The + Star.

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSC . Editor and Pub WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1901.

ADIES,

Call and see the assortment of handsome China and general line of Holiday goods on exhibition at

C. F. HOFFMAN'S.

And the Paper Proves It.

You have only to see Pittsburg Wall Paper to realize that the leading artists of the world conceived and executed these beautiful and decorative ideas. No other line of wall decorations have the uniform excellence of design and color effects. Every pattern is a beautiful work of art. Yet not too fine nor delicate for practical use. No matter what the quality. the same amount of judicious an tistic sense has been exercised. The desired effect has always been attained—beauty and utility. Pittsburg Wali Papers are sold in Reynoldsville only by

H. ALEX STOKE.

A Little of Everuthing.

"Up and Down" Co. to-night. To-morrow is Thanksgiving Day.

Deer hunting season closes Saturday.

"Old Arkansas" at the Reynolds opera house Tuesday evening, December 3rd.

All the union stores will close at 10.30 a. m. to-morrow for the balance of the day.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the Catholic church at 8:30 a. m. tomorrow.

The Smith Sisters, who arefine musiclans, spoke very highly of the new liamsport hospital last week for John Reddeeliff was caught between car and rib of mine at Virginia mine Monday and was injured across the breast, but not seriously.

To-morrow being a legal holiday the postoffice will be open only as follows: .00 to 7.30 and 9.15 to 9.45 a. m., 2.00 to 2.30 and 6.25 to 6.45 p. m.

Samuel Bollinger and Aaron Douthit, who are partners in the farming business, had a good horse die week before last and last week the best cow on their farm died.

C. P. Still, of Pittsburg, who is getting up a directory of Clearfield, Du-Bois, Punxsutawney, Falls Creek, Revnoldsville and Brookville, is now in this place working on the directory.

Harry Martio, an assistant at Butler Bros.' restaurant and confectionery store, shot at two fellows Thursday night who were slipping around in the yard back of H. W. Eason & Co.'s store.

The sidewalk to glass plant, from Jackson street to P. R. R. round house, is in a dangerous condition for people to walk over, especially dark nights. Hand railings should be put up.

The Reynoldsville Woolen Company nas ordered a 75-horse power gas engine to run the machinery at mill. The company has decided to put in a dynamo and will start an electric plant for their own use.

The monthly meeting of the Jefferson County Medical Society was held at Hotel Imperial last Friday afternoon. There was a fair attendance. The next meeting will be held at Hotel Evergreen, Falls Creek.

Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of Reynoldsville Baptist church, will preach a memorial sermon in the Church of God at Rathmel next Sunday at 3.30 p. m., in momory of Mrs. Rebecca Bowser, who died October 27th, 1901.

Rev. J. C. McDonald, of Warren, lec could get through until 1.20 p. m. Fritured in Assembly hall Monday night. His subject was "The Shamrock." This was the second lecture of the M. E. leclure course. The next lecture will be delivered by Rev. W. P. Murray.

A new schedule went into effect on the Low Grade Div. of P. R. R. Sunday. There is only one change in time of passengers trains at this place. The train that arrived here at 6.12 p.m. is three minutes later, arriving here at 6.15 p. m.

Prof. G. W. Lenkerd and Miss Margaret Daily, of this place, and Prof. S. E. Downs, of Brookville, have been anpointed by the State Superintendent as the committee on teachers' permanent certificates for Jefferson county during coming year.

Abjutant and Mrs. Irvings, the junior vorkers, will be in Reynoldsville December 2nd and 3rd. They will conduct special meetings in Salvation Army hall those nights. All are invited. Tuesday afternoon, December 3rd, they will hold a special children's meeting.

The new switchboard for the Summervil.e Telephone Company central office in the Syndicate building at this place has been set up, and it is likely that all the connections will be made in time so that the new central office can be used this evening.

