And the Paper Proves It.

You have only to see Pittsburgh Wall Paper to realize that the leading artists of the world conceived and executed these beautiful and decorative ideas. No other line of wall decorations have the uniform excellence of design and color effects. Every pattern is a beautiful work of art. Yet not too fine nor delicate for practical use. No matter what the quality, the same amount of judicious artistic sense has been exercised. The desired effect has always been attained—beauty and utility. A Little of Everything.

'Sweet Revenge.' Court next week. 'Sweet Revenge' in this issue—eighth page. The August term of court begins at Brookville next Monday. August Walters, formerly agent for the Kane Laundry, is now manager of the Reynoldsville Steam Laundry delivery wagon. The Girls' Mission Circle of the Presbyterian Sunday school, chaperoned by Miss Belle Arnold, picniced in Paradise Saturday—near the Lutheran church. Rev. J. Vernon Bell, of DuBois, who preached in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening, is an able and eloquent preacher. The ninth annual convention and tournament of the Central District Volunteer Firemen's Association is being held in DuBois two days this week, beginning yesterday and closing to-day. The Johnsonburg Breeze says that Legue Bros. of that place have the contract of plastering the school building in this place. This is a mistake. The work will not be done by contract. Priestor Bros., undertakers, have bought a new hearse. It is the finest hearse in this section of the country. A young man remarked the other day that "people are dying to ride in that new hearse."

Eleven persons of this place took in the excursion to S. of V. encampment at Summerville Sunday. 'Sweet Revenge' is the title of a serial story that begins in this issue of THE STAR. It will be found on the 8th page. William Anderson is nursing a very sore finger, the result of accidentally running a rusty nail through the end of his finger. There will be a children's donation and swearing in of recruits at the Salvation Army hall Tuesday evening, August 13th. Collection at the door. The True Blue Temperance Society will hold a picnic at Frank's Park next Tuesday evening. A large number of visitors are expected from DuBois. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will sell ice cream and cake at the parsonage on next Saturday afternoon and evening, Aug. 10th. The public are cordially invited. There will be a meeting of the members of Hope Hose Company at 8:15 this evening to complete arrangements to attending the firemen's convention to be held at Emporium next week. The Roller boys who sell daily papers, have rented the small room next door to Bert Cox's store and will open a news stand. They expect to handle magazines and family story papers. A large crowd will attend the Elk picnic in W. T. Cox's orchard at Sandy Valley to-morrow. A number of persons not members of the B. P. O. E. have been invited to attend the picnic. L. P. McCleery and V. R. Holman, supervisors of Winslow township, were in Pittsburgh the first of this week on business concerning the new iron bridge over the railroad cut near the silk mill at this place. A number of John Stewart's friends gave him a birthday surprise party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Stewart, last evening. Refreshments were served. The young people had good time. E. E. Stewart was at Strattonville, Clarion county, last week setting up monuments over the graves of Mrs. Harvey Myers, who died at Reynoldsville over a year ago, and her father, Mr. Yarger. The work Mr. Stewart set up is fine. According to an agreement between the pastors of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist churches, there will not be any preaching in the Presbyterian and Methodist churches next Sunday evening. There will be preaching in Baptist church Sunday evening. George Hughes has a fine bay team of pacers which he turned into a pasture field last Thursday morning and when Mr. Hughes went to the field at noon he found that one horse had kicked the other, rupturing an artery, and the horse had almost bled to death. The Puxsuntawney Street Railway Company has not given up the idea of extending its line from Antia to Eleanor. B. M. Clark, Esq., of Brookville, attorney for the Company, was in town yesterday to make arrangements about charter and right of way.—Puxsuntawney Spirit. Mat Mohney, of Reynoldsville, put down the cement walk in front of Dr. B. E. Hoover's new brick building the past week. He is also putting down a cement walk in front of Wm. M. Foster's confectionery store. Mr. Foster had a cement walk put down in front of his brick block several years ago. The following Sons of Veterans of this place attended the S. of V. encampment at Summerville several days the past week: W. H. Ford, W. P. Woodring, John Kirkwood, A. M. Woodward, Philip and Woodward Sharp, Charles McPherson, E. S. Stewart, D. W. Atwater and Prof. R. C. Wilson. There was a mistake in our statement last week that the railroad company had charged the Winslow township supervisors about $38.00 freight on two cars of stone from Falls Creek to Reynoldsville. The freight was less than $34.00, and part of that was for excess, as the cars were overloaded 11,000 pounds. The Reynoldsville Sons of Veterans and the Brookville Sons of Veterans played a game of ball at the S. of V. encampment at Summerville Saturday afternoon and our boys were defeated. Score 8-2. The Brookville S. of V. engaged the Summerville battery, and that is the whyfore of the victory for Brookville boys. D. H. Breakey, who has purchased the Stewart bargain store and will take charge of the store the first of September, moved his family from DuBois to Reynoldsville last week. He moved in to the Stoke block on Fifth street. Mr. Breakey is a genial gentleman and will make a good citizen. He will visit his parents, near Brookville, this week. It was mentioned in THE STAR several weeks ago that W. H. Cumins, an experienced blacksmith, would open a shop on Fifth street, below Jackson street. Mr. Cumins has his shop open now and is doing business. He makes, repairs and sharpens all kinds of tools and does horse shoeing. He has the contract to make the tools and do the work for the Brookville glass plant.

