

WATCHES.

You can't afford to be without one. If you will call at my store and get prices you will second the motion. A watch that will keep time for $9.00; one that will keep better time for $13.50; and one that will keep good time for $2.00; and those wanting a nice one and good time keeper, we have it from $8.00 up in gold filled.

C. F. HOFFMAN,
The Jeweler.

BRIGHTEST ARTISTS
BEST WORKMEN
MOST MODERN MACHINERY
PRODUCE PITTSBURG
WALL PAPERS

No Antiquated Methods

are or in the manufacture of Wall Paper. The bright in the world execute it. The best and the most modern machinery produce the Pittsburg paper. Every new and valuable decorative idea is incorporated in this superior line. We are glad to say we sell it. If you would see the richest and most artistic patterns at the most reasonable prices, come to our store.

H. ALEX STOKES.

A Little of Everything.

A. E. Dunn has purchased a lot at Falls Creek. He expects to move there soon.

Heavy flannels and an overcoat have not been uncomfortable the past few nights.

A new schedule will go into effect on the Low Grade Division of P. R. R. May 26th.

Leaking flues in the boilers caused a shut down a day or two at Hopkins mill last week.

A number of people who were in a hurry taking off their heavy flannels are sniffling about it now.

Rev. D. B. Stahlman, of Sarversville, Pa., will preach in the Lutheran church at this place next Sunday evening.

Fred Booth, of Wilkingsburg, came up to assist his father in building Mrs. Maud Booth's new house on Grant street.

J. E. Kirkwood, of this place, and W. W. Hogue, of Pittsburg, are holding evangelistic meetings at Hopkins this week.

Rev. J. E. Dean, of this place, preached in Falls Creek Sunday with a view of organizing a Baptist mission at that place.

Millirens, the clothiers, who are doing business in a tent near THE STAR office, have bought a large mastiff dog for a watch dog at night.

Mrs. Robert Muir got a hard fall one night last week on account of a bad sidewalk on Fifth street. One side of her face was injured.

Members of the Baptist church will hold a prayer meeting at the residence of Daniel S. Chittister in West Reynoldsville to-morrow, Thursday evening.

The Woman's Relief Corps will serve ice cream and cake on the lawn next to Mrs. W. H. Lucas' residence, near THE STAR office, Friday evening, May 17th.

Councilman David R. Cochran has moved his Main street residence to rear of lot to make room for a new brick building that he will have erected this summer.

Miss Caroline Belle Nichols, the elocutionist from Boston, who was in Reynoldsville five weeks instructing the juniors and seniors of the high school for the commencement, left here Monday for New York state.

The Star orchestra will hold a dance in Frank's Park Thursday night of this week.

Gaetano Petrelle was badly injured in Big Soldier mine Monday forenoon. He was taken to the Adrian hospital the same day.

Rev. W. Frank Reber was in Allegheny City last Thursday night attending the commencement exercises at the Theological University in that city.

Everett H. Sterling, of Portland, Oregon, and Miss Blanch E. Koffer, of Brookville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Lucas for several days last week.

Miss Myrtle Gest, who has taught a number of terms in the primary department of our public schools, returned to her home at Worthville the latter part of last week.

Mrs. James Cathart left here Monday morning to visit her daughter, Mrs. Scott Keirn, at Ashtola, Somerset county, Pa. Mr. Keirn is superintendent of the Babcock Co. Mill at Ashtola.

There will be a meeting of Hose Co. No. 2 on Thursday evening, May 16th, 1901. All members are requested to be present as there is business of importance to transact. By order of President.

On Saturday the glass plant shut down until September. A number of the employees are moving away, especially the Belgians. This will make it easier to find a vacant house for a few months.

Constable P. J. Ward, of West Reynoldsville, who has been one of THE STAR'S regular subscribers from the start, is always prompt to pay his subscription when a new volume is started. Mr. Ward was on time last week.

Prof. H. C. Leavenworth, an impersonator and reciter, who was assistant principal of our schools during the past term, went to McKeesport Friday where he gave an entertainment that evening. From McKeesport Prof. went to his home at Wellesville, Ohio.

Adam Kime, a glass-worker, who was an employe at the Star Glass Company plant during the last fire, has gone to his home at Oswego, N. Y. Mr. Kime expects to move his family to this place in the fall. He is a christian gentleman and will make a good citizen.

