Rev. A. P. Doyle, of New York City, National Secretary of the C. T. A. U. of A., delivered a free temperance lecture in the Catholic church at this place last Friday evening. The attendance was not very large, but the lecture was fine. Rev. Doyle is an eloquent talker.

A party of West Reynoldsville married ladies were at Punxsutawney Monday night sleighing. They left here about 4:00 Monday and did not reach Punxsy until about mid-night. A break down caused the delay in reaching Punxsy. The ladies got home at six o'clock yesterday morning.

Forty Hours Devotion closed in the Catholic Church at 8:30 yesterday morning. Fathers McGivney and Driscoll, of DuBois, Father Lynch, of Brookwayville, Father O'Sullivan, of New Bethlehem, Father Joseph, of Adrian, and Father Winkler, of Brookville, assisted Fathers Brady and Driscoll.

Two young men drove to DuBois Friday evening and came home the following morning on the train. The whyfore of the home coming on a train was because the horse became unmanageable, upset occupants out of the sleigh and ran away, never stopping until it reached the livery stable in this place.

On account of the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Thompson at 10:00 a. m. Sunday the communion service in the Baptist church was deferred until next Sunday morning. A number of members will be received into the fellowship of the Baptist church Sunday morning before the Lord's Supper is administered.

The LaPorte Comedy company needs no praise from any newspaper. They made their first appearance at the Broadway last evening with a clean cut drama entitled 'Master and Man,' which gave entire satisfaction. The specialties alone were well worth the price of admission.—Naticoke Daily News. At the Reynolds opera house three nights, commencing Thursday evening, February 7th.

A number of Elks had decided to drive to Brookville Monday afternoon and it was not until after Liveryman Tapper had four fiery steeds hitched to his nobby 'Martha Washington' sled and had driven up in front of the lodge rooms that the Elks backed out because the wind howled a little and a few snow flakes were flying in the breeze. About the same hour a sleighing party of married ladies started to Punxsutawney, regardless of the snow and wind.

D. H. McIntyre, general manager of the Jefferson Supply Co.'s stores, has shown in a substantial manner his appreciation of the willingness and promptness with which our fire boys turn out to answer an alarm. Twice recently they have responded in amazingly quick time to calls from one of his stores. Mr. McIntyre's appreciation was shown not in words only, but accompanied by a good healthy check for $25.00, sent to Hope Fire company.

A heavy coal train running down the P. R. R., between Sabula and Driftwood, broke in two. The train was stopped, coupled and started again when the men on rear end of train noticed a coal car in the ditch. They stopped the train to investigate and found that when the train broke a car had jumped the track and rolled into ditch without affecting any other part of the train, and had it not been for the discovery of the car by the men in caboose the trainmen would have gone into Driftwood without knowing they had lost a car out of their train.

Verdict for Poor District.

In the case of Katie McClusky vs. poor overseers of Reynoldsville Borough District, tried in the Jefferson County Court last week, a verdict was given in favor of the borough district.

Teacher Resigned.

John S. Ross, principal of the Prescottville schools, was compelled to resign his position on account of his eyes troubling him. Mr. Ross, who is a good teacher, wanted to resign before this but his friends persuaded him to keep at the work, hoping his eyes would get better.

Mr. Smith has moved his household goods to Prescottville. He expects to go to Punxsutawney for a short time and will start another bakery somewhere after while.

Another Strike at Silk Mill.

There is another strike on at the silk mill, but all the employes are not out this time. One of the employes was discharged Monday forenoon and at noon a large number of the employes struck in sympathy. The superintendent informed us that the employe was discharged because he persisted in leaving his work to go to other parts of the mill, and that he had been warned that unless he desisted from that practice he would be discharged. This employe was a member of the committee to get a Union organized here and the strikers say they think that had some thing to do with his being discharged, and that is why they came out on strike.

Soldier's Widow.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Thompson died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Montgomery, on Main street, last Friday, from a complication of diseases and old age. She was born in Westmoreland county, Pa., March 5, 1827. Her husband, John Thompson, was killed at the battle of Bull Run in 1862. Mrs. Thompson had been a faithful member of the Baptist church for 65 years. Funeral services were held at the residence of Mrs. Montgomery at 10:00 a. m., Sunday, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Baptist church, and interment was made in the Baptist cemetery. The pall-bearers were members of the Grand Army Post, John Davis, R. D. Beer, Joseph Shaffer, William Foster, R. L. Miles, J. D. Woodring. The deceased is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Carrie Montgomery, Mrs. Margaret Hoffman, of Hill street, and Mrs. George Coleman who resides in Oregon.

