Dragged Under a Buggy.

Joseph Mitchell had a narrow escape from serious injury last Wednesday afternoon. He was driving Will H. Bell's high spirited horse and when coming down the hill near J. Sutter's residence a piece of the harness broke, allowing the buggy to run on to the horse's heels, which frightened the animal and it started to run. The buggy was upset and Joseph was dragged under it a short distance before he got the horse stopped. The horse was un-hitched and while Joseph was getting the buggy right side up the horse got away and ran into town. Joseph's arms and legs were badly skinned.

Injured by Falling Porch.

While a number of people were standing on the Commercial Hotel porch at Johnsonburg last Thursday watching the Knights of Pythias parade, the porch fell to the ground, injuring a number of ladies, among whom were Mrs. Samuel Williams and Mrs.
Lawson Earley, of this place, and Mrs.
Norman Adams, of Rathmel, who were badly injured. Mrs. Earley was able to come home Saturday, but Mrs. Will-

Mrs. W. G. Russell, at West Sunbury, Pa., in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends. Mrs. Williams is highly spoken of by some of our citizens who have known her for several years.
She comes from one of the best families in West Sunbury. Her father, ex-superintendent of the public schools of Butler county, is a prominent merchant of West Sunbury and is also interested in oil and gas wells. Walter and bride arrived in this place Saturday morning. They will make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Reece Williams, on Jackson street, until they can secure a suitable house to live in. THE STAR joins with Walter's legion of friends in extending congratulations and wishing he and his bride an abundance of joy and contentment in life's journey.

A large number of young people organized a calithumpian band and serenaded Walter Williams and bride Monday night. The serenade was kept up until about two o'clock Tuesday morning, but Mr. Williams and bride would not make their appearance.
Mr. Williams had a fine lawn in front of his residence as there was in town, but the calithumpians destroyed it, besides doing some other damage.

The calithumpian band renewed the serenading of Mr. and Mrs. Williams last night, but the couple soon came out and the calithumpians congratulated them and dispersed.

Mad Dog Bit Five Boys.

Brookville was thrown into a fever of excitement last Saturday when the report circulated like wild-fire that there was a mad dog in the town and had bitten five boys. Burgess W. T. Darr immediately issued a proclamation to the effect that all dogs running at large not muzzled and wearing a collar with owners name on, should be shot.

Saturday forenoon a dog bit Lee Shaffer and Leon Jordan, two lads of Rich-ardsville, about seven miles from Brookville. The same dog ran on into Brookville and bit three boys in that town before it was shot. Lee Shaffer, aged four years, was bitten on the nose, and Leon Jordan was bitten on the right hand. Monday evening R. W.
Shaffer, father of Lee, and Mrs. Harry Jordan, mother of Leon, of Richards-ville, and W. J. Shaffer, of Brookville, brother of Lee Shaffer, took Lee and Leon to the Pasteur Institute at Baltimore, Md. They also took the dog's brain with them and if the doctors of the Institute find that the dog was mad, the boys will be put under treatment immediately, and the other three boys at Brookville, who were bitten, will be taken to Baltimore for treatment.

Considering the fact that we have had mad dogs in our town recently, it would be wise for Burgess Mitchell to issue a proclamation to muzzle all dogs that are allowed to run at large in the borough. Unless this is done some person may be bitten with a mad dog. It is too serious a matter to be delayed.

Primary Election and Convention.

The Republican primary election was held in this county last Saturday afternoon and the county convention was held in the court house at Brookville Monday afternoon. As there was no contest on there was not much interest taken in the primary election. In twenty precincts there was no election held.
In the first precinct of this borough there were 23 votes polled and in the second precinct 70 votes polled.

The county convention was exceedingly tame. About a half hundred Republicans attended the convention. Ed.
C. Burns was the only committeeman from Reynoldsville.

The convention was called to order by Chairman T. M. Kurtz and J. N. Keil-ley, of Perry township, was elected temporary chairman. Lex N. Mitchell, of Punxsutawney, was elected secretary; George Fairbanks, of Young township, F. B. Bonner, of Sandy Valley, and O. B. Shannon, of Worthville, adding clerks; W. D. McHenry, of Big Run, and J. J. Jack, of Washington township, reading clerks; Ed. C. Burns, of Reynoldsville, E. H. McHenry, of Punxsutawney, Thos. Beatty, of Winslow township, and J. A. Reed, of Eldred township, committee on resolutions.

Following is the names of candidates and the vote polled in the county: County Surveyor, Jas. B. Caldwell, 969 votes; delegates to state convention, George M. Gayley, 945 votes, Alexander Stewart, 947 votes, D. B. Abbott, 922 votes. As these gentlemen had no opposition they were elected.

As there was no candidate for corner, Ed. C. Burns nominated Dr. E. V.
Kyle, of Warsaw, and Geo. R. Adam nominated Dr. Humphrey, of Brockwayville. Dr. Kyle was endorsed by the convention.

T. M. Kurtz, of Punxsutawney, was unanimously re-elected as county chairman. This is Mr. Kurtz's third term. In his speech before the convention Mr. Kurtz said he differed with President McKinley so far as the third term is concerned.