At the annual meeting of the Reynoldsville High School Alumni Association held last Thursday afternoon the following officers were elected: President, Clement W. Flynn; vice-president, Miss Frances A. King; secretary, Miss Lulu Black; treasurer, Frank P. Alexander.

The room next to Siple's meat market, formerly occupied by shooting gallery and billiard room, is now being remodeled and fixed up to be used by Alex Riston as a cigar store and cigar factory. At present Mr. Riston has his cigar factory in rooms on second floor of Syndicate building.

James A. Cathers, of Pittsburg, who visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cathers, the latter part of April, has been home a few days the past week. He is a fireman on a P. R. R. passenger train and on account of a lame back he was not able to work and that is why he came home so soon again.

Prof. H. D. Patton, the noted temperance lecturer of Pa., will address a union gospel temperance meeting on the subject, "The Saloon Across Church Path," in Centennial hall, Reynoldsville, Sunday May 19th, at 3:00 p. m. All are most cordially invited to attend this meeting. Good music will be provided.

Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church, went to Philadelphia this morning to attend the Presbyterian General Assembly. Rev. Reber expects to be absent two weeks. There will not be any preaching service in the Presbyterian church next Sunday. Announcement for the following Sunday will be made in our next issue.

Frank A. McConnell, proprietor of Frank's Tavern, who changed his bar-room from first-floor to basement last year and opened a restaurant in the room formerly used for bar-room, has men at work enlarging what was used for a cellar and this will be fitted up to be used for a restaurant. This will give Mr. McConnell more room on first floor.

Misses Grace and Helen Meek left here Saturday to visit a month in Pittsburg, Washington and Waynesburg. Their sister, Miss Maud, who has been teaching school at Derry Station, met them at Pittsburg. After the visit at above named places Maud and Helen will return to Reynoldsville and Grace will go to Castle, Pa., to spend the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fisher have been in Reynoldsville a number of months, but never moved their household goods to this place. They spent the winter in E. E. Stewart's house, which they rented already furnished. Mrs. Fisher went to Philadelphia yesterday to have her household goods shipped to this place. They will go to housekeeping in Mrs. Maud Booth's house on Grant street, formerly known as the Beebe house.

At Work Again.

We mentioned last week that the section men on the Low Grade Division of P. R. R. were all out on a strike for higher wages. They got an advance of 12 cents per day and have returned to work again. Before the strike they were getting $1.20 per day, now they are getting $1.32.

Will Sail for England.

Mrs. John Trudgen and son, William Trudgen, and Mrs. William Northey will leave here next Monday on a two months visit with relatives in England. They will sail from New York City on 22nd inst. This will be the first visit to the fatherland in twenty-one years.

Left Hand Amputated.

Andrew Garrity, a Scotchman who has been in this country one week, lost his left hand in Sprague mine Monday. Garrity, who is a machinist, had charge of an engine in the mine and he accidentally fell, throwing his left hand in the cogs of engine. The doctors amputated the hand.

Moved to Verona.

John S. Clark, an employe of the P. R. R., who moved to West Reynoldsville about seven years ago, has been transferred to Verona, Pa., near Pittsburg, where he moved his family yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Clark and family made many warm friends during their stay in West Reynoldsville. Mr. Clark was a good citizen.

Craft-Stewart.

John C. Craft and Miss Florence L. Stewart, both of this place, were married at the residence of Mr. Craft's sister, Mrs. John F. Reed, in Falls Creek on the evening of May 7th, 1901. Rev. Cyrus H. Frampton, M. E. pastor of Creek performed the marriage ceremony. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart, and is well known in town.

Anniversary Observed.

The twelfth anniversary of the Epworth League was observed in the M. E. church Sunday evening by a special program given by members of the League. Dr. L. L. Means, president of League, presided. W. W. Hogue, a song evangelist of Pittsburg, was present and sang several selections. He is a good singer. The entire program was well carried out.

Stone-Gundy.

Ernest Spencer Stone, of Pittsburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stone of this place, and Mary J. Gundy, of Oakmont, daughter of Conductor Gundy of the River Division of P. R. R., will be married at 8:00 p. m. to-day at the residence of Mr. Gundy at Oakmont. Miss Florence Stone, who will be bride's maid, went to Oakmont yesterday and Mr. and Mrs. Stone will go down this morning to attend the wedding.

