Letter List.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., week ending March 16, 1901:

Salvatore Cerro, A. W. Fisher, Dr. Z. Pitcher, Mr. C. S. Powers, Mrs. Marcelle Rution, Minnie Shick, James Mullen (or Smullen), Charles Steele, Miss L. Smith, Al Signor Gulsepp Paul Pinto, Maryanna Lepka. Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above.

A. M. WOODWARD, P. M.

A Horrible Outbreak.

"Of large sores on my little daughter's head developed into a case of scald head," writes C. D. Iabill, of Morgantown, Tenn., but Bucklen's Arnica Salve completely cured her. It's a guaranteed cure for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, pimples, sores, ulcers and piles. Only 25 cents at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.

There Are Others.

Nothing gives us more pleasure than to add an appreciative subscriber to our list, except to scratch one off who acts as though the measly dollar a year which he paid for a local paper was an act of charity, and that he did it as a matter of duty. If our efforts to make a readable local newspaper are not appreciated, the sooner we know it the better, for we can try our hand at something else.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Praise From a Scotchman.

"Clydesdale! ye sturdy son of nature. Ye could not go wrong on the herbs ye grew up with." Clydesdale Ointment is a great and grand cure for lacerated flesh or a burn. Druggists, 25c.

Miss Dunning showed her ability in a number of selections, which ranging as they did from grave to gay, proved her to be versatile as she is clever.—Washington Observer. At Bell's hall this evening under auspices of K. of P. Admission 25 cents, which includes an oyster supper.

Pretty feet always admired—Clydesdale Ointment kills the corn—makes the foot shapely. Druggists, 25c.

School Reports.

Those absent but one day during the month, Susan Spencer, Laura Yohe, Georgia Reynolds, Charlie Keller and Ernest Reynolds.

ETHEL MCCREEGHT, Teacher.

Sandy Valley school report for school month ending March 7th. Number enrolled, males 25, females 31, total 56; average attendance during month, males 18, females 24, total 42; per cent of attendance, males 80, females 84, total 82; those present every day, John Garvin, Walker Bracken, Samuel Stenstrom, John Miller, Clara Lyle, Tacy Bracken, Jeanie Miller and Cora Coax.

NETTA D. COAX, Teacher.

Rathmel.

Jas. Hughes was in DuBois last Tuesday.

Frank Mohny went to Ford City Monday last.

W. A. Butler, of Phillipsburg, had business here last Thursday.

William Wyse had business in Brockwayville last Wednesday.

Our sheriff, of Brookville, had business in town last Tuesday.

Miss Grace Clawson, of Reynoldsville, visited friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Prof. R. C. Wilson, principal of our schools, spent Sunday at his home in Corsica.

Mrs. W. J. Young and family, who have been visiting friends in Fairmount City, returned home last Friday.

Mrs. John Kinnerburg, who visited friends in Brockwayville for the last two weeks, returned home Saturday.

Hormtown.

M. Perrin, of Hazen, was in this place last week.

F. E. Shoemaker was in Brookville trading horses Monday last.

Mrs. Schugars visited friends at Deemer's Cross Roads last week.

A. E. Calhoun, of Sugar Hill, was in this place Thursday and Friday.

O. G. Shugars and M. L. Hetrick have been very busy shoveling snow the few past days.

H. F. Shugars, who was working at Tambine, Elk county, returned home a few days ago.

Working 24 Hours a Day.

There's no rest for those tireless little workers—Dr. King's New Life Pills. Millions are always busy curling torpid liver, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague. They banish sick headache, drive out malaria. Never gripe or weaken. Small, taste nice, work wonders. Try them. 25c at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.

How They Disagree.

One of our exchanges says that an editor and his wife disagree with each other very materially. She sets things to rights and he writes things to set. She reads what others write and he writes what others read. She keeps the devil out of the house as much as possible, and he retains him and could not go to press without him. She knows more than he writes and he writes more than she knows.

At a Sacrifice.

If you want to buy a farm three miles from Brookville for less than half what the buildings thereon alone cost, an orchard of choicest fruits, underlaid with coal (bank open), see S. A. Shaffer, Kirkman, Pa., or W. J. Shaffer, Insurance Agent, Brookville, Pa.

If beauty is only skin deep, use Clydesdale Ointment to cure a rough skin and pimples—expose the beauty that lies underneath. Sold at druggists, 25c.

Paradise.

J. M. Strouse is suffering from a severe attack of neuralgia.

Rev. Anthony Groves, of Big Run, preached in the M. E. church on Sunday.

Curt Strouse is talking of moving his family to Reynoldsville in the near future.

The Ludwick saw mill is again in operation, with Edward Hillis as foreman.

County Commissioner W. C. Murray, of Brookville, had business here on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Norris, of near Camp Run, visited at Martin Strouse's on Sunday.

The Gibson saw mill is expected to start in a few days, after a few months of a shut down.

Only two weeks more of school at the Phillippi school and then the boys and girls will be free for a few months.

Dewey, three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Syphrit, was buried in the Syphrit cemetery on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Death was caused by la grippe.

Sandy Valley.

Mrs. Wm. Cable, was in Reynoldsville on business Monday.

Miss Netta Coax, teacher of the Sandy Valley school, is on the sick list at present.

Mrs. Bloom, Mrs. M. Schlabig and Mrs. John Richards were the guests of Mrs. Wm. Cable the past week.

Misses Ada Beebe and Annie Williams, of Reynoldsville, spent Sunday at the former's home in this place.

Mrs. Wm. Shoemaker and her sister, Miss Ida Stewart, were the guests of Miss Rachel Caldwell one day last week.

George Saltzger, Sr., an old war veteran, is lying seriously ill at the home of his son, James Saltzger, at this place.

A series of prayer meetings are being held at this place, conducted by the Rev. Frank Huffman, a former resident of this place.

Have you tried your luck on a beautiful quilt that is to be chanced off at Josiah Shoemaker's the night before Easter? The proceeds will be used to get an iron fence for the Horn grave yard. Price 25c. a chance.

Wishaw.

There will be a box social in the Dickey school house Saturday evening, March 23.

Martin Foltz and wife, of this place, visited their son, James, of Reynoldsville, one day last week.

Our school building will soon be surrounded by Italian shanties. Three new ones are being erected on the south side of it.

When a man marries a woman he promises to love, support and protect her, etc. One of our citizens seems to have forgotten this, as his wife was seen coming out of the house not long since crying. She declared there was not a bite to eat in the house. This man does not love or protect his wife or he would not have sent her from their home in that manner. He does not support her or there would have been something in the house for the woman and children to eat. Shame on such men!

Strikes a Rich Find.

I was troubled for several years with chronic indigestion and nervous debility," writes F. J. Green, of Lancaster, N. H. "No remedy helped me until I began using Electric Bitters, which did me more good than all the medicine I ever used. They have also kept my wife in excellent health for years. She says Electric Bitters are just splendid for female troubles; that they are a grand tonic and invigorator for weak, run-down women. No other medicine can take its place in our family." Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by H. Alex. Stoke, druggist.
