A Little of Everything.

Count next week. "Acres of Diamonds." Moving pictures Jan. 16. Have you kept your New Year resolutions? Frank O. Suttler is clerk at the National Hotel. Skating has been excellent for a week or ten days. Read the political announcements in this issue of THE STAR. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cox yesterday afternoon. John S. Warnick is to succeed Will W. Wiley as clerk at Hotel Imperial. Secure your seats for "Acres of Diamonds" at Assembly hall Thursday evening. A large number of Reynoldsville citizens will attend court at Brookville next week. It would require very little snow to make fine sleighing. The roads are in good condition. We received a copy of Newark Daily Advertiser through the kindness of William Northey, sr. A reunion of the entire 148th regiment will be held at Bellefonte February 19th and 20th. Miss Olevia Murray entertained a few lady friends at her home on Main street Saturday evening. Hot soda fountain has been opened at the Reynolds Drug Store. If you have never tried a hot soda, try one. All the students—thirty-four—who were home for holiday vacation, have returned to their respective schools. William Burge has opened a grocery store in the Schlager store room, on Main street, near R. & F. C. R.'s crossing. Russel Conwell, the great lecturer, at Assembly hall Thursday evening of this week. Tickets on sale at Stokes's drug store. George Rupert, the young lad who delivers the DuBois Courier occasionally, is a pretty good clog dancer for a boy his age. Robert Stewart, of near Emerickville, who got his hip and shoulder hurt by a fall of coal in mines at Fullers Station, is getting along as well as can be expected. "East Lynn" was well produced at the Reynolds opera house last Friday evening by the Irene Jeavons East Lynn Co. The audience was not large, but the people were well pleased.

The Republicans of this borough will hold a suggestion meeting in the town council chambers this, Wednesday, evening. Mrs. John H. Kaucher is in Philadelphia visiting her son, Dr. Howard Kaucher, who is opening an office in Philadelphia. A few of our citizens were in DuBois Thursday evening of last week to hear Booker T. Washington, the noted colored gentleman, lecturer. Last Friday Mrs. Jennie C. Jones bought a house and lot on Jackson street, near Second street, from Elisha Cox. Consideration $600.00. George Smith and Grace M. Senior, of Washington township, were married by Squire E. Neff, at his office in this place, on Wednesday, January 1, 1902. Miss Mollie Driscoll gave a party to a number of young friends last Wednesday evening in honor of her brother, D. B. Driscoll, of Bradford, who was visiting in this place. The Democrats of Winslow township will hold a suggestion meeting in house No. 1, second precinct, Reynoldsville borough, from 2.00 to 4.00 p. m. Saturday, January 11th. William Prester was in New Bethlehem last week selling the Charles Kah furniture store in that place. He made the sale and went down to New Bethlehem Monday to close up matters. The miners' mass meeting that was to have been held at this place last Saturday was declared off on account of the grievances having been amicably settled with the coal company. One-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Calvert, who reside near Big Soldier, was buried in Prospect cemetery Monday afternoon. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Brown. Rev. W. F. Fliak, a Methodist Episcopal preacher of Petrolia, Pa., who is visiting his brother-in-law, Martin Plyler, in this place, preached in the Reynoldsville M. E. church last evening. Harry Richards and Miss Mabel Foust, daughter of Hon. J. W. Foust, of this place, were married in Brookville December 30, 1901, by Squire Al. Baur. Mr. and Mrs. Richards will reside in Johnsonburg. The roof of Edward Schultze's house, on Grant street, caught fire Saturday afternoon from a spark from chimney. The alarm was sent in, but the fire was extinguished with a few buckets of water before much damage was done. Dr. G. C. Gibson, the optician, made his monthly trip to this place yesterday and the reason his advertisement did not appear in THE STAR last week was the result of an oversight in this office. The advertisement was received in time. George W. Stoke, Jr., vice-president of the Blue-Stoke Co., left here Monday on a business trip to Pittsburgh and Cleveland. He was accompanied by his son, Henry, who will stay with relatives at West Newton while Mr. Stoke goes to Cleveland. The annual congregational business meeting of the Presbyterian church was held in the church Monday evening, at which time reports were made for the year. Two new trustees, A. P. King and M. E. Wood, were elected for ensuing year. Charles E. Kline and Mrs. Cora Barrett, nee McGrody, both of Ridgeway, were married in Warren, Pa., December 23rd, 1901, by Rev. J. C. McDonald. Mr. and Mrs. Kline came here Saturday to visit Mrs. Kline's father, George McGrody, on Jackson street. The Reynoldsville Light and Power Company of this