SAD ACCIDENT SATURDAY.

Walter Dougherty Accidentally Shot Himself While Hunting.

Robert Walter Dougherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dougherty, of Winslow township, accidentally shot himself Saturday morning with a 32-calibre Winchester rifle, the ball entering his left side and going almost through his body. One kidney was terribly torn. The accident occurred about 9:00 a. m. Saturday, November 23, 1901, and Walter died at 12 o'clock Saturday night. Walter and another boy were out in a field not far from Mr. Dougherty's residence, where they saw a rabbit. Walter ran back to house and asked his mother to allow him to take the gun out to shoot the rabbit. Mrs. Dougherty refused the boy at first, but he pleaded so earnestly that she finally consented. When he returned to his companion the rabbit had disappeared. Walter laid the gun down to help upset a stump, under which the boys thought the rabbit was hiding. After the stump was turned over Walter reached for the gun, which was lying on raised ground above him, and pulled it towards him, and the gun was discharged with above results. Walter's companion ran to house and told Mrs. Dougherty what had happened and the mother was almost frantic with grief. There was not help enough around to carry Walter into house and haps and pillows were carried out to the field and a comfortable bed made for the boy until men arrived to carry him to house.

Three doctors were called and everything possible was done to save the boy's life, but the wound was too much for human skill and the young life ended at the midnight hour. The boy was conscious until the last moments.

Walter was a very obedient boy, sweet disposition and jovial nature. He will be sadly missed, not only in the family circle, but in the community. He was a large boy for his age. Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in this, their sad bereavement.

Funeral services were held at the residence of the parents in Paradise at 9:00 a. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. Sibley, and the body was taken to the Beechwoods cemetery for burial.

Will Take Action Against the K. of L.

It is said that Simon Burns will take action against the General Assembly of the Knights of Labor to show cause why he should not continue as General Master Workman of the Order. After a conference with the Executive Board of the Window Glass Workers Monday, Burns left suddenly for Washington, D. C., where during the greater part of Tuesday he was in consultation with an attorney. Burns, after having been declared General Master Workman by a majority vote in the Indianapolis meeting, was ousted by a star chamber session, and during his absence. This action is regarded by the friends of Burns as illegal and it is generally believed that his claim for the office of General Master Workman will be pushed. The meeting of the executive board was partly for the purpose of determining what steps to pursue in regard to the sum of money advanced by Burns to the Hayes faction, (said to be upwards of $50,000) in fighting the Parsons faction, and also a sum exceeding $4,000 given as security for a deed of the property of the Knights of Labor in Washington. This deed money is still intact and, according to the ruling of the court, will remain so until after the decision of the court.—National Glass Budget.

Chinese Exclusion Law.

The officers of District No. 2, United Mine Workers of America, have issued a circular letter, part of which we publish below. The letter is signed by B. Rice, president, P. Gilday, vice-president, and R. Gilbert, secretary-treasurer:

Clearfield, Pa., Nov. 25, 1901. To the Members of Local Union, No. — U. M. W. of A.

Brothers:—We desire to draw your attention to the fact that on May 5th, 1902, the Chinese exclusion law will cease to be effective in debarring Chinese labor from landing and entering into competition with American labor. We ask you to consider the mammoth field that the unprincipled capitalist will have to draw from in times of labor difficulties and the opportunity you present to him of introducing his ideal condition, a large surplus of labor, a more rigid competition in the labor market, with the inevitable result, cheap labor. If this bill at the expiration of its time limit is not enacted, you throw open the doors of your labor market, and invite the competition of a country which can supply your market with twice as many competitors as Great Britain, France, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Denmark, Switzerland, The Netherlands, Italy, Portugal and Spain combined, and with a capacity for wants that six cents per day will satisfy. It is, therefore, of the most momentous importance that we eliminate all risk of being constantly menaced with the danger of competition from this vast Mongolian horde, with his Chinese condition and wage. We will have to prepare ourselves for the inevitable if we fail to avail ourselves of the opportunity that presents itself between now and May 5th, 1902, to work and demand the re-enactment of the Geary exclusion act. It is, therefore, requested that every member of the U. M. W. of A. in District No. 2 will use every means in his power to assist in the re-enactment of this restrictive measure.

