H. ALEX STOKES.

A Little of Everything.

Court begins November 11. The squirrel season opened yesterday. Next Sunday is rally day in the M. E. Sunday school.

A number of our people were in DuBois Friday to see a game of ball, but they were disappointed, as the DuBois team was not in it with the visiting team.

Frederick K. Booth, son of Rev. Jacob Booth, of this place, has decided to become a doctor and has entered the medical department of the Western University of Pittsburgh.

Alex Riston was in a chair at Delaney & Williams' barber shop half shaved Saturday night when the fire alarm was given and he did not go back to get the job finished until Monday.

W. S. Townsend, who has been superintending the Prudential Fire Company's office at this place almost two years, moved to Buffalo, N. Y., this week.

Wireless telegraphy is not a new thing in this section of the country by any means. A certain morning newspaper has for some years been receiving its telegraphic news in this manner.

Fred Bohren, Harry Copping, Reynolds Gibson and "Dubs" Sharpe, members of the "Indian" foot ball team of this place, played with the DuBois team against the Kane team at the latter place Saturday afternoon.

October 17, 19, 22, 24, 26 and 29, the B. & P. Ry. will sell excursion tickets from all stations between Butler and Falls Creek to Pan-American Exposition and return for $3.05 for round trip. Ticket good for six days.

The regular business and literary meeting of the Epworth League will be held in the lecture room of the M. E. church to-night. Prof. Lenkerd will address the league on the "Homes of Shakespeare, Burns and Scott."

Thomas, ten-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Neale, died at 9:30 p. m. Monday, October 14. Funeral services at residence of parents yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno. Interment in Heulach cemetery.

Last Thursday Constable P. J. Ward, of West Reynolds, took Daniel Nalensik, of Skunk Hollow, to the county jail. Nalensik was treasurer of the Slavonia Society of Rathmel, and when a new treasurer was elected Nalensik failed to turn over the money and he was arrested for embezzlement.

Mrs. Richard Mitchell came from Johnstown to this place last week. Mr. Mitchell, who is superintendent of the Metropolitan Insurance Company's work here, has been in town several weeks. They are now rooming at Miss Ida Reynolds' and are taking their meals at Frank's Tavern.

W. H. Moore and Glenn A. Millren attended the wedding of Dr. C. A. Dickinson, of Kane, formerly of this place, and Miss Sara Best at Knox, Pa., October 10th, at 6:00 p. m. at residence of the bride's mother. It was a grand affair. Three hundred invitations were issued and at least one hundred persons attended the wedding. The presents were many and elegant.

Hutch Burns, one of the firemen, came very nearly being killed in Tapper's barn Saturday night. Mr. Tapper had an elevator in the barn to raise and lower his buggies and sleighs from first to second floor, and Hutch was standing under elevator when the ropes had burned and elevator dropped. He escaped without injury, but it was a narrow escape.

Assembly hall will be rededicated probably the last Friday of this month. A good program will be arranged for the rededication, consisting of music and addresses. Speakers from out of town will be present. No admission fee. There seems to be an impression out that assembly hall will not be safe with a large audience in it. We understand that it has been made perfectly safe, in fact stronger than it was before the fire.

The Epworth League held a social at the residence of J. W. Dampsey in West Reynoldsville Friday night.

The Summerville Telephone Company put a crew of men at work Monday morning stringing the town with copper wire.

John O'Hare, proprietor of National Hotel, and Francis O. Sutter were out for chestnuts Thursday. They got a half bushel.

Edward Lewis, of this place, and F. P. Elder, of Falls Creek, will go to Mosquito creek, Clearfield county, to-day on their annual hunt.

Antonio Oryl, a Polandier aged 60 years, died at Rathmel, October 10th and was buried in the Catholic cemetery at this place October 11. He leaves a wife and children in the old country.

There will be a meeting of the silk mill workers this afternoon. We were informed yesterday by one of those out on strike that it is likely that the difficulty will be adjusted this week.

Captain Herman and wife, and D. A. Siple, of this place, and several Salvationists of DuBois, are at Clarion this week holding meetings.

A large number of people from neighboring towns and surrounding community came to town Sunday to look at the ruins made by the fire.

J. C. Swartz, who resigned his position at the glass plant three weeks ago, went to Pottsville this morning to accept a position with a lumber company.

Special Train Sunday.

On account of the dedication of the Catholic church at Big Soldier next Sunday, a special train will leave here at 9:45 a. m. Returning, will leave Soldier at 2:15 p. m.

Snake Charmer.

Stuttering Jim Thompson was in town Monday carrying two large rattlesnakes in his pockets. He would take the dangerous reptiles out of his pockets and kiss them and handle them as if they were perfectly harmless. Jim is certainly a snake charmer, but he will pick up a rattlesnake some day that will not be charmed.

Raising Funds.

