Pittsburg Moving Picture Co. show to-night. All the Union stores in town are closed to-day. We wish all THE STAR readers a happy and prosperous New Year. Several dwellings were destroyed by fire at Falls Creek last night. How many good resolutions have you made to begin the new year with? 'East Lynne' at Reynolds opera house Friday evening, January 3rd. Dr. J. B. Neale was in Pittsburg the first of last week taking hot baths for rheumatism. Wait for the Lyman Howe moving pictures in Public school Assembly hall Jan. 16. The Irene Jeavous East Lynne Co. at Reynolds opera house Friday evening, January 3rd. Parker and Kittanning are having a small-pox scare. There is at least one case in both towns. At the monthly meeting of the Reynolds Building and Loan Association last week $3,400 was sold. Don't miss the moving picture show at the opera house to-night. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store. William Northey, jr., went to East Brady last Thursday to accept a position as fireman on the P. R. R. Toney Felix and Rebecca Reitz, of Sandy Valley, were married by Squire E. Neff at his office in this place on 23rd of last month. The London News says of Russell H. Conwell: 'The orator just seems to hold the people as children stare at brilliant and startling pictures.' The Brookville Democrat, one of our excellent exchanges, entered its 24th year last week. Major John McMurray has been at the helm for 22 years. Some fellow giving his name as George Shannon, reported at DuBois Sunday that a bartender was stabbed to death in Reynoldsville Saturday night. The report was false.

The C. L. S. C. will meet at Dr. L. L. Mean's office at eight o'clock next Friday evening. Church bells were rung last night as the old year went out and the new year was ushered in. There will be no prayer meeting at the Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow evening. Butler Bros. have just received a new machine for roasting peanuts and popping corn. It's a fine machine. The Sunday school treats in the Baptist, Presbyterian and M. E. churches on the evening of December 24, were well attended. A freight wreck occurred on the P. R. R., between Falls Creek and DuBois, last Saturday morning, which delayed trains a few hours. A woman was arrested and had a hearing before Squire E. Neff Monday evening for profanity on the street. She was fined 67 cents and costs. The employes of the Reynoldsville woolen mill presented L. W. Hayek, superintendent of mill, with a beautiful twenty dollar couch for a Christmas gift. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Dr. J. C. King on January 2, at 2:00 p. m. A full attendance is earnestly requested. The Republicans of Winslow township will hold a suggestion meeting in the council chambers of this borough, second precinct, on Saturday next, Jan. 4, at 3:00 p. m. A Martha Washington tea will be given by Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church on Feb. 22nd, 1902. Full particulars will appear in these columns later. According to the DuBois Courier of Saturday a large pig iron mill is to be erected at DuBois by the Rochester & Pittsburg Coal & Iron Company during the present year. Pittsburg Moving Picture Co. will give a show in the Reynolds opera house this evening, January 1st. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store. Price 15, 25 and 35 cents. James Adamson, of Soldier, and Miss Lizzie Yobe, of Sykesville, were married at the M. E. parsonage at Reynoldsville on Tuesday, December 24, by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of church. A notice of the application for liquor licenses in Jefferson county, will be found in this issue of THE STAR. There are thirty-nine applications for retail licenses, two for wholesale and four breweries. Dr. Russell H. Conwell, the brilliant preacher, author and orator, will lecture in Assembly hall Thursday evening, January 9. Subject: 'Acres of Diamonds.' Tickets now on sale at Stoke's drug store. The Sons of St. George elected the following officers, President, Thomas Justham; Vice-President, William J. Booker; Messenger, James Torrey; Secretary, Albert Neal; Treasurer, G. W. Sykes; Chaplain, Thomas Neal. While returning from school one day last week a lad threw a stone at a girl and the stone crashed through a window in Charles Scott's house, injuring his four-year-old boy, who was at window watching school children coming home. We received a communication Monday concerning the experience of a young man in Paradise who tied his horse by throwing the lines over the gate post. It's a long and thrilling story, but we did not have space for it this week. Lisle Gourley, a brakeman on the P. R. R. night shifter between Reynolds and Oak Ridge, is now hobnobbing around on crutches. He jumped off a car in the yards at this place Thursday night and stepped on a rusty spike, puncturing his left foot. Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Schuckers gave a party to a large number of young people last night. It was a 'swell' affair. Progressive games were played. Miss Lydia Melling, Mr. Clifford Kaucher and Prof. R. C. Whison carried off the prizes. Fine refreshments were served. Roman E. Koehler, who has been editor of the Donora American since it was started 37 weeks ago, has bought a half interest in the paper. The owners now are Vernon Hazzard, an attorney-at-law of Monongahela City, and Roman E. Koehler. Mr. Koehler was former of THE STAR over eight years. There are now twenty-seven students in Hughes' Business College at this place, and more to follow: Following are the recent new students: G. W. Heckman, Lester Mowery, Aida B. McEntire, Sarah Corbett, Charles S. Lord. Prof. Hughes is an experienced and excellent teacher of shorthand, penmanship, book-keeping, etc., and his students are well pleased with the school. Because a Reynoldsville young lady and an erstwhile young man of this place, now located at New Bethlehem, got on the same train last Thursday some of the elite young men of Reynoldsville, who thought they had been married and were starting on a wedding trip, gave them a big shower of rice as they stepped out of station to get on train, placing the lady and gentlemen in somewhat of an embarrassing position.

