Sykesville.
Sykesville, which embraces about 300 acres of land and has 600 inhabitants, is located in Stump Creek valley, on the western slope of the Allegheny mountains, and has a beautiful situation for a small town. It is on the line of the B. & P. Ry, 14 miles from Painsu-tawney, 7 miles from Big Run, 8 miles from DuBois, 3 miles from Troutville, 2 miles from Big Soldier, 5 miles from Reynoldsville and 3 miles from Paradise.
Our town is not like Rome, which sat on seven hills, but we are surrounded by five beautiful, fertile hills. We have two good church buildings, one a brick, the other a frame, both have good congregations; also good school building with three rooms running under good discipline; five well equipped stores, one millinery store, postoffice, three secret social orders, Knights of Pythias, P. O. S. of A. and United Woodmen, one first-class cornet band, two restaurants, one hotel, well kept where travelers can be entertained at all times with good accommodations; one livery stable, saw mill, planing mill, two blacksmith shops, B. & P. station near center of town, good park or summer resort not far from station, making it convenient for those who wish to come and spend their picnic days with us. Any person wishing to do business or retire would do well to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere, as our town is not only in the center of commerce, but also in the center of a well-to-do farming community. The town is well laid out in lots 50x150, with streets 50 and 60 feet wide. Lots can be purchased at reasonable rates and good terms.
