

The Star.

Subscription $1.50 per year, or $1.00 if paid strictly in advance.

C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 1901.

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Communications intended for publication must be accompanied by the writer's name, not for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith. Interesting news items solicited. Advertising rates made known on application at the office in Froehlich-Henry Block.

Lengthy communications and change of advertisements should reach this office by Monday noon.

Subscription price $1.00 per year, in advance. Address all communications to C. A. Stephenson, Reynoldsville, Pa.
Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., as second class mail matter.

A man must aim well in this world if he expects to be able to miss fire in the next.

It is a man's prerogative to will to do right or wrong. But for this privilege he must pay the price.

We are all casting moral shadows, and that is influence. Think of the unconscious influence we exert.

The man who points out to us our faults, is a true friend, but we feel inclined to kick him, just the same.

God gets blamed for the creation of many things that plainly show the handiwork of the devil.—Falls Creek Herald. Fact, Bro. Bangert.

A man dropped dead over in Clearfield county one day last week from the effects of getting angry. This should be a warning to those people who allow their angry passion to arise.

It's all right to let the office seek the man, but in this day and generation the man is standing in his own light. If he does not set the wheels of some machinery in motion so as to get the office started towards him.

The funeral expense is a greater grief to some foreigners than the loss of a wife. Not long since an Italian's wife died and the funeral expenses amounted to $46.00, and the Ike did not lament half as much over the death of his wife as he did about parting with the $46.00 that it cost to bury her.

A bill was passed in the State Senate last Wednesday authorizing and directing county commissioners to take, maintain and assume control of township and borough bridges over 40 feet in length, providing for the re-building of bridges which may be destroyed and the building of new bridges.

Sometimes people will say of an idler or slothful man—which means a lazy man—"that fellow has an easy time of it." According to the statement of Solomon, the wise man of bible history, the life of a lazy man is not an easy one, for Solomon said: "The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns."

Two or three of the leading hotels of Buffalo have already announced what their rates will be during the Pan-American Exposition, and if all the other hotels and boarding houses of that city raise their rates accordingly it will be almost impossible for a poor man to visit the exposition. Ten dollars a day for a room is the rate announced by two hotels, and one of these hotels already has some rooms engaged by guests at $15.00 a day, two persons to occupy one room. If the meals at these hotels, which will be served on European plan, are in accord with the room rate it will cost a man about $20.00 per day to stop at these hotels. Another hotel that has been known as a $2.00 a day house has adjusted its rates to $2.00 a day and upwards for rooms and will serve meals at $1.00 a meal.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch during this year and century will continue to maintain its high position among the leading newspapers of the country, and will, as it has been in the past, be the foremost paper in Western Pennsylvania. The news of the world will be found in the Dispatch every morning; special correspondents and alliances with other papers providing the means to thoroughly cover every news source in the universe.

The Sunday edition of the Dispatch is conceded to be the leader in its line. With special articles by the foremost writers, illustrations that are appropriate and well executed, together with the latest ideas in typography, it is undoubtedly the journal for excellence. The large and rapidly increasing circulation is evidence that it is what it claims to be.

The Home Study Circle, which has been a feature of the daily Dispatch for several years, has been succeeded by the Current Topic Club. It is a worthy successor of the Home Study Circle and is the best feature of its kind in the journalism of to-day. Leading men and women of letters, art, science and business will contribute to this department of the Dispatch, which will be more popular than was the Home Study Circle with its wealth of information.

In all departments the Dispatch is complete; nothing being left uncovered, and so popular is it that in thousands of homes to speak of newspapers is to think of the Dispatch.

School Board Minutes.

The regular meeting of West Reynolds school board was held Wednesday evening, March 20th, with following members present: S. G. Austin, Joseph McKernan, D. M. Dunsmore, P. A. Hardman and M. E. Ridgeway.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

The following bills were presented and ordered to be paid: G. M. McDonald $33.75, to pay premium on insurance policy; C. A. Stephenson $2.75, printing; H. T. Smith $11.50, for coal furnished to school building.

By motion the president and secretary were authorized to sign Miss Clara M. Carrier's application for State Normal diploma.

Moved by P. A. Hardman, seconded by D. M. Dunsmore, that we reconsider the motion of June 11, 1900, electing A. J. Postlethwait principal for one year. Motion carried; Dunsmore, Hardman, Ridgeway and Austin voting in the affirmative, and McKernan in the negative.

Moved by Hardman and seconded by Dunsmore that we elect A. J. Postlethwait principal for a term of three years, that is to finish the present school year and also teach the terms of 1901-2 and 1902-3. Dunsmore, Hardman, Ridgeway and Austin voting in the affirmative, and McKernan voting nay. Mr. Postlethwait having a majority of votes was declared elected, as per motion.

Moved by Hardman and seconded by Dunsmore that a written contract be made with A. J. Postlethwait and that the rate of wages for the terms of 1901-2 and 1902-3 be $85.00 per month. Dunsmore, Hardman, Ridgeway and Austin voting in the affirmative, and McKernan voting in the negative.

Moved and seconded that we adjourn until next regular meeting April 17th, 1901. Carried.

JOSEPH MCKERNAN, Sec.

Letter to Keystone Hardware Co., Reynoldsville, Pa.

Dear Sirs: You know your painter; we don't; we only know painters in general.

There are two sorts, as there are two sorts of everybody else. One paints as well as he can; the other as poor as he can and gets business.

The one who paints as well as he can is all the time learning; the other one knows it all now.

Josh Billings says "It's better not to know too much than to know so many things that a'n't so." There are lots of things in paint that "a'n't so." Lead and oil is one of 'em. Devos lead and zinc lasts twice as long; is better in every respect; is ready to dip the brush; you can depend on the colors; no mystery; no uncertainty; costs no more; costs less.

We hope you employ Mr. Open-Mind Painter, and not Mr. Know-it-all-now.

Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOS & CO.

P. S.—H. Alex Stoke sells our paint in your section.