Moving Pictures.

The moving picture entertainment given in the opera house Monday evening by Lyman H. Howe, was the finest, best and most elaborate entertainment of the kind that travels in this section of the country. The large audience was delighted with it. If Mr. Howe comes this way again the opera house would not be large enough to accommodate the crowd. Mr. Howe's funny man, who entertained the audience several times during the evening, is certainly first-class in that line.

Surprise Party.

William Trudgen, one of our worthy young men who is soon to take a trip to England, was given a surprise party by a number of his young friends Wednesday evening of last week. It was a complete surprise to him. There were about forty-five young people present and it proved to be an exceedingly enjoyable occasion for all. As tokens of the high esteem the young people have for William he was given a bible, gold-mounted fountain pen and a gold ring. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Golden Eagle Visitors.

Thirty-five members of the Knights of Golden Eagle, Mt. Queen Castle, of DuBois, including the degree team, visited Mt. Cliff Castle at this place last Thursday evening. The degree team put one member through the second degree. The team is a good one and their costumes are fine. The Golden Eagles meet in Bell's hall and after the degree work was over refreshments were served in the banquet hall in rear of lodge room. The Eagles had such a pleasant time together that the visitors did not start for home until after 1:00 a. m., Friday.

Another Large Brick Block.

On Monday of this week Millirens, the clothiers, bought a 60 foot lot between the National Hotel and Froelich-Henry block on Main street, from Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Reynolds. This leaves 12 feet next to the hotel, and Millirens may purchase 7 feet more, giving them a 67 foot front. However, if they do not secure the extra 7 feet they will erect a two story brick with a 60 foot front. They propose putting up a front that will surpass any other front in town. The work of erecting the building will be started as soon as possible and rushed through. The stable on lot will be torn down this week and the frame building will be moved to rear of lot and fixed up for rent. Millirens paid $8,000 for the lot.

Fifth Annual Banquet.

The fifth annual banquet and reunion of the Reynoldsville High School Alumni Association was held at Hotel Imperial Thursday evening. The members of the association and invited guests assembled in the parlor where a short program was given as follows: Selection by male quartette, which so delighted the audience that the quartette sang a second number. Recitation by Prof. H. C. Leavenworth, who is a good impersonator. Recitation by Inez E. Brown, who rendered the selection in a charming style. Vocal solo, Florence Stone, who is a sweet singer. Recitation by Caroline Belle Nichols, the elocutionist who makes a business of that line of work. Agnes Stone memorial by Dorothy Sutter. The memorial will be found in another column of this issue. Vocal solo by Frances King, who as usual pleased her hearers. The guests then repaired to the dining room to partake of the good things that had been prepared. The menu was all that the most fastidious could desire. After the culinary department had been highly complimented Toast Master G. W. Lenker arose and called the jolly banqueters to order and then toasts were called for and responded to by the following persons: Minnie Whitmore, Will C. Smith, Bertha Marshall, Prof. H. C. Leavenworth, Margaret Dalley, Dr. John H. Murray and Clement W. Flynn. As "the iron tongue of midnight tolled twelve" the fifth annual banquet ended and the guests departed to their respective homes feeling that they had spent a pleasant evening.

Mrs. Montgomery Dead.

Mrs. Carrie E. Montgomery, of this place, died at Dixmont May 9, 1901. The body was brought to Reynoldsville Friday. At 8:00 a. m. Sunday, May 12, a short funeral sermon from John 15-12, selected by the family, was preached by her pastor, Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., at her late residence, after which the remains were taken to Brookville and buried beside the husband, who died about thirteen years ago.

Mrs. Montgomery was born March 10, 1856, making her over 45 years old at time of death. She was married when quite young and when her husband died she was left with four daughters and one son. One daughter is married to A. G. Hons, of Falls Creek. Mrs. Montgomery succeeded in getting her son into Girard College, Philadelphia, where he remained a number of years, leaving the college this spring.