Patsy O'Conner, one of the passenger conductors on Low Grade Div. of P. R. R., was operated on at the Wilone on left shoulder and one on Union Thanksgiving Services. Union Thandsgiving services will be held in the Baptist church at 10:30 a m. to-morrow. Rev. W. Frank Reber.

pastor of the Presbyterian church, will preach the Thanksgiving sermon. Taafe-Mayhew.

At 8.00 a. m. to-day Peter Taafe, sor of Richard Taafe, of Reynoldsville, and Miss Lena Mayhew, of Rathmel, were married in the Catholic church at this place. The young couple have the best wishes of the many friends.

Going to England. Next Monday evening Mrs. William

Copping and daughter, Miss Bertha, will start for England. Wednesday noon they sail from New York on the Majestic steamer. Mrs. Copping has three brothers and two sisters living at Wolverhampton, Staffordshire. They expect to visit in England several months. It is almost seventeen years since Mrs. Copping visited in England.

Hunters Got Game.

Lawyer G. M. McDonald, Henry C. Deible and Henry Iseman, who had been over in Elk county deer hunting, returned home Thursday afternoon. bringing with them five fine deer, one of which was a spotted deer. Henry Deible shot two, Jacob Deible shot two and Lawyer McDonald shot the other one. The deer were taken to P. B.

Rhode's meat market to be dressed and was then given away by the hunters to their friends.

Freight Train Wrecked.

Thursday night a P. R. R. freight train was wrecked on the new steel bridge west of the cut at Hopkins. Six cars jumped the track. Two or three of them were badly damaged. A broken rail is supposed to have caused the wreck. Trains were delayed Felday on account of the wreek. The wreek was not cleared off the track so trains day. The morning trains transferred passengers. Co. Supt. Bought an Opera House.

County Supt. R. B. Teitrick and Wm. Kelso, of Brookville, have purchased the Emery Bazar in Brookville and are reconstructing it into an opera house with raised seats and splendid accommodations. Seating capacity between 1,000 and 1,200. Both the day and night sessions of the teachers' county institute next month will be held in it. It will be known as the Belvedere opera house.

Lost Sight of One Eye. One week ago Sunday Charles Burns, owner of the Burns House in this place, suddenly lost the sight of his right eye. Thursday morning Mr. Burns and his son-in-law, D. W. Atwater, went to Pittsburg to see Dr. Lippincott, the eye specialist. The doctor informed Mr. Burns that he could not restore the sight of that eye, but could save the other. Mr. Burns became ill while in the city and was tak a to a hospital. and is there yet.

New Reading Rooms Opened.

tire twelve degrees, same as at institu-tion. The first two degrees will be con-ferred from time to time as the can-The new rooms of the Young Men's Reading Association in the Hoover didates present themselves, and upon completion of the class the remainbuilding were opened last evening with a special program. Rev. Perry A. ing degrees will be conferred upon the class as a whole. The new class is forming rapidly, quite a number thus far having taken advan-Reno presided. The program was as follows: Piano solo, Arthur Haskins: class address, Hon. S. B. Elliott, president of the Association: solo, Miss Frances front of building cut in stone.

MILLIRENS DEPARTMENT STORE

Large Number of People Attended Open ing Thursday-It is a Fine Store.

is 12 feet wide and runs full length of decorator from New York City.

at that place.

he moved into the Reynolds

new and elegant store took his brother in with him as a partner. They have built up a large trade, which will certainly increase in their Knights of Malta.

of Malta of this place, is engaged in re-cruiting a new class of thirty novices, who will be admitted at charter fee,

$6.10, which will entitle them to the block and

The charter

Millirens new department store was After being out all night the jury in the case of Ernest Groves, charged with opened in grand style last Thursday, and a large crowd of people visited the murdering his father, returned a verdict in the Jefferson county court last store during the afternoon and evening. Friday morning of voluntary man-An orchestra of five pieces occupied the slaughter. The trial lasted six days cashier's stand and enlivened the occaand the case was given into the hands sion with excellent music. Over 500 of jury at 5.35 p. m. Thursday, Judge boquets of chrysanthemums and carnations were given to the ladies. This is Reed informed the jury that if they one of the largest and finest stores in could agree on a verdict before ten o' Western Pennsylvania. The building clock that night he would open court is 100 feet deep, 60 feet wide, two stories and receive it, but not later than ten o'clock. It was after midnight before high, with basement under entire building. The front of building is made of the jury agreed on a verdict. The result of first ballot was ten for manwhite stone from Ohio and the balance of building is made of red brick. The slaughter and two for second degree interior is finished throughout with murder. vellow pine. The building is certainly a beautiful and imposing structure, one

