A Little of Everything.

"A Noble Outcast." Now for sleighing parties. Saturday is groundhog day. "A Noble Outcast" Feb. 6th. The Winslow township school board met at Frank's Tavern Saturday. The indications are favorable this morning for excellent sleighing. Several new members were initiated the Elk lodge last Thursday evening. About fifty employes of the silk mill were off duty on account of having the grip. The Democrats of West Reynoldsville will hold their primary election this evening. About a dozen parents and patrons visited the West Reynoldsville schools at Wednesday. Howard & Garing's moving pictures at the Reynoldsville opera house to-morrow, Tuesday, evening. A number of our merchants are making clearance sales and giving the public extraordinary bargains. The Prohibitionists of West Reynoldsville will hold their primary election Thursday evening. There was good sleighing on Main street Sunday and the jingle of sleigh bells was heard all afternoon. An I. O. O. F. lodge was instituted at Lota, this county, last week. The lodge starts with 25 members. Staff Captain March, of New York City, will lead a special meeting at Salvation Army hall this evening. You will be sorry if you don't hear the Temple Male Quartet in Assembly hall on Thursday evening, Jan. 31. The Reynoldsville Milling Company's building is about completed and they are now waiting for the machinery. Bang with voices of rare sweetness.—Philadelphia North American. At Assembly hall Friday evening, Feb. 1st. The C. L. S. C. meets this evening at 8.30 at the home of the president, Rev. P. A. Reno. A full attendance is desired. Charles Arnold, the West Reynoldsville butcher, has a bone grinder that is used for grinding bones for chicken feed. Florence Green had her nose badly injured a few days ago while coasting. It was first thought her nose was broken. William Gorman, a snapper at the glass plant, had his left leg badly hurt yesterday by a cylinder breaking and falling on his leg. Crowded by an eager multitude. The most interesting visitor Manchester has had in a long time.—Manchester (N. H.) Union. At Assembly hall Feb. 1st. Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Baptist church, will administer the ordinance of Baptism in that church during the week ending Feb. 1st. Temple Male Quartette, which sang in Assembly hall Thursday evening, the best male quartette in this county to-day. Price of admission 25 cents. Papers and paper hangers are at the interior of Hotel McConnell when they have finished their work, the hotel will look as bright as a day. Philadelphia paper says of the quartet, "Never before have we heard such singing in this county. It is a delighting large audience."

Farmers' institute will be held at Paradise Grange on Friday and Saturday, February 15th and 16th. An excellent picture of Queen Victoria and a sketch of her life will be found on an inside page of this issue. Rev. F. B. Williams, pastor of the Brookville Baptist church, preached in the Baptist church at this place Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week. Daniel Nolan, jr., had a small bone of his left ankle broken last Friday in a little fracas that he got tangled up in while trying to act as peace-maker. Marvelously sweet voices. Astonished the large audience. Captivated the people.—Boston Advertiser. At Assembly hall Friday evening, February 1st. We overheard a traveling man say one day last week that the "African Boy Chole" will be the best thing that has struck the town in many days." At Assembly hall Friday evening. The meaning of the term "Pan-American" is "pertaining to or including both North and South America." The Pan-American Exposition therefore comprises all of the New World or Western Hemispheres. In giving an account last week of the accidents on Stratwell, Hibbard & Co.'s coal road at Fuller's station, some of our exchanges said the railroad is 11 miles long. The road is not quite one mile and a half long. Special meetings are still in progress in the M. E. and Baptist churches, but it is probable the meetings will close to-morrow evening, at least the pastors have only made their announcements for to-morrow evening. Thomas Gricks, sr., and wife were out riding Sunday afternoon and their horse ran away and they were thrown out of the sleigh. Mrs. Gricks' left arm was badly injured. It was reported that her arm was broken, but it was not. Work has been delayed in starting the drill in the well on the Schukers farm on account of having to take out the casing. The casing was put in yesterday. The company fully expect to find oil or gas in paying quantity in this well. M. C. Coleman went to Summerville to-day to look after some lumber interests at that place. Since sufficient snow fell to make sledding 25,000 feet of lumber is being hauled from the Coleman tract to the railroad siding at Summerville daily. The P. R. R. machine shops are to be moved from Reynoldsville to East Brady. This will