 Last Wednesday evening Prof. G. W. Lenford gave the Epworth League a very interesting address on his trip through Europe. It was very much enjoyed.
 Francis D. Smith, a member of the Reynoldsville Hardware Co., had his face badly burned one day last week by throwing oil into a stove to burn soot out of the pipe.
 The Lamson Spring Cash Carrier System was put in the Bing-Stoke Co. department store last week. J. W. Ridgway, of Philadelphia, was here and put the system in working order.
 R. E. McKee, who died March 10th, carried $2,000 life insurance in the Protected Home Circle and last Saturday morning his widow received a check for $2,000. This was certainly prompt payment.
 Volume 1, No 1 of The Demora American, of which Roman E. Koehler is editor and manager, reached our exchange table Monday. It is a six column, four page paper. The first number of the new paper is bright and spicy.
 John R. Howells, uncle of Mrs. Thomas D. Hoon, died at his home at Minneapolis, Minn., Saturday from heart trouble. Mr. Howells was well known in Reynoldsville, having resided here some years ago. He was a stone mason by trade.

When court of common pleas convened at Brookville Monday there were only two cases on the docket for trial. There were nine cases when the list was first made out, but one was discontinued two continued and four settled.

The W. R. C. will hold public memorial services in Bell's hall Friday evening at 8:30 in honor of Mrs. R. W. Kuntz, a member of the Corps who was recently killed by the cars. This memorial was to have been held sooner, but something else interfered and it was postponed.

Samuel Shankel, the Eleanora and Panic mail carrier, is visiting in New Bethlehem this week and his brother, Adam Shankel, is carrying the mail. This mail route has been hard to work the past six weeks on account of bad roads, and Mr. Shankel is enjoying a needed respite from mules and mud.

The "Indian" base ball club has been organized for the season with the following players: Reynolds Gibson, "Dubs" Sharpe, Charles Wensler, Ernest Duff, Frank Bohren, Fred Butler, Fred Bohren, Bert Burns and Edward Foster. The club is now ready for challenges from amateur clubs in Clarion, Brookville, Punxsutawney and DuBois.

Bing-Stoke Co. are preparing for quite an event at their store next week. It's going to particularly interest children and school teachers and will prove a splendid demonstration of the drawing abilities of the children. Can your boy or girl draw a funny black cat? Let them try it and take the drawing to the hobby counter at the Bing-Stoke Co. store.

Ex-County Treasurer John Waite, of this place, who has been a student in the Danville (Ky.) Theological Seminary several years, will graduate at that institution the 2nd of May. Mr. Waite's legion of friends will be glad to learn that he has been successful in his studies. We believe it is Mr. Waite's intention to take up regular work in the ministry.

Landslides have been delaying trains. There was a slide on the B. & P. near Mosgrove Friday night which delayed the B. R. & P. night express seven hours. There was a slide near Lawsonham, on the Low Grade Division, Saturday, and there were two or three big slides on the River Division of P. R. R. Saturday and Sunday, which delayed trains.

The Pennsylvania railroad will run an excursion train from Driftwood to Pittsburgh and return next Sunday. Train will leave Driftwood at 4:50 a. m. and will leave Reynoldsville at 6:47 a. m. Fare $1.50 for round trip. Returning, special train will leave Pittsburgh at 7:00 p. m. Excursion tickets will be good on DuBois Express, which leaves Pittsburgh at 5:05 p. m.

Mrs. Stowell, a charming exponent of the modern French school in vocal art, sang in the latest and finest possible style, delighting everyone with her clear bell-like soprano and the perfect poise of her tones.—Pittsburg Post, Dec. 21, 1899. Mrs. Stowell will sing in the M. E. church junior contest night and graduating night, May 7 and 8.

The Johnsonburg Breeze is under a new management. R. Roy Hamby and W. A. McClure are the new proprietors and publishers. K. G. Bottorff, who was foreman of the Reynoldsville Volunteer several years, is local editor and general all around man of the Breeze under the new management. Clinton Jones, former editor of the Breeze, has purchased a news stand in Johnsonburg.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Work Society will hold a cake sale in C. R. Hall's store window Saturday afternoon, April 27th, to which all members of the church are kindly asked to contribute, as there will be no house to house solicitation. The ladies are trying to raise money to purchase an individual communion service and would like the assistance of members and friends, both in contributions and patronage.

