GREAT HAVOC WROUGHT.

Disasfrous Explosion at Chemical Works in Germany Kills and Maims 200 Persons-Many Entombod.

One of the most disastrous explo-sions on record occurred Thursday af-ternoon at the Electro-Chemical works near Griesheim, Germany, where smokeless powder is manufactured. Most of the bollers exploded, The noise was so tremendous that it was heard at great distances, including Frankfort and Mayence. The factory immediately became a carried the sparks to neighboring villages, where several houses were also set on fire. Eighteen cylinders, each containing about 100 weight of smokeless powder, were in the room where the explosion occurred.

Troops were immediately ordered to Griesheim to prevent the fire spreading to the large benzine reservoirs nearby. Fire brigades from every place in the neighborhood hurried to the scene, but owing to the daugerous nature of the disaster and the fear of a renewal of the explosions the great-est difficulty was experienced in stopping the progress of the flames.

Only after five hours strenuous effort was the conflagration to some ex-tent controlled and the danger passed so as to make it possible to begin the work of extricating the bodies. It is feared that 200 persons have been killed or injured.

The flames spread with frightful speed to the adjacent buildings. When a second explosion took place the fumes and masses of burning chemi-cals made it impossible to stay in the vicinity. The inhabitants of Gresheim were ordered to leave their villages, which they did, fleeing to Frankfort. Four sheds for dressing the wounds of the injured have been erected. The catastrophe originated in a small fire which ignited several receptacles of ploric acid, causing a terrific explosion. houses adjoining the factory were partly burned and partly demolished by the explosion.

Cuba's Trade Diminished.

A decrease of $220,081 in the cusoms receipts of Cuba for the months of January and February 1901, as compared with the same period of 1900 is shown in a statement issued by the division of Insular Affairs. This is but another indication of the remarkable let-down in the trade of Cuba, as forth in a recent statement of the department, which showed that Cuba's trade with the outside world had decreased over $1,500,000 in imports and over $2,000,000 in exports for the first harsh treatment the Chinese have re-ceived from the Germans. Cole called three times for the boat would wash his house away. The boat came on, Cole fired three times, and Terry fell. The Keystone State was fired on several times above Marietta, but no one was hurt.

Besides the ball that went through Terry's heart, another splintered the pilot house near where Edward Mc-Laughlin, of Pittsburg, was standing. The distance from the flooded house to the boat was about 400 feet. boat's crew testified that the steamer floated all the way down from Marietta and when making the landing did not cause a swell.

The Pittsburg, Cincinnati and Louis ville Transportation Company, which owns the Keystone State, it is said, will take up the shooting of Terry, and do all in its power to have Sidney Cole. who is said to have done the shooting, punished. Capt. James A. Henderson, president of the company, will also endeavor to have stopped the firing at passing steamers during times of flood. The murder of Terry is the result of residents along the river firing at passing steamers to prevent them from running fast and inundating the uses by the swells that result.

Railroad Earnings Exhibit Gains and the Whole Situation is Encouraging. Wheat

R. G. Dun & Co.'s "Weekly Review of Trade" says: Business continues very brisk for the season in the face of some drawbacks. Bank clearances show that while speculation has been heavy there must have been a well-sustained volume of legitimate business. Railroad earnings make similar-ly encouraging galus, and the future is full of promise, unless there is some misfortune with the crops. Much unfavorable comment has appeared re-garding the advance in steel rails to $28. Yet the change is only in keep-ing with recent increase in prices of pig iron and billets. It is reported from Pittsburg. Pa. that mills are not crowded by demand to the extent noticed in 1800, but productive capacity has largely expanded. After a prolonged period of waiting After a prolonged period of waiting for definite crop news, the cereal markets suddenly awoke to musual activity. Much of the increased trading and sharp advance in prices resulted from clever manipulation by a western speculator, who compelled the short contingent to cover May corn contracts at the highest prices of the senson. While there was an element season. While there was an element strength in the reports of late plant ing, slow movement of the old crop held greated influence as stocks available for delivery were light. Wheat has risen sharply, partly in sympathty with corn, but there was bau news re-garding the German crop, and some damage occurred in the west. Failures for the week numbered 215 in the United States, against 204 last year, and 20 in Canada, against 22 last year.

Bradstreet's says: While adversely affected by unfavorable weather conditions, general trade manifests a strong underlying tone which seemingly lacks only the advent of better weather to become buoyant. Cold weather has affected planting in some sections, but the probable damage to crops is not so great as earlier advices appeared to indicate. The backward spring has worked to the disadvantage of dry goods, but the trade is looking up somewhat with the promise of improved weather conditions. Heavy clearings continue to reflect a large creases noticed, particularly in coffee, flour, wheat corn, oats, lard and tin, while butter, cheese, petroleum and odd sizes of print cloths show declines. Speculation in wheat last week was active, and the price movement was upward. Less activity is noted in dry upward. Less activity is noted in dry goods, clothing and shoes at Chicago, though a fair business is under way. A stiffening of prices is noted in lumber with a demand fully up to the supply. From Portland, Ore., comes the report that the logging camps are taxed to supply orders. There is little alteration in hides. The jobbing trade in general remains seed.
