

If You Have Eye Trouble,

HEADACHE. Eyes smart and burn when you read, call on Hoffman, the optician, and find out what the trouble is. Examination free. Glasses fitted at reasonable prices. C. F. HOFFMAN, Optician.

And the Paper Proves It.

You have only to see Pittsburgh Wall Paper to realize that the leading artists of the world conceived and executed these beautiful and decorative ideas. No other line of wall decorations have the uniform excellence of design and color effects. Every pattern is a beautiful work of art. Yet not too fine nor delicate for practical use. No matter what the quality, the same amount of judicious artistic sense has been exercised. The desired effect has always been attained—beauty and utility. Pittsburgh Wall Papers are sold in Reynoldsville only by H. ALEX STOKES.

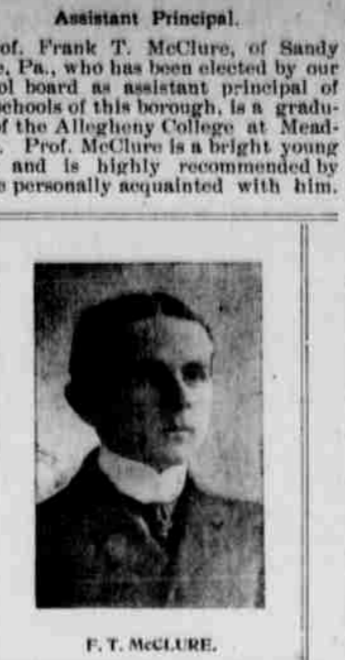

A Little of Everything.

'Sweet Revenge' next week. Dr. J. C. King is having his brick residence painted. Ice cream and cake on the M. E. parsonage lawn this evening. 'Sweet Revenge,' a serial story, begins in THE STAR next week. A number of people from this section are out on the huckleberry mountains. W. H. Deemer got the contract to build the new school house at Prospect. Gordon Lowther and Bernard Mohney, of Rimersburg, visited in town last week. Mrs. Albert McMullen and Miss Ella Bush, of Bedford, Pa., arrived here yesterday to visit their sister, Mrs. M. J. Farrell. Clarence H. Reynolds is manager of J. C. Boyle's drug store in DuBois this week while Mr. Boyle is at the Pan-American.

