AN ADVENTURE

"I looked at the clock through the

A roar of laughter came from th 'LL do it if you will-I'm not] 661 scared." stove "I'll go you." "Shut the window, old lady," cried

The two boys stood on the shore Harris. "Burglars who aim for the nd bright moonlight shone overhead in Van Schalk diamonds ain't likely to a great star-dotted field of unclouded swoop down on your kitchen dresser blue. Before them was a rare and Shut the window; it's cold." The window was slammed down and marvelous sight, one which they had never seen before, but which their Joel giggled and sped away. In a minfathers had described to them as com- ute the boys were slipping through the ing very seldom in generations. It woods at the edge of the town to the and been a very severe winter and the shore. At the beach they put on their Great South Bay was frozen over-fro. skates, and in a moment they were off zen so hard and so thick that men had on the ice, the keen cold reddening crossed that day with wagons. The their cheeks and the exhilarating scene was very grand and solemn. Ab. knowledge that they were off without solute silence ruled the waters which in leave adding excitement to their wild the spring and autumn winds were so trip. often boisterous and noisy. No waves splashed on the beach; no breeze window," said Joel, "and it's just 10. ruffled the surface. The bay was Mother thinks we're asleep. We can dend. For full four miles across to cross the bay, call on the coastguard so that he can swear we've been there, the other shore the ice enshrouded it, sprinkled with the daintiest lacing of and be back long before mam's awake. Won't the fellows be mad! Dad says snow, which glittered in the moonbeams "T'll go you!" said Joel Harris, stursay we've skated across the bay!

dily. "Then," said Frye Gates, "let's hurry Hooray!" It was up for our skates." They hurried back from the lonely word which you will not find in the beach where they stood to Joel's house dictionaries, but which is readily com-- a little cottage where dwelt the boy's prehensible. The ice was a little rough Tather and mother, and where Frye, in parts, and of a peculiar billowy for-from New York, was stopping for a mation, but there were no breaks save holiday. The youngsters approached a few cracks-no holes. They forgot the house with the caution of tress- their main object in the delight of the passers and rule-breakers, for they solltude and the fairness of the moonknew very well that if their purpose light. They sung and whooped and were discovered their skates would felt that they had cast off the shackles not be required, although the skate of their little world and were freemight be unpleasantly em- free of school, and chores and all a ployed. Frye Gates, being a compara- boy's troubles. They were monarchs tive stranger, hid in the gloom of the of that immense silent bay.

blackness. He saw a deeper shadow than those about and took Frye's hand and slowly skated toward it. When very near they heard loud, angry volces

"You're a dandy, you are!" cried out a man in very savage tones. "Sald you knew the whole country, and get lost same's if you were in an African desert! You're a nice one to put trus

"How could I know this eclipse was going to leave us in this blackness?" "Well, all I know is, if we don't get over to the sloop soon and make all sail for New York, Van Schalk will catch us like mice. I bet they're after us now, and this snow, confound it, leaves tracks. Ye gods, man, can't you

"I can't. If we go straight on for all all I know we'll run right into Van Schalk and the police."

thing else than cold. At once the words of his mother, which he had paid little attention to at the time, recurred to him, about a diamond robbery at Van Schalk's great country house, full of guests for a Christmas house party. "Frye!" he whispered. "Let's go! They're bur-Two big hands fell on the boys' neeks. "What do you want here?" a great voice growled, and in a second the breathless boys were pushed to the spot where the two men were talking. A light road wagon with one horse stood on the ice. Two men were at it'll thaw to-morrow and they won't the horse's head. have a chance, and only us two can "Did you find any look of shore?" one cried, as the boys' captor led them

It was distinctly scrumptious-a "Not a bit! It's as black as ink! But here's two kids I found nosing around." One man lit a match and examined the boys' faces. "What's up?" said he.

"We were skating and got lost," said

"Belong round these parts?" "Yes, sir."

"We're lost, too. Look here, if you want to earn a dollar aplece will you guide us to the coast shore? Surely you can tell which direction that is in?