Watch Night Services. Watch night services were held in the M. E. church at this place last night. The attendance was fairly good. Rev. D. A. Platt, of Brookwayville, was present and preached one of the sermons. Burns-Drocker. Harry E. Burns, of this place, and Miss Bessie Edna Drocker were married Christmas, December 25, 1901, at 10:00 a. m. at the home of the bride's parents, who reside on Ex-Sheriff E. C. Burns' farm in Winslow township. Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Reynoldsville Baptist church, tied the nuptial knot. Wedding dinner was served. Will Organize a Circle at Anita. D. W. Atwater, of this place, district deputy for Protected Home Circle, who recently organized a large Circle at Punxsutawney, will begin the work next week to organize a Circle at Anita. Mr. Atwater went to Punxsutawney Monday evening to look after the interest of the new Circle at that place, into which new members are being received every week. Captured a Horse Thief. David Trainer, the noted horse thief who was recently released from the Western Penitentiary for stealing horses, and who has been in the horse stealing business since getting out of the 'pen,' was captured by Ex-Sheriff E. C. Burns, of this place, and two officials of Greensburg, at the latter place last Saturday night. Ex-Sheriff Burns landed Trainer in the Clarion county jail yesterday. Miners' Mass Meeting. The miners of Reynoldsville, Rathmel and Big Soldier held a mass meeting in Centennial Hall yesterday afternoon. A committee of five was appointed to wait on Supt. John Reed and present several grievances to him, one of which is the discharging of some of the miners. A mass meeting will be held at New Florence Thursday, one at Eleanora Friday and another one in this place Saturday to hear the committee's report. Birthday Surprise Party. Major Levi Epler, the veteran of two wars, was given a birthday surprise party yesterday afternoon, that being his 84th birthday. Several hours were pleasantly whiled away in conversation and at 5:30 an excellent supper was served, after which a neat sum of money was given Major as a token of regard which those present had for him. Dr. Meek made the presentation speech. In due time the guests departed for their homes, wishing Major many happy returns of his birthday. 'Acres of Diamonds.' Russell H. Conwell, the lecturer, is the most sought after of any man on the lecture platform to-day. Of his thirty lectures, one, 'Acres of Diamonds,' has been delivered twenty-six hundred times in twenty-nine years. His lecture engagements average two hundred nights a year, and from his lecture fees he has contributed toward the education of poor students more than half a million dollars.—From 'The Life of Russell H. Conwell,' by Rev. Albert H. Smith. At Assembly hall, Reynoldsville, January 9. Tickets now on sale at Stoke's drug store. An Interesting Meeting. The monthly meeting of the Jefferson County Medical Society was held at Hotel Evergreen, Falls Creek, Friday afternoon. The attendance was larger than it had been for some time and the meeting was interesting and profitable to those who did attend. Dr. F. E. Hoffman, of Brookville, read a paper on rabies and gave a microscopic display of nerves before and after bitten. Dr. A. F. Balmer, of Brookville, read a paper which also treated on the same subject—rabies. Dr. S. Reynolds, of Reynoldsville, read a paper on gastric ulceration of stomach. Set Lock-up On Fire. Since our last issue a fellow named Brown, from the rural district, came into town, got drunk and was put in the lock-up. After he had been in duanceville several hours one of the policemen happened to go to the lock-up and he found the building on fire. Had he been a little later in getting to lock-up the prisoner would have lost his life, as he was locked in a cell and could not escape from smoke and flames. Brown had used old newspapers to get the wood started to burn. The following morning Brown paid $10.00 fine and costs before he was given his liberty. Married at Rathmel. James C. Scott, of this place, and Miss Hannah J. Mansell, daughter of John Mansell, proprietor of the Central Hotel, Rathmel, were married at the Central Hotel at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday, December 24, 1901, in the presence of a few friends. Squire John Smith, of Rathmel, performed the wedding ceremony. Warren W. Deible, of this place, was groomsmen, and Miss Zella Mansell, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Scott have the best wishes of their numerous friends. Mr. Scott is an assistant in the J. & C. C. & I. Co. office at this place. They will go to housekeeping in Reynoldsville as soon as they can get a house.