In his charge to the jury, Judge Reed said that, according to the evidence, they could render a verdict of murder that would be a credit in the business section of a large city. The name of in the first degree, murder in the second degree, manslaughter, or they could the firm stands out in bold letters on render a verdict of acquittal. The new store corresponds with th

On Monday of this week an application was made for a new trial, twelve reasons being given why a new trial should be granted. Judge Reed will hear the arguments on the case some up-to-dateness of the exterior of building. Among the things to be seen in the store, besides a large display of goods, is the Lamson Cash Carrier Sysday this week. The attorneys for the defense were so

VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER

Was the Verdict of the Jury in the Groves

Murder Case.

tem, with six stations, two 20 foot hat sanguine of acquittal, at least they talked that way, that the jury's verdict cases with French plate mirrors 5x5 in each one, ten plate glass show cases, was a great surprise to young Groves. He seemed to be apparently little con-cerned before the verdict was handed high polished nickle display fixtures. Ac. The chundellers are made of mot lown, but the verdict was a blow for tled oxydized copper and are a combination for electric light and gas, both of Ernest Groves is a bright young man graduate of Clarion Normal and Grove which are used for illumination. The building is heated with steam. There City College. are two tollet rooms and a dressing room

It is now reported that Ernest Groves made a statement to Sheriff Chesnutt about what he did to his father on the in rear of building. A pair of stairs will be built on each side of the cash barn, that would be strong evidence against Ernest if he gets a new trial. ler's stand to the balcony. The balcony

Zielinski Trio Club.

rear of building. There are four large A notable musical organization, which will be heard in Reynoldsville for the first time on Thursday, Dec. 5, display windows in front of building, which are attracting considerable atfor the first time on Thursday, Dec. 5, under the auspices of the Reynoldsville public schools, is the Zielinski Trio Club of Buffalo, New York, composed of Messrs. George A. Goold, violin; T. Amesburg Goold, violoncello, and Jacos-law de Zielinski, piano. This admir-able organization, bearing the name of the walk known minical Mr. Investor tention at present, as they are beautifully and artistically decorated and arranged, the work of Wm. H. Wood, window dresser and general display Besides Glenn A. and Charles M the well known planist, Mr. Jaroslaw de Zielinski, has won for itself-since Milliren, proprietors of the store, and some assistance from their father, A. its establishment in 1898-a wide and G. Milliren, the following clerks are excellent reputation for its unique ensemble work. Indeed, a prominent crit-ic on hearing a private rehearsal ex-claimed: "Their playing is like that of employed in the store: Walter H. Clare, an experienced dry goods man, has charge of dry goods department, Irvin one person, not only as regards unenim-Glock, Mrs. Walter Clare, Helen Mulmity of ideas, but also in all the minutmity of ideas, but also in all the minut-est details which are so precious to the composer." In a prelude to their first concert of chamber music season 1899-1900, Mr. James Huncker, the eminent New York critic, says: "We are all con-founded by the prodigality of the music during which ended and the full." len, Emma Davis and Arthur Farrell. Effle Milliron will be the cashier. Millirens have a large clothing store in Kane and Glenn spends most of his time drama, by the splendor of the full or-chestra, but in music the 'still small About ten years ago Glenn A. Milliren started a clothing store in a small is but heard, or rather overheard, voice' dark room in the old Bee Hive building. n a chamber concert. There, two, His business increased until he was three or four artists of exquisite and at tuned temperaments may reveal a spot compelled to get into larger rooms and in the fair land of art that is overflow-ing with milk and honey. Less imperional than the orchestra, less egotistic than the solo player, chamber music at once elevating and pleasure evoking. It is a notable pastime." The above lines express fully what may be expectan evening's entertainment by Mystic Commandery No. 313, Knights thir club.

