NEXT DOOR TO POSTOFFICE.

WINTER IS COMING

PREPARE!

The price of Gas has been advanced and must cost the consumers more money unless they buy stoves which will make more heat for the amount of fuel consumed.

This can be done by purchasing stoves which remove the cold air from the floor.

The air is more uniform in the room in which they are used. Warm feet and a cool head are conducive of long life.

We have THESE stoves for sale for either coal or gas.

Please call and examine for yourself.

Prices always right.

No trouble to show our goods.

Walter Lookett, of DuBois, and Charlie Moore and wife, of Brookville, were the guests of Wm. Moore Sunday. A. G. Dinger, of whom we mentioned two weeks ago of cutting his foot badly, is getting along very nicely at this writing.

C. C. Fuller will leave here for Buffalo and Erie Thursday, Oct. 3, where he expects to visit his sisters and the Pan-American. W. W. Fales is quite an expert cattle driver. One day last week, while driving six head of cattle to Rathmel, only five of them escaped.

O. F. Haines made a statement Saturday evening that is pretty hard to believe, but we never knew Fletcher to say anything but the truth. He says he has one potato that weighs 7 1/2 lbs. Mrs. E. Schugars, of this place, who was called to Pittsburg three weeks ago by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Sowers, returned home on Tuesday of last week. She reports her daughter improving slowly.

C. A. Burkhouse, who has been employed with E. L. Sayers as photographer, has purchased Sayers' wagon and expects to move the same to this place Tuesday, Oct. 1. Any person wishing anything in that line will do well to give C. A. Burkhouse a trial. We have seen some of his work and can say he does good work.

Wishaw. Miss Edith Kuntz, who is teaching the Kline school, was at home over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. William Dickey visited William Pifer near Big Run one day last week. James McKillip and Fleem Douthit were at Panic last Monday night. James was taking music lessons from Prof. Fred Pifer.

V. R. Holman, our supervisor, is making quite an improvement on our roads. Keep right on with the good work. The writer will vote for you next spring. Some boys from this place and Eleanora were out on hunting one night last week. Tom has a faithful dog, so they took the bark of their dog as a sure indication that he had sent a con up a tree. It being so dark that they could not see they came to the conclusion to build a fire and stay all night and get Mr. con in the morning. When daylight peeped over the hills they found, to their sorrow, that the ring-tailed animal had played the slip on them.

Rathmel. Squire John Smith had business in New Bethlehem last week. Mrs. Atcheson, of DuBois Junction, visited relatives here last week. Joseph Bateson was in Corsica last week looking after some business matters. John Nelson and family and Ed. Carlson and family drove to Eleanora last Sunday. Rev. Chisholm, pastor of the Presbyterian church, preached his farewell sermon here last Sunday. S. E. Brison will move his family to Hites, Pa., this week. Mr. Brison has lived here for about fourteen years and has many friends here. We wish them success in their new home.

A Gold Dollar at Fifty Cents. Would not be as cheap or give you as much benefit as a jar of Clydesdale Ointment at 25 cents. For rheumatism and stiffness of the joints, there is nothing equal to Clydesdale Ointment. It draws out the soreness of the muscles. Red Top Jar, 25 cents.

Sykesville. Justice Asa W. Sykes has his new law office about ready for occupancy. George Knorr, of Troutville, was the guest of James Shaffer Sunday. Mrs. J. L. Long and daughter, Ethel, visited friends in Summersville over Sunday. The Bethel Baptist Bible school will observe Bible Day second Sunday in October, 1901. The Bible School convention of the Clearfield Association meets with the Bethel Baptist Bible school of Sykesville Thursday, Oct. 10th, 1901. Those of our town who visited the Pan-American last week report a good time and a show worth going to see. Wm. Reber was so overawed with the sights he says he is going back to pay the exposition another visit before it closes. There was an event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sykes last Wednesday morning at six o'clock which only occurs once in the life of a great many people. The contracting parties were Miss Edlie Sykes, of Sykesville, and C. E. Humphrey, of Allegheny City, Pa. Rev. J. H. Palmer officiated. The young couple took the morning train to Butler and Allegheny City, where they expect to spend a couple of weeks. The young and happy pair have our best wishes, hoping that flowers may strew their path of life.

Hornstown. Roy Burkett was in Falls Creek Sunday. The farmers are very busy cutting corn. W. H. Schugars is at Cool Spring baling hay. George Boyer, of Langville, was in town last week. Miss Minnie Hetrick visited relatives at Warsaw last week. George Grogen, of DuBois, was in town last Wednesday. James Degnan, of Reynoldsville, was in Hornstown Monday. Jos. Beck spent a few days at Cool Spring the first of the week. Mrs. John Hunsinger and family, of Falls Creek, visited relatives in this place last week. Quite a number of the young people of this place attended the ice cream festival at Sandy Valley Monday night.

A Fiendish Attack. An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c. at H. Alex. Stoke's drug store.

They Can What They Can And in so doing, housekeepers have their hands out and bruised until they are ashamed to have them seen. If they would rub them with Clydesdale Ointment, they would quickly heal. You will be surprised how well the hands will look after a few applications of Clydesdale Ointment. Insist upon having a Red Top Jar, price 25c.

Reduced Rates to Gettysburg. On account of the National Encampment, Union Veteran Legion, at Gettysburg, Pa., October 9 to 11, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets at the rate of one fare for round trip from all points on its line to Gettysburg. Tickets to be sold and good going October 8, 7, 8, 9, and 10, returning to October 15 inclusive.

The above is a splendid likeness of Louis J. Russell in the character of Cyrus Blenkarn, the inventor, in "The Middleman."

Henry Arthur Jones, the well known playwright and author of this play was born in 1851, at Granborough, near London, Eng. At an early age his inclination for literature was very strong. He wrote a novel that was quite successful, the material afterwards being incorporated in that very well known play, "The Silver King."

One of the first plays he wrote was called "A Clerical Error." Mr. Jones offered this play to most of the managers in London and was refused. Shortly afterwards Mr. Wilson Barrett accepted it and produced it at the Court St. Theatre, London. The play made an instantaneous hit and made Mr. Jones famous as a dramatist. Some of his greatest successes were "Saints and Sinners," "Judah, the Tempter," "The Devil," "The Maneuvers of Jane," "Mrs. Dane's Defense," "Charley's Aunt," and "The Middleman," the last named play being acknowledged his masterpiece. That the play is controlled by American leading theatrical manager, Mr. Dan'l Frohman, and that an excellent company present the piece is reason enough that the opera house should be packed to overflowing on Friday next. Reserved seats sale opens at Stoke's Drug Store Thursday morning.

Tot Causes Night Alarm. "One night my brother's baby was taken with croup," writes Mrs. J. C.