Joel looked around in perplexity and fear, and, as he did so, his keen bright eyes, familiar with every light on the bay, detected what none of the others did-a faint twinkle in the rear. He knew the light in the tower of the big hotel near his home. He was about to speak, when, for he was a sharp boy and a brave one, he remembered what his mother had said about a reward for those lost diamonds. He remembered, too, the ring dropped on the ice. He had no doubt these were the thieves. Frye was shaking with cold and crying. He could not even

"I'm almost sure, sir," he said, "I know the way."

"I knew you were wrong," cried the man to his comrade-villain. "There's Morrow, Frank Morrow and Rees Jack, charged with the killing of John sudden determination, gripping the

KEYSTONE STATE NEWS GONDENSED Notice of Applica-

PENSIONS GRANTED.

Added to the terrors of the sit-

Lying unconscious for 12 days at aster Christmas evening, baffles medi-

Tuesday a gas explosion blew out valve, turned off the gas and saved

At Altoona Alderman Dobyne rendered decisions against the American of their investment on the ground that the concern was not an incorpor-

The three alleged murderers, Peter plied with gas for fuel.

sted institution.

formed, but it did not relieve were forgeries.

the house

Indian

Order of the Court of Quarter Sessions Fiz-ing the Time at Which Applications for Liquor License Shall be Heard, Etc. And now, October 3rd, 1898, It is ordered as Skeleton Unearthed-Child Burned to Death.-Medico's Puzzled.-Coal Famine.

Liquot License Shall be Heard, Etc. And now, October 3rd, 1888, It is ordered as follows: 1. That the third Monday of January, one thousand eight humdred and ninety-and eight humdred and ninety-and eight humdred and ninety-and eight humdred and so the solution of each day their and the second Monday of the January term, in each year he and the same is hereby fixed as the internet, which applications for Reense to solve shall be heard at which applications for Reense to solve shall be heard at which applications for Reense to solve shall be heard at which applications for Reense to solve shall be heard at which applications for Reense to solve shall be heard at which applications for Reense to solve shall be heard at which applications for Reense to solve shall be heard at which a time all persons applying or making objections to applications, though a solve and the same is a forward by evidence, and in force for one year from the sixteent day of Perivancy meet following the present will be resulted to establish th the fives of the applicant and the necessity of the paper. And the optications is and the necessity of the paper than there witness on a side will be resulted to establish the the fives of the applicant and the necessity of the paper than three witness and a side will be reduced to writing and the necessity of the paper the application of the applicant and the necessity of the paper of the application of the application will be reduced to writing and field in the five application at the constitue class and the solution of the spatiant him well as specific to the the five and provide the the five apply of the application of the application of the application of the application at the five and the here of the application of the applicatio Among the pensions granted during the week were: William W. Reed, Sachet, $8; Ellis S. Young, Tyrone, tions for License.

Sachet, $8; Ellis S. Young, Tyrone, $6; Charles Shaffer, Coraopolis, $5; Silas H. Little, Saxton, $10; John A. Wolff, Shippensburg, $10; John W. Ross, Washington, $12; Benjamin F. Ketter, Pottsville, 12; Theo. Stafford, Millerton, $8; William Roberts, East Canton, $12; Andrew Weaver, Hol-brook, $17; John Geiling, Carlisle, $12; Mark F. Curtis Conclusion of $2. Mark

The following applications for license to sell inquor have been filed in the office of the Clark of the Court of Quarters Resolves of Jef-ferson county for January Session, 1901;

RETAIL LIQUON LICENSES.