SILK MILL STRIKE STILL ON. Company and Committee Did Not Agree on Basis of Arbitration. It was reported on our streets the latter part of last week that the silk mill strike at this place, which has been on for four months, was to be settled by arbitration. S. Silberman, of New York, vice-president of the Enterprise Silk Co., arrived here Friday morning for the purpose to arrange for arbitration, but on account of disagreement on several points, Mr. Silberman and the committee did not meet until Saturday afternoon and then they did not agree as to basis of arbitration and Mr. Silberman returned to New York Saturday night. The Enterprise Silk Company's proposition is as follows: 1st. Work is to be immediately resumed. 2nd. Silk Company will reinstate strikers as needed. 3rd. Each side will appoint an arbitrator. The two, if they cannot agree, to select a third. They are to investigate prices paid by competing firms in Pennsylvania making the same grade of goods, and arrange an average scale which will be paid for the next twelve months. Two months notice to be given by either side before the expiration of the agreement, of any change. If no notice is given, scale is to continue, two months notice being given on either side, of any change. In addition to the above Mr. Haggerty, Mr. Tucker and the Textile Workers' committee want to include other silk mills outside of Pennsylvania, want 10 per cent of an advance pending arbitration, and want twenty employees discharged who are now working in the mill. These three points the silk company refused to accept, and that is why the arbitrators were not appointed and the strike continued. Banquet at The National. The Twentieth Century Club gave the ladies of the Utopia Society a banquet at the National Hotel Monday evening, and it was a banquet fit for a king. It would have pleased the most fastidious epicurean. The dinner was served in courses, and it was certainly fine. In rear of dining room the name of ladies' society, Utopia, was suspended from ceiling in large white letters, with pink background. The ladies and gentlemen were well pleased with the dinner and the manner in which it was served by fair maidens dressed in white. After dinner Toastmaster F. M. Brown gave a few toasts which were responded to by members of the Club. The entertainment in the parlor consisted of various games, and the hands of the town clock were pointing to a small figure when the party broke up. Better Wages for Silk Weavers. Paterson, N. J., Dec. 21.—During the last few days there has been a general movement among the manufacturers of silk dress goods in Paterson to advance the wages of their employes. Murphy Bros. were the first to grant an increase and their action of raising wages 15 per cent was followed yesterday by the announcement that on and after January 1 the wages of the employes of the Casper Silk Company would be increased 12 per cent.—North American. Another School in Winslow Twp. At the regular monthly meeting of the Winslow township school board at Frank's Tavern last Saturday, it was decided to open another school at Wislaw, as it was necessary to do so to accommodate the children of school age in that prosperous hamlet. The hall at Wislaw will be used for school room during balance of present term. The school will be opened this week. Miss Mary McCreight will teach the new school. 'East Lynne.' Few plays among the more recent successes, not to speak of the good old standard plays, give such rare opportunity for powerful emotional acting as that afforded in Mrs. Henry Woods' popular play, 'East Lynne,' which will be given by the Irene Jeavous East Lynne Co. at the Reynolds opera house on Friday evening, January 3rd. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store. Republican Suggestion Meeting. The Republicans of Reynoldsville will hold a suggestion meeting in the council chambers, second precinct, at 8:00 p. m., Wednesday evening, January 8th, 1902, to suggest candidates for borough offices. Moving pictures at the opera house this evening. Wireless telegraphy (Parent Co.) all dividends $3.50 share regular price $8.00. Jas. D. Shaffer, Bloomsburg, Pa. Wanted—A good girl to do general house work. Inquire at Wm. Bennett's, Grant Street. A lady's feather boa was left in Shick & Wagner's store one day last week. Owner can get same by calling at store. Childrens fur sets at Millirens. Have several pieces good new carpet for sale cheap, also will weave your carpet any day. TROPEL DEMAY, weaver, West Reynoldsville. Home slippers at Millirens. Gibson's optical work has always been satisfactory. Buy your shoes at Johnston & Nolan's. Latest styles. A new line of sweaters at Millirens.

