had two ribs broken by the fall of slate.

Summerville to Clarion by Rail.
It seems an assured fact now that a standard gauge railroad will be built from Clarion to Summerville to connect with the P. R. R. at the latter place. A prominent railroad promoter, Mr. White, of Beaver Falls, Pa., and some Pittsburg capitalists made the proposition to the citizens of Clarion that if that town would subscribe $50,000 toward the project the road would be built. The amount has been subscribed by Clarion people and there seems no doubt now but that the road will be built. It will open up some rich coal land between Clarion and Summerville. M. C. Coleman and Dr. J. C. King, of this place are interested in seeing this road go through, as they own considerable coal land in Clarion county.

Rings at Gooder's from $1.00 up to $100 and over $500 to select from.
Bracelets in gold and silver; over 100 to select from at Gooder's the jeweler.

A Fool and Fire.
Last Friday night about 11:30 two young men were passing John Reed's new dwelling at corner of Main and Seventh streets, when a fire in the building attracted their attention. The young men stopped long enough to see a man putting shavings on the fire, which appeared to them to be on the floor. They notified Francis Yost, a carpenter who is working on the building and who boards where one of the young men does. Mr. Yost called Contractor Thomas E. Evans and in company with Policeman Pomroy they entered the house and found a foreigner there. The only reason he gave for building the fire on the floor was that he wanted to get warm. When the carpenters arrived the fellow had a big fire blazing up four or five feet high and there was a hole burned into the floor. The fellow had first started a fire in a paint keg on second floor and burned the floor a little there. Had the fire not been discovered when it was Mr. Reed's fire house, which is not yet completed, would have been burned down. Mr. Reed is superintendent of the J. & C. C. & I. Co. mines at this place. The foreigner was arrested and put in the lock-up until Saturday afternoon and was then turned loose. He did not seem to think that he had been guilty of doing anything of a serious nature.

Died Monday Morning.
Mrs. G. B. Repsher died at her home in Ridgway between three and four o'clock Monday morning, December 17th, 1900. Her death was caused from childbirth. Remains were brought to Reynoldsville yesterday afternoon and will be buried in the Reynoldsville cemetery this forenoon. Funeral services at the residence of Mrs. Harriet Repsher on Jackson street at 10:00 a. m., to-day, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church.

Maud Lee Baughman was born at Parker City, Pa., August 3rd, 1873, making her 27 years old last August. She was married to G. B. Repsher in September, 1891. Unto them five children were born, all of whom survive their mother. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Frank Rodgers and a daughter of J. N. Baughman. She was a good wife and a kind mother. Mr. Repsher will break up housekeeping and the children have been provided with homes among relatives.

Absent Thirty Years.
D. E. Stanford, of Sandy Valley, will go to Oil City next Monday to see a brother whom he has not seen for thirty-five years and whom the family had not heard from for thirty years until two weeks ago. Thirty years ago this brother was in a battle with Indians and as the family never heard from him afterwards they supposed he had been killed. Imagine the surprise of the surviving members of the family when within the last two weeks they received word that he would return to Oil City. This man, who is now sixty-five years old, has traveled all over the world during the thirty years his friends thought him dead.

Christmas Services.
At the First Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday, December 23rd, an appropriate sermon on "God's Love" will be preached by the pastor, Rev. P. A. Reno, in the morning. At the evening service the choir, assisted by others, will render the beautiful cantata, "Shiloh." A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

Next Sunday evening Rev. A. J. Meek, pastor Baptist church, will preach a Christmas sermon. Subject, "The Prince of Peace."

Weeks and His Quartette.
Edwin R. Weeks, the impersonator, and the Cecilian Quartette gave an entertainment in Assembly Hall last Wednesday evening. This was the fourth entertainment in the public school course. As usual there was a large audience present. The entertainment was very good, but it did not surpass the expectations of the people. Mr. Weeks' description of the "boss trade" from "David Harum," his songs, his musical monologues and his operatic novelties were a good entertainment without the assistance of the quartette.