Philanthropist Conser.

John 'Marks' Conser, of this place, can now pose as a philanthropist. Last Friday night a large sleighing party of boys and girls came down from DuBois and when they arrived here they were as hungry as young wolves, but as it took all their ready cash to pay for their sleighride, they were 'financially embarrassed'—that was their only embarrassment, however. John 'Marks' was at Hotel Imperial when the crowd manifested a craving for something to eat and he took pity on them and bought sandwiches and soup at the restaurant for them. Some of the boys were not satisfied with enough to eat, but tried to work 'Marks' by slipping sandwiches into their pockets, which he was paying five cents apiece for. 'Marks' spent $7.00 or $8.00 feeding the party. Before starting for home some of the girls had the cheek to ask 'Marks' to buy them a dish of oysters apiece, but there is where they put a damper on Mr. Conser's philanthropic spirit.

The African Boy Choir.

The most unique number of the lecture course was given last Friday evening at Assembly hall. The African Boy Choir, under the direction of Mr. Balmer, was at its best and although the people were expecting much, as the choir came so highly recommended, still their anticipations were fully met and the largest crowd that has greeted any number of the course, unless it was the first number, was fully satisfied with the performance given by the little boys of Darkest Africa. Aside from the merit, from a musical standpoint, the work is certainly a marvel. To think that five boys from four different tribes could in a few years be taught to so execute musical numbers of such difficulty is almost beyond the credible.

The talks by Mr. Balmer and the African lady were quite instructive, but the singing of the boys was clearly the most captivating. Prof. Lenkerd announced that Fred Emerson Brooks could not be obtained until April. He will appear about April 15. The tops of the course tickets entitle the holders to seats. Further notice will appear in these columns.

OBITUARY OF J. LINDSEY MOORE.

Death Resulted From Pneumonia—Was Over Eighty Years Old.

James Lindsey Moore, one of the sturdy pioneers of the Beechwoods Settlement, died at the residence of his son, James M. Moore, in West Reynoldsville at midnight on Tuesday of last week, mention of which was made in THE STAR. Pneumonia was the immediate cause of his death, although he had not been well for a year. The deceased was born in Nittany Valley, Centre county, Pa., April 20, 1819, making him 81 years, 9 months and 9 days old at time of death. He came to this section early in life. He was married to Sarah Rodgers. Unto them twelve children were born, four of whom died while very young. In 1847 Mr. Moore settled in what is now known as Washington township and cleared for himself a good farm.

Politically he was a Democrat until late years he became a Prohibitionist. He was not much of a politician, but he served as school director in Washington township several terms. He joined the Baptist church many years ago and had to walk 30 miles to be baptised. He was a christian gentleman who lived up to his profession.

The deceased is survived by four sons, four daughters, seven brothers and sisters, forty grand children and twenty great grandchildren. Out of a family of eight boys and girls, James L. Moore was the first to die. The youngest of the surviving seven is now over sixty-one years old. Mr. Moore's children are as follows: M. M. Moore, Washington township, Mrs. E. Perrin, Warsaw, Mrs. David Hetrick, Reynoldsville, Mrs. P. M. Thompson, Wearsaw, Mrs. M. L. Hetrick, Washington, twp., A. U. Moore, Falls Creek, James M. Moore, West Reynoldsville, and A. B. Moore, Washington twp.

Funeral services were held at residence of James M. Moore in West Reynoldsville at 10:00 a. m. Friday, conducted by Rev. J. W. Crawford, pastor of the Gethsemane Baptist church at Allens Mills, of which the deceased was a member. Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E., and Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, of this place, assisted in the services. Remains were taken to Beechwoods cemetery and buried beside the wife, who died nine years ago.

Mathias Whittaker Dead.

Mathias Whittaker died at his home on Jackson street Sunday and was buried in B-ulah cemetery yesterday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the residence, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church.

Mathias Whittaker was born in Westmoreland county, Pa., March 3rd, 1819, making him almost 82 years old at time of death. In 1847 he was married to Jennima Armstrong, unto whom two sons, Washington and Jackson, were born. Mrs. Whittaker died in 1852 and in 1853 Mr. Whittaker was married to Mary McAfoose, unto whom twelve children were born, four dying when young. The living are: Daniel, Samuel, Mathias, jr., Mrs. F. S. Hoffman, Mrs. John Brosius, Mrs. Miles Huntington, Mrs. T. M. Scott and Mrs. Harry Copping.