take four families away from our town. W. S. Stone, L. C. Brody, W. A. Smith and George Youngert. Three families will move to East Brady and Mr. Brody will move to Driftwood. Edwin Gazzard and Miss Edith Jackson, of Allegheny City, were married at Steubenville, Ohio, last Friday. Miss Jackson, who is a sister of Mrs. H. Alex. Stoke, of this place, was well known here and has many friends in town who wish her happiness in the matrimonial life. James McCloskey sued this borough for $19.00 for work done by his daughter in taking care of a woman who was on the borough. The overseers poor refused to pay the bill as they had nothing to do with the contracting of bill. The case was tried before Judge Reed yesterday. A fellow from the rural district entered one of our stores several days ago to pay a bill and there was fifty cents' difference in the account. He refused to pay the bill, persisted in being insulting and would not go out of the store until he finally had to be handled roughly and was then glad to get out. The teachers and pupils of Sandy Valley school were greatly encouraged in their respective work by the large number of visitors on Parents' and Patrons' Day. There were twenty-four visitors present. Specimens of penmanship, which had been written by the pupils, adorned the walls and were greatly admired by all. "Down by the Dear Old Swance River's Shore," is the title of the latest composition by Arthur H. Haskins, of this place. We have a copy of the new song and consider it a creditable production. Mr. Haskins, who is youthful yet, bids fair to become a noted musician. We are proud to claim such a genius as a resident of Reynoldsville. On account of the bad condition of the Stratwell, Hibbard & Co.'s railroad at Fuller, which was built after the ground was frozen last fall, that company has decided not to run their fifteen ton engine over the road until the road-bed is ballasted, after the frost goes out of the ground in the spring. In the mean time the cars will be dropped down to tippie without engine and will be hauled back to the mine by mules. There is a boarder at Frank's Tavern whom the proprietor had been trying to persuade to go to church every Sunday morning for several months, but the boarder always offered excuses. Last Sunday morning the fellow said he would go to church if there was not so much snow and ice on the sidewalks. Mr. McConnell said he would hitch up the horse and sleigh and take him to church, and the fellow dared McConnell to do it. At church time the horse and sleigh were ready and as a consequence the M. E. congregation was increased one Sunday morning.

Finger Amputated. Mrs. John Mulligan had one of the fingers of her right hand amputated in the DuBois hospital last Friday. About four weeks ago Mrs. Mulligan was scouring forks and pricked her finger. Blood poison set in and the finger had to be amputated. Enters Guard College To-day. George W. Barrett, the lad who has been staying with his grandfather, George McGrody, on Jackson street, will be admitted to the Guard College, Philadelphia, to-day. Mrs. Cora Barrett, the boy's mother, who now resides at Ridgway, took him to Philadelphia yesterday. Rathmel Correspondent. For some reason our regular correspondent at Rathmel has failed to send in any news for sometime and we have been getting an occasional letter from another person in that town. We expect to make arrangements to get a correspondent at Rathmel who will furnish news every week. Died Last Night. James Lindsey Moore died at the home of his son, James M. Moore, in West Reynoldsville last night. The deceased was about 82 years old. He was a brother of Mrs. Frances Best and Mrs. Mary A. Stewart, of this place. Will be buried in the Beechwoods Friday forenoon. An obituary notice will be published next week. Subject for a Reformatory. If one-half the statements are correct that have been made to the school directors of Winslow township, there is a lad attending one of the township schools not far from here that is a very good subject for the Huntington Reform school. Unless the parents see that the boy acts at least half civilized the case should be attended to immediately. Such conduct should not be tolerated a day longer. We understand the directors have taken the matter in hand. "A Noble Outcast." The celebrated drama, "A Noble Outcast," will be produced in the opera house Feb. 6th, by a strong company of home talent for the benefit of the Catholic church. The play is one of those realistic dramas devoid of blood and thunder scenes and whose popularity has been demonstrated by the successful runs it has enjoyed in all the large cities in our country. Those having the management in hand are leaving nothing undone to make the play a success. Mulligan-Lee. Wednesday morning, January 23rd, John Mulligan, formerly of New York City, and Miss Mary Lee, of this place, were married at the Catholic church by Father Driscoll. Miss Frances