Charles S. Kirchartz and J. O. Johns, who have been given authority by Burgess Mitchell, are raising money for some of those who were burned out Saturday night. They already have raised about $315. The money will be placed in the First National bank and a committee will be appointed to see that the money is distributed to those most in need.

Died Suddenly.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gooder, mother of Ed. Gooder, jeweler of this place, died suddenly at her home in Brookville Sunday night from heart trouble. Mrs. Gooder was 73 years old the 18th of last April. She had lived in Brookville almost 50 years. Her husband died 24 years ago. Funeral will be held in the Brookville Catholic church at 9:00 a. m. to-day and interment will be made in Catholic cemetery.

Will be Married to-morrow.

George Lane, drayman of this place, and Miss Gertrude Zeigler, of Brookville, will be married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Zeigler, in Brookville at 3:00 p. m. to-morrow, Thursday, October 17th, by Rev. Frinney, pastor of the Lutheran church. It will be a quiet wedding, only immediate friends of the family will be present. Mr. Lane will bring his wife to Reynoldsville Thursday evening. They will live with his grandmother, Mrs. David Lane, on Jackson street.

Despicable Villains.

It seems hardly possible that people could become so depraved and desperately wicked as to steal from other people during a time when they were losing most all they possessed in a fire, and yet such things were done in this place during the fire Saturday night. The English language does not contain words strong enough to express the contempt that honest and respectable people have for a vile wretch who is mean enough to steal in an hour like that. The man who will break into a house at night and steal is a gentleman compared to the despicable villain who will steal from people in the time of distress, such as Saturday night.

Veterans' Day at M. E. Church.

The attendance at the veterans' day services in the M. E. church Sunday morning was not as large as it would have been had it not been for the fire Saturday night, as the League was disappointed in the rigs that they expected to get to haul the old people to and from church. A committee from Epworth League met the old people in vestibule of church and pinned a carnation on each one of them and another committee acted as ushers. The real old people were provided with rocking chairs. The wall back of pulpit was covered with tinted oak and maple leaves, and sheaves of grain, millet and ferns were conspicuous around the pulpit. Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of church, preached an appropriate sermon from the following text: "The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness."

Fire Notes.

Some of the firemen spoiled $20.00 and $25.00 suits Saturday night while fighting fire.

The fire was so hot along Main street that the firemen who held the nozzles had to have water thrown on them to hold their position any length of time.

People did just as foolish things Saturday night as is usually done at fires. Things that would not break were carefully carried out of buildings and breakable things were thrown out of second story windows. One fellow carried a two pound weight out of Evans' store over to Frank's Tavern and asked Mrs. McConnell to put it away carefully.

Frank J. Black, proprietor of Hotel McConnell, who was the heaviest loser in the fire Saturday night, was out of town when his hotel burned. Mr. Black had gone to Philipsburg Saturday to spend Sunday with his sister, Mrs. John C. Dunsmore. A telegram was sent to him Saturday night that the hotel had burned, but he did not receive the message until 1:00 p. m. Sunday. He returned home Monday.

Dame Rumor said Sunday that Thos. Tapper had received two notices last week that if he did not stop hiring his teams out to haul workers to and from silk mill that his barn would be burned. We asked Mr. Tapper if he had received such notices and he said positively that he had not. He did receive a notice sometime ago that it would be to his interest to buy from union stores, and it is likely the report originated from that.

Council Meeting.

The Town Council of West Reynoldsville met in regular session Tuesday, October 10th.

Members present: Pres. A. B. Weed, Samuel Sutter, Richard Miller, J. N. Small and James Orr. Absent: Henry Herpel and John Benson.

The minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved.

James M. Moore was present and demanded that the street leading from Brown street to school house be opened at once. This matter was held over for further consideration.

The Street Committee was instructed to notify R. H. Wilson and James M. Moore to repair their sidewalk on Pike and Broadway streets at once.

The Street Committee was instructed to have crossings repaired on Broadway and Central streets, and Broadway street and Ward's alley.

The Tax Collector reported collecting tax to the sum of $10.35 since last report. The Treasurer reported a balance on hand of $596.96.

Bills to the amount of $5.00 were ordered paid.

Trial List.

The following is the list of cases set for trial at the regular term of the Court of Common Pleas, to be held at Brookville, commencing Monday, November 25, 1901, at ten o'clock, a. m.

Monday, November 25, 1901.—John H. Kaueber vs. Borough of Reynoldsville. G. W. Swartz vs. Borough of Reynoldsville. Mrs. C. A. Spencer vs. W. K. Gillespie & Co. Ralph Gray vs. Fitzpatrick Glass Manufacturing Co. William Ryan, Bridget McGrath, et al., vs. Patrick McGowan. Catharine Schlemmer vs. The Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Railway Co.

