

TROPICAL STORM FELT AT MOBILE.

DASHED TO PIECES BY WAVES.

Wind Swept Over the City at Terrific Velocity. Property Destroyed and Many Drownings Have Been Reported.

The tropical storm which came up from South Wednesday and increased in force during the night following is believed to have been the severest in the vicinity of Mobile. The wind blew 70 miles an hour for some time. Many are reported drowned. The pleasure yacht Ariel is reported to be pounded to pieces on the wharf at Battles. Nothing has been heard of the crew. The pleasure yacht Mayflower, with prominent people on board, reported lost have been heard from. All on board found refuge on Cat Island, but the boat was wrecked. Nothing had been heard from Fort Morgan up to Friday night. The barracks undoubtedly received the full force of the blow. News concerning the fate of the islanders is anxiously awaited.

A two-masted schooner was spoken 65 miles southwest of Mobile, totally disabled. The logs and squared timber drifted into Mobile all day, much of it coming up on Royal street. Three blocks from the water front, the Dixie sawmill and the mill of the Hercules Brothers, located at Magazine Point, were partly blown away. No estimate of the damage in Mobile was possible up to Midnight Friday.

There is much anxiety at the War Department because of the inability to communicate with Fort Morgan, in Mobile bay, commanded by Major Luigi Louia. There are two companies of coast artillery there, the Eighth and the Ninety-ninth, each composed of 100 men. The fort is situated on a narrow peninsula which juts 20 miles out into the Gulf and separates the waters of the Gulf from the bay. The land on which the fort is situated is only 33 feet above the waters of the Gulf. It is sandy and there is no protection from the waters.

ROBBERS LOOT TRAIN.

Masked Men Make a Good Haul in Texas But Are Finally Captured.

A train on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad was held up and robbed by a party of seven masked men at Canby Bottom, 45 miles north of Denton, in the Choctaw Nation, on Tuesday. The express car was dynamited, the safe cracked and all the mail considered valuable taken. Then with Postal Clerk Tutley holding an empty mail sack, the robbers went through the coaches and robbed every passenger. They secured $280 in one coach. A negro refused to give up his money and was severely beaten. After holding the train two hours the robbers left, going east into the dense bottom timber. The men were arrested and taken to Atoka, where they were given a hearing. The could not give the $5,000 bond and were remanded to jail.

One Is to Be Run Directly Between New Orleans and Rotterdam.

Arrangements have been completed for the establishment of a direct line of steamers between New Orleans and Rotterdam, under the joint management of the Illinois Central railway and the Radcliffe steamship line of Cardiff. Simultaneously the sailings of the Leyland West India line, from New Orleans to London, will be resumed after long suspension due to the fact that the British government chartered the boats of the company as transports in connection with the Boer war.

WIVES PREVENT MEN STRIKING.

Milwaukee Women Largely Responsible for Failure of Strike at Bayview.

The wives of the Bayview employes of the Illinois Steel Company at Milwaukee were largely responsible for the failure of the men to respect President Shaffer's strike order. The wives of officers, it is said, had a meeting before the Bayview took the vote on the strike question. Then it was determined that all should use their influence with their husbands to prevent the breaking of the contract with the steel company.

Women Form Union.

A report says organized labor is making great strides among the women employed in the Government printing office at Washington, D. C. By September 1 no woman will be able to get employment there unless she belongs to some union. The women bookbinders have recently organized and unless she has a union card no applicant, no matter how strong her political backing, can get employment.

Bridge Does Damage.

A span of the new bridge from Fleming park to Neville Island, Pittsburgh, was torn down by a passing freight train Thursday afternoon and did great damage. A street car just escaped the wreck and the Cleveland flyer on the Lake Erie was stopped within 50 yards of it. Workmen that cleared away the debris were shocked in handling iron beams charged with electricity from the trolley wires of the McKees Rocks, Neville Island and Coraopolis traction lines.

MORE WARSHIPS FOR THE ISTHMI.

IOWA ORDERED TO PANAMA.

Increasing Seriousness of the Situation in South America—Germany Gathering a Squadron on Atlantic Side.

That this government considers that a serious situation in the insurrection in Colombia and the virtual war between that republic and Venezuela is amply attested by the fact that the Navy Department has ordered the battleship Iowa to prepare for a voyage to Panama, and she will be ordered to sail for that port as soon as she is ready. The little cruiser, Langger, now at San Diego, Cal., has been instructed to start for Panama, and will sail on short notice. The cruiser Philadelphia has gone into dry dock for overhauling and general repairs. In order that she might be prepared, if occasion arose, to go to scene of the trouble on the isthmus. The weekly papers in England are discussing the quarrel between Venezuela and Colombia. The "Spectator" thinks that "American interference will have grave results," and that it is not possible that the United States will occupy Panama, but it can see no reason why Great Britain should oppose such a course.

The department of state is advised by a telegram from Mr. Russell, charge d'affaires in Venezuela, that the departure of the Colombian minister from Caracas was voluntary and that he has the intention of returning to his post. Mr. Russell has taken charge of the Colombian legation property and archives during the minister's absence.

