

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, without all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Reception and Banquet.

Last Friday evening the juniors, sub-juniors and preparatory classes gave the senior class a reception at G. M. McDonald's home and a banquet in Bell's hall. The company began gathering about 8 o'clock and by 9 o'clock about fifty from the high school and preparatory departments had assembled.

Games were played for awhile and then all adjourned to the hall to enjoy the program, which was given by the members of the senior class. C. W. Flynn, president of the class, presided. As Miss Viola McGaw was unable, on account of illness, to be present, the salutatory was omitted. J. G. Muir opened the evening's mirth and merriment with "The Class History."

Following the program was the parting of the refreshments which had been prepared in the banquet hall. There were wafers, sherbet, cake, fruit and were included in the menu. The of the junior class served and a skillful hand.

On Monday of this week tickets were sold at the B. R. & P. ticket office stating that on and after the 1st day of there would be no more family or any mileage books issued by the company to issue books for individual and family or were accepted by the transportation by any present them. Un- tions, which are now books will be sold and individual in whose It is now necessary firm that wishes to have a mileage considerable complaint by persons who do has always been possi- to buy from others as this was wa- to be de- with was the day that firm form of mileage was at many traveling men used them at the time in order to advantage of the old custom as possible.—Falls Creek Herald.

Johnston & Nolan have a fine line of Robinson's shoes for gentlemen. See merchant tailor, makes Try him. shoes that were 75c., sizes 11 to 2 at buggy almost new at Hall, opposite post- paints are guaran- are made. Can be Hardware Co.'s. ment and finest line P. Hoffman's.

M. E. Church, Where the High School Commencement Exercises are held this Year.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

Graduating Sermon Sunday—Junior Contest Last Night—Christine Brown Awarded First Prize—Verdi Dougherty Second—Graduating Exercises To-Night.

The Reynoldsville public schools close a very successful term to-day. The high school commencement exercises will be held in the M. E. church this evening.

The fifth annual sermon to the graduating class was delivered in the M. E. church Sunday morning. It was a delightful service and there was a large congregation present—the church was packed. The church was beautifully decorated with lilies, ferns, etc., and the class colors—red and green. Leaflets, with order of services, were handed to each person as they entered the church and this gave the entire congregation the privilege of taking part in most all the services. Mrs. James W. Gillespie, who is a sweet singer, gave a solo before the sermon was preached. J. D. Moffat, D. D., LL. D., president of the Washington and Jefferson College, preached the graduating sermon from the following text: "I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." Dr. Moffat preached an able and excellent sermon. His remarks to the graduating class at close of sermon was to the point.

The fifth annual junior elocutionary contest was held in the M. E. church last night. There was a large audience present and the contestants acquitted themselves grandly. The contestants and their subjects were as follows: "Jenks' Infernal Machine," Ira Bowser; "The Soul of the Violin," Ralph Kirk; "How June Found Massa Linkum," Christine Brown; "Briar Rose," Grace Meek; "Mamie's Story of Red Riding Hood," Verdi Dougherty; "Lost in the Mountain," Katie King; "The Second Trial," Ethelyn Winslow; "Constant and the Lion," Fred Smith; "The Sleeping Sentinel," Katie Kerr.

Miss Christine Brown was awarded first prize, a gold medal, and Miss Verdi Dougherty second prize, a book. The judges were Rev. S. M. Gordon, of Brookville, Profs. Green and Smith of DuBois.

The fifth annual graduating exercises

Prof. G. W. Lenkerd, Principal.

will be held in the M. E. church this evening, beginning at 8:15. The program will be as follows: Invocation, Dr. A. J. Meek; piano solo, Frances King; "The American Girl," Effie Alberta Milliren; "Our Wards," James G. Muir; "Foot Prints," Alice Esther Evans; solo, May Faxon Stowell; "Dreams," Sara Viola McGaw; "Sunshine and Shadows," Britta Maud Hoon; "Ideals," Frances Amelia King; "Whither are We Going?" Clement Weinker Flynn; solo, May Faxon Stowell; graduating address, Dr. A. E. Turner, president Waynesburg College; solo, May Faxon Stowell; presentation of diplomas, Hon. S. B. Elliott. The exercises will be excellent to-night and there should be a large attendance.

Miss Viola McGaw, a member of the graduating class, has been ill for several weeks and will not be able to take her part in the graduating exercises tonight. Miss McGaw was sick when the picture of the class was taken, and that is the reason she does not appear in the picture printed in THE STAR this week.