BETAR, Liquon LICENSES.
Jacob B, Sykes, residence Winslow township, "Sykes Hotel."
B. R. McKinley, residence Brookville borough, Union Hotel.
R. McKinley, residence Brookville borough, Union Hotel.
B. K. Clover and N. G. Edelbinte, residence Punssutawney borough, Hotel Pantall.
James Hughes, residence Winslow township, Hotel Hughes.
Otto C. Philips, residence Clayville borough, Lindsey Hotel.
B. Tanels P. Graham, residence Punssutawney borough, Hotel Waverly.
Taneles E. Wilson, residence Brookville borough, Central Hotel.
B. Burles R. Wilson, residence Brookville borough, Central Hotel.
B. Burles E. Wilson, residence Brookville borough, Jefferson House.
B. W. K. Chesnut, residence Brookville borowsh, New Commercial Hotel.
H. Frank J. Black, residence Reynoldsville borough, The Marchan.
B. Ber Keesord and Thomas F. Benson, residence Mcalmont Vanship, Benson, Benson, Benson, Texandaria Moral.
B. Ber Keesord and Thomas F. Benson, Texandaria Mcalmont Constant.
B. Bedward F. Lynau, residence Punssucal science. The case attracts wide attention as an operation for com-pound fracture of the skull was perthe pressure on the brain. The surgeons still hope for her recovery.

A stranger presented a letter and draft to the Cashler of the Smithton National Bank, calling for the pay-ment of $800. The letter purported to be from the Cashler of the First National Bank, of Confluence. The draft was promptly paid by the Smith-ton institution. It has since devel-oped that both the draft and letter wave forecodes borough, The Mansion.

12. Ben Record and Thomas F. Benson, recidence McCalmont township, Benson
13. Edward F. Lynam, residence Punxsu-tawney borough, Washington House.
14. T. C. Anderson, residence Big Run bor-ough, Hotel Anderson, residence Big Run bor-ough, Hotel Anderson, residence Falls Creek borough, Falls Creek Hotel.
15. G. H. Barchay, residence Falls Creek borough, Hotel Barchay.
16. Jucob Mersine, residence Falls Creek borough, Hotel Barchay.
17. T. E. Bennis, residence Cayville bor-ough, Farnel cuee.
18. John Quinlisk, residence Brookville borough, Brookville House.
20. E. F. Shafter, residence Brookville borough, Brookville House.
21. James S. St. Char, residence Chryville bor-borough, Hayley House.
22. Harry R. McGrogor, residence McCal-mon township, Hotel Medregor.
23. John Mansell and George Roberts, resi-dence Winslow township, Central Hotel.
24. W. S. Gessier, residence Punzuntawney borough, Hayley House.
25. John Mansell and George Roberts, resi-dence Winslow township, Central Hotel.
26. W. S. Gessier, residence Mercal-mon township, Hotel Medregor.
27. John Mansell and George Roberts, resi-dence Winslow township, Central Hotel.
28. Dohn Mansell and George Roberts, resi-dence Winslow township, Central Hotel.
29. W. S. Gessier, residence Punxintawney borough, Rose House.
20. Stong Official Andrews Punchastific borough, Rose House.
29. Stong Matter, tesidence Reynoldsville borough, Rose House.
29. Stong Hare, tesidence Reynoldsville borough, Rose House.
20. Stong Official Hotel.
20. Stong Official Hotel.
21. Stong McGrand Bordel.
22. Frank A. McConnell, residence Reynoldsville borough. all the windows in one side of the home of Mrs. E. L. Williamson, of Washington, and started a blaze in the cellar. Charles Williamson, a son, aged 18, wrapped a quilt about him, pushed through the blaze to the Many sick persons Tuesday were sent from their homes to the Eric Hospital on account of the scarcity of gas, caused by the explosion at the pumping station of the Pennsylvania Gas Company. It may be two months before the town is again sup-

Investment Company, of Lexington, Ky., in three suits brought by Altoona investors to recover the amount Hotel.

Frank A. McConnell, residence Beynoldsville borough, Frank's New Tavern.
Jonothan M. Davis-residence Reynolds-ville borough, Burns Hone.
M. J. Miller, residence McCalmont town-

M. J. Milier, residence McCalmont town-ship, Park Hotel.
 David M. Crawford, residence Wioslow Iownship, Commercial Hotel.
 James Ensell, residence Falls Creek borough, Taylor Avenue Hotel.
 Rysome Wayne, residence Henderson township, Wayne House.
 Joseph McDonald, residence Brookville borough, Hotel Longview.
 Gilbert Lamontagne, residence Falls Creek borough, Hotel Lamontagne.
 Thomas Green and John Conser, residence Reynoldsville borough, Imperial Hotel.