STAGE ROBBED IN BROAD DAYLIGHT.

Not in the Wild West, But in the Adirondacks of New York State.

A stage coach robbery in the Adirondacks took place in broad daylight, Wednesday, two miles north of Dunlap's hotel at North River, on the road to Blue Mountain lake. The highwaymen shot and killed two horses and thus stopped the coach. There were seven passengers in the coach, four men and three women. The highwaymen treated the women with courtesy, and one of them remarked considerably that no harm would befall them if they would simply keep quiet and hand over what available cash they had, along with their rings, watches and jewelry. Then, while one highwayman covered the passengers with his rifle, the other went through their purses and collected quite a sum of money. Then the mail pouches were ripped open and in the presence of the scared passengers the highwaymen opened all letters and pocketed the contents. They then turned their attention to the express packages.

After the highwaymen concluded their search they took to the woods, keeping the passengers covered until they were out of sight.

TWELVE MEN MEET DEATH.

In the Burning of a Crib at the Cleveland Water Works—Rescuer Overcome by Gas—Many Saved by a Tug.

In a fire fraught with all the horror that accompanies death in the most violent form, five men were burned to death, four were drowned and three were asphyxiated at Crib No. 2 of the new water works tunnel in Cleveland, Wednesday morning. In addition to these, five men are in Cleveland hospitals and it is believed that three will die from the effects of injuries, burns and poisonous gas. The three men who were asphyxiated lost their lives in the tunnel, while eight other members of the night shift were rescued. Another death was added to the long list, one of the rescuing party losing his life in the tunnel. The fire was due to an overheated boiler smoldering. The boiler exploded soon after the flames broke out. The crib itself was of pine timber. The men, who were asleep in their bunks, sprang up to find themselves in the midst of the flames. The boards all around them were burning fiercely. Down in the shaft, under the lake, 11 men were at work digging, unconscious, until the air supply was cut off, of the fire above them.

A watchman at a life saving station sounded the alarm for the life saving crew. The scene of the fire beggars description. There half-dressed and many entirely naked men were clinging to pieces of timber and hanging to the side of the burning crib. Life preservers were thrown to the men and were strung as they were pulled into the tug. Two men in the yawl went to the side of the crib and rescued 10 men.

G. B. Van Dusen, the foreman, descended the shaft in an attempt to rescue eleven men in the tunnel below. He discovered that they were still alive. Twenty-two in all were rescued. The dead are: Victor Kaufman, Canton; Arthur Hasty, John Martine, Mark Snyder, John Kowalsky, Arthur Hastings and John Engling. Four bodies have not yet been recovered, the two in the tunnel and the two at the bottom of the lake.

Work was begun on the new water works in 1898, and, in addition to the 12 lives lost Wednesday morning, 10 have died as the result of accidents, making a total of 31 lives that have been sacrificed. Further rescue work had to be abandoned for the time being, but the big fire tug Fally is stationed at the crib, and is pumping air through a line of hose into the tunnel.

TAKE HUSBANDS AT HONOLULU.

School Teachers Sailing Across the Pacific Spend the Time Making Love.

Of the 400 American teachers who sailed on the transport Thomas from San Francisco to Manila, 60 of them on reaching Honolulu were married. The teachers had been chosen from many normal universities of the country and were strangers to each other. Their acquaintance and courtship extended over a period of less than 10 days. The captain of the Thomas refused to permit their weddings while at sea, and the 30 couples, upon the arrival of the transport at Honolulu, sought out a clergyman and were married. A boat was chartered and the 30 pairs made a tour of the bay.

RUSSIA MAKING RAPID ADVANCEMENT.

Gen. Grant Found Remarkable Improvement Even Among Former Serfs.

Gen. Fred Dent Grant, who has just arrived from Europe, said the feeling of the people of the middle and upper classes was favorable to the United States. The Russians regard the United States more as a country to buy from than to sell to. I found the greatest improvement since my last visit to Russia in 1872. Even the houses are better built, and show that Russia is advancing with the time and is prosperous. The improvement in the conditions of the serfs is remarkable. They were liberated about the same time that our negroes were, but they have advanced infinitely further in the same time. Army service has helped in their development physically and mentally in a way that goes far to make up for the burden on education at large.

WAR BROUGHT WIDESPREAD RUIN.

WRECKED THE PHILIPPINES.

Gen. MacArthur Arrives in Frisco and Calmly Tells Facts—Northern Luzon Pacified. The Sheridan Brings Troops.

