SILK MILL STRIKE.

Employees Demand An Increase of Twenty Per Cent for all Workers.

It was stated in THE STAR last week that the employees at the Enterprise Silk Company's mill in this place had made a demand for an increase of wages, but they had not declared a strike at that time. They are now out on a strike, and have issued the following notice concerning their grievances with the silk mill company:

"To the Working People in General and Citizens—We, the employees of the Enterprise Silk Company, find from good sources and statistics that we are not paid enough for our daily labor, by one-half of what is paid in Paterson, N. J., and far less than some of the mills in Pennsylvania.

"We resolved by unanimous vote to demand 20 per cent for all wage workers in the different branches of the industry. Added to the present scale of wages paid, would only mean 1 cent a yard to the weaver, 14 cents per 100 ends to the warper, and 20 cents to 50 cents per week to other employees. Also that our hours be reduced to 55 hours per week and the reinstatement of a victimized Union girl.

"This demand was made on Tuesday, August 27th, 1901, to receive an answer on Saturday, August 31, 1901, to take effect on Tuesday, September 3rd, 1901, the result of which was a refusal of the 20 per cent and the 55 hours. Our committee on Wednesday then asked for 10 per cent pending an investigation of some of the mills in Pennsylvania, which was flatly refused, and considering our demands are just we resolved to fight a battle for labor and its profit.

"We find in our midst the same silk made here, and made in Paterson, selling for $1.00 per yard. The cost of making the same is about 20 cents per yard. Finding the profits of the manufacturers very large, we appeal to you for your support, and aid us to victory and a benefit to our city in general.

"We also find from authority that the firm has already advertised for help in different districts on the outskirts of Reynoldsville, therefore ask your assistance and to keep your children and others from joining hands with the oppressor, when you will be benefiting yourself and all citizens concerned.

"In Union There is Strength.
Yours Truly,
COMMITTEE."

Enterprise Silk Co.'s Position.

EDITORIAL.
Dear Sir—To make our position perfectly clear regarding silk mill strike, we request space to state that we had a strike at one of our other mills which the strikers, who made unjust and unreasonable demands, have lost. We filled their places with new hands and in order to take revenge and out of spite, a few of them have come to Reynoldsville to urge a sympathetic strike. Failing in this, by repeating a tissue of falsehoods, they have induced our employees here to make a demand for an enormous increase in wages, which the state of business would not allow to be granted.

It is stated that we were paying less than other mills, while we know we are paying as much or more. To prove this, we offered, as printed in your last issue, that if it could be shown that our competitors in other Pennsylvania mills, who make similar qualities, pay more, we would willingly pay an advance to cover the difference.

We even went so far as to offer to pay the advance, when proven, from last Tuesday on, to be paid as soon as investigation was concluded, and the facts established. All of which was declined.

We appeal to all reasonable people whether this was not a fair proposition. We have no desire to pay less in Reynoldsville than our competitors pay, but we do demand that we be put on a level with our competitors, so that we are enabled to sell our production.

We wish to treat everyone in our employ fairly, and are willing to pay the highest wages the class of goods we make in Reynoldsville will allow, but we must be put on a basis where we can compete; otherwise we would be unable to run the mill.

We would urge the citizens of Reynoldsville and all who may be interested to investigate this matter and do us justice before it is too late.

Railroad Day at Pan-American.
Saturday, Sept. 14th, will be Railroad Day at the Pan-American exposition. For this occasion the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Ry. will sell excursion tickets, good going on train No. 4, from all points on its lines, Punksatwney to Bingham, and tickets will be limited to three days for return passage. Sept. 14th will be one of the greatest days of the exposition. The arrangements and program for the day are in the hands of railroad people, which is an assurance of a complete success. The special features planned to entertain visitors of great magnitude and will doubtless be enjoyed by the largest number of people that has yet visited the Exposition on any special occasion. For rates and full information consult the nearest agent of the company.

Test Gas Well.
Lumber is on the ground and the boiler has been received at Falls Creek for the erection of a well derrick in the vicinity of Superintendent Swanson's residence near the Elk tanning works. The prospectors for gas have kept their identity from the public and not until recently was the intention of the company made known. The contractor is C. A. Pitts. A coil of rope 2500 feet long and weighing 4,000 pounds is at the Falls Creek station awaiting removal to the proposed gas well.—DuBois Express.