Mrs. Montgomery moved to Reynoldsville five years ago. She was a hard worker and made many sacrifices for her children. She bought the residence they now live in and had it almost paid for. Beside the home work Mrs. Montgomery sold a number of articles from house to house. She was highly respected for her untiring efforts to care for her loved ones. About the first of May she suffered from a mental collapse and had to be taken to Dixmont, where she died 8 days after entering that institution.

At 8:30 last evening, May 14, Miss Minnie C. Kelley, nee of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Guthrie, and Charles A. Ackerman, a silversmith of Boston, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of "Squire Guthrie, in West Reynoldsville, by Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of a number of invited guests. It was a very pretty wedding. The ceremony was performed under an arch of beautiful blossoms and green leaves. The bride was dressed in white. Miss Roberta Ayres played Koppits wedding march. Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Weed were the bride and groom attendants. After congratulations a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The couple received a number of pretty presents. The bride, who has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie several years, has a number of young friends in town who will wish her happiness and success.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. E. Miller, of Troutville, mother and step-father of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. David Blakesly and daughter, of DuBois, were the out of town people who attended the wedding.

Will be Dedicated Sunday. The new M. E. church at Johnsonburg will be dedicated next Sunday. Preliminary services are being held in the church every evening this week except Saturday evening. Rev. Perry A. Reno preaches in the new church this evening. Rev. A. B. Riker, D. D., president of Mt. Union College, Alliance, Ohio, will preach the dedicatory sermon. Rev. J. H. Jelbart, the pastor, has worked hard and faithfully to raise money to build the Johnsonburg church.

A good baby carriage for sale at half price. Inquire at this office.

Bicycle sundries at Hoffman's.

Mothers' look. The bargains in boys' waists over at Millirens clothing show in tent.

Fashionable shoes for men at Robinson's.

Bicycle tires at Hoffman's.

Same goods for less money at Millirens clothing show in tent.

Eye trouble corrected at C. F. Hoffman's.

A new line of 8 and 10 cent wall paper, many of them guilts, at Reynolds's.

Street Fakir.

A street fakir did a good business in this place selling spoons Friday evening. He advertised a free show and not quite all the small boys in town were present to see the performance, but the only show there was about it was a large amount of cheek and the fakir's ability to sell spoons. The fellow put on a bold front to intimidate any person that might have had an inclination to disturb him during the evening. He flourished a large revolver, blowed about his skill as a marksman and promised to give an exhibition in that line during the evening, but he failed to do so. The fellow claimed to be traveling through the country advertising goods for a large silver firm and promised to give every person a spoon free, and just as he was ready to throw spoons to the crowd he pretended he heard some person say he could give the spoons away, but could not sell them. He was saucy about the (supposed) fellow sticking his nose into other people's business, and just to show him that he could sell the spoons he got a half dozen or more fellows to buy a half dozen spoons apiece, with a promise that he would make it all right with them, and he did so by giving them back their money. This was a bait and it worked successfully. While trying to sell more spoons he heard the same smart chap (in his mind) remark again that he could give the spoons away but could not sell them, and he "combed" the fellow down in an artistic manner and promised to point him out to the crowd, but he didn't. Thus the fakir kept things moving until he had succeeded in disposing of a large amount of silverware.

An Honest Man.

An advertisement appeared in THE STAR last week of a pocket book being found by James K. Johnston, of the Keystone Hardware Co., and on Thursday morning Joseph Spears called at the store, gave a description of the purse lost and amount of money in it, and Mr. Johnston gave him the purse and money. There was between $41.00 and $42.00 in the purse. Mr. Spears was delighted on getting back his money. He had no idea where he lost it and had given up hopes of getting it again until he read the advertisement. He offered Mr. Johnston $5.00 reward for his honesty, but Mr. Johnston refused to accept a cent for finding and returning of the money.

Mrs. Palmer Dead.

Mrs. Ellen Palmer, wife of Rev. J. H. Palmer, pastor of the Sykesville Baptist church, died in a Philadelphia hospital Thursday morning, May 9th, 1901. The remains were brought to Sykesville Friday and interred in the Baptist cemetery at that place Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Palmer was taken to Philadelphia May 3rd to have an operation performed. She died two days after the operation. The deceased was about 49 years old. She was a devout christian and was held in high esteem by those acquainted with her. The husband, one son and one daughter mourn for her.