County Committee Meeting.

A meeting of the Republican county committee will be held in the court house at Brookville on Wednesday of next week, December 4, at 3:00 p. m. for the purpose of arranging for the holding of a primary election the third Tuesday of February, 1902, for the election of delegates to state convention and nomination of candidates for county offices. The Punxsutawney Spirit says: "It is the general opinion of the active Republicans of the county that the primaries for the election of delegates and the nomination of candidates should be held at that time, it being a day upon which general interests is taken in affairs, when it is much easier to get out the vote. Practically all of the candidates are anxious to have the primaries take place at this time, as it will be less expensive to them, and they will not be so long on the rack of anxiety and suspense."

Great Luck of an Editor.

"Ben Hur" in Pittsburg.

Klaw & Erlanger's original production of "Ben Hur" with cast, scenery equipment, horses and camels begins a limited engagement at the Alvin Theatre, Pittsburg, Tuesday evening, December 10th. This imposing spectacle is a sermon in varied speech, illustrated by art and music. Its thread of suggestion is forward and upright. The curtain rises on the tableau of the Three Wise Men in the desert and the flaming Star of Bethlehem, the man's hand raised in awe and reverence as they group about their camels. The dreamy waste of aridity is wonderfully impressive. Then comes the brilliantly colored picture of the housetops of Jerusalem, the terrace of the Palace of Hur. Next is the great scene of the play—the dim interior of the Roman gallery ship the grim-visaged slaves tugging at the oars, in rhythmic motion, then the wreck, Ben Hur and his captain struggling in the waves. The scene changes to the home of Simoniden, a moment later comes the vision of the sunlit grove of Daphne, with the superb temple reared to the God Apollo; Roman maidens dance joyously, but the central figure is Ben Hur, the soldier, stern and unrelenting.

Again the scene changes and we are at the Fountain of Castalia, a lake dancing in the pale moonlight, with a gliding boat and flowery shores in the cool gray shadows with Iras, the Egyptian trying the wiles of a Cleopatra on Ben Hur.

After this, comes the chariot race, probably the most vividly thrilling moving picture that the stage has ever known. A rumble is heard in the background, the hurrying clatter of horses feet, two chariots, each drawn by four horses, form the centre of the picture. The animals with far stretched necks and dilated nostrils, run like mad, urged on by the whips of the chariot-eers, Ben Hur and his deadly enemy, Messala. The wheels of the chariots rumble and sway. Now Hur is ahead, now Messala, then Hur, and the race is won.

The last scene is a fitting climax to the brilliant stage picture. It represents the Vale of Hennom, which becomes transparent, revealing the Mount of Olives and the City of Jerusalem. Great multitudes come to greet the Nazarene singing hymns of praise and adoration. The miracle of the cleansing of the lepers is performed, but the Christ's personality is not represented. His presence is indicated by a shaft of white light which tradition says was reflected from His person. Ben Hur, his mother and sister are united amid a great chorus of thanksgiving swelling out from the hillsides all around, as the final curtain falls.

The music which Edgar Stillman Kelley has composed for the production has much to do with the success of "Ben Hur." It is a scholarly and creditable alike for its dignity and serious purpose.

Astounding Discovery.

From Coopersville, Mich., comes word of a wonderful discovery of a pleasant tasting liquid that when used before retiring by any one troubled with a bad cough always ensures a good night's rest. "It will soon cure the cough too," writes Mrs. S. Himmelburger, "for three generations of our family have used Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption and never found it's equal for coughs and colds." It's an unrivaled life-saver when used for desperate lung diseases. Guaranteed bottles 50c. and $1.00 at H. Alex Stoke's drug store. Trial bottles free.