Mrs. W. H. Ulah, of Driftwood, has been a visitor at C. Mitchell's the past week. Miss Edith Martin, of Perth Amboy, was the guest of Mrs. W. J. Weaver last week. Frank M. Fries, one of the editors of the Kittanning Times, was in Reynoldsville Sunday. Rev. F. B. Williams, Baptist pastor of Brookville, was the guest of Rev. A. J. Meek yesterday. Dr. H. Messimer, of Pittsburg, spent a few days with Dr. W. A. Henry in this place the past week. Misses Catharine and Jeane Campbell, of Morrisdale, are visiting their sister, Jessie Campbell, in Reynoldsville. The breaking of a shafting on the Hopkins saw mill caused a shut down of the mill several days the past week. Mrs. Roskop, wife of William Roskop, cloth inspector at silk mill, arrived in town a few days ago from Paterson, N. J. J. B. Storms will move from the Arnold block to the Johnston house, corner of Grant and Sixth streets, this week. The first chapter of 'Sweet Revenge,' a thrilling romance of the civil war, will be published in THE STAR next week. Dr. John H. Murray, Henry Herpel and William Copping, of this place, attended the meeting of the Knight Templars at Ridgway Monday night. The Lord's Supper will be observed at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning, also new members will be received into church fellowship. There will be no evening service. D. F. Swab, a contractor of Fall Creek, formerly in the mercantile business at this place, was badly injured last Friday by falling off the roof of a house. He was injured internally. A number of the Sons of Veterans of this place will attend the S. of V. Encampment at Summerville, which begins to-morrow. The boys will fold their tents next Monday. Allen F. King, who will be engineer at the Brookville glass plant, moved his family from Reynoldsville to Brookville this week. Mr. King purchased a house and lot in Brookville. For the benefit of the W. R. C. an ice cream social will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Herpel, on Grant street, Thursday evening, Aug. 1st. Everybody invited to attend. Andrew Craig, an old citizen of Brookville, died Thursday and was buried Saturday. He was 81 years old. Mr. Craig was the oldest member of the Brookville I. O. O. F. Lodge. Ex-Prothonotary W. D. Clark and wife, who have been at Westboro, Wis., sometime, but have moved back to Brookville, were guests of Ex-Sheriff E. C. Burns and wife a day last week. A. H. Fasnemyer, Thomas F. Adam, F. P. Howe, Martha Kunes, Zoe Woodward, Kate Nolan, Nellie and Althea Sutter, Winnie and Tae Farrell attended the Bohemian party at DuBois Thursday evening. Joseph Mitchell, Wallace Mitchell, of this place, Mrs. W. P. Ulah, of Driftwood, and Mrs. Newell G. Meeker, of Pittsburg, will drive to Marion Centre, Indiana county, to-day to visit Mr. and Mrs. William Mabon. Dr. C. C. Rumberger, of Emlenton, Pa., spent Monday night in Reynoldsville and yesterday morning Dr. Rumberger, Dr. J. B. Neale and H. Alex Stoke went over on the Slanemahoning to fish for bass a couple of days. Harry S. Thomas and wife, of Plymouth, Pa., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jones on Main street the past week. Mrs. Thomas is a sister of Mr. Jones and this is the first time they have seen each other for 27 years. Rev. J. Vernon Bell, pastor of the DuBois Presbyterian church, will preach in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening, and Rev. W. Frank Reber will preach in the DuBois Presbyterian church. W. P. Calhoun, formerly a Washington township farmer, who went to Carville, Oklahoma, the latter part of May has purchased a good farm in Oklahoma. Since going West he has sold his Washington township farm to his father, W. J. Calhoun. The Epworth League will hold a lawn fete on the M. E. parsonage lawn this evening. Ice cream and cake will be served. Everybody is invited to attend. It is a disagreeable evening ice cream and cake will be served in lecture room of church. We mentioned last week that Lawrence B. McEntire, of Bellefonte, is visiting his brother and sister, J. C. McEntire and Mrs. J. T. Coax, at this place. Bernard N. McEntire, of Clarion, another brother, is also visiting here. This is the first time the three brothers and sister have met together in forty years. They had seen each other frequently during the forty years, but never met together at one time. The three brothers had their pictures taken Monday.