In public school Assembly hall, Thursday, Dec. 5. Admission 25 and 35 cents. Seats on sale at Stoke's drug store on Saturday, Nov. 30.

Seven Criminals Sentenced Friday.

Last Friday Judge John W. Reed senenced seven criminals, as follows:

Peter Burenskie, keeping gambling house. Sentenced,$200.00 fine, costs and indergo imprisonment in county jail our months.

Kaval Stanklewicz, larcery. Senten-ced, $50.00 fine. costs and undergo im-

ANOTHER VACANT CHAIR.

H. Hoon Died Suddenly Saturday Morning From Heart Failure.

Abram Henry Hoon, an honored eith zen of Reynoldsville, died suddenly at his home on Main street at 9.00 a. m. Saturday, November 23rd, 1901, from heart failure. He had been holding the position of watchman at the public school building and had performed his duty Friday night and had gone to bed early Saturday morning. About seven o'clock he got up suffering terrible pain about his heart. A doctor was sent for but his medicine failed to stop the pair and at nine o'clock Mr. Hoon expired. The news of his death was a shock to his numerous friends, as he had not been ill. The Fourth of July Mr. Hoon had a severe attack of heart trouble, which caused his family some anxiety for a time. The deceased had resided in Reynoldsville about seventeen years, mov-ing from East Brady to this place. He was a gentleman who paid strict atten tion to his own business and consequent ly, had a host of warm friends in 1.44 ly, had a host of warm friends in this community. He was an active member in the I. O. O. F., a Past Grand, and was also a member of the I. O. O. F. Encamp-ment, and held the office of treasurer in Encampment at time of death. Mc. Hoon was a member of the M. E. church, having joined the church 35 years ago Mr. Hoon was born in Butler county Pa., February 22, 1840, making him in his 62nd year at time of death. Augus August 11, 1864, he was united in marriage to Julia A. Bailey at Rimersburg, Pa. Unto them seven children were born, three of whom preceded the father across the river of death. The deceased is survived by his wife and two sons and two daught-ers, Thomas D., Willis, Mildred and Maude Hoon, and four brothers and three sisters, James Hoon, of Sykesville, John Hoon, of DuBois, Frank Hoon, of Sykesvine, John Hoon, of DuBois, Frank Hoon, of Jamestown, N. Y., Thomas Hoon, of East Brady, Mrs. Hannah Butler, of Reynoldsville, Mrs. Mary J. Lowis and

Margaret Hoon, of Fostoria, Ohio. Mr Hoon was a good husband, kind father. an honorable and upright citizen Funeral services were held in the M E. church at 2.30 p. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. Porry A. Reno, pasto of the church, who preached a good sermon from the following text: "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord rom henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them. withstanding the inclement weather the funeral was a very large one. The L.O.O.F. lodge, of which the deceased was an honored member, attended the funeral in a body. At Boulah cometery, where interment was made, the Odd Fellows had charge of the ceremonies and the beautiful ritual ceremonies o the I. O. O. F. was performed. The floral tributes, which were beau tiful, were as follows: Three links from L.O. O. F. lodge, wreath from W. H. Bell, large boquet from Prof. G. Lenkerd and George H. Mundorff, quet from the Kylo Club, of which Mis Maude Hoon is a member.

The following out of town people at tended the funeral: Frank Hoon, James, town, N. Y., Thomas Hoon, and wife-of East Brady, James Hoon and wife-of East Brady, James Hoon, of Sykes-ville, Daniel River and wife, of Oak Ridge, L. D. Rearick and wife, of Brock-wayville, Mrs. James H. Jelbart, of Johnsonburg.

