Resolutions of Sympathy.

Reynoldsville, Pa., Nov. 21, 1901.
WHEREAS, We, a committee on resolutions, beg leave to submit the following resolutions.

WHEREAS, It has come to our notice that the Enterprise Silk Co. is bringing into our town a very undesirable class of people to take the place of their former employes, who are struggling against the tyrannical hand of oppression and injustice, and

WHEREAS, We find people in our town who are willing to board and protect the undesirable class of people in preference to sympathizing and assisting the oppressed and

WHEREAS, The Enterprise Silk Co. has refused to arbitrate existing differences with their employes and have ignored them in all fair and just demands, and

WHEREAS, We find that the silk mill strikers are deserving and worthy of our moral and financial support in as much as they have always conducted themselves in an orderly and peaceable manner. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we, in committee met, do hereby condemn the Silk Co. officials in this action, and be it further

Resolved, That we recommend that for the best interest of the community at large the employes meet the employes to try and adjust the differences now existing between said parties, and further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in our town paper and a copy sent to all papers in this immediate vicinity.

COMMITTEE.

Resolutions.

At a regular meeting of Reynoldsville lodge No. 824, I. O. O. F., the following resolutions of respect were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty, in His infinite and divine wisdom, to visit our lodge and call from our midst our worthy brother, A. H. Hoon, and

WHEREAS, The deceased has at all times during his associations with us proved himself a true Odd Fellow,

Resolved, That while we deeply feel our loss, we humbly bow in submission to the unerring wisdom of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy and that we feel for them in this their hour of sore affliction, and that we commend them to the healer of all wounds, who is able to soothe in this sad hour.

Resolved, That in the death of brother A. H. Hoon this lodge has lost an honest, true and faithful member, his family an affectionate husband and father.

Resolved, That in memory of Brother Hoon our charter be draped in mourning thirty days, that these resolutions be published in THE STAR and they be spread on the minutes of the lodge and a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

AT THE BIG STORE BUSINESS IS EARNEST

It abounds, increases, multiplies daily. No lull, no inertia, no apathy. Stagnation is unknown here. Activity is supreme. Autumn season and holiday business abounds with enthusiasm; yet this boom is not wholly normal. It is greatly brought about by our constant effort to improve our service to you, to show you the best merchandise in the market, to sell goods that are made by reliable manufacturers at the lowest possible prices, and to treat all with sincere courtesy.

Perhaps you have noticed in our advertisements that we do not continually talk cheap goods. We want to emphasize the fact that we do not handle any merchandise on which we cannot put our stamp of recommendation. NOTICE—We buy only from reliable manufacturers upon whose guarantee we can conscientiously place our guarantee. This is how we can guarantee every dollar's worth of goods we sell. This is how we can cheerfully refund you your money if purchase not satisfactory. This is how we can guarantee our prices to be the lowest for which you can buy reasonable and serviceable merchandise. We will mention below a part that goes to make up the volume of our business.

DRESS GOODS.

Our assortment of Dress Goods never was so complete. We have all the leading shades in the different weaves for 25c a yard up. Our French Flannels have also been very good this year as is evidenced by the fact that we had to just place an order for a new shipment.