Right Arm Broken. G. W. Cornmesser, of Paradise, engineer at the Meredith brick works, had his right arm broken while at work one day last week by having it caught in a cut off. 'Sweet Revenge.' In our next issue we will begin the publication of a serial story entitled 'Sweet Revenge.' It is a thrilling romance of the civil war, abounding in acts of heroism and hairbreadth escapes. County Home. County Commissioner W. C. Murray, while in town yesterday, informed the editor of this paper that the county home would be ready for the poor of the county the first of next week. Notices will be sent to the poor overseers. Evening Services. The pastors of the Presbyterian, Methodist Episcopal and Baptist churches are making arrangements so that there will be preaching services in only one of the churches during the Sunday evening of August. All the other Sunday services of each church will be held as usual. There will be no preaching in the Baptist and M. E. churches next Sunday evening. 'Hay Ride.' About a half hundred young people took a hay ride out to Jacob Schwem's last night. There were two wagon loads, besides some drove out in buggies. Miss Etta Shaffer got up the party. It was an ideal night for a hay ride. The young people had a delightful time. Well filled baskets were taken along but they were brought home empty. No Evidence. We stated last week that Mayer Franklin, a street fakir, had James Bird arrested Tuesday evening on a charge of unlawfully and wilfully taking and carrying away some gold filled rings. Bird was given a hearing before Squire Neff Wednesday evening, but the fakir failed to produce even the shadow of evidence against Bird and the Squire, of course, discharged him and the fakir paid the cost. Change at Laundry. The Reynoldsville Steam Laundry, which was started by Herb Burns and D. W. Atwater two years ago last month, Mr. Burns afterward becoming proprietor and Mr. Atwater remaining as manager, has been sold to John B. Tophorn, of Mt. Jewett, Pa., an experienced laundryman. Mr. Tophorn will take charge of the plant next week. Mr. Atwater will remain at the laundry a short time and then take a much needed vacation before engaging in any other business. The Reynoldsville steam laundry, under the management of Mr. Atwater, has built up a large trade, which the new proprietor expects to increase. Rushing the Work. The work on the school building is being rushed along now as fast as possible, and James V. Young, who is superintending the work, expects to have the building ready for occupancy by the first of October, although at this time that seems almost an impossibility. The work was delayed on account of disappointment in getting material shipped as soon as expected, but all the material that there would be danger of delay in getting is now here and there will be no more handicap so far as that is concerned. Mr. Young is a hustler when he wants to be, but he has a big undertaking on hands to have the building ready for school by the first of October. William Dailey Dead. William Dailey, a well known citizen of Reynoldsville, died at 4.30 p. m. Sunday, July 28th, 1901. Brights disease was the cause of death. He had been sick about one week. Mr. Dailey was born in Ohio about 36 years ago. He came to Reynoldsville eighteen years ago. He was married to Hannah Skehan, who with two small children survive him. He was a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and a large number of the members of that order attended the funeral. The funeral services were held in the Catholic church yesterday forenoon, conducted by Father Donahue. It was a very large funeral. The pall bearers were: Peter McKay, Charles McDonald, James McDonald, John Shannon, Thomas Shannon, and John Tobin, members of the O. H. Winslow Township Teachers. The Winslow township school board elected the following teachers Saturday: Sikesville, No. 3 Selie Geist, No. 2 Joseph Wilson, No. 1 Jessie Smeltzer; Soldier, No. 4 W. P. Miller, No. 3 R. A. Reed, No. 2 May McCreight, No. 1 Vada Holman; Dicey, Rebecca Reitz; Phillippi, Emma Smith; Bollinger, H. M. Foltz; Jenks, Cora Foltz; Saltworks, Gertrude Clouser; Best, Alma Corbett; Sandy Valley, Nettie Coak; Pancoast, W. T. Goss; Steel, John Fugate; Kline, Edith Kuntz; Dean, No. 2 W. E. Kunselman, No. 1 Name Stroup; Rathmel, No. 4 K. M. Smith, No. 3 Henrietta Shires, No. 2 May Corbett, No. 1 Lillian Lenker; Owens, Iris Johnson; Prospect, Harry McGarey; Prescottville, No. 3 J. G. Anthony, No. 2 Saddle Hason, No. 1 Effie Clark. School begins September 16th. The wages range from $3.00 to $45.00 per month.