Thrilling Romance. 'Sweet Revenge,' a thrilling romance of the civil war, begins in this issue of THE STAR. It is an interesting story, well written. Janitor Elected. Saturday evening the school board elected G. Curtis Strouse janitor of the school building for one year at a salary of $45.00 per month, or $540.00 for the year. Scholarship Contest. The scholarship contest will close at noon to-morrow, August 8th. Persons wanting to vote for any one of the contestants must do so before twelve o'clock to-morrow. Business Change. A. D. Siple has sold his meat market, near Hotel Imperial, to E. S. and M. C. Strawcutter. M. C. Strawcutter, who returned three weeks ago from the Philippine Islands, where he served sixteen months as a soldier boy, will have charge of the meat market. Mr. Siple will remain in the shop several weeks until Mr. Strawcutter gets acquainted with the people. Stole a Check. A check was stolen from one of the girls at the silk mill Saturday afternoon and was cashed at Williams' shoe store Saturday evening. Mr. Williams identified the woman yesterday who presented the check, but she denied of even being in his store Saturday. No arrest has been made yet. The girl who received the check endorsed it and put it in her dinner basket and it was stolen out of the basket. Wagonette Excursion. Eight members of the Ingelow Club and two friends enjoyed an excursion to Puxsuntawney last Thursday in Livervan Burn's wagonette. They took supper at Hotel Pantall. Following are the names of the young ladies who composed excursion party: Elizabeth Davis, Ella Sealey, Caroline Robinson, Georgie Corbett, Inez Brown, Julia Kirk, Sara Corbett, Frankie Kirk, Lois Robinson and Wilhelmina Priester. Snake Story. E. S. Vosburg, of Driftwood, an extra engineer and fireman on the Low Grade Div. of P. R. R., had an experience with a rattlesnake one day last week while on one of the mountains near Driftwood that he will not soon forget. He was in some bushes when he heard a rattlesnake and soon felt something on his right leg. When he got out of the bushes he found a large rattlesnake curled around his leg, striking his pant-leg. Sherman fortunately had a gun with him and he shot the head off the snake. It had five rattles. Family Trouble. J. R. Groves had his son, Ernest, arrested for assault and battery and trespass and Mrs. Groves had her husband, J. R. Groves, arrested for assault and battery and surety of the peace. Ernest had a hearing before Squire J. D. Woodring Monday forenoon and was bound over to court. Mr. Groves had a hearing before Squire E. Neff Monday afternoon and he was bound over to court. We don't intend commenting on this affair only to say that it is a family trouble that should not be taken into court, but should be settled. Arrested at Bradford. An Italian and a girl named Gordon, of Rathmel, who is not yet fourteen years old, skipped to New York state last Wednesday, presumably to get married, but the girl's father learned of her disappearance in time to telegraph the chief-of-police at Bradford and had the Ike arrested when they arrived in Bradford. The Italian paid all the costs, including the girl's railroad fare back to Reynoldsville, and he was released. The girl arrived here Thursday afternoon. The Ike is back at Rathmel again. New Use for Tin Horn. On the Fourth of July Mayor C. Mitchell bought a five cent tin horn, which he uses to awaken his family in the mornings. He says it is a "dandy good thing for that purpose." If some member of the family locks their bedroom door so he can not get into the room he sits down outside of the door and blows the horn until they get up. Getting a family up in the morning in many cases is trying on the parental patience, but Mayor Mitchell takes pleasure now in getting his family up, and the longer they are in getting up the more pleasure he gets out of it. Moon Didn't Shine. All arrangements were made by a number of young people to hold a moonlight picnic in the grove near H. L. Hoke's, below town, Friday night. In the evening time the baskets were packed with good things and about thirty-five young people hid themselves to the picnic ground, but the moon hid behind clouds and would not peep out at the young people, therefore, the moonlight part was a fizzle, but the young people were out for a good time and they did not propose to be disappointed because the silvery moon was conspicuous by its absence, and they assembled at H. L. Hoke's large residence and spent a delightful evening. Harvey participated in the affair, especially in disposing of the good things to eat.

