

The Star.

Subscription $1.00 per year, or $1.00 if paid strictly in advance.

A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1901.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class. Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Froehlich-Heury Block. Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon. Subscription price $1.00 per year, in advance. Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa. Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

Speaking of Newspapers.

With a news gathering service sweeping the world down to the last second, and with an editorial page the product of judgment, ability, force, discrimination and real humor, The Pittsburg Times is conspicuous as a daily newspaper that is good reading always. It is safe to assert that there are more clippings of news events worth preserving and of general information made from The Times than from any other paper published in Pittsburg. Like a good home, it is tidy, clean, comfortable, and with everything of the best one finds within its pages information, instruction, comfort and pleasure as he may desire. That it conducts no type foundry's vandoville of freak headlines makes it the pride of the craft. It is not above republishing from the humble country papers and with whatever it uses it invariably gives full credit. "The Wooden Indian," quaint in his philosophy, has tomahawked to death many a tired, unhappy feeling. The serial story, of the best, is told in installments neither too close together nor too far apart. The editorials are written with sincerity, directness of expression, and reliability of information that make the page the daily text book of many a person in life's school of facts. Giving other people the right of individual opinion it is never a scold or a nagger. The Times, first and above all, is reliable. Its telegraphic service covers civilization. Its local news is crisp and honest. Its financial and market reports are accurate. The sporting world is covered in an attractive way. The social field is carefully and intelligently cultivated. Six cents a week.

Letter to John Trudgen.

Reynoldsville, Pa.

Dear Sir: Your business is, when a house burns down to give the owner some money to build a new one. It is a good business, queer that the world got on so long without it.

We paint the one that burned down and the new one too. What is better, we paint the ones that don't burn down.

You insure the houses that burn; we insure the houses that don't. You have the ashes and smoke; all the houses are ours.

We paint lead and zinc; Devco. We sell the paint to painters; we don't paint.

Lead and oil is the old-fashion paint. Devco is zinc ground in with the lead and linseed oil—same proportions as used by U. S. Government; the best paint in the world; and the cheapest, because the work is all done by machinery.

Nobody wants poor paint; there's lots of it, though, in the world.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVCO & CO.

Resolutions.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by Mountain Cliff Castle, No. 359, K. G. E., January 17, 1901:

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, God, in His all-wise judgment, has taken from our midst a true and beloved brother, Charles Harris, to that realm of everlasting bliss, we hope that our Heavenly father will show to him that mercy which he is willing to show to them that serve Him here on earth; therefore be it

Resolved, That we express our heartfelt sympathy to the widow and fatherless children, trusting that our Father who is in heaven may protect them in this, their hour of trial. Be it also

Resolved, That as an expression of our esteem that our charter be draped for a period of thirty days, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow, and that they be spread upon the record of our Castle.

Blown to Atoms.

The old idea that the body sometimes needs a powerful, drastic, purgative pill has been exploded, for Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are perfectly harmless, gently stimulate liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter, cleanse the system and absolutely cure constipation and sick headache. Only 25c at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.

Take a piece of flannel about a foot square and cover it with Clydesdale Ointment, place on your chest over night, same as you would a mustard plaster, and by morning cold will be gone. No congestion—all danger past. Remember, the jar with a red top. 25c. Sold by all druggists.

Local Institute.

Minutes of the teachers' local institute held at the Grange hall, Paradise, Pa., Jan. 19, 1901:

Meeting was called to order at 11.00 a. m. by Mr. Wayne Breaker. After devotional exercises, conducted by Noah Syphrit, these officers were elected: President, Wayne Breaker; Secretary, Edith M. Kuntz.

The first topic taken up was "How to Prevent Tardiness." The subject was opened and very ably discussed by H. M. Foltz, after which Messrs. Norris, McCall, Shagle, Syphrit, Miller, London and Supt. Tetrick gave some very good discussions on the subject. The following methods were advanced: Arouse curiosity in pupils. Convince pupils that it is their duty to be prompt. Arouse parents to greater activity in the morning. Cultivate a strong public sentiment against it.

A very pleasing recitation was given by Bertha Little, after which the institute adjourned until 1.30.

A bountiful repast was served in the hall by the good people of Paradise, to which all did ample justice.

The afternoon session was opened with singing. The next topic, "Why Don't the Citizens Take More Interest in the Schools?" was opened and well discussed by Mr. Lewis Ludwick.

Messrs. W. A. London and John Norris gave talks that were highly appreciated by all present.

Mr. W. P. Miller spoke of education as compared with money.

Supt. Tetrick gave a highly instructive talk. He spoke of the organization of the free school system. His leading thought was, raise the taxes and give a better education.

"The Necessity of Co-operation of Teacher, Patron and Director" was opened by W. A. London. Some good discussions followed by Messrs. Syphrit, Wilson, Miller and Jones.

Supt. Tetrick gave an address on "Intellect Against Will." He urged thoroughness in all school work.

Miss Ella Syphrit favored the institute with a fine recitation, after which a vote of thanks was given to the people of Paradise for their hospitality.

Motion by Mr. Hawk that the next institute be held at Rathmel.

Adjournment. EDITH M. KUNTZ.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phoebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes Constipation, improves appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.