The transport Sheridan arrived at San Francisco Sunday from Manila, bringing General MacArthur and staff, the officers and 800 enlisted men of the Fourteenth Infantry, and Company A of the Battalion of Engineers, 262 discharged soldiers, 20 prisoners, 60 discharged civilian employes, 5 marines and 12 stowaways. The prisoners are nearly all short-term men, most of them of the Thirtieth. A passenger of the Sheridan was Captain S. W. Newton of the Thirty-fourth Volunteers, who took a prominent part in the capture of Aguinid, General MacArthur said: "War has wrecked the Philippines and laid waste whole districts. The people in many districts have relapsed into barbarism. The best conditions prevail in Northern Luzon. You may say that the whole territory is pacified, but not tranquilized, but it will not be many months before law and order are observed everywhere. While the conditions are not perfect, they are gratifying. A few groups of armed insurgents are still at large, but they will soon surrender, as their power is broken and they are not being aided by the natives. These natives have come to see that the war does not mean death, and they are coming in every week with their rifles. Throughout Northern Luzon the insurrection has been dead for some time and there is freedom of movement. Still a large criminal class there commits depredations on Americans and natives, though the latter suffer the more severely. The natives are eagerly seeking the establishment of civil government that they may root out these bands of criminals. There is every reason to believe that the whole country will soon be perfectly safe for travelers. At present there is some trouble at Samar, but General Hughes, with a large and effective force, has gone after them, during previous famines, the worst place, but it is not interfering with the coast business. In Cebu and Bohol and occasionally in Southern Luzon there is a slight outbreak, but it is caused by the criminal element."

ROBBERS PLOT.

A Punxsutawney Insurance Agent Bound and Gagged For Refusing to Help.

Two men entered the office of J. L. Lee, an agent for the Prudential Insurance company Friday, at Punxsutawney, at 10 o'clock p. m., and made him a proposition to join them in robbing the First National bank of this place. They told him if he would go and hire a rubber hose, hangy and meet them in the East End after they had completed the job, he would get $1,000. Mr. Lee absolutely refused to do so, and the burglars drew their revolvers on him, telling him if he did not accept he must die. The robbers seized him, bound his hands and feet severely, detached the rubber hose from a small gas stove, placed one end in Lee's mouth and tied it there, so he could not move it, and put the other end to the gas jet and turned on the gas. Then the men bade him good-bye, locked the door on the inside and climbed out through the transom. Lee began to chew the rubber hose and finally succeeded in biting it off, and then became unconscious. Mr. G. W. Klipp and Mr. Alexander, who were passing, heard moans coming from Lee's office, and broke the door in and found Lee unconscious. A doctor was called who, after working for an hour, succeeded in reviving him. The bank was not entered.

Found Chest of Coins.

Workmen, while excavating the Hennepe canal feeder, 20 miles south of Rock Falls, Ill., discovered a large iron chest, about two feet wide and four feet long. It was full of old Spanish coins bearing date of 1684. It is evidently a strong box of the early Spanish or French settlers. The coin is probably worth about $4,000.

Fake Grave of Hamlet.

Shakespearean experts in England, are denouncing the proposition that Sir Henry Irving and Ellen Terry appeal for funds to place a statue over the alleged grave of Hamlet, Prince of Denmark, at Elsinore. It is stated as a fact by those who ought to know that the grave now marked as the last resting place of Shakespeare's great character is not a grave at all, but merely a box intended to catch the American tourist. The real grave of the real Hamlet is said by those who object to the proposed monument to be on Moors Island.

RUSSIAN FAMINE.

Crop Continues Very Poor—Nearly a Third of European Territory in Distress and Many People are Starving.

Advices from Moscow say Russia is on the eve of another famine. Nearly a third of the provinces of European Russia are officially declared to have produced "insufficient" crops, "insufficient" and others still "under the average" crop of cereals. Only two provinces out of 70 have really good harvests. Among the "insufficient" are the best wheat growing districts. The official "insufficient" means utter starvation. The famine stricken area exceeds half a million square miles, and about the same area as that of the great famine of 1881. The population numbers 43,000,000. The hopes founded on the report of two months ago have vanished. The havoc has been wrought by the intense heat and entire absence of rain when needed. Afterwards there were torrential downpours and hailstorms. The appearance of innumerable pests is completing the destruction. As the harvest is now in progress these are final reports, it might be supposed that Russia would still be able to draw on her vast resources of Siberia. But, matters have not gone well there, though the figures have not been finally issued. Moreover, the crops of Siberia avail little for Russia, as no roads lead to the railroads. Of the hundreds of thousands who perished, directly or indirectly, from typhoid and other epidemics, induced by starvation, during previous famines, the great majority were within a hundred or two hundred miles of the railroads and grain could not and cannot go to the starving millions, though the oceans take such quantities to the ports as to benefit the outer world.

PRIVILEGES OF CHINESE.

Attorney General Knox Decides That Manufacturer May Also Be a Merchant.

Attorney General Knox, in an opinion holds that a Chinaman may engage in the manufacture of goods for sale and still be considered a merchant in the sense in which that word is used in the treaty and laws relating to the exclusion of Chinese, where the mercantile part of the business, either wholly or in part, as the selling of goods so manufactured. The case is that of a member of a firm at San Francisco engaged in the manufacture and sale of cigars, and the question is whether this Chinaman may be readmitted into the United States as a returning merchant. The Attorney General holds that he is entitled to admission. Mr. Knox has also held that all Chinese who have a right to be in the United States as evidenced by valid certificates of residence or registration are entitled to pass from the United States to the Hawaiian islands and to be protected while there by their registration certificates.
