A Christmas story and other Christmas matter will be found on an inside page of this issue. There will be a policeman at the opera house Christmas night to keep order. Those who are inclined to be boisterous in the opera house had better remember this notice. "Rev. Dr. Waters' lecture drew many people. This brilliant young Chicagoan is bright, witty, crisp, and right to the point."—Rockford Morning Star. At Assembly Hall Tuesday, Jan. 15th. Over one hundred shares of capital stock of the Summerville Telephone Company will be sold at public auction at the general office of the corporation in Summerville on Wednesday, January 10th, 1901. Joseph Henry Snyder, seven-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, died Friday of pneumonia, and was buried in Prospect cemetery Sunday afternoon. Rev. J. C. McEntire conducted the funeral service. Don't forget that the Altar Society of the Catholic church will serve supper in the Star building two nights, New Year's Eve and New Year's evening, and also dinner on New Year's day. Ice cream and cake will be served during the evening. Pansy Foust is now a full-fledged school girl. Twenty-one little friends helped her celebrate her sixth birthday last Tuesday. They had a pleasant time eating of the good things prepared by Pansy's mother and romping and playing as happy children can. Richard Murray, who reached his majority December 17th, was given a birthday surprise party on the evening of the day when he became his own boss. There were about forty friends present. Richard was given a rocking chair as a birthday present. Ice cream and cake were served. "No easier or more graceful speaker ever stood on a platform than Rev. Dr. Waters. His words flow and their rhythm is musical. He seems to be absolutely ex tempore, and yet as finished as an essayist. He speaks right on, and from first to last you are under his power."—Chicago Tribune. At Assembly Hall Tuesday, Jan. 15th. Of all self-acknowledged puppies, the young man who speaks lightly of female character and female virtue deserves the highest place in the congregation of moral lopers. There is no more certain indication of a weak brain than the tongue which would disparage female virtue—which would forget its mother or its sister, in casting its foul venom on a purity which it can never hope to attain.—Ex. The county commissioners' triennial statement shows the amount of real and personal property in Jefferson county to be as follows: No. of taxables, 18,941; No. of acres, 442,602; value of real estate, $11,704,845; No. of horses, 7,448; value of horses, $223,209; No. of cows, 6,389; value of cows, $78,794; value of pigs, $78,794; value of occupation, $778,340; total value, $12,785,188; money at interest, $823,044. A delicious morsel in the musical farce, "A Wise Woman," is the introduction of a quaintly melodious southern "crooning" song and lullaby, done by Miss Marie Lamour. The music of this number is said to be extremely catchy and easy to remember, and so popular does it immediately become that it is whistled and hummed by all the small boys and by many of the big ones wherever the play is produced. All the churches were well attended Sunday and appropriate services were held in each one of them. "Prince of Peace" was Dr. A. J. Meek's subject Sunday evening. The Sunday school rendered an excellent program in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. At the M. E. church Sunday evening the beautiful oratorio-cantata, "Shiloh," was rendered by the choir, assisted by others. It was certainly well rendered. The Low Grade passenger crews on the through runs have been changed to make a double run from Driftwood to Red Bank and return in one day and then have two days lay off each week. This was their run for several years, but within the last year it was changed so that one crew would lay over at Red Bank and in case a west bound train was late there would be a crew at Red Bank to start out on time on eastbound train, but the way the crews are running now if a westbound through train is over a half hour late the east bound through train will be late leaving Red Bank as the crew on westbound returns on the eastbound.

