Sykesville.

Monday, 15th inst., being the twenty-first anniversary of the advent of Mr. Aden Null on this terrestrial ball, his friends, to the number of forty, gathered at his home while he was calling on a neighbor, and when he returned home he was agreeably surprised to find them there. The evening was spent in playing games and listening to the sweet strains of music produced by the Sykesville string band, of which those well-known musical men, Messrs. Keller, Decker and Eye are members. Refreshments were served during the evening, and then as the wee small hours drew on apace, and after wishing Aden many happy returns of the day, they wended their ways to their respective places of abode—some to the abode of their neighbors who have pretty daughters.

Miss Olive Duff, of Luthersburg, was a visitor in town last week.

Mrs. Laboard, nee Kness, wife of Jefferson Laboard, died at her home in this place last Friday and was buried at West Liberty Sunday morning. She had been in poor health for some time. She is survived by her husband and seven children.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, The Great Supreme Ruler, in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to remove from among us our beloved brother, Robert A. Bone, of True Blue Temperance Union, therefore be it.

Resolved, That in the taking away of our brother we sincerely mourn our loss, not only as a brother who was frank and courageous in all his convictions, but as a member who was also active in the welfare and prosperity of the order in general.

Resolved, That we recognize in the taking away of our brother the warning, "Be ye also ready."

Resolved, That to the relatives and friends of our deceased brother we tender our heart-felt sympathy, fully realizing their distress in this their hour of bereavement.

Resolved, As a token of respect that a memorial page be set apart in our journal and a copy of these resolutions be entered thereon, also that they be published in THE STAR and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.
