

An independent local paper, published every Wednesday at Reynoldsville, Jefferson Co., Pa., devoted to the interests of Reynoldsville and Jefferson county. Non-political, will treat all with fairness, and will be especially friendly towards the laboring class.

Sublime Devotion To Duty.

There is no better type of true heroism than that found in the railroad engineer. The average engineer who hauls passengers thinks constantly of the human lives in his charge, and appreciates his great responsibility.

Hon. Harry Willard, publisher of the Reynoldsville, N. Y., Herald, in a paper before the National Editorial Association among other things said: "It is of importance to the public that news be obtained by the use of the pen."

Stockholders' Meeting. On Monday, September 30th, at 2:00 p. m. at the office of M. M. Davis in the borough of Reynoldsville, the stockholders of the Reynoldsville Water Company will meet to elect officers, hear reports of officers, and transact any other business required of the stockholders at their annual meeting.

Valuable Farm for Sale. A farm containing fifty-five (55) acres in first-class condition, a good modern house and barn thereon, a well of splendid water, orchards of choicest fruit, a short distance to school, also to three churches. Farm will be sold for less than buildings thereon cost.

"In the woods," says the Bradford Era, "the leaves are beginning to change their color from emerald green to the crimson decay. The days are steadily growing shorter and the nights longer. Summer is about all in. Vacation resorts are being vacated and in a few weeks little poems will appear in the papers about the melancholy days."

The air-rifle is not a good toy to place in the hands of a boy. Aside from the liability of accidental injury to himself and others, it is a great teacher of cruelty to birds and animals. The average boy is cruel enough to the defenceless creatures without the incentive to kill and hurt which the possession of an air gun affords him.—East Brady Review.

Are you going to the Pan-American? If so we have the greatest line of trunks, grips and telescopes in town. Scott McClelland.

Enamels, Patent Colt, Box Call, Black, Russia, Viol Leather in Walk-Overs at Robinson's.

"That's the finest soda I ever drank." Every girl in town has said this after leaving our fountain. Reynolds Drug Store.
