Not a Fisherman.

Hon. Geo. A. Jenks, while one of the leading Democrats of the land, is not a fisherman. When it is considered that Cleveland and Quay and many other great statesmen and politicians are also great fishermen and that Jenks has a horror for even the sight of a fish, indeed remarkable. Mr. Jenks noticed on the depot platform one day last week and when the Herald logged his mind so that he would forget that the fishing season had begun he threw up both hands and said "I have never been fishing but in my life and that time I only caught one little fish and it was purely accident I assure you. If there is anything in the world that I do not do to fish and how any person can catch them and how I can understand the very smell of a fish is disgusting thing in the world." Reynoldsville Herald.

KILLED BY KING ALCOHOL.

John Adam, a Slav, Died Under a Tree Friday Night.

Saturday morning word was received in town that an unknown man was found dead under a tree near the Prescottville grist mill. Squire Neff went to Prescottville for the purpose of holding an inquest, if the circumstances in the case required it. There were no marks on the body to indicate that the man had been foully dealt with, but a quart bottle near the body with a little alcohol in it explained the cause of the man's death. The body was brought to Hughes' undertaking rooms to be prepared for burial. During the forenoon it was learned that the dead man was John Adam, a Slav, who had been working at the Soldier coke ovens. Adam had been on a spree for almost two weeks, and during that time had been sleeping out at nights wherever he chanced to fall in a drunken stupor. Thursday night he slept on Dr. A. H. Bowser's front porch. Friday afternoon he bought a quart of alcohol and started for Soldier, but only got as far as Prescottville where he laid down under a tree with the bottle and there he took his last long sleep. Passersby saw the man sleeping there Friday evening and the following morning he was found dead. Too much alcohol was the cause of his death.

The man leaves a wife and family in the old country. He has a son in this section somewhere, but no one knew where to find him. He was at Eleanor the last trace any person had of him. The Winslow township poor overseers took charge of the body and had it buried Sunday afternoon. Adam had about $44.00 coming from coal company and other sources which will be applied on funeral expenses.

Ozman and Maude Fronia Darrah, both of Brookville.

Many good horses and cows are lost every spring for want of a little care and attention. A few cents spent for a good condition powder—given in time—would save many dollars. Don't wait until your animal is almost dead. Get a package of Keystone Condition Powder and give two or three doses every day for several weeks. You will be surprised with the results. For sale at the Reynolds drug store.

Chop for Cash—M. M. Davis will sell a set of buggy harness, buggy, surrey and cart.

A good physician can cure many ills. Why can he not invent a preparation that will cure a few? He can, and many good things are to be found in patent medicines. Clydesdale Ointment is a great healer and a pain killer. Give it a trial. Druggists, 25c.

Say! We have horses, cows, hay, feed, drugs, dry goods, groceries, McCormick machines for sale. J. C. KING & Co.

Praise From a Scotchman. "Clydesdale! ye sturdy son of nature. Ye could not go wrong on the herbs ye grew up with." Clydesdale Ointment is a great and a grand cure for lacerated flesh or a burn. Druggists, 25c.

M. M. DAVIS, Solicitor.

MILLIRENS

Spring Stock will Win Your Unqualified Approval.

You cannot go amiss by making this your trading point. Our Matchless Stock, as large as it is, does not include one solitary article that we cannot conscientiously recommend. We could not afford to sell any other than first-class clothing and furnishings. Have too much at stake. One dissatisfied customer would do more harm than ten pleased patrons would benefit us. But though we keep only good qualities, we still (owing to our gigantic outfit, and buying for two of the largest stores in Central Pennsylvania) name the lowest prices in the county as the following offers will show.

MILLIREN'S, The Reliable Clothiers.

SAFETY AND SATISFACTION.

Safety in money spending is one of the most essential features of merchandising. This store's constant aim is to surround its patrons with a bulwark of safety. There is the safety of reliable, carefully bought goods; the safety of absolute price fairness; the safety of the "goods marked in plain figures—one price to all and that the lowest" system, which places our buying public on a level of commercial equality in their trading; then there is the safety of money refunded without a murmur. With all these safeguards to right money spending, Satisfaction is sure to follow. These are things well worth the knowing.