place has secured a charter and at a recent stockholders meeting, the following officers were elected: President, W. T. Cox; vice-president, John H. Burtop; secretary, Smith M. McCright; treasurer, Ed. McCright. Matthew Phillips, of Jackson st., who is now acting as book agent, is selling all kinds of standard, up-to-date books. If you want a book of any kind give him an order and he will get the book at reasonable price. He also handles albums, bibles, hymnals, and other religious literature. After the first page was printed we discovered that the office for which Jacob C. Smith is candidate—county commissioner—was omitted in his announcement. Mr. Smith is a good natured gentleman and we know he will forgive us. Correction will be made next week. The Pittsburg Moving Picture Co. show in the Reynolds opera house last Wednesday evening was not a strictly first-class show. The machine didn't work successfully. Lyman Howe has the only up-to-date, strictly first-class moving picture show traveling to-day. See Howe's pictures at Assembly hall January 10th. The week of prayer is being observed in the Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist Episcopal churches. In the Presbyterian church there will not be any services after this evening until next Sunday. There will only be a half-hour service in Baptist church to-morrow evening on account of Dr. Conwell's lecture in Assembly hall. W. J. Weaver, W. H. Ford, D. H. Northamer, Bert Burns, John Kellock and Elmer Schogars, who are members of the Mystic Commandery No. 313, Ancient and Illustrious Order of Knights of Malta, of Reynoldsville, were at Phillipsburg last Thursday night attending the rendition of the highest degree of the order. William F. Martin, of New Bethlehem, who had been in Reynoldsville over two years, clerking at Hotel McConnell until that house was destroyed by fire and has since been clerk at the National Hotel, returned to New Bethlehem yesterday to take charge of the Martin House, one of the leading hotels of that town. Mr. Martin is genial enough to make a good landlord. Mrs. James M. Moore, of West Reynoldsville, known in Daughters of Hebeah circles as Mrs. Maggie Moore, was in DuBois Friday assisting to organize a degree team in the Daughters of Hebeah lodge at DuBois. Mrs. Moore assisted to organize and is a member of the Hebeah degree team in Reynoldsville, which ranks as one of the best degree teams in this section of the state.

Foot Amputated. John McNeil, a coal miner of Rathmel, had his right foot so badly crushed by fall of coal in Sprague mines yesterday afternoon that half the foot had to be amputated. Broadhead Appointed Appraiser. O. H. Broadhead, one of the prominent and loyal Republicans of Winslow township, who is proprietor of the Broadhead Dairy, was appointed by the county commissioners last week as mercantile appraiser for 1902. Bon Ton Changed Hands. W. S. Karsters, the baker who has been employed at the Bon Ton bakery for several years, is now proprietor of that bakery, having bought it on Thursday of last week from F. B. Hall, who was proprietor almost one year. Mr. Karsters being an experienced man he will continue the business in a business-like manner. Mr. Hall has moved to Evans City, Butler county, where he has bought a bakery. "Acres of Diamonds." Dr. Russel Conwell, of Philadelphia, the great orator, will lecture in Assembly hall to-morrow evening. Subject: "Acres of Diamonds." The editor of THE STAR had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Conwell lecture two years ago on "The Silver Crown" which was simply sublime. It is claimed that "Acres of Diamonds" is his best lecture. If the people of Reynoldsville appreciate their privilege of hearing a famous and eloquent orator, Assembly hall will be packed to-morrow evening, and we believe it will be. Taken to Jail Friday. Three young ladies of this place, who worked in the silk mill before the strike, were arrested last week on charge of spelling and pronouncing the word "scab" on the street in the presence of some employees now working in the silk mill. The girls had a hearing before Burgess Mitchell Thursday and were sentenced to pay a fine of $3.00 apiece and costs, or go to county jail six days. The girls decided to go to jail and Constable Warnick took them to Brookville jail Friday morning. Euter-Chatham. Harry Fredrick Euter, of Lock Haven, who has been assisting his brother, W. C. Euter, in the Imperial restaurant at this place, and Miss Laura Mabel Chatham, of Pottersdale, Pa., were married at Hopkins Thursday evening, January 2, 1902, by Rev. P. A. Dehn, pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church. Miss Lizzie Chatham, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and E. L. Malmes, of Pottersdale, was groomsmen. The bride and groom left for an eastern trip on the early train Friday morning, amid showers of rice and good wishes from a host of friends. Gone to Philadelphia. Mrs. F. K. Arnold and daughter, Miss Isabel, went to Philadelphia the first of this week, where