Announcements. On account of a day off last week, an extra amount of job work and being short handed—one of our types being at the bedside of sick mother—we were not able to get the regular announcement cards ready for this issue of THE STAR, but following are the names of candidates who have already arranged to have their announcement appear in this paper: Congress. Hon. W. O. Smith, of Punxsutawney. Assembly, Hon. Henry I. Wilson, of Big Run; Curtis R. Vashiner, of Brookville; Lex N. Mitchell, of Punxsutawney; S. Taylor North, of Young township. Register and Recorder, GH C. Reitz, of Brookville; John D. Evans, of Brookville. Treasurer, R. H. McIntosh, of Washington township; George M. Gayley, of Eldred township; J. B. Means, of Perry township; W. A. McGee, of Young township. Sheriff, John H. Null, of Sykesville; J. W. Curry, of Snyder township; C. T. Haack, of Clayville. County Commissioners, Jacob Shaffer, of Winslow township; Newton Webster, of Polk township; Harvey D. Haugh, of Union township; Jacob C. Smith, of Young township; A. F. Reitz, of Beaver township. A Wonderful Ocean Picture. Lyman H. Howe's Moving Pictures, which will be seen at Public School Assembly hall on Thursday evening, January 16, are this season better than ever, if such a thing is possible. Mr. Howe has incurred an expense in securing scenes from the Philippines, China, Europe and all over the United States of peculiar interest. Among these are charming views at the Pan-American Exposition and incidents of such interest that staries, amuse and gratify. One of the most attractive pictures, as it is instructive, represents a big ship in mid-ocean battling against waves. Heretofore such pictures have not revealed that true notion which accompanies an ocean voyage, but in the picture mentioned the most astounding realistic features are presented. The big steamer plunges headfirst into towering waves that break over the bow with thundering force, scattering tons of sea water over the bosom of the throbbing vessel. Sensitive people grow actually seasick as they gaze on this fascinating picture of life on the ocean wave. It is the greatest picture of the kind ever produced. Died in DuBois. Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Taylor, of this place, were called to DuBois last week to attend the funeral of their son-in-law, William A. Osburn, who died Christmas afternoon and was buried Friday afternoon. Death was caused by a complication of diseases. He had been ill over a year. The deceased was not quite forty years old. He was married to Margaret Taylor, of Reynoldsville, a number of years ago. Mr. Osburn is survived by his wife and six children, three boys and three girls. Mr. Osburn was active in political matters and at time of death was a member of the town council of DuBois. Several years ago he was the Republican candidate for state senator in the Clearfield district. In speaking of Mr. Osburn as a member of council, the Express says: 'He was an able official, a master of the financial question and he was recognized as one of the ablest men on the council body.' Death of Lewis Calvin Crawford. Lewis Calvin Crawford, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crawford, of Big Soldier, died at 8:00 a. m. Saturday, December 28, 1901, after ten day illness from pneumonia and measles. Lewis was born April 23, 1890. Funeral services were held at residence of parents at 2:00 p. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, pastor of Reynoldsville Baptist church. Interment in Baptist burial ground. Guessed The Doll's Name. Mrs. W. H. Vashiner was the lucky one, having guessed 'Beatrice,' the doll's name Dec. 23, at 3:30 p. m. Out of 1639 guesses, but two guessed 'Beatrice,' and to those who failed to guess the doll's name, we would advise you to attend our 'Red Tag' sale and be more than repaid for your disappointment in not guessing the doll's name, by securing some of the 'Big Bargains' afforded during this 'Red Tag' sale. See ad. BING-STOKE CO. Notice. Any lady or gentlemen wanting to take out a small amount of insurance in the Protected Home Circle, from $50 to $3,000, can secure the same without any cost for medical examination or initiation fee until the first day of February, 1902. After that date it will be the regular price, $2.00 for all applications. For rate inquire of District Deputy D. W. Atwater, John A. Walsh, or John C. Barto, Reynoldsville, Pa. You Need a Stove. Ours are guaranteed or money refunded. We keep ingrain and brussels carpets, prairie grass, China and Japan matting, linoleum, cork carpet, table and floor oil cloth, iron beds, pillows, mattresses and feather, couches, rockers, dining and kitchen chairs.