Brought Here for Burial. Joseph Craig Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Anderson, of Villas, Lycoming Co., Pa., died at the home of his parents at 1.00 p. m. Thursday, July 25, 1901. The body was brought to Reynoldsville Friday afternoon and taken to the residence of Mrs. Anderson's brother, John L. Ewing, on Jackson street, where funeral services were held at 9.00 a. m. Saturday, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Baptist church. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery. Joseph Craig was four years old. He had suffered two or three years from curvature of the spine. One year ago this summer he was in a Pittsburg hospital under treatment, and this summer he was in the Williamsport hospital. The immediate cause of his death was bronchial trouble. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are well known here, having resided at this place at one time. Mrs. Anderson's maiden name was Minnie Ewing. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ewing, of Punsuatawney, drove over here Friday to attend the funeral. Business Change. D. H. Breakey, who has been yard clerk for the B. & P. R. Y. at Falls Creek and DuBois a number of years, has resigned his position with railroad company to embark in the mercantile business in Reynoldsville. Mr. Breakey has purchased H. T. Stewart's bargain store and expects to take charge of the store the first of September. His resignation with the railroad company takes effect August 1st, but Mr. Breakey wants to take a much needed rest before taking charge of the store. He was principal of the West Reynoldsville schools a few years ago, and is not an entire stranger at this place. Mr. Stewart, who started the bargain store in this place four years ago, will move to California soon after Mr. Breakey takes charge of the store. Irvin, Mr. Stewart's six-year-old son, is suffering with tuberculosis and Mr. Stewart will move to California with the hope that the climate will restore Irvin to health again. Fever From Fright. A telegram was received here Sunday calling Mrs. M. J. Farrell to Elkins, West Va., to the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. T. V. Malloy, who has typhoid fever, which was superinduced by a bad fright from the lynching of William Brooks, a negro, at Elkins, the first of last week. The scene was enough to frighten most any woman into sickness. Brooks had shot and killed the chief-of-police and inside of two hours after the shooting he had been arrested, tried, taken from the sheriff by a mob, dragged through the streets with a rope around his neck, hung to a tree and was dead. The mob passed Mrs. Malloy's house and the pitiful cries and pleading of the negro for mercy and the yelling of Mrs. Malloy, and she is now down with typhoid fever. Buried Sunday. Margaret Martin, daughter of Mrs. Michael Martin, of Pittsburg, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. J. Arnold, at East Brady at 5.00 p. m. Friday, July 26, 1901. Consumption was the cause of her death. The body was brought to Reynoldsville on the noon train Saturday and taken to the home of the deceased's brother, Mike Martin, on Jackson street. At 8.00 a. m. Sunday funeral services were held in the Catholic church, conducted by Father Donahue. Interment was made in Catholic cemetery. Margaret was born at Albany, N. Y., May 30, 1871, making her over 30 years old at time of death. Her parents moved to Reynoldsville when Maggie was a small girl and most of her life was spent at this place. She had many warm friends here. The Wonders of the Midway. W. W. Wiley, one of the former proprietors of Hotel Imperial, returned Sunday from a two weeks' trip to Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Toronto, and Milwaukee. Mr. Wiley spent several days at the Pan-American Exposition and didn't miss much on the Midway. 'Darkness and Dawn' was a little trying on his nerves, but he enjoyed the show so well that he visited it the second time, even if he did have to say 'hi-toe-ti-ty hi-toe-ti-ty' a number of times, especially when a fellow kicked the lid off a coffin and when a skeleton tapped him on the shoulder in one of the dark caves. Will go to Emporium. At a meeting of Hope Hose Co. last evening it was decided to attend the Firemen's convention to be held at Emporium August 14-16. There will be a meeting of the company on Wednesday evening of next week to make arrangements to go to Emporium. All members are requested to attend this meeting. Lawn Festival. The ladies of the Altar Society of the Catholic church will hold a lawn fete on the Catholic parsonage lawn Saturday evening. Ice cream and cake will be served. It is the intention to have an arc light put up on the lawn for the occasion. H. A. Swab, contractor and builder. Estimates furnished on short notice; also furnish slate and do slate roofing. Reynoldsville, Pa. Bing-Stoke Co. agents for the McGee Adjustable Yoke Underskirt—the most perfect fitting skirt made. Sold by Bing-Stoke Co. One hundred pairs of ladies' shoes at Johnston & Nolan's below cost. Crash suits, crash and linen pants at McClelland's.

