Andrew H Smuth Dead

Andrew H. Smith, an old resident of Beechwoods, died at his home Sunday morning, June 23rd, 1901, from cancer of the stomach. The deceased was born in Maryland about 68 years ago. His parents, William and Ann Smith, moved to Beehwoods when Andrew was two years old, where he ever after resided. Mr. Smith was an honest and highly respected citizen of the Beechwoods settlement. Monday afternoon funeral Presbyterian church, of which the deceased had been a faithful member for many years Services were conducted by Rev. George H. Hill, pastor of the church. Interment was made in Beechwoods cemetery. His wife and several children survive the deceased.

Fine Shale and Fire Clay.

Harvey L. Hoke, one of the gentlemen interested in the large brick plant that will be erected in Reynoldsville. has found excellent shale and fire clay on his land, just across the creek from the place where the brick plant will be built. This will give the plant material for making red and buff-colored brick. A bridge will have to be built across the Sandy Lick creek to get the material to the plant. It is the intention to begin work on the bridge soon. It is likely that only two or three kilns will be built this season, to burn the brick to build the balance of the plant, which will not be ready to make brick for sale before next year. This will be a paying industry and will give employment to at least thirty men. The plant will be modern in all respects.

Jailed for Stabbing a Man.

William Simons, an Italian, was ar rested Monday evening and taken to Brookville jall yesterday morning for stabbing another Italian in the neck. It was thought Monday night that the fellow who was stabbed would not live, but he will likely get well. The cut-ting afray occurred at Rathmel and Constable John H. Null happened to be at Rathmel and he nabbed the woulde-murderer before he escaped. Simons was given a hearing before 'So Smith and afterwards brought to Reynoldsville lock-up to wait for the morning train to Brookville. Constable Null took Simons to Brookville on the first train yesterday morning. Simons must be a bad character. He threatened to kill a man while in the Squire's office at Rathmel

Opening New Drift.

Straightwell, Hibbard & Co., who recently started new coal works at Ful-ler, are now shipping from 200 to 250 tons of coal per day. It is about a mile and a half from the opening of the mine to the tipple and the coal is drop-ped down the mountain in the mine cars by an engine and then the engine back the empty cars. In a weeks the company will open a new drift within 500 feet of the present tip-ple and will build an incline plane to get the coal to the tipple. The new drift will open a four foot vein of coal. At present there are about 57 men work-ing in the mine but when the new drift is opened the number of miners will be As there is no store at Fullers, the coal company will open a store there in a few weeks.

A special train, composed of an engine and three private cars, with prominent officials on board, passed over the Low Grade Division of P. R. R. yesterday. The following officials were on the train: J. B. Hutchison, general manager P. R. R., G. W. Creighton, general superintendent of B. & A. V. Div. C. B. Price, superintendent of the River and Low Grade Divisions, H. P. Lincoln, engineer of maintenance of way, R. N. Durburrow, superintendent of motive power, and D. M. Dunsmore, train master of Low Grade Div. Engine 24, one of the finest passenger engines on River Div., hauled the train. Frank E. Richardson was the engineer.

Contemptible Thievery.

Complaint has been made at this office that some person has been con-temptible enough to steal flowers off of graves in the Reynoldsville cemetery.
One gentleman hauled good ground from his garden and put it on and around the grave of his son and set out flowers on grave, and some person has even carried the rich earth away, no doubt to put on their own flower beds It would not be well for any person to be caught at such low down thievery as that. Persons mean enough to do such things should be punished to the full extent of the law.

Noisy Crowd.

A Quiet Crowd Suddenly Turned Into a

Harry Waller, a strong man who gives street exhibitions, gave a perform-ance in front of Frank's Tavern last ance in front of Frank's Tavern last evening which was witnessed by a large crowd. Waller is certainly a powerful man for one of his size and weight. The crowd was very orderly and quiet until the performance was almost over when an incident occurred which turned the crowd into a whooping mob. Waller was to lift nine men and his 150 pound dumb-bells at one time, and while getting the men arranged some person accidentally tramped on one of his hands. He accused Kelley Ramsey of the act and Kelley denied the charge with an oath. The "strong man" requested Kelley not to swear as there were ladies in the crowd, but he did not stop swearing and Waller ordid not stop swearing and Waller or dered him out of the circle, and as he did not go, Waller made a race at him and put him out, and that turned the quiet crowd into a disgracefully boister-ous one. An officer took hold of Waller, ous one. An officer took hold of Waller, and as the sympathy of the crowd was with Waller, that was the whyfore of the boisterousness. Waller and Kelley were both taken to the lock-up and given a hearing before Burgess Mitchell. Waller was released without paying a fine or costs, but Kelley was fined $1.05 for disturbing the receive.

$4.95 for disturbing the peac Under no circumstances should law abiding citizens interfere in any way with an officer who arrests a person. If they are innocent they will get just a 'squire. The hooting and howling Tuesday evening when Waller was taken to the lock-up was disgraceful, to say the least.

The New Addition.

The new addition to the Reynoldsville Woolen Company's plant on Jack-son street is about completed. A car ond of knitting machines will be put in the new addition this week. The second story of the new part will be used exclusively for knitting hose and making pants and shirts. An experienced cutter will be put in this department. There will be eighteen knitting machines and ten sewing machines on second floor. The first floor will second floor. The first floor will be used for finishing fine goods. There will be shearing, pressing and knapping machines on first floor. There will also be a machine on the first floor of the new addition that will fold, measure and wind goods. The plant is equipped to turn out as fine line of dress and suiting goods as is found on the market. They are preparing to make a specialty of this kind of work, and a large wholesale house of New York City is trying to make arrange ments with the Woolen Company to take all the dress and suiting stock mill can produce. Four new looms will be put in the mill in a few days.

Fell Into Creek.

Monday morning two small sons of Charles McMillen, of West Reynolds-ville, narrowly escaped being drowned in the Sandy Lick creek, just at bend of creek below the iron bridge. It is useless to warn boys about the dangerous practice of running over logs in the creek or jumping on moving trains, for they will keep up the prac-tice and newspapers have to chronicle sad accidents frequently as a result of the practice.

Trio in Lock-up.

John Smith, Peter Brocoski and Andrew Mocoski, who work on the Low Grade Division gravel train that laid here Saturday night drank so much "booze" Saturday evening that they become too hilarious for the peace of the community, and also had puglistic infellow workman. Sunday morning the arm of the law seized the aforemen tioned trio on a charge of assault and annoying peaceable residents of the neighborhood. The fellows were lodged behind the iron bars of the Reynolds-ville bastile Sunday morning, where they remained until noon yesterday, when they succeeded in getting their trouble settled by paying the costs and Children's Day Exercises.

Children's Day exercises were held in the Presbyterian and Baptist churches last Sunday. The exercises were held in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, but the hard rain a the hour for services interfered some what with the exercises and kept large number of people away from the church. All those who took part did splendidly. The church was nicely dec-rated.

The exercises were not held in the Baptist church until Sunday evening and the attendance was all that the church could accommodate. The church was nicely decorated and an excellent program was rendered.