No Paper Next Week. We will not issue a paper next week. The office will be open to do job work and receive money on subscriptions. Call and see us. Lost a Finger. George Smith, an employe on McDonald's log train, had the forefinger of his right hand so badly injured while making a coupling Thursday that the finger had to be amputated. S. of V. Officers. At the last regular meeting of Phil. Kearney Camp, No. 35, Sons of Veterans, the following officers were elected: Captain, C. J. McPherson; 1st Lieutenant, Wood Sharpe; 2nd Lieutenant, J. W. Kirkwood; Camp Council, George W. Stoke, Jr., A. M. Woodward and W. H. Ford. Unanimous Verdict. From our many articles the past few weeks received from various sources it will be seen that the comedy farce, "A Wise Woman," is a strictly first-class attraction with more originality and novel features than any company that has yet visited us. It remains to be seen how they will be appreciated. "Scrap" Saturday Evening. "Fire water" and an old grudge among some of the glass workers was the cause of a lively "scrap" Saturday evening. One fellow pulled a revolver out of his pocket and threw it on the floor and the weapon went off, the ball striking a shoe of one of the participants in the row. It was more by good luck than anything else that some person was not shot. Entirely too many people carry revolvers. Wedding This Afternoon. At 4:00 p. m. to-day, December 24th, a pretty home wedding will take place at the residence of James Pomroy, Worth street, when their daughter, Miss Bessie, will be married to Thomas Davidson. Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church, will be the officiating minister. Miss Minnie Pomroy, sister of the bride, and James Davidson, brother of the groom, will act as bridesmaid and groomsmen. A large number of guests have been invited. After the twain have been pronounced man and wife a wedding supper will be served. This young couple have a host of friends in town who will wish them joy and prosperity as they travel life's pathway together. Home for Vacation. The following students, whom we did not mention last week, are home for the holiday vacation: James G. Pentz, Allegheny College, Meadville, Walter B. Y., Harry C. Herpel, High School, Ithaca, N. Y., C. L. Kaucher and Joseph B. Mitchell, Medico-Chirurgical College, Philadelphia, Clarence H. Reynolds, Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, Philadelphia, M. Fred Reed, Syracuse (N. Y.) University, Arthur W. McClure, State College, Joseph Macro, Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Misses Amy Reno and Edith Beck, Woman's College, Baltimore, Miss Elva Coleman, Bucknell University, Lewisburg; Miss Elsie Ross, Clarion State Normal. The Teachers' Institute. The forty-fifth annual session of the teachers' institute was held in Brookville last week and out of the 326 teachers employed in the county, 323 attended the institute. The teachers of the county, or any person interested in school work, could not ask for a better institute than the one held in our county last week, for which credit is due our worthy and wide-awake county superintendent, Prof. R. H. Teitrick, who does not try to see how cheap he can get an institute through for, but who expends money for the best talent that can be procured. If the teachers of our county will attend such institutes as the one last week and are not better prepared afterward to take up school work, they had better quit teaching. Wells-Phillips. Addison J. Wells and Miss Ella S. Phillips, two young people well known in town, will be married at 7:00 p. m. Wednesday evening, December 20th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Phillips, on Jackson street, in the presence of the immediate relatives of both parties and a few friends. Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church, will perform the wedding ceremony. Miss Carrie Carrier will act as bridesmaid and Chester B. Clover as groomsmen. After the nuptial knot is tied a wedding supper will be served. Mr. Wells is getting a house ready in West Reynoldsville and the young couple expect to go to housekeeping not later than the first of the New Year. Their many friends will wish Addison and Ella much happiness and a good share of prosperity. Rally and Watch Meeting. The Baptist Young People's Union will hold a rally and watch meeting in the Baptist church New Year's Eve, from 8:00 to 12:00. The program will be as follows: Devotional services; address, president; selection, octet; "Our Outlook for the 20th Century," Lucile Mitchell; solo, Florence Ferrin; "The B. Y. P. U. as a Factor in the Development of Christian Character," Maud Rose; duet, Florence and Marion Harris; recitation, Anna Davis; solo, Mrs. H. Eugene Phillips; letters from absent members; recitation, Minnie B. Whitmore; selection, trio; intermission and lunch; prayer and consecration meeting led by Thomas Gulliford. Subject, "Suffering for Christ's Sake." The watch meeting will close promptly at midnight, when the church bell will ring out the 19th and ring in the 20th century. The largest and most complete line of slippers in town. Robinson's. Mufflers of all kind at Millirens. Genuine leather pocket books at Gooder's, the jeweler. Monarch shirts at Millirens. A PATRIARCH GONE. Elisha B. McClelland Expired December 18th—Buried Thursday Forenoon. Elisha Borland McClelland died at his home in West Reynoldsville Tuesday, December 18th, at 3:30 p. m. Funeral services were held in the M. E. church at 10:00 a. m. Thursday, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Perry A. Reno, and interment was made in the Reynoldsville Cemetery. The deceased was born at Pine Grove, Centre county, Pa., December 19th, 1823, and had lived one day longer would have been 77 years old. He was married to Susan Powell February 22, 1848. Of them eleven children