O'Connors was bridesmaid and Frank Hanley groomsmen. Mr. and Mrs. Mulligan and Mr. Hanley and Miss O'Connors drove to DuBois and took dinner at the Alpine House. They returned to Reynoldsville in time for a wedding supper, which was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Edward O'Rielly. Mr. Mulligan has rented a house and they will go to housekeeping soon. Temple Male Quartette. The last number in the Y. M. C. A. course was given last evening before an audience that taxed the seating capacity of the auditorium. Every entertainment has been excellent, and the concert last evening was the crowning number. They are all artists, and the frequent applause and encores denoted clearly the pleasure of the audience. A crowded house would be sure to greet the Temples should they again visit Burlington.—Burlington (Vt.) Free Press. At Assembly hall Thursday evening, Jan. 31st. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store. Admission 25 cents. Nothing extra for reserved seats. Bold Hobo. James Delaney and sisters live in rooms on second floor of Nolan block and last Friday a bold hobo, who was prowling around, found his way up to Delaney's rooms and stole a pair of portiers off the pole, slipped the portiers under his coat and skipped without being caught. Jimmie McKay, nephew of Mr. Delaney, met the hobo on the stairs and noticed the tassels sticking out under the tramp's coat. Jimmie hastened up stairs and told his mother, but the tramp escaped. He sold the portiers to Mr. McDonald on Pleasant avenue for a dollar and proceeded to another town. When Mr. McDonald learned that the portiers had been stolen he returned them to Mr. Delaney. Another False Fire Alarm. The clang! clang! of the fire bell at 6.50 a. m. last Saturday routed a number of people out of bed a trifle before their regular getting up time, and a number of firemen were at the hose house in a very few seconds, and when informed that A. C. Pierce's house, on Jackson street, was afire they were soon speeding up Main street with a hose cart. The hose was attached to the plug at corner of Main and Fifth streets, but by that time the fire lads were informed that it was a false alarm. The soot in the flue had caught fire and a stream of sparks was rolling out and some person jumped to the conclusion that the house was afire and run down town and gave the alarm. This is the fourth or fifth time that the hobo company has been called out recently by false alarms.

DEATH OF MRS. MYERS. Died Suddenly From Neuralgia of Heart—Buried Monday Afternoon. Mrs. Abigail Myers, widow of Jeremiah H. Myers, died suddenly at her home on Main street about one o'clock Saturday morning, January 28th. Her death was caused by neuralgia of the heart. About ten days before she died Mrs. Myers was troubled with neuralgia in her head, and from her head it went to her stomach and finally reached her heart. While she had not been feeling well for several days, yet Mrs. Myers was not confined to bed. She retired about 11.00 Friday night feeling better than she had been feeling for a couple of days, but about 1.00 a. m. she called her daughter, Mrs. Willard, and told her she was very sick. Mrs. Willard went down stairs to turn on more fire and Mrs. Myers followed her down. She said she wanted to vomit and the daughter was holding a bowl in front of her when Mrs. Myers fell off the chair, and never spoke afterwards. A doctor was hastily summoned but when he arrived the spirit of Mother Myers had taken its flight. Abigail Puff was born in Allegheny county June 5, 1830, making her in her 71st year. June 3rd, 1847, she was married to Jeremiah H. Myers, who died June 2nd, 1900. She was the mother of eight children, three of whom survive her, Mrs. G. W. Campbell, of New Castle, Mrs. Elizabeth Willard and Mrs. Thomas E. Evans, of this place. The deceased is also survived by one brother, Franklin Puff, of Bakerstown, Pa., who is now dangerously ill. Mrs. Myers joined the Baptist church in Punxsutawney a half century ago, and some years ago transferred her membership to the Reynoldsville Baptist church. Mrs. Myers was a consistent christian, devoted wife, loving mother and kind neighbor. Funeral services were held at the residence at 2.00 p. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Baptist church, and interment was made in the Reynoldsville Cemetery beside the husband. Mr. Myers died on Saturday morning, June 2nd, 1900, and was buried the following Monday afternoon. Mrs. Myers died last Saturday morning and was buried Monday afternoon. Editorial Association Meeting. The annual business meeting of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association was held in Harrisburg last Wednesday, at which time the following officers were elected for 1901: President, A. B. Burk, Ledger, Philadelphia; 1st vice-president, C. T. Fox, News, Reading; 2nd vice-president, Frank Vogle, Democrat, Greensburg; 3rd vice-president, D. Lamade, Grit, Williamsport; secretary and treasurer, Col. R. J. Thomas, Farmers' Friend, Mechanicsburg; assistant sec. and treas., R. J. Thomas, jr., Journal, Mechanicsburg; cor. sec., Mrs. J. W. Stofer, Chronicle, Elizabethtown; executive committee, Harry A. Thompson, Times, Tyrone, E. B. McKee, Review, Towanda, C. A. Stephenson, The Star, Reynoldsville, R. T. Wiley, Herald, Elizabeth, Senator M. L. McQuown, Journal, Clearfield. Every editor in the state should attend the annual business meeting as matters of importance to all editors are discussed. It was decided to hold the summer outing at Buffalo, N. Y., this year some time in June, the time to be decided by the executive committee. It is likely it will be held the first week in June. Rare Musical Treat. The Temple Male Quartet of Boston has been engaged to sing in Assembly hall on a special engagement on Thursday night of this week. This quartet now holds first place among all quartets. This is saying a great deal, but the work of the company fully bears out the statement. The people of Reynoldsville are especially favored by this rare opportunity to hear them. The management has confidence in the people of this place to appreciate a great musical company like this and it is only for the purpose of giving the town a rare musical treat that the company has been engaged at all. The admission has been made very low in order that there may be a full house. It will doubtless be a long time before such talent as this will again be heard in Reynoldsville at such a low price. Seats are now on sale at Stoke's drug store. A Little "Bunny." "The Fat Men's Club" that was played at the Reynoldsville opera house Friday and Saturday evenings of last week was not first-class. The company claimed that they remained here the second night by special request, but even the manager of the opera house has not learned yet who requested the second night's performance. Free Lecture. Father Doyle, a noted temperance lecturer of New York City, will deliver a free lecture in the Catholic church at eight o'clock next Friday evening, February 1st. Father Doyle is sent out by the Catholic temperance society. He is highly spoken of as a lecturer. New styles in Walk-Over. Ask to see the Bluchers, $3.50 at Robinson's. Williams' shoes excel all others in quality and price. Coats at Sutter's at one-half their actual cost. It pays to buy Robinson's shoes. Special prices in gloves at Sutter's. W. E. Lucas, the plumber, is ready to do all kinds of work in his line. Shop on Fifth street, near gas office. The Ultra shoes for women, price $3.50 at Robinson's.

PRIMARY ELECTIONS. Political Parties of Boroughs and Township Nominate Tickets For Feb. Election. Following are tickets nominated by some of the political parties in Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville and Winslow township: DEMOCRAT TICKET. The Democrats of this borough nominated the following ticket last Thursday evening for the February election: Justice of the peace—C. F. Hoffman. Town council—Henry Deible, Dr. Harry B. King. Thomas, northwest, A. A. Stewart. Don't Agree With Editor Smith. ROCKDALE MILLS, Jan. 25, 1901. EDITOR THE STAR—I see by THE STAR that the Punxsutawney Spirit thinks that Aiello ought to be pardoned. The Spirit misrepresented the case all the way through. Louis Scallo did not go into Joseph Aiello's house, but Joseph Aiello went into Louis Scallo's house and stabbed him three times in his own house. There was no evidence in court to show that Scallo went into Aiello's house and brandished a knife about the heads of his wife and children. I don't think that Editor Smith could have been in court and heard the evidence or he would not have published that article. Yours Truly, ONE THAT HEARD THE EVIDENCE. Letter List. List of unclaimed letters remaining in the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., week ending Jan. 26, 1901: Mrs. Frank Dix, Mrs. Olive Reed. Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above. A. M. WOODWARD, P. M. The Temple Male Quartette is the best musical organization that will appear in Reynoldsville for many a day. Be sure to hear them in Assembly hall Thursday night. Tickets now on sale at Stoke's, 25c. Sixty acres fine farming land, having thereon a good six room house on stone wall; number one cellar; also large bank barn and small barn; good orchard; never failing supply of splendid well water; good market near farm. Will sell at low price or exchange for town property. M. M. FISHER, Cor. 7th and Hill streets. Gibson, whose optical ad. appears in another column, has been very successful. See his dates. Sixty pairs of misses' shoes that were formerly $1.50, now 75c., sizes 11 to 2 at Williams'. Tablets given away with school shoes at Johnston & Nolan's. Ladies' undershirts at Sutter's at reduced prices. John Flynn, merchant tailor, makes up-to-date suits. Try him. Williams' shoes. Latest styles in shoes at Johnston & Nolan's shoe parlors.