J. A. J. Fugate Dead.

J. A. J. Fugate, formerly a resident of Reynoldsville, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Notter, in DuBois Monday morning, May 13th, after an illness of several months. The direct cause of his death was a paralytic stroke which he suffered about two years ago. Mr. Fugate was in his 73rd year. Funeral services will be held at residence of his daughter this forenoon. The deceased was the father of Robert M. Fugate, who resides near Rathmel.

Killed by Cars.

Mrs. James Campbell received a telegram Saturday that her brother, Bert Farnham, of Howard, Pa., had been killed on the railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell went to Howard Monday morning to attend the funeral. Mr. Farnham was 36 years old. He leaves a wife and five children.

Prohibition Convention.

By the authority of the county executive committee the Prohibitionists of Jefferson county are called to meet in the old Methodist church building in Punxsutawney on May 20th, at 2:00 p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the State convention and to nominate candidates for county offices to be elected in November next. All Prohibitionists and temperance workers who favor the suppression of the drink traffic are requested to attend. There will be a mass meeting addressed by Prof. H. D. Patton and State Chairman Jones.

S. SHAFER, Chair. Co. Com.

Supplement.

The scholarship contest advertisement and coupon will be found on the supplement issued with THE STAR this week.

If you buy at Millirens clothing show you will find when you get home one-third of your money remains unspent.

Eyes examined and glasses fitted at C. F. Hoffman's.

Don't fail to look over our shoes, we can save you money. Robinson's.

Men's two-thread mixed half-hose 3c per pair at Millirens clothing show in tent.

Get your bike repaired at Hoffman's repair shop.

For Sale—10,000 rolls wall paper from 5c to $2.50 per roll. Some new floral stripes that are fine. Also several oriental patterns. At Reynolds's.

GRADUATING EXERCISES.

Orations Fine—Graduating Address the Best Ever Heard in the Town.

The fifth annual graduating exercises of the Reynoldsville high school, held in the M. E. church last Wednesday evening, were excellent, but the graduates were not greeted with as large an audience as should have been present. The attendance was below last year. Those who failed to attend these exercises missed a rare treat, not only in the masterly orations given by the graduates, but the graduating address given by Dr. A. E. Turner, president of Waynesburg College. This was the finest graduating address ever delivered in Reynoldsville. The program of the evening was as follows:

Invocation by Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church; piano solo, Frances King, "The American Girl," by Effie Alberta Milliren, was eulogized in a graceful and easy manner. Effie acquitted herself grandly. "Our Wards," was the title of James G. Muir's oration. James became somewhat eloquent while speaking of our beloved America. Alice Esther Evans was the next speaker and her subject was "Foot Prints." Miss Evans is a pleasant speaker. Solo by May Faxon Stowell. Mrs. Stowell was loudly encored and was called back several times during the evening. The next selection on the program was "Dreams," by Sara Viola McGaw. Miss McGaw, who had been ill several weeks, was present but was not able to take part in the exercises. "Sunshine and Shadows," was the subject assigned to Britta Maud Hoon; she did the subject justice and gave her friends reasons to feel proud of her. The next number was "Ideals," by Frances Amelia King, who delivered it in a charming manner. Miss King's singing or recitations are always highly enjoyed. The last, but not least, oration, "Whither are We Going?" was delivered by Clement W. Flynn, who is destined to become an orator of renown if he continues to improve along that line. Solo by Mrs. Stowell and then Dr. Turner was introduced and for forty minutes he held the audience spell-bound. Dr. Turner is an able and eloquent speaker. We hope to have the pleasure of hearing him again.

Hon. S. B. Elliott in a short and neat speech presented the diplomas to the graduates and the audience was dismissed. Beautiful bouquets of fragrant flowers were sent to the graduates during the exercises and after the exercises were over congratulations were thrown at them from all directions.

Died Last Thursday.

Mrs. William Gibson, of West Reynoldsville, was called to Kittanning last week by the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary S. Cochran. From the Kittanning Daily Times we clip the following sketch of her life:

"There passed through the portals of Paradise at 9:30 p. m., Wednesday, May 8, 1901, the spirit of a christian lady when the venerable Mrs. Mary S. Cochran entered into rest. The deceased was born in what is now East Franklin township, December 2, 1817, and therefore was in the 84th year of her age. In 1841 she was married to William Cochran, and they at once took up their residence at Sloan's school house, in Pine (now Boggs) township, where all of her husband's future life was spent and where she resided until thirteen years ago. From this union came eleven children, six sons and two daughters. Three of the children died in infancy or early childhood, and eight survive her. In 1888, at the request of her children, the venerable mother purchased property and erected a home at Neaton and has resided there ever since. She has been a member of the Mt. Zion United Presbyterian church in Boggsville township all her life."