Want a Fire Engine. The firemen of this borough want a steamer to fight fire with, and there is talk of purchasing an engine. There was a meeting last night for that purpose, but the meeting was adjourned until this evening without taking any definite action in the matter. It has not been decided, if an engine is bought, whether to raise the money by subscription or have the borough buy the engine. The reason for wanting to buy an engine is because the pressure in water line has not been as strong recently as it used to be. The water company will test the line this afternoon and if the pressure is sufficient with full reservoir to give the desired protection the company will guarantee to have a full reservoir at all times and the fire engine, which will cost about $3,000, may not be purchased at present. If a committee is appointed to raise money or devise means for raising money, to buy the engine, it will be composed of the following gentlemen: S. B. Elliott, George Mellinger, J. W. Foust, P. McDonald, E. C. Burns, J. S. Hammond, A. P. King, John H. Wagner and P. A. Hardman. Birthday Surprise. Mrs. A. J. Meek, wife of the pastor of Baptist church, was given a birthday surprise party Monday evening, which was a complete surprise to her. It was gotten up by the ladies of the Baptist church. Dr. Meek took his wife out in the country Monday afternoon and kept her away until almost nine o'clock and by that time the people had assembled at the parsonage and everything was ready for the surprise. The gas lights were pulled down, low and when Mrs. Meek stepped into the hall and saw the crowd she was very much surprised. The occasion proved to be a very pleasant one for those who attended. Mrs. Maud Booth, in behalf of the ladies of Baptist church and Utopia Society, presented Mrs. Meek with a well filled purse. The presentation speech by Mrs. Booth and response by Mrs. Meek were nicely made and to the point. Mrs. Meek is highly esteemed, not only by the members of Baptist congregation, but by all who are acquainted with her, and this was a small expression of their feelings for her. Ice cream and cake were served during the evening. Gone to Michigan City. Mrs. Louise Kinnard, relict of Rev. A. H. Kinnard, left here Monday for Michigan City, Indiana, her former home. In October, 1899, Rev. Kinnard accepted a call as pastor of the Lutheran church in Reynoldsville and moved his family here. The following February he died. Mrs. Kinnard was left with four children and a small amount of this world's goods, but she had courage and determination and succeeded in supporting her family and saving a little money. She bought a small house and lot on Grant street, which she sold several months afterward and bought the house and lot next to Corwin's photograph gallery. This property she sold to Nick Mayo before leaving town. Mrs. Kinnard sold various kinds of articles in town and some of her best customers were silk mill girls, to whom she feels very grateful for their patronage and promptness in paying. She trusted a number of them and did not lose a penny by doing so. Mrs. Kinnard made numerous friends during her stay in Reynoldsville. She is an excellent woman. Bloomer Girls. The New England Bloomer Girls' base ball club was to have played the Reynoldsville club on the grounds at this place yesterday afternoon, but on account of rain the game was not played, much to the disappointment of the base ball sports—and others—of town. The girls travel in a special car and carry enough canvas fence with them to enclose the ball grounds. They play at Brookwayville to-day and DuBois to-morrow. Wedding Last Evening. Otis R. Shewman, of Elmira, N. Y., and Miss Elva Belnap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Belnap, were married at the M. E. parsonage in this place last evening, August 6, by Rev. Perry A. Reno. The happy couple took the 9:50 p. m. train for a two weeks' trip to Elmira and other cities. They will return to Reynoldsville to live. Burke Brady Died in Mexico. The Utopia Society of this place was invited to join the Whittier Club of Brookville in a picnic at Lora Park, up the North Fork, Friday, but on account of the death of Burke C. Brady, son of L. A. Brady, of Brookville, which occurred at Parral, Mexico, yesterday morning, the picnic was postponed. Vote of Contestants. Below we publish the names of the contestants in the free scholarships offered by THE STAR and the vote each one has received up to the present time, as counted by the judges last evening: Thos. S. Cathers, ..... 4674 Fred E. McEntire, ..... 2771 Miss Mary Hasson, ..... 