F. T. McCLURE.

Assistant Principal. Prof. Frank T. McClure, of Sandy Lake, Pa., who has been elected by our school board as assistant principal of the schools of this borough, is a graduate of the Allegheny College at Meadville. Prof. McClure is a bright young man and is highly recommended by those personally acquainted with him. DEATH FROM APOPLEXY. Josh R. Emery Lived Four Hours After He was Stricken. It was a great surprise to our people to learn that J. R. Emery, of Brookville, had died at 8.00 p. m. Friday, July 26th, 1901. At 3.00 p. m. Friday Mr. Emery, who seemed to be in excellent health, was score keeper in the game of ball between Brookville and East Brady clubs, when he had a stroke of apoplexy. 'Did he score? Did he score?' was the words he said as he was stricken. He was carried into his home, near the ball grounds. After being taken home he said to his wife, 'I am all right, Mam.' He continued to grow worse and expired at eight o'clock. Funeral services were held at his late residence at 3.00 p. m. Sunday, conducted by Dr. James Conway, pastor of the Presbyterian church. The funeral was a large one. Joshua R. Emery was born in Montgomery county, Pa., March 25, 1844, making him 57 years, 4 months and 1 day old at time of death. He moved with his parents to Jefferson county in 1864. He was married to Emma S. on Oct. 1st at Brookville December 1, 1864. Ten children were born unto this couple, three of whom preceded the father over the river of death. The wife and seven children survive him, as follows: Glenn Emery, of Phoenix, Arizona, Mrs. Alma Schaeffer, of Reynoldsville, Pa., Mrs. Blanche Gearhart, of Winburn, Pa., Margaret Drake, of Youngstown, Ohio, Edward, Mary and Emma with their mother at Brookville. The deceased, who was familiarly known as 'Josh,' was a jovial, kind hearted man and consequently had numerous friends. Politically, Mr. Emery was a Democrat. He was a candidate for sheriff at one time. He served as deputy sheriff under Sheriff Anderson. Mr. Emery was a resident of Reynoldsville several years ago. During his residence here he was proprietor of the Matson House, now Frank's Tavern. Pan-American Visitors. Miss Grace Beck went to Chautauqua yesterday. She will visit the Pan-American before returning home. James C. Scott, who was at Milwaukee, Wis., last week attending the B. P. O. E. Grand Lodge as a delegate from the Reynoldsville lodge, stopped off at Buffalo on his way home and visited the Pan-American. Joseph Maero went to Buffalo Thursday to visit the Pan-American Exposition. Dr. A. H. Bower and wife and son, Ira, went to Buffalo Saturday to visit the Pan-American Exposition. They will return the latter part of this week. Thomas F. Adam, of the Robinson Shoe Company, is at Buffalo this week taking in the Pan-American. M. E. Ridgeway, a freight conductor on Low Grade Division of P. R. R., and wife went to Buffalo Monday to visit the Pan-American Exposition. James B. Orr and family returned Monday morning from a month's visit in Philadelphia, New York City, Providence, R. I., and the Pan-American Exposition. Joseph Feicht and wife, of Carnegie, who visited the former's parents on Hill street a week, left here Saturday on a trip to the Pan-American Exposition and Chautauqua. Miss Carrie Albright, who has been at Pequaming, Mich., six months, returned home Saturday. Miss Albright stopped off at Buffalo and visited the Pan-American. W. H. Moore, the groceryman, went to Buffalo yesterday to visit the Pan-American. W. W. Wiley is in Mr. Moore's store during his absence. Postoffice Burglarized. Burglars entered the post office at this place Wednesday morning and robbed the safe of $100 worth of stamps, two registered letters and $5 in pennies. The robbers entered the front door by means of skeleton keys and opened the safe by drilling in it and working the lock. Tools for doing the work were secured from Palmer's blacksmith shop and Reams' wood working shop. There is no clue to the robbers, but two fellows were seen loitering around the day before and were seen in the rear of the post office in the evening. The only description being that one was tall and the other was a short man. From the manner in which they did their work they were evidently professionals.—Big Run Tribune. Accepted the DuBois Position. Miss Binnie McConaughy, of Marchand, Pa., who was elected as assistant principal of the West Reynoldsville schools on the evening of July 17th, and the following Friday evening was elected to fill a vacancy in the DuBois corps of teachers, has accepted the position at DuBois. This will make it necessary for the West Reynoldsville school board to elect another teacher for room No. 4. Temperance Meeting. There will be a temperance meeting in Salvation Army Hall next Tuesday evening, August 6, at 8 o'clock. Special music will be a feature of the meeting. The choirs of our town have been invited to meet and practice for this occasion. The exercises will consist of anthems, hymns, recitations and address by Rev. P. A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church. Everybody is invited to attend and enjoy themselves. Will Go to Atlantic City. Dr. John H. Murray and sister, Miss Olivia Murray, will go to Atlantic City to-morrow to remain two weeks. Dr. R. N. Norris, of Eleonora, will look after Dr. Murray's practice during his absence. The choirs and singers of our town are invited to meet on Thursday evening in the Baptist church at 8 o'clock to practice for the temperance meeting. A fine line of buggies, Mulholland spring seat wagons, platform spring delivery wagons and hacks, carts, also 2 good second-hand buggies. Call and see. Guaranteed work. L. M. SNYDER, Jackson street. Your trade is wanted at Robinson's shoe store. Underwood for 25c at McClelland's.