they expect to remain until the middle of May. Miss Isabel will take the teachers' normal course in the Broad Street Conservatory of Music. Miss Arnold is already a fine musician, but she wants to perfect herself in the methods employed in the Broad Street Conservatory. Frank P. Alexander, assistant clerk in Society, Alexander & Co. bank, a grandson of Mrs. F. K. Arnold will live in her house while she and her daughter sojourn in the "City of Brotherly Love." Expect Dynamite to-day. The Reynoldsville Electric Light and Power Company ordered a new dynamo from the Westinghouse people of Pittsburgh, but owing to the trouble in getting freight moved out of Pittsburgh the dynamo was not shipped when it was to have been, and as a consequence the streets of our town have been in darkness longer than was expected by the new company. W. T. Cox, president of the new electric light company, went to Pittsburgh the first of this week and arranged to have the dynamo rushed by freight and it is expected here to-day. Rea-Hoon Nuptials. George H. Rea and Miss Mildred M. Hoon, two prominent, loyal and active members of the Reynoldsville Baptist church, were quietly married at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Julia Hoon, on Main street, Wednesday evening, January 1, 1902, by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Baptist church in the presence of the members of the two families. Miss Mildred Rea, sister of the groom, and Willis A. Hoon, brother of bride, acted as bridesmaid and groomsmen. On account of the recent death of the bride's father, A. H. Hoon, the wedding was quiet. Mr. and Mrs. Rea are excellent young people who are deserving of an abundance of joy and happiness as they travel over life's pathway together. THE STAR joins with their numerous friends in extending congratulations and best wishes for them. Found Dead in Bed. Aaron Walsh, who had been living with his daughter, Mrs. Frank McGinnis, at Oil City, was found dead in bed yesterday morning. Body will be brought to this place on the 8.12 train this evening and taken to the residence of John McGinnis in Prescotville. At 2.00 p. m. to-morrow funeral services will be held at residence of Mr. McGinnis, after which the body will be interred in Prospect cemetery beside the wife and a son who preceded Mr. Walsh into the eternal land. Aarou Walsh was born in York State about 70 years ago. His parents moved to the neighborhood of Rathmel when he was about two years old. Mr. Walsh moved to Reynoldsville many years ago. He worked in coal mine for a number of years, but on account of being afflicted with rheumatism he had not been able to work for sometime. The deceased was one of the oldest inhabitants of this section. J. H. Hughes, undertaker at this place, conducted seven funerals the first six days of the present year. Sheets and pillow cases at less than cost of plain muslin at Shick & Wagner's. A fine line of rings to select from at C. F. Hoffman's. White goods specials—Few of a kind, being beautiful assortment, at Shick & Wagner's.

SMALL RUN ON BANK. Dastardly Attempt to Cripple First National Bank at this Place. The beginning of the week some malicious person, or persons, circulated the report that the First National bank of Reynoldsville had closed its doors, and this week we republished the proposition by request, which was as follows: 1st. Work is to be immediately resumed. 2nd. Silk Company will reinstate strikers as needed. 3rd. Each side will appoint an arbitrator. The two, if they cannot agree, to select a third. They are to investigate prices paid by competing firms in Pennsylvania making the same grade of goods, and arrange an average scale which will be paid for the next twelve months. Two months notice to be given by either side before the expiration of the agreement, of any change. If no notice is given, scale is to continue, two months notice being given on either side, of any change. This week we publish the textile workers proposition, which is as follows: Reynoldsville, Jan. 7, 1902. Proposition of the silk workers to the Enterprise Silk Co. We are willing to have an investigation, or an arbitration committee, on the following basis: 1st. Work to be immediately resumed with ten per cent of an advance pending said investigation or arbitration. The investigation or arbitration committee to take in all the states—five in number—manufacturing broad silk goods, black or any color, taffetas or any other name that may be given them. Reeds, picks, shafts, &c., considered, as we have woven all names and colors of broad silk. 3rd. We cannot consent to confine the investigation to Pennsylvania alone, as New York City is the receiving and distributing point for raw material and manufactured goods of the five silk states. 4th. If said investigation or arbitration gives proof that the prices paid us are equal to any of the other five silk states, we will resume work at the former prices. 5th. The above proposition includes weavers, warpers, twistors, winders, quillers and all of the branches connected with broad silk goods manufactured in the different states. 