Old Arkansaw. "Old Arkansas," which is to be th attraction at the Reynolds opera house Tuesday, December 3, is a melodrama of unusual interest. Probably no dramatic production has met with such in-stantaneous favor as Fred Raymond's interesting melodrama. Each Individ ual member of the company has been selected with the utmost care. The cas Frank O. Ireson, Vic Lambert, Grace Hays, Frank Owens, Robt, C. Bell, Ella

Miller, Percy R. Denton, Minnie Hoff-man and F. N. Sewell. The minor parts are also in good hands and this is considered one of the most noted combinations of talent producing a melodrama

Shot a Dead Squirrel.

Suits, overcoats, pants, underwear

Gibson, the optican is one of the best.

Handkerchiefs and centres at Sutters,

A complete line of leggins at Robin-

MITCHELL & FLYNN.

Some of the men in McDonald's camp, near Harvey's Run, played a joke on John McDonaid, of this place, who is foreman of camp. They tied a dead gray

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Glimpses of the People who are Passing To and Fro.

Dr. John H. Murray was in Punx-sutawney yesterday. Dr. W. B. Alexander and wife wors in DuBois over Sunday.

Mrs. Andy Denny, of Driftwood, vis-ited in this place last week.

Mrs. Harriet Repsher, of Yatesboro, Pa., visited in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Colkitt, of Dayon, visited in this place last we Miss Maud Meek spent Saturday and Sunday in Pittsburg visiting friends. John Barnard and wife, of Dayton, were visitors at J. H. Corbett's last week. George F. Osburn, a student in on Normal, spent Sunday at his home in this place Mrs. Howard I. Merris, of DuBois, was the guest of Mrs. L. J. McEntire day last week.

G. Ralph Adam, editor Brockway-ville Record, was a caller at THE STAR flice yesterday.

W. S. Stone, of East Brady, was in Reynoldsville Monday attending the funeral of A. H. Hoon

Postmaster A. M. Woodward was sral days last week.

Miss Oma Plyler, of Patton Station, visited her aunt, Mrs. Wesly Motter, in this place last week.

J. E. Boyle, of Rimersburg, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Boyle, near this place this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Dunn, of Falls Creek, were in town Monday shaking hands with old time friends.

Mrs. Ben. C. Reed was in Brookville Friday evening attending a tea party given by Mrs. Frank Verstine.

Mrs. Jane E. Brisbin, and daughter, Miss Lizzie Brisbin, are visiting rela-

Miss Anna Davis, who is teaching chool at New Kensington, will come

Mrs. Eliza Walsh, of Bradford, who was visiting her brother. Thomas Black.

n this place, returned home yesterday.

Miss Nellie Sutter, manager of J. J.

Sutter's dry goods store, will go to Pitts burg to-morrow to buy some new goods.

J. L. Long, of Sykesville, who is traveling agent for the Planto Harvesting Machine Co., was in Pittsburg this

I. F. Dempsey and wife, of Hawthorn, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dempsey, in West

Mrs. Charles Keim, of Watsontown, and Miss Merta Boyles, of DuBois, vis-ited their aunt, Mrs. J. Van Reed, in

Miss Nettle Steine, who was visiting her sister, Mrs. Solomon Friedman, in this place, returned to her home in

Mrs. William Mabon, of Marion Cen-tre, Indiana county, has been visiting old time friends and relations in this

Miss Lois Robinson, who is attending college in Pittsburg, was called home last week by the scrious illness of her aunt, Miss Belle Robinson.

R. D. Beer and daughter, Miss Or-pha, were over in Clarion county dast week attending the funeral of a rela-tive, daughter of Solomon Beer.

Harry McEntire and Frank Hibbs, of John C. Hirst, of this place, went to Charleston, West Va., the latter part of last week to accept a position with the Conemaugh Coal & River Company.

C. E. Coryell, of Vancouver, Washington, son-in-law of A. G. Milliren, who visited in this section six weeks, started for his home on the Pacific coast Mon-DuBois, spent Sunday with the forme parents in this place. Hibbs, who deaf mute, rooms with Harry.

week.

