Many preventatives of drunkenness are advertised, but the only one that is certain is to use no intoxicant.

Beware of straw hat jocularities. One Maryland man tried it on another and had his skull broken with a whiskey bottle.

Fairy stories are likely to be prevalent at Old Point about June 3, as the drummers will hold their national convention there on that date.

The idea that a wound in the heart is necessarily immediately fatal is no longer held by up-to-date surgeons. A man with a knife stab in the heart, who had three stitches taken in that organ, is alive in a St. Louis hospital.

This is the age of big things. The Pennsylvania railroad expects to build an $80,000,000 bridge across the North River, at New York, which will have sixteen railway tracks, besides trolley tracks, driveways, bicycle paths and footways.

A North Carolina prophet is predicting that 1903 will be a year of dearth throughout the world. While he doesn't know any more about it than any of the rest of us, if his prediction causes additions to the "rainy day" savings of our people, it will have served a good purpose.

A West Virginia woman not only refused to sign a petition asking executive clemency for her husband, who is under sentence of death for murdering her brother, but signed one asking that the law be allowed to take its course. Her neighbors do not agree as to whether this is a case of blood thicker than water, or of hatred.

The Coal Trade.
The Coal Trade Journal of last week says: "The bituminous trade is dull, unaccountably so. There ought to be more doing at this season. All that can be said in explanation of the condition is that consumers were pretty well stocked up prior to the mining rate discussion; that these stocks are holding out remarkably well, and that there is a general quietness in manufacturing circles, outside of the iron and steel trade, so there is less demand for coal. The Clearfield Steam Coal Association is meeting with success in its endeavors to induce the whole body of producers to take a business-like view of the condition surrounding the trade, not at this time particularly but as a matter of general practice, and has enrolled quite a number of members within its body since the first of the month."

Fought For His Life.
"My father and sister both died of Consumption," writes J. T. Weatherwax, of Wyandotte, Mich., "and I was freed from the same frightful fate only by Dr. King's New Discovery. An attack of pneumonia left an obstinate cough and very severe lung trouble, which an excellent doctor could not help, but a few months' use of this wonderful medicine made me as well as ever and I gained much in weight." Infalible for Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung trouble. Trial bottles free. Guaranteed bottles, 50c and $1.00 at H. Alex. Stoke's, druggist.

LOCAL UNIONS ORGANIZED.

Review of Work Now Accomplished—Retail Clerks Last to Form a Union.

Editor THE STAR:—Will you kindly give space to the following article concerning the Unions in our town:

A number of local unions have been organized in Reynoldsville. The silk workers were the first to organize. They formed a local of the Textile Workers of America. With the exception of a very few, all are members and hopes are maintained that in a short time they will all be as one.

The next to organize was the Journeymen Barbers' International Union of America, which was organized three weeks ago, and of nine shops in town seven of them have union cards. They are as follows: Ed. O'Reilly, Henry Hoppel, J. C. Williams, Ed. Phillips, Williams & Delaney, The Imperial Shop, J. B. Butler and David Hill, of Rathmel. The bartenders are also in line with their charter and the bartenders at the following houses have become members: Burns House, National Hotel, Hotel Belnap, Hotel Imperial and Central at Rathmel.

The railroad trainmen have a local at this place known as the B. of R. T. No. 219, there being 23 members, and it is one of the strongest in the state.

The Glass Workers' Union is too strong an organization to dwell upon. Simply to say that they are so joined at this place that peace and harmony reign o'er all.

The United Mine Workers of America is another organization too well known to need much mention. The locals at Rathmel, Big Soldier and Reynoldsville meet together and are growing stronger daily.

Last of all and one of the strongest is the Retail Clerks' International Protective Association, which was localized April 10, 1891, when the following officers were elected: President, James E. Mitchell; secretary, Ward Eason; treasurer, W. D. Williams. The agreement calls for the closing of stores at 8 p. m. except on Saturdays. The 1st of January, the 30th of May and the 2nd of September are holidays upon which all stores having union cards must close. It is also agreed that the stores close at 10.30 on Thanksgiving Day. It is further agreed that they will close on December 25th from 12 m. until 2 p. m. and at 6 p. m. on the same day. The public in general have signified a willingness to assist the organizations. Appended are the names of the merchants who have signed the agreement:

James Spry, King & Co., William Copping, Robinson & Munderff, Woodring & Son, D. B. and W. B. Stauffer, L. M. Evans, Henry Bros. and Swartz Bros., grocers.
W. H. Bell, Walter C. Henry, Millirens and A. Katzen, clothiers.
Johnston & Nolan, W. D. Williams, C. C. Gibson and the Robinson Shoe Co., shoe dealers.
Shick & Wagner, J. J. Sutter, Bing-Stoke Company and N. Hanau, dry goods; Dr. S. Reynolds and H. Alex. Stoke, drugs; C. F. Hoffman and Edward Gooder, jewelry; Keystone Hardware Co. and Evans & Liddle, hardware; B. T. Cox, H. T. Stewart and Mrs. Thomas Windle, notions; C. R. Hall and John Hillis, furniture dealers; Charles Kirchartz, sporting goods; G. Bohren and Bon Ton bakeries.

Letter to Millirens Bros.
Reynoldsville, Pa.
Dear Sirs: When you see a well-dressed man, you like to say: "There's a sample of our clothes. The man is worth two of himself as he was when he came to us." We have the same feeling. Our paint on a house is worth twice as much as old-fashion painter's paint, lead and oil. It looks the same when first put on. In three months it is over. In three years it decidedly don't. Lead and oil chalks off in three years; it is considered a first-rate job that lasts three years. Devco lead and zinc is about as good in three years as it was the day the painter left it. Zinc is the secret of it; no secret at all. A good many painters know zinc; some mix it in with their lead. We grind it in; not a little: good deal. It's the zinc and the grinding that does it. You can't mix zinc by hand. We grind it by machinery. Painters are finding us out, though some painters are slow. You know that it pays a good man to wear good clothes. How many customers have you that know it. Yours truly,
F. W. DEVOE & Co.

P. S.—H. Alex. Stoke sells our paint in your section.

Faster Train Service.

On the new schedule that went into effect on the B. & P. on Sunday last the running time of the trains is shortened up considerably and a number of stops are eliminated. The flyers make but one stop between Allegheny and Punxsutawney, a distance of 101 miles, that is at Butler, where the road leaves the Pittsburgh and Western for use of its own tracks. There are also conditions placed upon the stops at Big Run and Brockwayville. The trains will not stop at these points to take on or leave off passengers unless from Allegheny or Bradford, or for passengers to or beyond those points.—DuBois Courier.

Look Here.

Captain J. M. Herman will give a phonograph entertainment in the Salvation Army hall Tuesday, May 28th, at 8 p. m. Mr. Gooder will use his new machine and all of the latest records.