6th. The arbitrating or investigating committee to consist of one from the Enterprise Silk Co., one from the former silk workers and they to choose a third man. 7th. Or we are willing to arbitrate on the conditions they find in the market of New York City of broad silk goods of any color, black, white or blue, constant with the reeds, picks, shafts, &c. that are in use at present, and has been in use, with the Enterprise Silk Co. Textile Workers Local Union No. 250. Candidates. Gil C. Reitz, candidate for register and recorder, was in town a short time Monday. J. W. Curry, one of the respected and substantial citizens of Snyder township, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for sheriff, and is in town yesterday looking after his political interests. Harvey D. Haugh, of Union township, a candidate for the Republican nomination for county commissioner, has been in town several days this week fixing up his political fences. Mr. Haugh was a candidate for county commissioner two years ago and was a very strong candidate at that time, getting over 1,600 votes with eight candidates in the field. He would make a good commissioner. James C. Greene, of Punxsutawney, candidate for the Republican nomination for register and recorder, arrived in town last evening and is spending to-day in town looking after his political interests. Mr. Greene's announcement will appear in THE STAR next week among the other announcements. Mr. Greene has been a stalwart Republican for a number of years and this is the first time he has ever come before the voters of the county for an office. Lex N. Mitchell, Esq., of Punxsutawney, whose name has already been mentioned in THE STAR as a candidate for Assembly, informed us yesterday by telephone that he will not be a candidate at this time. Mr. Mitchell is a bright young man who has the ability to ably represent the people of Jefferson county in the Legislative halls. It is likely that he will be heard from in the future, as he has a political bee in his hat. "Squire J. B. Means, of Perry township, Republican candidate for nomination for county treasurer, was in Reynoldsville several days last week looking after his political interests. He is a bright fellow and an honored gentleman and will be a strong candidate. The Punxsutawney News says: "Mr. Means is asking the Republicans to nominate him for one of the best offices in the county, but then he is capable of holding it in worthy of the trust. It is Mr. Means' first offense to ask for a county office, but he has been a worker in the Republican ranks for years and deserves good support for treasurer." Kimmel-Armagost. Married Jan. 1st, 1902, at 7.30 p. m., at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Armagost, of Jackson St., Miss Nettie E. Armagost and C. W. Kimmel, of Muncie, Indiana. The contracting party was attended by Wm. Carnahan, of Glen Hazel, Pa., and Miss Edith Kiepler, of this city. At the conclusion of the wedding march the conjugal knot was tied by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Baptist church, in the presence of about twenty-five invited guests. Congratulations and best wishes were extended after which an excellent dinner was served to which all did ample justice. The happy couple has a large circle of friends who wish them a pleasant journey through life. Is marriage a failure? Our list of thirty-seven marriage licenses issued during the past week would indicate that there are still plenty of people who believe in testing it.—Brookville Republican. Bargains at the Reynoldsville Woolen Mill include, seconds, romants, blankets, flannels, hosiery, shirts, pants, &c. But a small quantity of each of the above. First come, first served. Muslin at Suttlers for 44 cents, by web only.

SILK STRIKERS' PROPOSITION. Answer to the Enterprise Silk Company's Proposition Published Last Week. Last week we published the Enterprise Silk Company's proposition to the textile workers at this place, and this week we republished the proposition by request, which was as follows: 1st. Work is to be immediately resumed. 2nd. Silk Company will reinstate strikers as needed. 3rd. Each side will appoint an arbitrator. The two, if they cannot agree, to select a third. UP-TO-DATE ENTERTAINMENT. Lyman H. Howe's Moving Pictures Are Really a Treat. An ordinary moving picture entertainment is now not much more of a novelty than would be one of the old fashioned magic lantern shows, and to make an entertainment of this kind really entertaining it is necessary to make the novelty novel. This has been successfully accomplished by Lyman H. Howe, who gave his masterpiece exhibition at the high school auditorium last night, as the second number of the high school lecture and entertainment course. Besides having a collection of unusually fine pictures, Mr. Howe has up-to-date ideas in the matter of presenting them. With the assistance of a good sized corps of property men, who cleverly "accompanied" the pictures with imitations of the sounds one would naturally hear if on the scene, the height of realism is attained. The marching of a troop of cavalry accompanied by the clack of the horses' feet on the pavement and the clack of the cavalrymen's sabres was a particularly fine bit of stagecraft. Among the pictures were a number showing scenes connected with President McKinley's death. One in which he is depicted delivering his last speech at the exposition, is remarkably distinct and otherwise perfect. It is claimed to be one of the most valuable moving pictures in existence. There was a large audience and it was very demonstrative of its appreciation.