Mrs. May Faxon Stowell made her first appearance before an Indianapolis assemblage. She is a young singer, freshly returned from a years study under Parisian masters who have done much in training her bright, limpid coloratura voice. Mrs. Stowell's vocal range is wide, and her tones of even quality. Her facility of execution was advantageously shown in the "Air des Bijoux," which was interpreted most artistically. The young singer has warmth of temperament, good tone production and charming voice quality.—Indianapolis News, Oct. 20, 1899. Mrs. Stowell will sing in the M. E. church junior contest night and graduating night, May 7 and 8.

Over four weeks ago Gertrude, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green, fell on her doll baby, breaking it and injuring her left knee. Occasionally after that she would cry and complain of a pain in her leg. Mrs. Green thought a piece of the broken doll had gone into the child's leg. Poultries were put on the leg, but still the child suffered frequently with pain. One day last week Mrs. Green pulled a needle, an inch and a half long, out of the child's leg. The needle had worked its way almost through the leg—Mrs. Gertrude complained of pain in back of leg part of time—and then worked its way out again far enough for Mrs. Green to catch it with her fingers.

DEATH FROM PARALYSIS.
 Robert Ainsley Bone Expired Thursday Morning—Buried Saturday Afternoon.
 It was stated in THE STAR last week that Robert A. Bone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bone, had a stroke of complete paralysis Monday night and at time of going to press he was still in an unconscious condition, and that there were little hopes for his recovery. Wednesday the boy improved some and was able to ask for a drink of water. When asked by different members of the family if he recognized them he answered by nodding his head. This gave the parents and friends hope that he might recover, but alas their hope was of short duration, for at 2:45 a. m., Thursday, April 18th, 1901, the silken thread of life was broken and his spirit took its flight into the Eternal Land.

Robert Bone, who was a robust young man, retired Monday night, April 15th, in apparently excellent health. In the morning he was found in a paralyzed condition.

Robert was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bone. He was born at McIntyre, Lackawanna county, Pa., October 9th, 1851, making him in his 29th year at time of death. He was an industrious, quiet and exceptionally fine young man. He had a good disposition and was kind and affectionate in his home. He was a member of the M. E. church, Sunday School and Epworth League and also a member of the True Blue Temperance Society.

Robert's sudden death was a great shock to his numerous young friends. Mr. and Mrs. Bone, who are stricken by the death blow, which came so sudden and unexpectedly upon them, have the sympathy of a host of friends.

Funeral services were held at the residence of parents, on Main street, at 2:00 p. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church. Remains were buried in Beulah cemetery. The True Blue Temperance Society attended in a body. The floral tributes were beautiful. Crescent and star from Epworth League, pillow from M. E. Sunday school class, anchor from True Blue Temperance Society and basket from uncles of deceased.

The following friends from out of town were in attendance at the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. George Bone, of Smithport, Thos. Kirkman and wife, of Barnesboro, W. E. Phillips and wife, of Pittsburgh, Robert Bone and wife, of Soldier, John Simpson, John Reay, David Bolam, Jennie Bolam, Mrs. Saul Pittsley, Mrs. James Holmes, Ed. Fawcett, of DuBois, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Butterworth, Mrs. John Charlton and son, John, of Paole, Mrs. James Buckley, Louis Sinbeck, Patrick McNally, of Falls Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Pittsley and daughters, Katie and Nettie, David Pittsley and Mrs. William Crago, of Eleanora.

Received Valuable Presents.
 Father Edward M. Driscoll, who went to Oil City Friday to labor in the parish in that city, after two years of faithful work in the Reynoldsville parish as Father Brady's assistant, carried with him substantial evidence of the high esteem and love of the parishioners of Reynoldsville. It was Father Driscoll's custom to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Edward Windle, every day when in town and on Thursday evening when he went to see his grandmother he found a few of the young people of the parish there, which did not surprise him much, but before they got through with the business they had with him he was agreeably surprised and somewhat affected. Clement W. Flynn, cousin of Father Driscoll, in his usual smooth way, made the only presentation speech, but there was more than one present. The gifts were as follows: Fine gold watch from fifteen male members of the congregation, purse full of money from ladies of Altar Society, fine manicure set from young ladies of congregation and a knife and silver match box from altar boys. Father Driscoll appreciated the presents for the spirit in which they were given.