New Dentist in Town.

Dr. W. A. Henry, a dentist, has opened an office on second floor of the Henry Bros. brick block in room formerly occupied by THE STAR office. Dr. Henry will occupy this room only temporarily, or until Dr. Hoover vacates the rooms he now uses in the Henry Bros. block. Dr. Henry is a pleasant young man.

Scholarship Contestants.

The following persons have registered at this office as contestants in the three scholarship prizes offered by THE STAR to the persons getting the highest number of votes: Thomas S. Cathers, of Paradise, Miss Mary Hason, of West Reynoldsville.

If your watch don't keep time, take it to C. F. Hoffman.

The nicest part about the clothing show—Millirens are doing business hand over fist. Prices are what talks.

Easy shoes for hard worked feet at Robinson's.

For portieres, lace curtains, curtain poles and window shades go to Shick & Wagner's.

Johnston & Nolan have a fine line of Emerson's shoes for gentlemen. See them.

John Flynn, merchant tailor, makes up-to-date suits. Try him.

The Keystone Hardware Co. having placed an experienced man in charge of their plumbing department, are now prepared to do all kinds of plumbing—water, gas and steam—at reasonable prices. All work guaranteed to be strictly first-class.

We have all the fashionable goods at unaffordable prices. Millirens clothing show in tent.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Glimpses of the People who are Passing To and Fro.

S. K. Furman, of Harrisburg, visited in town last week.

Prof. A. J. Postlethwait and wife were at Kittanning, Mosgrove and Pittsburg during the past week.

Miss E. L. Lenker, who had been attending the public school in this borough since the holidays, went to her home in DuBois Friday.

J. L. Ewing, of Punxsutawney, is visiting his son, John H. Ewing, in this place.

D. R. Fetterhoff and Merrill Plyler were at Trade City over Sunday.

Misses Ella Rogers and Edith Brown, of Big Run, visited friends in town Sunday.

Miss Anna Davis went to New Kensington yesterday to spend a month with her sister, Mrs. N. A. Headley.

Mrs. J. L. Barlow, of DuBois, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. T. Bing, on Grant street.

Miss Nell Robinson, who was in Pittsburg several weeks, returned home Monday.

Miss Ella Lenker, of Jefferson Line, attended the alumni banquet at Hotel Imperial Thursday night.

John Trudgen, jr., is at Lebanon, Pa., this week attending the Grand Castle of the Knights of Golden Eagle as a delegate from Mt. Cliff Castle of Reynoldsville.

Edwin Seeley Scott went to Eldred, McKean county, Monday to spend the summer.

Mrs. D. M. Dunsmore visited her daughter, Mrs. Foster, at Kushequa, last week.

Mrs. John H. Corbett was in Brookville Friday.

Mrs. Fred Burns visited her parents at Summerville the past week.

James K. Johnston, of the Keystone Hardware Company, was in Pittsburg Saturday.

Mrs. J. O. Johns is visiting in New Bethlehem.

Miss Roberta Ayres visited in Brookville Saturday.

L. W. Huyek, superintendent of the Reynoldsville Woolen Company's large plant at this place, left here Monday on a business trip to Pittsburg and Philadelphia.

Miss Gertrude Stockdale, of DuBois, was the guest of Miss Aida McEntire the latter part of last week.

D. L. Driscoll, of Bradford, visited relatives in this place last week.

Miss Hannah Knox, of Covode, is visiting her brother, Hood Knox, on Grant street.

Master Laird Foster, of Kushequa, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. D. M. Dunsmore, in West Reynoldsville.

Vincent G. Reynolds, who holds a good position in a drug store at Johnson, where he has been nine months, visited his parents in this place Sunday and Monday.

Miss Etta Shaffer, who has been attending Pierce College at Philadelphia, returned to her home in this place Saturday.

I. J. Plyler, of Fairmount, was in town this week.