Robbers Visited Bennett. About two o'clock Monday morning William Bennett, superintendent of the Star Glass plant, was awakened by ome person trying to gain an entrance into his house through the side door. Mr. Bennett fired a shot out of the window at the robbers and then ran down stairs. When he got outside he saw a man standing in rear of lot and could have shot him, but didn't want to kill the fellow and merely shot at him to frighten him. Mr. Bennett says two men ran up the alley. Mr. Bennett says if the fellows wanted money and had entered his home he would have helped them hunt for it.

Direct From Germany.

M. Katzen and son, Simon, direct from Germany, are visiting the former's brother, A. Katzen, the merchant, in this place. The visitors arrived here very unexpectedly Sunday. Our towns man expects to start his brother in busi ness of some kind in Reynoldsville in the near future. M. Katzen was a prosperous merchant at Johannesburg, South Africa, when the Boer work broke out, but he had to skip from Johannesburg without anything, losing all that he had in that place. He went from Johannesburg to Germany, where his wife and children now are. Mr. Katzen has a pair of cuff-buttons and a breast pin made out of gold pieces with Oom Paul's picture on one side of the coin. He also has a large collection of old foreign colus.

TROLLEY LINE NEEDED.

William Boyd and wife, Nellie Boyd, gypsies, were camping in Tom Reynolds' orchard, within the borough limits. last week and on Friday Richard Berry and wife, Mary Berry, who have abandoned the gypsy life and have bought property and settled in DuBols, came to Reynoldsville to visit their kinfolks, as Boyd is a brother of Mrs. Berry. It appears that they rushed the "growler" and before the afternoon was far spent war broke out in the camp and there was bloodshed. Mrs. Boyd, who seems to be quite a pugilist, was handling Mrs. Berry roughly when Boyd tried to part the women and protect his sister. This only infuriated Mrs. Boyd the more and she took the butt end of a buggy whip and pounced upon her husband and battered his head and face in bad shape. A Reynoldsville fellow who had been sipping beer with them, interfered and the woman made it lively for him and he was glad to get out of her clutches.

Saturday morning Policeman Pomroy arrested Boyd and his wife, their company having returned to DuBois, and they were given a hearing before Burgess Mitchell, who fined them $8.50 a piece. Monday Policeman Pomroy went to DuBois and arrested Berry and his wife and brought them to this place and they were given a hearing before Burgess Mitchell. There was no evidence against Berry, who was tangled up in the melce as a peacemaker, but Mrs. Berry was one of the participants in the scrap and His Honor fined her $5.00 and costs, $7.00, which made her Horse Injured.

One of Solomon Shaffer's large gray horses met with a peculiar accident at Sandy Valley Monday afternoon. The horse stepped on one end of a pole and the other end flew up and struck the horse between the hind legs, the end frightened the animal, causing it to jump around, driving the pole farther into its body every time it moved. At least fifteen inches of the pole, which was six inches in circumference, ran into the horse before the pole broke off. The animal was led to Reynoldsville, a distance of two miles, with that piece of pole in its body. After the horse was brought to this place it was thrown, the piece of pole was pulled out with a pair of tongs and the wound was dressed. The horse was a little lame yesterday.

Killed at Big Soldier.

Domonie Brasile, an Italian, was so badly injured at Big Soldier coal tipple at 5:00 p. m. last Thursday that he died an hour after the accident Brasile was working below the tipple and at time of accident was standing in a dangerous place-where he ought not to have been-when a car was dumped over tipple and a lump of coal, weighing at least one hundred pounds, struck him on head and back. Brasile had been in this country ten years, but his wife and two children bave only been in this country a few days. Brasile was 34 years old. Funeral was held Friday afternoon and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

After the Trolley.

The people of Reynoldsville are still clamoring for a trolley line. If the people of the town are able to distinguish a good thing when they see it discharge and came to Reynoldsville stalled the new officers in the Knights they will take steps toward building a discharge and came to Reynoldsville stalled the new officers in the Knights where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. of Pythias lodge at this place, as follows: line to Eleanora and Big Soldier. This Seals, E. L. Moore; Master of Finances, Fisher, reside, has accepted a position Chancellor Commander, John Yene-would be one of the best things that A. L. Mayhew; Master of Exchequer, could possibly happen to Reynoldsville, and if that town does not do something in that line in the near future the probabilities are that Punxsutawney will see to it that the people get a chance to ride in the street cars from Eleanora to Punxsutawney. Reynoldsville should get a hump on and build this line.—Falls Creek Herald. You are right,

Kicked by a Cow.

M. Algeier, the Brookville brewery man, had his right leg broken in two places, below the knee and at ankle, Sunday morning from the kick of a cow. Algeier stepped into his barn and threw a coffee sack over the cow to keep the flies off while his wife milked the bovine. The sack frightened the cow and she kicked, striking Mr. Al-geler's leg. F. A. McConnell went down to Brookville Monday to see Mr.