Trying to Keep Down Cost. L. P. McClure and V. R. Holman, supervisors of Winslow township, are having some trouble in keeping down the cost of the iron bridge across the railroad cut near the silk mill. They submitted the plans of the new bridge to the railroad officials and they were satisfied with the proposed bridge, the supervisors gave a bridge company an order to make bridge and last week, when the bridge was almost ready to ship, the P. R. R. company that some of the irons in the bridge are too light and will have to be made heavier, thus adding an additional cost to the bridge. The supervisors had an understanding last year that the stone for abutments for bridge could be shipped from Falls Creek to this place at a very low rate. Saturday the first two cars were shipped and the freight on the two cars, over P. R. R., was almost $38.00. That puts a stop to having stone shipped from Falls Creek for the new bridge. Shade Tree Damaged. Some person who attended the auction at Millirens Saturday night tied his horse to a shade tree in front of THE STAR office, but fortunately for the guilty party we did not find the horse tied to the tree and have not been able to find out who the person was. One side of the tree was chewed considerably, not enough to kill the tree, but it will damage the tree. If a few persons are arrested and have to pay a fine—$50.00—for tying horses to shade trees there will be less of it done in town. Some people may not know that there is an ordinance forbidding the tying of horses to trees in this borough, but common sense ought to teach a man not to do such a thing. Any person seeing a horse tied to a shade tree should either untie the horse before it damages the tree or report to the owner of the tree. The borough ordinance for the 'protection of shade trees' provides that a fine of fifty dollars can be imposed on a person who will 'hitch any horse or mare, mule or cattle to any tree or trees, growing upon any street or alley in said borough.' Warm Game. An interesting and warm game of ball was played on the grounds at this place yesterday afternoon between 'The Never Sweats' and 'The Wont Work.' The score was 10-3 in favor of 'The Never Sweats.' The feature of the game was the quickness in finding lost balls and decisions of the umpire. The line-up was as follows: 'Never Sweats' 'Wont Work.' Gibson catcher Pifer Mitchell pitcher Sharp Lynn 1st base Nolan W. Herpel 2nd base Henry Riston short Scott Kingston 3rd base Reynolds Woodburn left field Bohren Hines center field Murray Klugh right field F. Herpel Umpire—Johns. Hair Raising Incident. Not long since Will Reynolds was driving past the Catholic cemetery at night, about half asleep, and when opposite a tree in cemetery some person, whom Will had not noticed, yelled as loud as he could. The horse made one spring across the road, but Will's hair did not raise quite high enough to throw his cap off. Will afterwards learned that four fellows had a keg of beer in the fence corner and when they heard the horse and buggy coming one of the fellows stood on top of fence, and was hid by branches of the tree, and the other fellows were lying down in fence corner. It was the fellow on the fence that yelled. Such an experience would almost raise hair on a bald head. Lawn Fete. The Epworth League will give a lawn fete on the parsonage lawn corner Jackson and Fifth street, Wednesday evening July 31. Ice cream and cake will be served throughout the evening. The League extends a cordial invitation to all. Special provision in case of rain. Ask to see the McGee Adjustable Yoke Underskirt an idea new to the art of dressmaking at Bing-Stoke Co. For Sale—Two houses and 21 lots on First street. For particulars inquire of Thomas Black. Suits of all kinds from $3.50 to $15.00 at McClelland's. About the middle of August Dr. B. E. Hoover, dentist, will move into his new building next to postoffice. Flavors of all kinds served at the Reynolds drug store soda fountain. A fit for every foot a fit for every purse at Robinsons. Underwood for 25c at McClelland's.