409 Lawn Fete. It was announced in this paper last week that the ladies of the Catholic Altar Society would hold a lawn fete on the Catholic parsonage lawn last Saturday, but on account of it not being pay day at the mine the lawn fete was postponed until next Saturday evening, August 10th. Gibson, the optician, has visited here monthly for nearly two years and has been very successful. See his date. DEATH OF MRS. GOODWILL. Peacefully Departed This Life Sunday Morning—Cancer Caused Death. Mrs. Bridget Ann Goodwill, wife of John Goodwill, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Gibson, at 3:15 a. m. Sunday, August 4, 1901, after an illness of four months. Death was caused by cancer. She had been confined to bed three months. Her maiden name was Bridget Ann Hall. She was born in England October 11, 1822, making her almost 79 years old. In January, 1848, she was united in marriage to John Goodwill. In 1872 they came to America and about three years afterwards moved to Reynoldsville, living here over a quarter of a century. The first of this year Mr. and Mrs. Goodwill disposed of their possessions at this place to go to Shamokin to make their home with their daughter, Mrs. Johnson, but when the time came to go Mrs. Goodwill was not able to go and she remained with her daughter, Mrs. William Gibson. On account of the illness of his wife, Mr. Goodwill was called back to Reynoldsville some weeks ago and was in his wife's bedside when the death angel called for her. Mrs. Goodwill was the mother of six children, two of whom preceded her into that "bourn from whence no traveler ever returns." Her husband and two sons and two daughters survive her, as follows: Mrs. William Gibson, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. William Johnson, of Shamokin, Pa., Anthony G. Goodwill, of Colorado, and John Hall Goodwill, of North Dakota. Mrs. Goodwill joined the Episcopal church early in life, and was a consistent christian. She did not fear death, but was ready to depart this life. During her long illness she was a very patient sufferer. While she was always a busy woman, yet she found time to read and it could be said of her, "she was a well read woman." She was an excellent wife, a loving mother and a kind neighbor. She had many warm friends in Reynoldsville. Funeral services were held at the Gibson home at 2:30 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery. Reynolds Gorsline Dead. Thomas Reynolds Gorsline, son of Wallace and Margaret Gorsline, died at the home of his father at Randolph, N. Y. Monday morning, August 5, 1901, aged 29 years, 4 months and 3 days. Consumption was the cause of his death. Reynolds was born April 2, 1881, at Randolph, in the house where he died. Most all his life was spent in Reynoldsville and consequently he was well known here. He had been in poor health for some time and his Reynoldsville friends knew when he left here a couple of months ago that his earthly career was almost ended, yet his death was a surprise to many. The funeral will take place at Randolph to-day. Mrs. Gorsline has the sympathy of her numerous friends at this place in this, her great bereavement. Mrs. Ed. D. Sealey was at Randolph when Reynolds died and Captain T. C. Reynolds went to Randolph yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral. Obituary. Sunday morning at 2 o'clock death entered the home of Harry Craven and snatched from him his young wife, the mother of his little 1-year old son. Mrs. Craven had been ill but a short time. Hopes were entertained for her recovery until a few hours before her death when those about her bedside knew she was fast approaching the "Great Unknown." Mrs. Flora Craven was the daughter of Josiah and Fanny Shoemaker, of Hornstown. She was born June 30th, 1878, at the place where her parents now live. Her girlhood was spent there. She was a consistent christian and a member of the Chestnut Grove Christian Endeavor Society. She was married to Harry Craven July 18th, 1899, and up to the time of her death lived on a farm near her girlhood home. A father, mother and an only brother, now in Kansas, together with a husband and only son, are left to mourn her early death. Uninvited Visitors. Robbers tried to get into W. H. Bell's residence at two o'clock Sunday night, but were frightened away just as they were trying to raise the side window, when all robbers have gained an entrance into Mr. Bell's residence. It was moonlight and the robbers were seen by a neighbor. There were two of them and they were both tall slim fellows. It was a tall slim fellow that tried to get into Mr. Bennett's house two weeks ago. Robbers were frightened away from Ed. O'Reilly's residence Monday night. In some manner a fire started in a sofa in the parlor of Mrs. Israel Kleper on Jackson street Monday afternoon. The fire was not discovered until the sofa was badly damaged and a lace curtain destroyed. A scarcity of school teachers is reported in some districts. There is only one way to get a thing and that is to pay for it. A school teacher may love his work but he is human, and it is human nature to want some adequate return for labor rendered.—Clarion Republic. The Winslow township school board had no trouble in getting teachers. There were enough applicants to elect two teachers for every school in the township. J. F.