Prof. H. C. Leavenworth, Asst. Principal.

A business meeting of the Alumni Association will be held in the lecture room of the M. E. church to-morrow afternoon. The alumni banquet will be held at Hotel Imperial to-morrow, Thursday, evening.

A man who knows from experience says: "The charms of building a newspaper exist in the imagination of the man who never tried it. The two chief troubles of the man who makes newspapers are these: First, his life is one long struggle in the attempt to make a blind, unreasoning public appreciate his paper—read it—and pay for it. In the second place comes the other struggle—to secure a proper appreciation of the great value of his paper as an advertising medium. These two things hold the center of the stage in the panorama of nightmares which goes to make up life in newspaperdom."

Letter List.

List of unclaimed letters remaining in the postoffice at Reynoldsville, Pa., week ending May 4th, 1901:

Mrs. Elmer Craig, T. E. Davis, John Hannon, W. A. Miller, J. G. Miller, Mrs. Rose Marshall, Joe Passer, Philip Plyler, Mrs. Clara Straltwell, Charley Sair.

Say advertised and give date of list when calling for above.

A. M. WOODWARD, P. M.

Bids Wanted.

I will receive bids up to and including May 15th for the erection of a two-story brick dwelling house. Plans and specifications can be seen at Johnston & Nolan's shoe store. I reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

DANIEL NOLAN, Reynoldsville, Pa. May 7th, 1901.

Always busy. Why? Prices that gratify and goods that satisfy at Millirens clothing show in tent.

Gibson, whose optical advertisement appears elsewhere in this issue, is so well known that a lengthy notice is not needed. See him if in need of good optical work.

In a few days J. C. Barto will have potted plants for sale at his green grocery.

We have the best shoes ever shown. Our ladies' shoes for $2.00 is a seller. Robinson's.

James Allen Hammond Dead.

It is seldom, indeed, we are called upon to perform so sad and painful a duty as to record here the death of James Allen Hammond of Pine street, this city, a personal friend and nearest neighbor, who died at Norfolk, (Va.) Hospital Tuesday, a. m., April 30, of acute Bright's disease. A man much above the average in intelligence, a fine scholar, a public spirited citizen, a considerate, neighborly neighbor, a loving husband and doting father has gone from among us and he will be missed in the home and in the wide circle of his friends more than words can express. Funeral at Lutheran church Friday at 1:30 p. m. The Knights of Pythias and Royal Arcanum Societies in charge. More extended notice next week.—Clearfield Public Spirit. The deceased was a brother of Jos. S. Hammond of this place.

The Keystone Hardware Co. having placed an experienced man in charge of their plumbing department, are now prepared to do all kinds of plumbing—water, gas and steam—at reasonable prices. All work guaranteed to be strictly first-class.

When you want shoes no matter what kind call at Robinson's.

Same goods for less money at Millirens clothing show in tent.

Good Advice.

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. More than seventy-five percent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Heart-burn, Water-brush, Gnaesing and Burning Pains at the Pit of the Stomach, Yellow Skin, Coated Tongue and Disagreeable Taste in the Mouth, Coming up of Food after Eating, Loss of Spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. For sale at H. Alex Stoko's drug store. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

Noties.

To whom it may concern: The Commissioners appointed by Court to inquire into the propriety of dividing Winslow township into new election districts, will meet at Hotel McConnell, Reynoldsville, Pa., on Friday, May 17th, 1901, at 8 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of performing the duties of our appointment.

JAMES B. CALDWELL, Ed. C. BURNS, J. W. FOUST, Commissioners.

Viewers' Notice.

NOTICE: In the matter of the petition of the chief burgess and town council of the borough of Reynoldsville for the appointment of viewers to assess damages and benefits caused by the laying out and opening for public use and benefit an extension of Willow alley from the eastern line of Eighth street to the western line of lot now owned by Jerry Heckman, on a line with said alley as already opened up and laid out, across the lands of Mrs. George Rhodes, A. M. Applegate and C. H. Prescott, Jr., and others if need be.

In the Court of Common Pleas of Jefferson county, No. 85, August term, 1901.

The undersigned, having been appointed by aforesaid court viewers in the foregoing matter, hereby give notice that they will on Wednesday, May 15th, 1901, at 9 o'clock a. m., meet on the line of said improvement on Willow alley at the western line of lot owned by Jerry Heckman and end of Willow alley as now laid out and opened, thence proceeding over the line of said proposed improvement to eastern line of Eighth street, viewing the same and the premises affected thereby, surveying and plotting same and hear all parties interested therein and their witnesses.

