

Why She Was Mad.
One morning in kindergarten a wee mite of womanhood had been trying to attract the teacher by every resource of which she was capable without directly saying she had something to tell. Finally the young girl went over and sat beside her, whereupon little Rachel flounced her skirts, pucker up her forehead and, clinching her hand, exclaimed, "Oh, dear, but 'm mad!"

The teacher was surprised, for Rachel had seemed to be laboring under a delightful secret. "And why is little Miss Sunshine angry?" asked the instructor.

"Well, everybody was mad at our house this morning. Mamma scolded Sister Jane, and auntie scolded mamma, and papa said, 'Oh, darn!' and left the table, so I guess I can be cross too!" —Motherhood.

Out of It.
A large number of colliers in Lancashire are accustomed to spending a portion of each week in the public house, instead of following their work regularly, and thus not having more than two or three days a week to draw for at pay day.

The mother of one of these men, on being told of 5 per cent advance in wages, asked her neighbor the meaning of 5 per cent.

Her friend replied:
"Why, Mrs. Hodson, dost not know? It means as every toime they gettin a peund they'll get 21 shillings for it."

"Oh, dear me," Mrs. Hodson returned, "it'll mak' no difference to our Jerry; he never gets a peund!" —Spare Moments.

Remarkable Streets.
Washington has a street 17 1/2 miles in length; it is the longest in the world. The shortest street is the Rue Blo, Paris, which is barely 20 feet long. The widest street is Market street, Philadelphia; the narrowest, the Via Sol, Havana, which is only 3 1/2 feet wide. The highest street is Main street, Denver, Colo.; the lowest street, which is below the level of the sea, Main street, Georgetown, British Guiana. The cleanest street is Regent street, London; the dirtiest, Tehang-Tse street, Nankin.—London Tit-Bits.

In its native habitat the shell of the oyster is always a little open, and microscopic waving hairs set up currents which carry the food plants to its mouth, where they are engulfed and afterward digested.

Pain in Head, Side and Back.

For years I suffered with pain in the head, pain in the side, and in the small of the back. I was nervous and constipated and could not sleep. The pills and other medicines I tried only made a bad matter worse. Then I tried Celery King. One package cured me and made a new woman of me.—Mrs. T. Kiehnman, Croton-on-Hudson, N. Y.

Not what you pay for Coffee, but what Coffee pays you.

There are two values to every article,—what it costs and what it's worth. Cork costs 8 cents a pound, but if you are drowning half a mile from shore, its value would be "not what you pay for cork but what cork pays you."

You are not drowning, but you are using up strength and vitality in your daily work. You are getting back that strength and vitality in part from your morning cup of coffee.

It makes little difference what you pay for it; the important question is "What does it pay you?" You can see the strength you have, but you can't see the increased strength you would get if you drank

CHASE & SANBORN'S "High Grade" COFFEE.

This is a fact! You can easily test its truth. It will cost you one pound of coffee—that's all!

High School Bulletin.
Miss Ethelyn Winslow, Editor-in-Chief, Miss Mary McDonald, Assistant Editor.

Once again members of the Shakespearean Literary Society are pleased to assemble in the Reynoldsville Public School after the great fire and long vacation, with Mr. Lenkerd, our highly esteemed principal, and Mr. McClure, assistant principal.

About three weeks ago it was decided to re-organize the Shakespearean Society to meet every Friday at 2:45, and run the High School Bulletin every two weeks only, owing to the great amount of work the editor-in-chief has to do this year.

Mr. Bowser was nominated president, and Mr. Smith secretary pro tem. The following were elected to serve four weeks: President, Miss Brown; Secretary, Miss Klahr; Treas. Mr. Nolan; Pianist, Miss K. King; Critic, Mr. McClure; Program Committee, Mr. Hardman, Miss Stoke, Miss McDonald. It was then decided to make out a new Constitution, as the old one Mr. Leavenworth has, having saved it from the fire. The Constitution committee appointed are, Mr. McClure, Mr. Smith, and Miss K. King.

We deeply regret to learn that Miss Ethelyn Winslow, editor-in-chief, and member of Senior Class, is quite ill with scarlet fever, but we hope she may have a speedy recovery and be with us soon again, 'til then, we will make this column as interesting as we possibly can, wishing the High School to not criticize too harshly under the circumstances.

Last Friday a very entertaining musical program was rendered. Messrs. Nolan and Bowser's duet was indeed a rare treat. The vocal solo and duet is deserving of great praise, also the violin solo by Miss Winslow and instrumental duet by Misses Klahr and Shaffer. Miss Brown's vocal solo and Miss Neale's guitar solo, which were to be given, were missed very much.

Misses Olevia Murray, Caroline and Nellie Robinson, Inez Brown, Edna Lewis, Unita Farrell and Effie Milliren visited the society Friday.

Wanted—Pupils to take lessons on the Jew's harp. Nolan and Bowser.

Watch for the new furniture and drop curtains for the stage. Mr. Lenkerd.

Friday, December 6, a mock trial is to be given by Shakespearean society. Case, assault and battery; plaintiff, Tom Nolan, lawyer, Miss Brown; defensive, Clyde Murray, lawyer Fred Smith; judge, Mr. Lenkerd.

Yes, Tom, we may be an easy committee, but there "may be others."

Watch for the "Whistling Match," at close of mock teachers meeting, by the girls, December 7.

Be sure and attend the fine concert to be given by Gamble & Boyd, in public school assembly hall, Thursday, December 5. "Come early and avoid the rush."

Mr. Ralph Kirk, a member of Senior class, is slowly recovering.

Mr. Lenkerd gave us a talk on the session of Congress Monday morning, that being the day, at twelve o'clock, Congress met. His subject was very interesting to us.

And now, dear readers, this is the extent of our brains, so do not look for us again 'til two weeks.

Saw Death Near.

"It often made my heart ache," writes E. C. Overstreet, of Elgin, Tenn., "to hear my wife cough until it seemed her weak and sore lungs would collapse. Good doctors said she was so far gone with Consumption that no medicine or earthly help could save her, but a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery and persistent use of this excellent medicine saved her life." It's absolutely guaranteed for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung diseases. 50c, and $1.00 at H. Alex. Stoke's Drug Store. Trial bottles free.

In one city of Austria-Hungary last year over 25,000 horses were slaughtered and eaten by the people. Horse meat is somewhat offensive to the dainty palates of Americans but if money was as scarce here as it is in Europe, we might be tempted to forego purchasing beef at 20 to 24 cents per pound when horse meat sells at from 5 to 11 cents per pound. The same city also eat 58 donkeys, according to official reports.