Reynoldsville

this place last week.

Pittsburg last week.

place the past week.

ome to-day to spend Thanksgiving.

tives at Chesswick, near Pittsburg.

Miss Elizabeth Sutter, of Punxsu-tawney, is visiting her brother, J. J. Sutter, on Pleasant avenue. Walter B. Reynolds, who is attend-ing school at Bellefonte, will come home to-day to spend Thanksgiving.

Transferrer and an orderer

J. R. McConnell, of Brookville, visited his brother, F. A. McConnell, at Frank's Tavern Monday.

The B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church will contribute $25.00 about Dec. 1st for Mission Work in the Philippine Islands

There will be a social at Murray school Saturday evening, Nov. 30th 1901. All are cordially invited to at-

The "Indian" foot ball team of this place will play the "Columbia" team of DuBois at the latter place to-morrow afternoon.

Mrs. Eva M. Evans, matron of Memo rial Home at Brookville, inspected the Woman's Relief Corps at this place last Friday afternoon.

"Old Arkansaw," the melodrama that is being greeted with a large audience everywhere, will appear at the Reyn olds opera house next Monday night.

A Baptist church has recently been organized at Falls Creek with 23 mempers. Rev. T. T. Vulkoff, of DuBols, preaches at Falls Creek every Sunday at 2.30 p. m.

The morning sermon at the Baptist eburch next Sunday will be followed by the observance of the Lord's supper and the evening sermon will be follow ed by baptism.

tors.

D. W. Atwater, of this place, has organized a Protected Home Circle at Punxsutawney. It is expected that the lodge will be instituted to-day with 75 charter members.

The bazar and chicken waffle supper in the chapel of the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon and evening was a financial success. The ladies cleared about $100.00.

There was a raffle and shooting match at Jacob Schwem's farm, near town, Friday afternoon. A number of Reynoldsville sportemen were Bistr turkies were raffied off.

left side. William Thomas, yardmaster at Driftwood, is running Mr. O'Conner's rain "Down and Up" at the opera house last Saturday night, was the funniest Wilson show of the season. George Hickman, as "Dooley Down," the Irishman, was whole show in himself. Should Dooley Down ever come this way again he will be greeted by a large audience.-Punxutawney Spirit. At Reynolds opera house this evening.

E. C. Lewis, of this place, and F. P. Elder, of Falls Creek, who were over in Eik county several weeks hunting, returned home this week There were two or three others in the party. They killed three bears, four deer, four 'coons, one fox and 25 pheasants. One bear was shipped to this place and was on exhibition at Frank's Tayern yesterday. It was a big fellow.

Mrs. J. M. Moore, Mrs. Wm. Bolt, Mrs. Charles Herpel, Mrs. E. L. Evans, Mrs. H. W. Herpel and Miss Dena Rhoden. of Lady Winslow Lodge No. 205. Daughters of Rebekah, of this place, visited Leota Lodge No. 242, in DuBois last Wednesday afternoon. There were a dozen visitors present from the Daughters of Rebekah lodge of Lindsey. The DuBois ladies served supper for the vis-

It is really surprising what exhorbi While the audience was delighted tant prices travelling advertising fakirs can get from merchants for advertising that is of very little value to the advertiser. And in most cases people who patronize the fellow that drops into town with an advertising scheme seldom advertise in the home papers, where the Thursday evening. advertisement will do them some good. A scheme was worked here recently that was certainly a "fat thing" for the fellow who worked it. If the business men would give the matter a little conideration the majority of the travelling advertising schemers would soon be en-gaged in some other line of business.

King: address, Rev. A. J. Meek: solo Mrs. J. W. Gillispie: address, Rufus Kirk, vice-president of Association; address, George H. Mundorff; duet, Mrs. Walter D. Williams and Prof. R. C.

First Entertainment a Grand Success.