Mr. Whittaker lived at Milton, Armstrong county, many years. He was a blacksmith at Milton when so editor was a small boy running the streets of that town. Mr. Whittaker moved to Sabula seventeen years ago, and after one year's residence there moved to Reynoldsville where he over after resided. We have been informed that the deceased became quite a bible student the past year and spent most all the time he was awake reading the bible.

A Rare Treat.

Never before have Reynoldsville people been permitted to listen to such an entertainment as was given last Thursday evening at the Public School Assembly Hall by the Temple Quartette. Although the date was an open one for the Quartette and their paper had been up but two days, a very fair audience greeted them and those who attended were most highly entertained. Many thought the basso, Mr. Bullock, equal to Gamble, while the tenor was to be compared with nothing we have had here this year. But what proved to be the most popular part of the entertainment was the reading done by Miss Elvie Everett Burnett. She is certainly a perfect reader of dialect. Her rendering of 'A Soldier's Dog' fully demonstrated her unsurpassed skill in that line, and her work throughout was matchless. Our people are fully aware of the quality of the event and an effort is now being made to get this company on the public school course for next year.

Business Change.

Homer Brumbaugh and J. R. Hillis, who have been conducting a large furniture store in this place two years under the firm name of Brumbaugh & Hillis, have dissolved partnership, Mr. Brumbaugh retiring from the business. Mr. Brumbaugh has not decided what business he will go into. There is no doubt but that Mr. Hillis, who has numerous friends and is well known here, will continue to do a good business, as he has a fine store.

OUR NEW CITIZEN.

John Reed Has Moved Into His Fine Residence in This Place.

Mr. John Reed, for the past ten years superintendent of the Jefferson and Clearfield Coal & Iron company's operations here, has taken up his residence in Reynoldsville, removing to that town to-day. The departure of Mr. Reed from DuBois and his subsequent loss as a citizen of the 'Mountain City' was occasioned by his recent advancement to the superintendency of the company's operations at Reynoldsville, although he will retain the management of the collieries here, over which he has so long and faithfully had charge.

About a year ago Mr. Reed made extensive improvements about his State street residence and caused it to become one of the most attractive and comfortable homes in DuBois. He has disposed of it and secured another at Reynoldsville, henceforth to be the scene of his most active work. The central offices of the company with which Mr. Reed is connected are located at Reynoldsville and from there he will be better able to direct the large volume of business over which he will have control.

The loss of Mr. Reed from DuBois is one that will be felt for a long time. He took an active interest in the affairs of the town, and for the past seven or eight years has served on council, filling the chairmanships of many important committees and working energetically for the measures he thought best calculated for the town's good. So efficient had been his administration that several years ago he was payed the unusual compliment of being returned to council without opposition.

He was a prominent member of the Acorn club, being one of the pioneer members and closely associated with the business men of the town in social, fraternal and secular attachments, though a busy man at all times. He was a great friend of the firemen and a few years ago, at a banquet given by the Friendship company, delivered one of the finest and most appropriate addresses ever uttered in DuBois.

The Express, while regretting Mr. Reed's departure, joins in wishing him unlimited success and increased honors in his new field of activity.—DuBois Express. Mr. Reed has moved into his fine new residence at corner of Main and Seventh streets. We are glad to have such gentlemen as Mr. Reed come to our town and we extend to him a hearty welcome.

CROSSED THE SILENT RIVER.

John W. Zetler Departed this Life Jan. 31st—Buried Sunday.

John W. Zetler, who had been a resident of Reynoldsville fourteen years, peacefully closed his eyes in death at 2:30 a. m. Thursday, January 31st. Mr. Zetler had not been well for some time but his death seemed to result from old age—he slept away. Deceased was born in Germany, March 18, 1816, making him almost 85 years old. He came to America in 1838. Was married to Mary Ann Heemer in Pittsburg September 20, 1843. This couple celebrated their golden wedding seven years ago. Mr. Zetler was a shoe maker for some years and then took up farm life. He was the father of 11 children, five of whom, with his wife, survive him, as follows: Mrs. Mary Ann Graffius, of Punxsutawney, Mrs. Amella Smith, of Indiana county, Mrs. Sophia Zimmet, of Kansas, Christ Zetler, of Punxsutawney, and Fred Zetler, of this place. He had 18 grand children and 4 great grand children. When a young man Mr. Zetler was a member of the I. O. O. F. He joined the Lutheran church when quite young. Funeral services were held at the residence at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. G. Johannes, pastor of the Lutheran church. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.