—Scranton Tribune Nov. 26, 1901. At Assembly hall, Reynoldsville, Thursday, Jan. 16. Dr. Sayers Married. Dr. J. Curtis Sayers, one of our popular physicians, and Miss Jeanette Precious, one of Hawthorn's fairest maidens, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Precious, at Hawthorn, Pa., on Tuesday evening, December 24, 1901, by Rev. J. L. Proudfoot, pastor of the New Bethlehem Presbyterian church. This notice is a little late, but Doctor was so quiet about his matrimonial transaction that we did not know until he was married until we received an announcement of the marriage through the mail last Thursday morning, although we did know December 19th that the marriage license had been granted. Dr. Sayers and wife are now coosily living in a neat new residence that Doctor had built last year, which caused considerable speculation among the women folks at the time as to the why of the new residence. While it is a little late to offer congratulations and best wishes, yet THE STAR joins Dr. Sayers' many friends in wishing him and his helpmate abundant joy and prosperity as they meander life's pathway together. Women's Club Organized. In response to invitations sent out by Prof. G. W. Leuker, the energetic principal of the public schools of this borough, a number of ladies met at the school building Friday afternoon and organized a Women's Club. Mrs. V. H. Pratt was elected president, Mrs. E. M. Brown vice-president, and Mrs. F. K. A. Alexander secretary. There will be another meeting at 3.30 p. m. next Friday to effect a permanent organization. All ladies in town who are interested in the success of the schools are cordially invited to join the Women's Club. There will be no expense in connection with the Club for the members. Whatever expenses that will be incurred will be provided for without asking the members to contribute. This Club will be an auxiliary to the schools, and the object is to lend encouragement to all movements for the up-building of the schools, and to bring the schools and homes closer together. The Club will meet once a month with the teachers of the schools. Good speakers will address these meetings occasionally. Ladies of the Golden Eagle. The following officers of Pleasant Valley Temple, No. 25, Reynoldsville, which were elected for ensuing six months term, were installed by D. G. T. Mrs. Tamar Sayers: Past Templar, Mrs. Mary E. Robertson; Noble Templar, Mrs. Eliza Reed; Vice Templar, Mrs. Armita Tyson; Prophetess, Mrs. Laura Hetrick; Priestess, Mrs. Hannah Tyson; Guardian of Records, Mrs. Tamar Sayers; Guardian of Finance, Miss Susie White; Guardian of Exchequer, Mrs. Hannah Yewenine; Marshal of Ceremonies, Miss Margaret Barker; Guardian of Music, Miss Zula Griffis; Guardian of Inner Portal, Mrs. Mary Ann Cottle; Guardian of Outer Portal, Mrs. Dorothy McGinnis; Trustees, Mrs. Hannah Tyson, Mrs. Laura Hetrick and Mrs. Mary Ann Cottle; Representative to the Grand Temple, Mrs. Hannah Tyson. Two Editors Arrested for Label. Last Wednesday Charles J. Bangert, editor of the Falls Creek Herald, was arrested on the charge of criminal libel preferred by B. K. Fisher, proprietor of the St. Elmo Hotel in DuBois. The Herald has been running some very suggestive cartoons in which the St. Elmo proprietor is always conspicuous. Tuesday of last week P. Gray Meek, editor of the Bellefonte Watchman, one of the strongest Democratic papers published in Centre county, was arrested on charge of criminal libel preferred by Frank G. Harris, state treasurer-elect of Clearfield. The Watchman's editor is charged with publishing the libelous matter before the November election. Sheets, Sheets. Defender hemstitched bleached sheets $1 by 90, red tag price 69 cents. Norway bleached sheets, hemmed, $1 by 90, red tag price 55 cents. BING-STOKE CO. Under muslin perfection at winter prices. These are not left-overs, but clean, new stock bought for the muslin need and white goods sale at Shick & Wagner's. Glass blowers' shoes, first-class fire proof leather, at cost price. Call and see them at the People's Bargain store, A. Katzen, proprietor. Come and get prices on Lorgnette chains at C. F. Hoffman's. Sleighs and sleds, also two good 2nd hand sleighs for sale. L. M. SNYDER. H. W. Eason & Co. will give their first semi-annual clearance sale commencing on Thursday, Jan. 16, and ending Feb. 1st. Read their ad. in next week's paper.