The day he went to Oil City Father Driscoll said to a representative of THE STAR: "I did not know, until it was announced that I was to leave here, that I had as many friends in town as I have."

Assistant in the Oil City parish is quite a promotion for Father Driscoll. Father Joseph Kuntz, of Erie, a young man recently ordained, has been appointed as Father Brady's assistant at this place. Father Kuntz said his first mass here Sunday.

Killed on Saw Mill.
 George Beck, son of Jacob Beck, of Smicksburg, was killed on the saw mill on Coleman's timber tract, near Summerville, yesterday, April 23rd. Beck was cutting the engine and his clothing caught in the shafting. His body was badly mangled. He only lived three hours after the accident. Beck was 22 years old. It was on this mill that Charles Smith, of Smicksburg, was killed March 13th.

Twentieth Century Thank Offering.
 At the Methodist church, next Tuesday evening, April 30, there will be a meeting in the interest of the Twentieth Century Advance Movement. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. H. G. Dodds, of Punxsutawney, and Rev. D. D. Platt, of Brookwayville. This is not a meeting to collect money but to explain plans and aims of the work. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

Dr. Murray Given a Surprise.
 Dr. John H. Murray returned Monday afternoon from a four weeks' visit to Old Point Comfort, Va., Philadelphia and Atlantic City, N. J., and that evening about twenty young ladies and gentlemen gave doctor a surprise party. It was a complete surprise to him. The evening was pleasantly spent. The young people had made arrangements for refreshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, and these were served before home-going time arrived.

Birthday Party.
 Wednesday, April 17th, was the 64th anniversary of Mrs. D. E. Stanford's birthday, and the event was celebrated in an elaborate manner at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford, near Sandy Valley. There were about a half hundred guests present. They assembled in the forenoon and remained until after supper. One of the guests from Reynoldsville said to a representative of THE STAR, "The feast was 'fit for the gods.'" The time was pleasantly spent in singing, playing ball and other games. Mrs. Stanford received a number of useful and valuable presents.

Married Last Evening.
 Irven F. Dempsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dempsey of West Reynoldsville, who is located at Oak Ridge as ticket and freight agent and telegraph operator for P. R. R. Co., and Miss Elizabeth Williams, daughter of Henry Williams, who is superintendent of the coal mines at Oak Ridge, were married at the home of the bride's parents at 7:00 o'clock last evening in the presence of a company of relatives and friends. Mr. Dempsey purchased a fine residence at Hawthorn, near Oak Ridge, which he had furnished and already to take his bride to. Mr. Dempsey is a model young man and his wife was one of Oak Ridge's finest young ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dempsey, Geo. W. Dempsey and wife, Misses Tracy, Eva and Bertha Dempsey, and Earl and Dr. Dempsey, of West Reynoldsville, Misses Anna and Margaret Davis and David Davis, of this place, attended the wedding.

Died in DuBois.
 Josiah Phillips, brother of Matthew Phillips and Mrs. E. R. Jennings, of Reynoldsville, died at his home in DuBois Wednesday, April 17, after an illness of three weeks. He was injured in the mines about fourteen years ago and being unable to do manual labor of any kind after the accident, he engaged in the store business. The DuBois Express says:

"Mr. Phillips was born in Cornwall, England, 51 years ago, and came to this country 30 years ago. He removed to DuBois from East Brady and during his long residence in the town made many friends and was well known, particularly in the First ward where he resided. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and an honest, honorable and respected citizen."
 Mr. and Mrs. M. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Jennings, Richard, Edward and Thomas Jennings and Edward Phillips, of this place, attended the funeral, which was held in the M. E. church in DuBois Friday afternoon.

Death of Jas. Berry, Sr.
 James Berry, Sr., died at his home in Prescottville at 1:00 p. m., April 22, 1901, from asthma and old age. While he had not been in good health for some time, yet his death was rather sudden. He caught a cold about one week before he died and that hastened the ending of his earthly pilgrimage.
 Mr. Berry was born at Farnworth, Lancashire, England, November 28th, 1828, making him 72 years, 5 months and 25 days old at time of death. He was married to Martha Fletcher at Farnworth, England, in 1852. His wife, who survives him, is almost 68 years old. They landed in America March 15, 1864. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Berry ten children were born, one of whom died in England, and the names of those living are: Mrs. Mary Ann Taylor, living in Colorado, John Berry, Worth street, Peter Berry, Big Soldier, James Berry, Prescottville, Mrs. Marion Hayes, Albion, Pa., Mrs. Ella Brown, Colorado, Thomas, David and Jennie Berry, at home. The deceased is also survived by 28 grand-children and 6 great grand-children.