The first entertainment on the public chool lecture course for the present term was given in Assembly hall las Thursday evening by the Ariel Ladies' Sextette, or the famous Smith Sisters and the crowd that greeted them was highly pleased, and went away with the highest praise upon their lips for the company. The program, which was bright, sparkling and enjoyable from first to last, was rendered with that artistic finish and smoothness which marks the performance of only skilled musicians. Miss Marguerite Smith, the reader, captivated the audience Her impersonations of the lisping three-year-old to the awkward school boy of fifteen, were perfect. Her read ings, which were out of the ordinary, showed the marks of true genius. The splendid array of talent, of which this company is composed cannot fail to please the most exacting audience. The company is filling a three-night engagement in New York City this week. The Ariel Ladies' Sextette will be one of the attractions at the Jefferson county teachers' institute next month.

with the entertainment, the Smith Sisters were pleased with the large audience. The fact of the matter, the company was a little surprised to see as well dressed and fine looking audience as greeted them in Assembly hall

Leave your order with Miss Emily Bennett, on Jackson street, for home-made cream candies for Christmas.

What better Xmas gift than a good pair of spectacles. See Gibson at Ho-tel Imperial December 6. Waiste at Sutters.

tage of the charter rate. The charts will remain open until March 1st. It desired to have the class completed m February 1. Applications and informa-tion can be obtained of any of the members, or by writing to the Recorder, Box 144, Reynoldsville Pa. The Commandery is making arrangements to uniform in the near future, and the membership is taking an active interest in the formation of the new class.

Up-to-Date Books

Matthew Philips, whose health has been so poorly for several years that he is not able to do manual labor. is now taking orders for five excellent and upto-date books, which he is selling at very reasonable prices. The titles of the books are: "Kindergarten Stories," the books are: "Kindergarten Stories," "Lives of our Presidents for Boys and Girls," 'Life of President McKinley," including his assassination and burial, "From Eden to Calvary," "New Cen-tury Speakers and Writers," "New Century Cyclopedia of Universal Know-ledge," These books are all nicely bound.

Dedication of the M. P. Church

The new M. E. church will be dedicated Sunday, December 1st, 1901. Rev. A. B. Riker, D. D., of Mount Union, Ohio, will preach the dedication sermon at 10.30 a. m. A number of the former pastors are expected to be present, also other ministers. There will be services in the afternoon and evening also. All are cordially invited to attend.—Big Run Tribune.

Thanksgiving Day our store will be closed from 10:30 a. m. Bing-Stoke Co.

Look at Hoffman's watches and get prices before you buy elsewhere

The finest line of watches at Gooder's ewelry store. Over 100 gold watches o select from. Selling shoes, that's our business Robins For your new shirt visit Millirens.

Smoking sets, tobacco boxes, &c., in silver at Hoffman's the jeweler.

Come and get prices on Lorgnette chains at C. F. Hoffman's. See the new Waldorf hats at Milliren Umbrellas, just the thing for a nic Christmas present, from $3.00 to $10.0 at Gooder's jewelry store. 810.00 risonment in county fail six months.

Jerry Cook, alias Jerry Cole, alias Jerry Kough, burglary, Sentenced, $100 fine, costs and undergo imprisonment in county jail three months. Eva Motter, adultery. Settenced, $100 fine, costs and undergo imprisonment ine, costs and undergo imprisonment in county jail two months. Ed Smith, larcency. Sentenced, $10.00 Then the joke was out. fine, costs and imprisonment in county jail three months.

Fred Victor, larcency. Sentenced, $50 fine, costs and undergo imprisonment in county jail six months.

William Stilwell, larcency. Sentenced $100.00 fine, costs and undergo imprisonment for one year and three months in the penitentiary. George Kunselman, assault and bat-tery. Sentenced, $10.00 fine and costs.