A Stock Company Should be Organiz and a Trolley Line Built.

people have talked and read about a trolley line from Reynoldsville to Rathmel, Big Soldier, Sykesville and Eleanora until it has became an old story, but the street car line has not naterialized yet. The fact remains just the same that a trolley line to the owns mentioned would be a good thing for Reynoldsville, even better than a large industry of any kind. We believe the project would pay good interest on the money invested, as there would be a large amount of travel over the line daily, but that is not the most important thing for our people to consider. The question is: Will we fold our hands and allow the people of another town to come into our territory and take the trade away from our very doors without making an effort to compete with them? The Punxsutawney street car line is now figuring on extending its line to Eleanora and Sykesville, and it behooves use to be getting a move on it we would hold our own. Why not organize a stock company and build the trolley line? There is certainly enough loose capital in this section to build such a line. Why not call a public meeting and get down to business about this matter without wasting any more time? If outside capitalists, who have been talking about building this line, mean business this will put a stop to their fooling about it, and if they don't want to take up a good thing the townspeople can make money out of the line themselves. This is a fair proposition and if the town don't take the matter up we will likely awaken to the fact some day that it was a mistake, and a serlous one too, not to have a trolley line from our town to Rathmel, Big Soldier, Sykesville and Eleanora. It is certainly worthy of investigation as to cost, MacNeal Goes to Lock Haven. Ira B. MacNeal, who was elected assistant principal of the high school Friday evening, July 5, is a son of Prof. MacNeal, of the Normal faculty, this city. Ira MacNeal is a graduate of the schools of Harrisburg, and also of Dickinson College, Carlisle. He carned the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the University of Pennsylvania. His testimonies from prominent educators state monies from prominent educators stat that he is a young man of scholarly at-tainments.—Lock Haven Democrat. Prof. MacNeal was elected assistant principal of our schools the same even-ing, but withdrew here to accept the Lock Haven position. From the above statement from the Democrat we would judge that MacNeal would have been a good man for our schools.

Israel Klepfer Dead.

Israel Klepfer dled at his home or Jackson street at 3.00 p. m. Friday July 12, 1901, from stomach trouble He had been confined to his bed four weeks. Mr. Klepfer was born in Centre Co., Pa., November 20, 1832, mak ing him 68 years, 7 months and 22 days old at time of death. In 1857 he was married to Mary Boyer in Clarion county, who died in 1876. Six children were born to this couple, three of whom preceded the mother across the river of death. In 1877 Mr. Klepfer married his second wife, Katle A. Young, whom with six children of her own and three to first wife, survive the deceased In 1878 Mr. Klepfer moved his family to Emerickville, where he resided until last September, when he moved to Reynoldsville. Since moving to town he assisted his son-in-law, J. H. Hughes, ome in his undertaking establishment Mr. Klepfer had been a member of the M. E. church for a number of years. He was a quiet and unassuming gentle man. He was the father of twelve children, nine of whom survive him, as follows: William Klepfer, of Kelletville, Forest county, Mrs. J. H. Hughes, Reynoldsville, Mrs. Henry Frederick, of Clarion county. Mrs. Fred J. Austin. West Reynoldsville, Mrs. James L. Cable, Mrs. Charles Woodard, Misses Edith, Esther and Mary Klepfer, of this place. Sunday morning the body was taken to Emerickville where funeral services were held in the M. E. church at 10,00 a. m., conducted by Rev. J. P. Hicks, pastor of the church. Interment was made in the Moore cemetery. The funeral was very large.

The following out of town people came to Reynoldsville to attend the funeral: Daniel Burkhouse and Harvey Klepfer, of Shannondale, and Daniel Young, of Heathville.

Eight or ten Clarion county people drove to Emerickville Sunday morning in time for the funeral services.

A Remarkable Old Man.

H. L. Young and wife, of Lindsey, attended the sixty-first anniversary of the wedding of John McCullough and wife, of Pinecreek township, June 29. A large number of people were present and they had a day of splendid enjoyment. Mr. McCullough and-wife are fine old people, and are still enjoying their good health, although he is 81 years old and she is but little younger. Mr. McCullough, just to show his guests that he was not really old, except in years, got his gun after dinner and did some shooting. A target three inches in diameter was put up at distance of ninety feet, and the old gen-tleman proceeded to plug it in the centre four times. The four shots were within less than one-fourth of an inch of other, two being almost in the same hole. A good eye and a steady nerve at eighty one is something to be proud of, and show that the possesser has lived pretty close the heart of nature.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Married At Brockwayville.

W. N. Conrad, Esq., one of our promi-nent young Brookville attorneys, and Miss Martha V. Rhed, of Crenshaw, were united in marriage at an early hour on Monday morning, July 8th 1901. The ceremony was performed at the Presbyterian parsonage in Brockwayville by the pastor, Rev. C. L. Brad-shaw. Mr. and Mrs. Conrad took their departure at once on an extended wed-ding tour, and passed through Brook-ville on the 8.50 a.m. train for Pittsburg. fter a short visit in that city and with Mr. Conrad's relatives in Johnstown they will visit in Philadelphia and New York. They will make the trip from the and will return home by way of Buffalo and take in the sights at the Pan-American Exposition. They will be at home to their friends at their handsome residence in East Brookville after July 29th.—Brookville Republican.