Funeral services will be held at the residence in Prescottville at 2:30 p. m. to-day, Wednesday, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Baptist church. Remains will be buried in Beulah cemetery.
 Thomas and David Berry were in Cambria county Sunday afternoon when they were informed by telegram that their father could not live long. By traveling all night they arrived here Monday morning. Mrs. Hayes, of Albion, did not arrive here until yesterday.

PASSED OVER THE RIVER.
 Martin Strouse, a Highly Respected Citizen of Paradise, Died Thursday.
 Martin Strouse, an old soldier and highly respected citizen of Paradise Settlement, departed this life Thursday afternoon, April 19th, 1901, after a long illness. Death was caused by a complication of diseases. Funeral services were held at the Syphrit church at 11:00 a. m., Sunday conducted by Rev. Selmer, Lutheran preacher. Considering the inclement weather and had condition of the roads, the funeral was very large. Rev. Selmer's text was from Job 14-14, "If a man die shall he live again?" and from this text an able and fitting sermon was preached. Interment was made in Syphrit cemetery.

 Martin Strouse was born in Westmoreland county, Pa., on May 18, 1829, making him almost 72 years old when the Death Messenger called for him. He was the son of Jonathan and Julia Ann Strouse, who moved into Winslow township in 1838, locating on what is now known as the Noah Strouse farm. Martin was the second son of a family of seven children and he was the last member of the family to die. Oct. 21, 1852, Martin Strouse was married to Mary A. Philippi. In 1857 they settled on what is now known as the old homestead. Mr. Strouse cleared and improved the farm himself. Besides farming he engaged in the lumber business. He served a number of years as assessor in Winslow township. He was industrious and a hard worker. He was a member of the Lutheran church a half century. He was a noble and kind hearted man and was held in high esteem by all who were personally acquainted with him.

Martin Strouse was the father of seven children, all of whom, with his wife, survive him. The children are: Amos Strouse, Mrs. W. A. Sheesley, Mrs. J. J. Pifer, J. E. Strouse, who is now in Colorado, J. M. Strouse, Mrs. A. Norris and Miss Tena Strouse.

SPRING MEETING OF PRESBYTERY
 Rev. J. L. Prouditt Elected Moderator—Fall Meeting at New Bethlehem.
 The Presbytery of Clarion met in the Presbyterian church at this place on Tuesday, April 16th, at 2:30 p. m. and was constituted with prayer by the moderator. "Sins of Omission" was the subject of the clear and forceful sermon preached by the retiring moderator, the Rev. C. L. Bradshaw.

The election of officers resulted in the selection of the Rev. J. L. Prouditt, of New Bethlehem, for moderator, the Rev. James Drummond for recording clerk, and Mr. E. E. Sloane reading clerk.
 At 4 o'clock the Presbytery was addressed by Secretary McGunkin in the interest of Synodical Missions and Sustentation.

The Tuesday evening session was largely attended and the program, as previously announced, was carried out. The Rev. Mr. Britt, of Corsica, is evidently a man of deep conviction and he treated "The Question of the Sabbath" with all the earnestness and emphasis that he could command. The address of the Rev. Mr. Prouditt was particularly interesting to the young people, but profitable to all. He is a young man of good ability, and showed careful discrimination in his selection and arrangement of the things which hinder the life and work of a society. He uttered the truth with a boldness that will be owned and blessed of God.

The day sessions on Wednesday were fully occupied with the regular business of the Presbytery. An item of special interest was the examination of Harry A. Bailey for a license to preach. Mr. Bailey is a member of the Emlethen congregation and is about to complete his second year in the Western Theological Seminary.
 A second item worthy of mention was a reception of the Presbytery of four new ministers, the Rev. C. A. Clark, to accept a call to Punxsutawney, the Rev. J. Montgomery Travis, to accept a call to Johnsonburg, and the Revs. James and Shearer to serve churches in Clarion county. The Wednesday meeting was addressed by the Rev. D. E. Craighead and the Rev. S. A. Cornelius. Mr. Craighead spoke briefly on "The Mid-Week Meeting," defining the idea and purposes of the Wednesday evening service.

