KICKER'S COLUMN.

A "Kicker's Column" has been opened in THE STAR, through which complaints may be made without the identity of the complainant being made public. If you have anything to kick about send it in. The name of the "kicker" must accompany the kick as a guarantee of good faith, but not for publication.

MR. EDITOR:—As you say you have a column open to all kickers, please allow us to kick; we want to kick all dogs out of town. Dogs are a worrisome nuisance when away from their owners residence, trespassing on the property of citizens, scaring little children, trampling over gardens and flower beds, causing some good Dame to utter language not the most civil.

We object to dogs being at large on the score of health. Dogs will carry vermin and disease from one family to another. They are also subject to sudden fits of madness in the warm season of the year. Will our borough and council take warning and order all canines to be muzzled and collared with owner's name thereon before being allowed on the street? Have men and women no rights which dogs and their owners should respect? How often have we not turned away from a grocery or fruit store, disgusted at seeing some ugly cur watering fruit and vegetables displayed in front of store.

If a party wishes to keep a dog let him have a yard at home to confine the dog therein. All dogs seen on the street without muzzle and collar should be killed. Patience ceases to be a virtue in times of great provocation.

OBJECTORS.

Nine Old Men.

Wednesday of this week was the 95th birthday anniversary of Joseph McGiffin, of Rose township. He came to town and was met here by John Dixon of Polk, aged 94; William Melchior of Brookville, aged 83; Levi Bortz of Rose, aged 83; John O'Conner of Rose, aged 83; Andrew Craig of Brookville, aged 82; William Green of Rose, aged 81; William P. Jenks of Brookville, aged 80; and William Trush of Rose, aged 78. The average age of these nine men, if we count the odd months, is 84 years. They had their photographs taken in a group at Hall's gallery.—Brookville Democrat.

Letter to E. C. Burns.

Reynoldsville, Pa.
 Dear Sir: You know how well it pays to keep your carriages painted, both for looks and to keep out water. It pays as well to paint your barn and your house. We put your barn first, because that is your business—your customers see it. You see, there are two good reasons for paint; one is looks; the other is wear. If you paint for looks, the wear will take care of itself.

Paint often for looks; and use good paint for both looks and wear. The best paint is Devos lead and zinc ground together by machinery; same proportions as are used by the U. S. government. It wears twice as long as lead and oil mixed by hand.

Yours truly,
 F. W. DEVOS & CO.
 P. S.—H. Alex. Stoke sells our paint in your section.
