Touched a Live Wire.

John O'Hare, proprietor of the Na tional hotel, got an electrical shock last Friday evening that made every nerve in his body tingle and caused him to take a quick tumble. The electric wire fell down on telephone wire in National Hotel office and when the electrican came to repair the wire Mr. O'Hare was showing him where the trouble was and accidently touched the live wire with end of one finger, but that was sufficient to give Mr. O'Hare a sensation he will not soon torget.

Killed at Big Soldier.

John Milon, a Slav about nineteen years old, was killed by suffocation at Big Soldier coke ovens Saturday afternoon. In drawing off the chutes, where the slack coal is dumped for coke ovens Milon accidently slipped and fell into bin and was buried in the dusty slack. Before he could be rescued he was suffocated. Funeral services were held at shanty where the deceased had boarded. Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, conducted the services. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery.

At the meeting of the Young Men' Reading Association Monday evening the following officers were elected: President, S. B. Elliott; vice-presidents, Dr. J. H. Murray and Rufus Kirk; secretary and treasurer, Dr. L. L. Means Plans were inaugurated for successful work during the next year. The new rooms on second floor of Dr. B. E. Hoover's new building are very cosy and well suited for the association. There are now forty young men in the association and it is hoped that many new members will be added to the list during the next year. A cordial invitation is extended to all young men of town and vicinity to join the associa-

Will Embark in Shoe Business.

A. H. Fasenmyer, who came from New Bethlehem to Reynoldsville about four years ago to accept a position as clerk at Hotel McConnell, resigning that position about two years ago to clerk in Millirens large clothing store, resigned his clerkship at Millirens and returned to New Bethlehem yest rday to go into business for himself. He will open an exclusive shoe store. Al. is a fine young man, and during his stay here he made many friends. He was a member of Hope Hose Co., a member of choir in the Catholic church and occupied an official chair in the B. P. O. E. lodge at this place. His numerous Reynoldsville friends wish him success in his business

Four Election Precincts

An application was made to the court sometime ago for a new election precinct at Sykesville. Judge Reed appointed Dr. J. W. Faust, Ex-Sheriff E. C. Burns, of this place, and James B. Caldwell, of Brookville, as viewers. After an investigation the viewers made a report to the court, dividing the township into five voting precincts, there being three precincts before these viewers were appointed. The judge did not accept the report and it was changed so as to make four precincts. The new voting place will be at what is known as Deemer's store, between Sykesville and Soldier. The other voting places, Rathmel, Sandy Vallev and near J. J. Sutter's residence south of town, have not been changed.

School Opening Postponed.

At the regular meeting of the borough school board, October 4th, it was decided to open the schools on Monday, October 21st, and the principal was so instructed and did not receive orders Reynoldsville and a former liveryman to the contrary until Monday. It was of this place, moved to Alton, Kan., a announced in the town papers last week and in three or four of the churches Sunday that school would open Monday morning, therefore, the teachers and pupils ran up against a complete surprise when informed by some of the directors Monday morning that the opening of school would be postponed until next Monday, October 28th. The reason for this sudden change in date of opening was because the school house was not entirely completed and school would have been conducted this week under some disadvantage.

The ice cream festival held in the West Reynoldsville town hall last Friday evening was well patronized. The net proceeds, to be used to buy books for the public school library of that borough, amounted to $27.29.

CATHOLIC CHURCH DEDICATED.

Bishop Fitzmaurice Performed the Dedicatorial Ceremonies-New Church is at Soldier.

The new Catholic church at Big Sol dier, near this place, was dedicated Sunday by Bishop Fitzmaurice, of Erie, assisted by Father Wienker, of Punxsutawney, through whose efforts the church was erected, Father McGiveny, of DuBois, Fathers Brady and Donahue of this place, Father John, of Walston and Father Joe, Polish Priest of Adrian. A special train of eight coaches was run from Punxsutawney by way of Falls Creek and Reynoldsville and a very large crowd attended the dedication ceremonies. Greeks, Slavs, Polanders, Italians, Germans and other nationalties were represented.