Daughters St. George.
Last Friday evening District Deputy Mary I. Scott, of Pittsburg, installed the following officers in the Daughters of St. George: Past Pres., Mrs. John Pomroy; Pres., Miss Minnie Bassett; V. P., Miss Bessie Pomroy; Financial Sec., Mrs. Wm. Barclay; Rec. Sec., Mrs. Wm. Booker; Treasurer, Mrs. John Trudgen; Conductress, Miss Martha Gricks; Assistant Conductress, Miss Ella Gricks; Chaplain, Mrs. John Babshor; Inside Guard, Mrs. Wm. Northey; Outside Guard, Mrs. Frances Reed.

MID-WINTER MUSICAL.
Lilliputian Carnival Success—The Boys and Girls Played Their Parts Well.
The elements of success are largely inherent in those who succeed. So with those who took part in the Lilliputians' Musical Carnival which was presented in our school Assembly Hall last Friday and Saturday evenings. The play was a grand success, not only from a spectacular consideration, which was certainly excellent, but because the parts were well committed, the weather was good, the crowd, tho' not extra large, was enthusiastic and applauded vociferously, and lastly and by no means the least consideration, the training had been so carefully conducted by Miss Decker that nothing could be suggested that would have improved the presentation.
The effect of the calcium lights was all that could have been desired, the gentle tints timely placed added much to the grand effect.
As a hundred were in the cast we can only mention a few of the more prominent ones.
Wallace Mitchell was certainly at his best in the role of Captain Billy Millions; his singing was good and his manner easy and highly pleasing, and under his captaincy the Polar Star certainly had a most remarkable and successful cruise.
John Coleman as Admiral Dewey was a success, as every one who knew him expected he would be.
Aurora was well played by Allie Irving. Fantasia, Zelma Shaffer, was the accompanying fairy of Aurora.
The boatman, Carl Kiek; Sherlock Holmes, Boyd Lindsay; and Captain Kidd, Fred Despierrre, were strong in their respective parts.
The Cooking Club and the Christoph Columbus chorus were excellent and each were heartily cheered.
An extra word about the training by Miss Decker. It was without fault and the musical was incomparably better than anything in this line ever given in the town and certainly Miss Decker and the management deserve high commendation.

Female Minstrels.
Under the auspices of the W. R. C. the Female Minstrels will be given in the opera house Christmas night. The first part will consist of songs, quartettes, trios, solos, dances, jokes, etc., galore. The end men and middle men—who are women—will certainly entertain the audience while the dusky maidens of the circle in their specialties will bring down the house. The stump speeches will be all right. The second part is composed of a play entitled, "I'd Leave My Happy Home Company." This is full of humor, music, vocal and instrumental, such as banjo, guitar, violin, solos, duets, etc. There will be cake walks by young ladies and song and waltz by a Topsy and amusements too numerous to enumerate. The prices of admission are 15.25 and 35 cents. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store.

Will Not Forget the Giver.
Why not give your friend a Christmas present that will remind them of the giver at least once a week during 1901. A year's subscription to THE STAR would be just the thing, and it will only cost you $1.00. Come into our new office and get a receipt and give that to your friend. We believe such a Christmas present would be appreciated and they would think of you every time they received a copy of the paper.
THE STAR gives the local, county and general news every week. If you are not a subscriber, but a borrower, come in and subscribe. Reynoldsville will boom next year and you will want to keep posted. Subscribe now.

Sons St. George.
Last Friday evening William Copping installed the following officers in Washington Lodge, No. 125, Order Sons of St. George: W. P., George W. Lane; V. P., Joseph Laverick; Treasurer, George W. Sykes; Secretary, Albert H. Neale; Messenger, William Booker; Trustee for eighteen months, John Cottle.
"A Wise Woman," the three-act musical comedy by Willard Clarke, who is also responsible for that great success, "Oh! Susannah!" has been secured for the near future at the Reynolds opera house. This is a fortunate booking for Manager Reynolds and one worthy of special notice as the attraction is to be seen in but very few one-night stands this season, its time having been almost entirely booked in the larger cities of the strength of the company.