were born, five of whom preceded the father across the River of Death. Mr. McClelland resided in Clarion county many years and was constable in Porter township, Clarion county, two terms. He had been a faithful and earnest member of the Methodist Episcopal church over 42 years. He died peacefully trusting the Great King. The wife, five daughters and one son survive the deceased, as follows: Mrs. M. Mohney, Mrs. Ed. Swanson, Mrs. Ed. Scholtz, Mrs. Thomas Tappan, Mrs. J. W. Folk, of this place, and John McClelland. Clarion Railroad Company. It was stated in THE STAR last week that a standard gauge railroad would be built from Clarion to Summerville. At a meeting held in Clarion last Wednesday evening the Clarion Railroad Company was organized. The officers of the new road are as follows: President, John C. Whitla, of Pittsburg; directors, Mr. Estep, of Pittsburg; Mr. Reeves, of Beaver Falls, Dr. Haven, of Summerville, I. M. Shannon, A. G. Corbett and R. G. Yingling, of Clarion. The Clarion Republican says: "As we understand the matter, surveys and rights-of-way will be finished this winter, and work on the road will be commenced in the spring and finished at the earliest possible time. The road will be completed and in operation by June 19th, 1902, at the very latest." It is expected that $200,000 will build the road. The citizens of Clarion subscribed $50,000 and outside capitalists $150,000. There will be a shaking among the dry bones when Clarion gets in touch with the outside world. This will be the best $50,000 investment that town ever made. Falls Creek in July. There was a good attendance at the Jefferson county school directors' convention held in Brookville last Thursday, and the convention was interesting. There were several warm discussions. A high school in every township was discussed. The townships where high schools have been established are well pleased with the results. There was also some talk of establishing central schools in townships and doing away with so many schools. This scheme is young yet and was not received with open arms. Jacob C. Smith, of Young township, was elected president of the directors' association for 1901, and John Dougherty, of Winslow township, was selected as one of the vice-presidents. Will H. Tyson, of Big Run, was elected secretary. Dr. J. B. Neale, of this place, was elected as one of the delegates to State convention. The county convention will be held in Falls Creek next July. New Year—New Century. We will soon enter a new year and begin a new century. Some of our readers will, undoubtedly, live to see 1901 ticked off and 1902 ushered in, but few, if any, will live to see the 20th century give place to the 21st century. We do not expect to be editing THE STAR when the 21st century dawns. We mention this to warn any of our subscribers who are thinking of paying their subscription one century ahead that we will not be responsible for at least the last two years of the 20th century, for if we have not been called hence by that time we think we will have made enough money in the newspaper business to retire and live the remaining years in this life without working, therefore, to save trouble don't pay your subscription farther ahead than 1908. We wish all our subscribers and readers a very merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year. Letter List. A POSTMASTER MARRIED. George B. Bowser and Miss Jennie McIntosh Joined the Matrimonial Ranks. Geo. B. Bowser, Rathmel's accommodating postmaster and prominent groceryman, and Miss Jennie McIntosh, one of Rathmel's charming and highly esteemed young ladies, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at 8 p. m., December 19th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McIntosh, by Rev. Chisholm, Presbyterian pastor of Falls Creek. Miss Margaret McIntosh, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and H. S. Wyant was groomsmen. It was the greatest social event in Rathmel this season. One hundred and seventy-five guests were present. An excellent wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bowser received a large number of useful and valuable presents. The band serenaded them. The benedict and bride have gone to housekeeping. THE STAR joins with their many friends in extending congratulations and wishing them joy and happiness. When Appeals Will be Held. Also in either direction between Allegheny and Butler. These tickets will be limited for return passage until January 2, inclusive. Half tickets at one-half above rate will be sold for children between the ages of five and twelve years. Will Not Forget the Giver. Why not give your friend a Christmas present that will remind them of the giver at least once a week during 1901. A year's subscription to THE STAR would be just the thing, and it will only cost you $1.00. Come into our new office and get a receipt and give that to your friend. We believe such a Christmas present would be appreciated and they would think of you every time they received a copy of the paper. THE STAR gives the local, county and general news every week. A Reynoldsville gentleman who has leisure enough at his disposal to grapple with such important questions as the heading of this article, says: "The people don't mean what they say when they ask for a dressed turkey and want an undressed turkey." When asked to explain he said: "Don't you know that when a turkey has its feathers on it is dressed and when the feathers are off it is undressed?" Fortune Smiles on Them. We have received personal and unquestionable information from the east that "A Wise Woman" is making the strongest kind of a hit and have been doing an enormous business. Since the day it was started the management have been digging out and adding to it without fear or favor, until now it stands without an equal in its line. Suggestion Meeting.
