Although the competing company has not yet begun to erect its plant, the trust has taken steps to crush it by filing injunction proceedings in the Federal court, claiming infringement of patent in a machine for the manufacture of barbed wire and demanding heavy damages.

The new company asserts there is no merit in the claims of the trust, and that the suit is simply a subterfuge to throttle the trust.

NO CHANCE FOR SPECULATION.

Something Like 180,000 Disappointed Lead Hunters in Oklahoma—Drawers of Numbers Cannot Sell Them.

At the interior department there has been no provision made for the multitudes on the Oklahoma land borders that will be disappointed when the drawing for the claims has been held.

There is one troop of cavalry there to preserve order, and no intimation has been given out that this force will be augmented. The indications are that nearly 200,000 will have registered when the land offices close.

There is an aggregation of only 15,000 quarter sections for the claims among these persons. The interior department will notify the others to clear out. Their generally destitute condition is no concern of the government, and when the order comes for them to take themselves off it will have to be obeyed.

Any refusal will be dealt with by the war department. Claimants who have registered at Reno and Fort Hill, are reported to have arranged to transfer their numbers to others.

Secretary Hitchcock said these men have taken an oath not to do such a thing and to use their rights for their own exclusive benefit. There can be no speculation in these numbers. Reports are heard of schemes for disposing of numerous town sites. The only town sites which have been authorized, are those of the three county seats. No one knows where others will be.

While this conference was going on another was in progress at the Haven school, which touched on amusements. Rev. E. F. Jordan, of Green Island, Neb., declared dancing, card playing and the theater as wholly out of the question.

"In some of our young people's societies," said Rev. Mr. Jordan, "the desire for amusements comes dangerously near supplanting the desire for a higher spiritual life."

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes has decided in the matter of the rate of tax on conveyances of real property that all conveyances, where the consideration or value is $2,500 or less, are exempt from tax, and that amount is to be deducted from the value of all conveyances where the consideration or value exceeds $2,400.

Therefore, in a conveyance where the consideration or value is stated to be $5,100, the $2,500 would be taxable at the rate of 25 cents for each $500 or fractional part thereof.