The new church cost about $2,000. It is a frame structure. James V. Young, contractor, built the church. We understand that there is very little debt vesting on the church now. Father Wienker, who is fluent in a number of different languages, is pastor of the Big Soldier church.

Reed-Wheeler Nuptials.

At noon to-day Miss Ollie E. Wheeler daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Wheeler, of Hill street, and Walter R. Reed, superintendent of the large saw mill at Hopkins, will be married at the residence of the bride's parents in the presence of immediate relatives. Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which both young people are members, will perform the wedding ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Reed will leave here on the 2.20 p. m. train on a wedding trip to Buffalo, Niagara Falls and other places. Mr. Reed and Miss Wheeler are fine young people and are both highly esteemed. Their numerous friends will wish them abundance of joy and happiness in life's journey together.

Mr. Reed thought he would steal a march on his Reynoldsville friends by sending his trunk away yesterday, but when he finds the trunk at Buffalo be will change his mind, for the trunk was pasted over with trite sayings before the train left here yesterday.

Communication is it any wonder that marriage is failure? If a mother tries hard to raise her daughter right, what can she accomplish in doing her duty when along comes a neighbor woman, that never knew anything about a mother's love for her child, and tells a girl sixteen years old that she is a fool to work for her mother, and advises her to get married? There is not a mother living, that has any sense, who would want her daughter to get married at sixteen, when she knows the girl is not capable of being a wife and mother. A wise mother knows that the burdens of married life belong to girls at least twentyone years old. What are you going to do with such busy women, who mind your business better than they do their own, and who are always keeping up a neighborly disturbance? I guess we will have to get down on our knees and pray God to take her up to heaven, if A FRIEND. she is fit to go there.

BOLD ROBBERS VISITED TOWN.

Stole Money at P. R. R. Ticket Office in Daylight-Plundered B., R. & P. Ticket Office Saturday Night.

A bold robbery was committed at the P. R. R. ticket office Saturday afternoon by two fellows who had loitered around the depot in the forenoon, There are no passenger trains due on the P. R. R. after the 1:32 p. m. train until 5:32 p. m., and the ticket agent usually has work to do at the freight office between trains, and it was during that time that the robbery was committed. The outside door of gentlemen's waiting room was left unlocked and the robbers did not have much trouble in bursting the office door open and prying the money drawer open. They secured about $20.00, which would be that much of a loss to O. H. Johnston, who had charge of the ticket office Saturday afternoon. The railroad company holds the agent responsible for all money unless it has been locked in safe and the safe broken open.

Saturday night robbers gained an entrance into B., R. & P. R'y station by prying a window open. After getting into the station they bursted the door open into ticket and express office but did not secure any money, which seemed to be the only thing they were looking for. They opened several express packages, but did not carry any of the goods away. The supposition is that the same parties visited both stations. The two fellows that loafed around the P. R. R. depot Saturday and supposed to be the fellows that committed the robbery, were in town Monday forenoon, but as they had not taken anything that could be identified, they were not arrested.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Edmond and Aurelien Brasseur Had Narrow Escape at Main St. Crossing.

A collision that might have resulted seriously occurred at the Main street crossing of the Reynoldsville & Falls Creek R'y in this place about 3:00 p. m. Sunday. Edmond and Aurelien Brasseur. two glassworkers of this place, were out driving Sunday with a spirited young horse and a new top buggy. They were in West Reynoldsville when the excursion train returning from Big Soldier whistled for the Main street crossing. Their horse become frightened at the train and started to run toward the crossing. The young man driving did his best to control the horse but could not stop it. The engine and several cars were over the crossing before the horse got there, but the animal ran up against one of the coaches and the horse and buggy were thrown over the steep embankment into the creek. One of the young men jumped out of buggy on the bridge and the other one got out in time to escape going over the embankment. It was a very narrow escape for Edmond and Aurelien. The horse escaped without serious injury, but the new buggy was badly demolished.
