

New England Women

Have an Abiding Faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

After years of struggle to attain and merit public confidence, with a firm and steadfast belief that some day others would recognize in us the truth, good faith, and honesty of purpose which we know we possess, what a genuine satisfaction it is to succeed, and to realize the uplifting influence of the merited confidence of a vast army of our fellow beings.

This stands the Pinkham name in New England, and all over America, and nowhere is the faith in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound greater than in New England. Its merit, and merit alone, can gain this.

ORGANIC INFLAMMATION.
"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was troubled very badly with inflammation of the bladder, was sick in bed with it. I had two doctors, but they did me no good. A friend gave me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it helped me. I have now taken three bottles of it, and I am entirely cured. It is a God-send to any woman suffering as I was. I think, if most of the women would take more of your medicine instead of going to the doctors, they would be better off. The Compound has also cured my husband of kidney trouble."
Mrs. MABEL GOOKIN,
Box 100—Mechanic Falls, Maine.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.
"For two years I suffered from nervous prostration, the result of female weakness. I had leucorrhoea very badly, and it would recommend me to go to bed. Also suffered with headaches, pain across back, and in lower part of abdomen. I was so discouraged, I had read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and concluded to give it a trial. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham, and received a very nice letter in return. I began at once the use of her Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and am now feeling splendid. I have no more pain at monthly periods, can do my own work, and have gained ten pounds. I would not be without your Vegetable Compound. It is a splendid medicine. I am very thankful for what it has done for me."
Mrs. J. W. J., 76 Carolina Ave., Jamaica Plain, Mass.

If Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure these women—why not you—you cannot tell until you try it. If you are ill, and really want to get well, commence its use at once, and do not let any drug clerk persuade you that he has something of his own which is better, for that is absurd. Ask him to produce the evidence we do.

A PLEA FOR THE PRETTY GIRL

The homeliest girl can't always cook the best. Sometimes a pretty girl can make a bang-up pie.
A girl, in short, is not to be condemned because her face is pleasing to the eye.
The best is always plenty good enough, and beauty should by no means be despised.
Philosophers may praise the homely girls, but pretty girls should equally be prized.
It's true that "handsome is as handsome does."
But one can be handsome in love and handsome in deed.
So when a young man falls in love, he ought to choose a girl that's smart and pretty, too.
—Somerville (Mass.) Journal.

HUMOR OF THE DAY.

"No, Maude, dear, the financial news is not all written in money syllables."
—Philadelphia Record.
Hoax—"How did Sapphead come to get brain fever?" Joax—"I believe an idea suddenly struck him."

Bright Pupil—"Carrie."

A man can work from sun to sun, but woman's work is never done. Because when begged to stop and rest, she toils right on with martyr's zest.
—Detroit Free Press.
A fool and his money are soon parted, and there are lots of men who would like to be fools if they had the money to part with.
—Kansas City Star.
"I suppose you sometimes find it a trifle lonely out in your suburb?" "Lonely? Why, we all run to the window when a dog goes by."
—Chicago Record.
Magistrate—"You are charged with assault and battery. What have you to say?" Prisoner—"Not a word, yer honor. It was saying too much got me into this scrape."
—Tit-Bits.
He talks like a book, his admirers all say. What a pity he doesn't shut up the same way.
—Baltimore American.
There was a fearful dispute on the chicken coop about precedence and particular sets. "There's no incubator blood in me," cried a specially vehement hen. "I came of the best stock."
—Philadelphia Times.
Brown—"So you lost your lawsuit with Smith?" Jones—"Yes; but it's a satisfaction to know that Smith did not win anything." "But didn't you have to pay him $1000 damages?" "Yes; but his lawyer got that."
It was after he had been rejected the third time. "What first attracted you to her?" asked the sympathetic friend. "Her eyes," he replied. "And that, I suppose, led to her nose," chortled the sympathetic friend.
Aunt Hannah—"Oh, you fool of a girl! Just because a man tells you you are the prettiest woman in the world, and the wisest and sweetest, you believe him!" Arabella—"And why shouldn't I? Do you know, aunty, I kind o' think so myself."
—Boston Transcript.

Waste, Rest and Exercise.
The late William M. Everts was a marvel of intellectual vitality to an advanced age, and he used to explain it by saying that he slept late in the morning and never took any exercise. There is no advantage in getting up early in the morning if you need the sleep. Many a man is burning the candle at both ends by getting up at an early hour simply because his housekeeping is adjusted to that programme. As to physical exercise, Mr. Everts had discovered for himself what our physiologists are now beginning to teach, namely, that if a man consumes tissue in hard intellectual work, the way to repair the loss is by resting, and not by consuming more tissue in physical exercise. To the majority of brain workers oxygenation of the blood is far more important than physical exercise, and there are two very good ways to secure that: Sleep with your bedroom window wide open in winter and summer, and, if you can afford it, keep a horse and drive in the open air.—Boston Watchman.

Revolving Platforms.
It is considered that the time occupied in taking on passengers at railway stations is a waste, and a well-known engineer has devised a revolving platform by means of which passengers can enter the train while it is running at full speed. A spiral staircase is erected in the centre of a huge turn-table, which, of course, moves very slowly. By this the passenger reaches the main floor. He then walks towards the circumference. The speed at which it is being carried along gradually increases, until at the edge he is travelling at the rate of the moving train, which he here finds seemingly at rest, and with the doors open. He enters, and as the moving platform is left behind the doors are automatically closed until the next station is reached, when they are automatically opened again.—Waverley Magazine.

Scrooge.
In connection with the Dickens celebration of yesterday it may be remarked that the local habitation of Scrooge has been lately identified in an old jeweler's shop at Ludgate Hill, a little way from St. Paul's on the left hand side. Here lived a curious miserly old man, much such as Dickens described, and the most extraordinary entries were found in his book (when the accounts were gone over after his death). The shop answered exactly to the description of Scrooge's office, and it is probable that Dickens saw it in one of his many walks about London.—London Chronicle.

Manufacture of beer from beet roots is being advocated in England. The beet albumin in the sugar juices, but it is stated that the cost of separating it from the gums, acids and salts is somewhat expensive and would result in a higher price being charged for the beer.

Try Grain-O! Try Grain-O!
Ask your grocer to-day to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, find GRAIN-O has that rich, smooth taste of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. 1/4 the price of coffee, 1/2 and 5¢, per package. Sold by all grocers.

Cremation is becoming increasingly popular in Paris, and the crematorium erected at the cemetery of Pere Lachaise has already been found to be too small. Additions are being made, and a third furnace, a large hall and a columbarium will soon be ready for use. The latter somewhat resembles the Campo Santo of Genoa, and will contain 10,000 receptacles for ashes. These niches are closed with slabs of marble, on which inscriptions may be cut.

It is estimated that fully 10,000 "laws" will have been enacted before the Legislatures adjourn. That is to say, the 50 law-making bodies, exclusive of Congress, that assembled this winter will have passed and the Governors of the various States will have signed that number of good, bad and indifferent bills. Last year there were 13 Legislatures in session and they enacted 5,772 new laws.