Tuesday, November 26, 1901.—John Brennan vs. Dognan & McDonald. Jacob Kuntz vs. Rochester & Pittsburgh Coal and Iron Co. J. W. Murphy vs. Daniel Dinger. William Coher vs. Cook & Graham. J. A. Vandergriff vs. The Reynoldsville Electric Co. George W. Harding vs. Sophia H. Clark, et al. Borough of Reynoldsville vs. C. R. Hall.

A Nest of Speak-Easies.

It is stated on good authority that the town of Crenshaw, in Snyder township, is plied with a nest of speak-easies and that illegal liquor selling has been carried on there for some time regardless of the law. From what we can learn, a half dozen "joints" have been doing business to some extent up there and the places, which are said to be located in the Italian quarter, are conducted by foreigners. About half the population of Crenshaw consists of Italians and Austrians and the speak-easies are patronized principally by people of that class. Case-hardened toppers of different nationalities can usually be found in these places.—Brookville Record.

Opening of School.

The public school will open next Monday morning, Oct. 21. Pupils are to report to the room and grade designated by the reports received at the close of last term, and will not be admitted to any other room or grade. Pupils who were conditioned in one or more branches at the close of the last term, must take their places in the grades in which they were at the close of last term until promoted by the principal. No deposits will be received for the Savings bank on the first Monday of the term, but deposits may be resumed on Monday, Oct. 28.

Ice Cream Festival.

An ice cream festival will be held in the West Reynoldsville town hall next Friday evening, October 18. Proceeds to buy new books for the West Reynoldsville public school library.

Basket Picnic.

The Jefferson County Prohibitionists will hold a basket picnic in the Mitchell park, near Adrian, next Friday, Oct. 18th. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Knights of Malta Instituted.

A special convocation of the Grand Commandery of the Ancient and Illustrious Order of Knights of Malta was held in the I. O. O. F. hall in Reynoldsville on Thursday evening, October 10, for the purpose of instituting Mystic Commandery No. 313. The convocation was opened by the following officers: Grand Commander, Sir George H. Pierce, P. S. C., of Philadelphia, Grand Prelate, Sir John C. F. Kunkle, P. C., of Renovo, Grand Senior Warden, Sir Elmer L. Ressler, P. C., of Renovo, Grand Warden, Sir Edward P. Siegfried, P. C., of Philipsburg.

SIR G. H. PIERCE, P. S. C.

Thirty-four charter members were received. The Knight of Malta Degree was traveled in full form by Sir William J. Weaver, and the Black Degree by Sir William H. Ford. A banquet was spread at midnight. After instituting the new Command, the following officers were installed:

Sir Knight Commander, William H. Ford; Generalissimo, Edward S. Strawcutter; Captain General, Charles B. Clark; Prelate, Elmer E. Schugers; Recorder, William J. Weaver; Assistant Recorder, Mabry C. Strawcutter; Treasurer, James H. Hughes; Senior Warden, William P. Organ; Junior Warden, Edward Foster; Standard Bearer, Bert S. Burns; Sword Bearer, George Hartman; Warder, Chester Fisher; Sentinel, Murel Wining; First Guard, Frederick J. Butler; Second Guard, John W. Kellock; Trustees, Washington L. Fisher, Allen W. Woodward and John R. Hillis.

A short business convocation was then held, at which it was determined to meet on Wednesday evenings. The honors of Past Commander, as organizer, were awarded to W. J. Weaver, and a Past Commander's Jewel was presented to him by the new Command. The presentation address was delivered by Sir George H. Pierce, who also exemplified the secret work of the twelve degrees.

The gaud fell at 6:00 a. m. Friday and the members of the new Command wended their way home somewhat weary. This is the first Knights of Malta order in Jefferson county.

Street Car Line to Eleanora.

The Punsutawney Board of Trade agreed to get the right of way for the Punsutawney Street Railway Company from Anita to Eleanora provided the company would extend its line to that place. The work, we understand, is practically accomplished, the people along the line making the matter easy because of the convenience it would be to them. The Street Railway Company is now ready to begin work, and if the right of way is handed to them on the fifteenth of October, the work of construction will begin on the sixteenth.—Punsutawney Spirit.

Anson D. Birchard, special agent for Hartford Insurance Co., represented by G. M. McDonald, local agent in Reynoldsville, Pa., was in town yesterday settling the losses on the buildings of F. A. McConnell and E. Wolser. The losses were total to the company and amicably settled. This is quick work and should be appreciated by those carrying insurance in such a company as the Hartford. It also speaks well of the local agency writing the insurance.

An agent in the town having authority to write insurance and give notice of losses bring the adjuster to the home of the insured where the loss is adjusted and paid without any loss of time in going out of town to see your agent or find a record of the insurance written. These losses occurred Saturday night about 12 o'clock and were adjusted and paid Tuesday before 5:00 p. m.—1t.