GEO. MULLINGER, A. G. MILLIREN, ALBERT REYNOLDS, Viewers. Reynoldsville, Pa., April 26th, 1901.

Tablets given away with school shoes at Johnston & Nolan's.

Mitchell, the ladies tailor.

Vertical advertisement for 'JOB WORK!' featuring 'The Star Office' and 'Neat Work Done on Short Notice!'

Millirens Big Clothing Show Under Canvas

A TWENTIETH CENTURY CLOTHING SHOW

Our many patrons will admire our pluck and be pleased to learn that we are still doing business in Reynoldsville.

Four months ago we told you that we would remain in Reynoldsville as long as there was a single roof, and true to our promise we have pitched our tent on the vacant lot above the Baptist church. Some may think that this is a little out of the location but we are going to sell goods at prices that will attract the entire community for miles around. In fact, the public has patronized our store so liberally in the past ten years that we can afford to sell goods at prices lower than other merchants can buy them, as we have a vast outlet for these goods, and buy them in enormous quantities, direct from the largest and best factories in the world.

Men's Spring and Summer Suits.

RIGHT IN STYLE, MAKE AND PRICE. Our suit department gives unbounded opportunity for economy to the man who would dress well and keep within a moderate price. There's a standard of workmanship, neatness and low price about our suits that is a guarantee of money-saving and satisfaction.

$5.00, $6.00, $7.00 and $8.00 is a modest price, but it means much more quality at Millirens than it does in the average clothing stock. It means good cloths, to begin with, good linings, as a matter of course, with equal fit and style. It will be a fruitless search to get just as good elsewhere for so low a price.

You can find your favorite pattern and color and pick it out from more than 100 new designs in Scotch Cheviots, Fancy Cassimeres, Fancy Worsteds or black and blue Cloths, Tibets and Cheviots. Come in and test this stock and get prices before you buy. A STEP HIGHER IN SUIT QUALITY—$10.00, $12.00, $14.00, $15.00 and $16.00 and it gives you, without any intention of exaggeration, the identical values which the most conservative tailors thinks right at $25.00. At this price the hard-to-fit man has easy sailing. He may be long, short, slim or stout, this particular stock holds his kind and size. That's the broad gauge system of this department. A splendid assortment of the newest spring fabrics, and as stripes are the most popular, we'd ask special attention to the many genteel effects: Olives, Browns' Oxfords and Blues in Scotch Cheviots. Suits without a fault and famous values at the price.

Men's Furnishing Department.

It will pay you to come here for your Outing Shirts. We have what is by far the largest and best showing of Men's Outing Shirts in the town, with prices always less than elsewhere. Prices 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

NECKBAND OUTING SHIRTS—Men's Outing shirts to wear a white collar on, with extra cuffs in fancy percales. Also Bedford cords and Madras cloth. 75c and $1.00 values go at 50c. Men's finer grade outing shirts in finest imported Madras and Cheviot and Zephyr cloth and silk. All the leading makes, warranted for fit and workmanship. Price, $1.00 down.

BOY'S OUTING SHIRTS—Complete assortment in all grades in neckband style. Come in Madras, Cheviots and Percale, at 50c. A large assortment of boy's soft outing shirts, 25c. Light and dark colors. Everything new in the way of Men's Furnishing goods for spring and summer wear can be had in this, Reynoldsville's Biggest and Best Furnishing Department, in large variety and at money-saving prices.

Men's Underwear.

Largest Underwear stock in the town, more than double the assortment of any other store, direct purchases from the mills and our own importations enables us to name prices which defy competition. Men's Plain Balbriggan made of long staple cotton, 35c value, goes at 25c. A big line of the celebrated French Imported Underwear made to sell at $1.00, goes at 50c the garment.

Our Hat Department

Is full and overflowing with bargains. We always have done the Hat business of this town and we intend to retain it. Our line is full and complete with all the latest novelties of the season at prices that are the lowest. If you want up-to-date stuff it will pay you to visit our hat department. A BIG LINE OF STRAW GOODS.

Remember WE keep everything contained in a first-class Clothing and Gents' Furnishing store. We can fit a man out from the soles of his feet to the crown of his head. And don't forget the place—

In the Tent above the Baptist Church.

It don't matter who you are, you are invited to visit the Clothing Show of the Twentieth Century, even if you don't want to buy.

MILLIRENS, The Honest and Reliable Clothiers.

REYNOLDSVILLE