Has Rented Room for School

Last week we stated that Prof. Rich-ard Hughes would start a class in bookkeeping, short-hand, penmanship, &c., if there were enough pupils to make it worth while for him to take up the work. Since then a number have noti-

<sup>4</sup> There has never been as large a stock of gold watches in Reynoldsville as A railroad hold-up, an express can Gooder, the jeweler, has. Over 100 to blown to atoms by dynamite, a desperate fight for liberty, an Arkansaw lynching select from. party, the battering down of a jail door by the mob, an electrical fountain and Having got a bargain on a full piece of blue Kersey we are prepared to make overcoats of the same at $15.00. a thrilling escape, are a few of the fea-tures to be seen in Fred Raymond's latest successful melodrama, "Old Arkan-saw," which will be presented at the Reynolds opera house December 3rd. We can't afford to sell you a poor shoe at any price. Robinson's.

A man stepped into Millirens the other day and said: "Here is one of your $10.00 suits I bought 5 years ago. I would like to get another one just like Up-to-date wearing apparel cost no more at Millirens than past ideas do other places. Fancy pieces of china to select from at Hoffman's, the jeweler. it." It isn't any wonder Millirens suc-

H. W. Eason & Co. have received this week large assortments of men and boy's hats, caps and sweaters every-thing that is up to date. Ask to see them. For your new overcoat or suit, try Millirens, the reliable. A fine line of rings to select from a

Our values tell their own story, while our low prices on all lines of merchandise illustrate it. Bing-Stoke Co. C. F. Hoffman's. All kinds of warm lined over shoes at

The only place in Reynoldsville where cut glass is kept is at Gooder's, the jeweler. Buy your umbrellas at Hoffman's Engraved free.

Miss Wilhelmina Priester, who been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Paul Metzenthin, at Wheelsquirrel on the limb of a tree and when John spied the squirrel he hurried back ing, West Va., returned to her home in this place last week. to the camp for his gun. When he returned the squirrel was still sleeping on the limb. The first and second shots did not awaken the squirrel, but the third shot brought it to the ground.

day morning.

Mrs. Margaret Marshall, of Butler county, Pa., was the guest of Mrs. John H. Corbett the past week. She will spend the winter in Tennessee and North Carolina, where her daughters resides.

Salvation Army Meetings

sweaters, hosiery, neckwear, gloves, overals, and jackets, hats, caps, and Public meetings are held every evening at the Salvation Army hall, with exception of Monday evening, when members' meetings are held. Also on Sunday afternoons at 3.30, which is a everything in men and boy's wearables at a saving of 15 to 35 per cent. Quite a saving. Bing-Stoke Co. Mackinaws and homespuns at hal price to close out at Reynoldsville Woolen Mill. 300 yds mackinaw 54 inch, in black, brown, blue, and grey, praise service, to which all christians are espicially invited to attend and take part in the services. The Salvation Army does not neglect the children, therefore, every Saturday afternoon, between 3.00 and 4.00, a Band of Love meeting is held, at which the children are taught some useful things. Then on Sunday at 2.00 p. m. a junior meeting is held, at which the word of God is taught.

Bargains for 30 Days.

New buggles and one light delivery wagon at a big reduction. L. M. SNYDER.

Examine the great selection of caps at Millirens.

Big shoes and little shoes at Johnston & Nolan's at a reduced price

For Sale-30 feet front on Main st., 1 lot east of opera house. Inquire of E. M. Evans.

Umbrellas at Sutters.

Don't be too late or you will miss some rare bargains in French flannels at 38c. yard, broadcloths at 69c.-worth almost double. Bing-Stoke Co.

Watches from $1.00 up at Gooder's ewelry store.

Rings of all kinds at Gooder's, the eweler.

A nice assortment of gold rings, good values, for Christmas. Come and see at C. F. Hoffman's.

R. L. Taafe keeps the best grades of flour for the least money.

Come and see the bargain counter of shoes at Johnston & Nolan's.

at 60c. yd., just the thing for over-shirts and horse blankets. Also 1,000 yds homespun 54 inch at 35c. yd., these are first class bargains. At Hotel Imperial December 6. work. Since then a humber have holf-fied Prof. Hughes that they wanted to take lessons and he has rented the room formerly occupied by THE STAR, on second floor of the Froeblich and Henry building. Full particulars will be pub-lished in this paper next week. com 5 to 75 cents.