The principal address was by Mr. Cornelius on "The Land of the Bible." The speaker visited the Holy Land about a year ago, and he was full of his subject and enthusiastic. Mr. Cornelius is a close and careful observer, and can tell in a pleasing and instructive manner, the things that he saw.
 The choir added much to the interest and profit of the popular meeting by their excellent music.

A special meeting of Presbytery will be held at Johnsonburg on Tuesday, April 30th. The next stated meeting will be held at New Bethlehem in September.

BOLD ROBBERIES COMMITTED.
 Seven Haines Visited, But the Robbers Only Gained Freedom in Three Houses.
 Last Wednesday night a gang of robbers visited Reynoldsville and made some bold attempts to secure money, but only succeeded in getting about $100.00, and $92.00 of that they got at one place. At each place the robbers gained an entrance through windows.

When Will H. Bell got up Thursday morning his pants, which had been hanging within two feet of his head when he went to bed, were gone. A side window was up and back door standing open. Mr. Bell found his pants in alley, but the $92.00 that he had left in his pocket was gone. This is the fourth time that Mr. Bell has been robbed inside of eight years, and each time the robbers entered his house through the same window. It is on dark side of house, which may account for this.

When A. P. King got up Thursday morning his pants were missing, but were found on the floor in the kitchen. A side window and the back door were left open at King's. The robbers only got 51 cents out of Mr. King's pockets. Mrs. King had over two dollars in her pocket-book and that was taken. A jimmy was used to open a drawer in writing desk, which was full of papers, and the contents of this was emptied on kitchen table. The robbers ate some boiled ham that they found in pantry.

At V. R. Pratt's window and door were found open Thursday morning. All the pocket books in the house—six of them—were found on dining room floor. The robbers got several dollars at Mr. Pratt's. The robbers got into C. N. Lewis' laundry, but the door was locked at head of stairs and they did not get into any other part of house. The robbers tried six windows at F. M. Brown's, but a sub-sill fooled them. At Miles King's they got into laundry but no further. At the Catholic parsonage a ladder was put up to a second story window and a jimmy used, but the robbers must have been frightened away.

The robbers did their work so quietly that they were not heard at any of the places they went through.
 Three well dressed tramps were arrested Thursday forenoon on suspicion, but there was no evidence against them and they were released. In the afternoon these fellows were seen looking carefully around some residences and were re-arrested Thursday evening. Friday they were given a second hearing before Mayor Mitchell. This time the charge against them was for begging. They were sent to county jail for 30 days. They gave their names and addresses as follows: Frank Jones, Martinsburg, Pa., John Kennedy, Fairmount, W. Va., Robert F. Johnston, Monongahela City.

MET A HORRIBLE DEATH.
 Lewis A. Ford Ground to Pieces Under an Engine.
 Lewis A. Ford, a brakeman on the R. & F. C. R. Y., met a sudden and horrible death at Big Soldier Wednesday afternoon by falling off the pilot in front of a moving engine. No one knows how the accident happened, as no one saw Ford fall off the engine, which was running slow at the time. Ford threw a switch ahead of the engine, stepped on to the pilot and gave a signal to come ahead and that was the last seen of him until his mangled body was found on the track after the engine had run several car lengths from switch. Conductor Herb Burns, who was walking down the track behind the engine, was the first one to look upon the ghastly sight. The body was gathered up and brought to Hughes' undertaking rooms, prepared for burial and on Thursday morning was taken to the home on Pleasant Avenue. Friday afternoon at two o'clock funeral services were conducted at residence by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of Baptist church, and interment was made in Beulah cemetery.

The bereaved employes furnished a beautiful floral anchor, with a white dove on anchor.
 Lewis A. Ford was the oldest son of W. W. and Elizabeth Ford. He was born at Leechburg, Pa., April 10, 1866, making him 35 years and 7 days old at time of death. He resided in this place a number of years. He was married twice. His first wife's name was Henrietta Byrne, of Hopkins, who died over twelve years ago. The second time he was married to Annie Kinney, who, with his widowed mother, three brothers and two sisters survive him. The brothers and sisters are: James, John and Wallace Ford, Mrs. Clara A. Sample and Mrs. Sadie Mohney.
 Ford carried a small insurance in the Metropolitan Insurance Co.