Chartlers Valley, with representatives

tel. 37. Wiltiam A. Jordan, residence Big Run borough, Hotel McClure. 48. W. W. Wiley, residence Reynoldsville borough, Hotel Beinap. 39. Clayton E. Patmer, residence Perry township, Fortham Hotel.

which I will sell at Half Price.

COME IN AND SEE THEM FOR YOURSELF.

THE JEFFERSON SUPPLY COMPANY

Being the largest distributor of General Merchandise in this vicinity, is always in position to give the best quality of goods. Its aim is not to sell you cheap goods but when quality is considered the price will always be found right.

"THE HORSE AND WAGON WENT THROUGH THE ICE."

laurel bushes while Joel played a trick Suddenly Joe swooped in a wide ciralliar to him. He mounted the cle from the straight track and skated water butt, climbed the spout to the slowly back, peering here and there in top of the kitchen, crept along that the thin snow. They moved swiftly. The light in "What's up?" Frye yelled, following. The hotel came nearer-grew bigger.

nudge Frye. "Which?" Joe pointed to the rear.

no time to waste. Skate on, boys, and we'll follow. 'Two dollars when you show us the shore!" On went Joel, white but firm in a weaker Frye's hand. Plots and plans were whirling through his excited head. It was still pitch dark, and they could easily have skated away from the robbers, but that was not Joel's wish. He skated just in front of the

"It seems a long way!" the man shouted.

cheerily as he could.

Woodville, Carnegie and McKees Rocks, are agitating the organization of a Board of Trade. Citizens of College Hill, Beaver

They moved swiftly. The light in county, have petitioned court to al-

E. Faulk of Leechburg, about three years ago, were discharged on habeas corpus proceedings at Greensburg Monday before Judge L. W. Doty. Prominent business men of the horse

"Not far now!" Joel answered, as from Washington, Canonsburg, Hous-ton, Meadow Lands, Bridgeville, tell which way to turn?"

Mary E. Curtis, Smethport. $8; Mary A. Morrow, Bradenville, $8; Jane Joel listened and froze with some Emerson, Union City, $12; Margaret Finn, Hollidaysburg, $5; William Black, Leechburg, $12; Chauncey C.

Hays, Townville, $10; Andrew H. Mc-Donald, Patterson, $12. On acount of the wrecking of the Pennsylvania Gas Company's pump station at Ludlow, the entire natural gas supply of Erie was shut off Monday. uation there was not a pound of coke in town, and the coal supply was not equal to the demand. Before noon the supply of wood was exhausted. Fully 5,000 families were cut off of their supply of fuel. The public schools were forced to close. Corry, Lulu Nuncey, the girl victim of the Pennsylvania grade crossing dis-

m window. In a trice he was out with two pairs of skates, and, disdain ing the pipe, dropped gently to the ground. But the clang of the steels as e jumped made a loud noise and the window opened. Joel hid in the shadow of the wall, breathless and ring

"Who's that?" his mother called out. "It's the kids up to some mischief," ousiy "They're in bed," said Mrs. Harris. a dollar," said Joel.

Then's it's nothing." said her hus-"Shut the window; it's cold." But Mrs. Harris peered out anx-

"It may be them!" she said. "Who's them?"

"The burglars who took Mrs. Van cu. Schulk's lewels at their dinner hour from the great house to-night. The stealing across it.

bidn't you bear as They were lost on the ice in the middle York Sun. They may-oh! Ho. of the Great South Bay, and the moon Portugal astir about it and a

"I saw something queer in the snow The night lifted; the moonlight came shone out like a flash. I want to see creeping back. Joel increased speed; the man whipped his horse. what it was." They skated slowly about in short "It's a long way!" yelled the man circles, when Frye darted on his knees with a note of sudden suspicion in his and held up something in his hand-a volce "Not far now!" Joel screamed back.

and dashed ahead. "Come on, Frye!" "Wes it this? It flashed." The boys examined the ring curi-The moon shone out again, and the robbers howled with rage, for Joel had "It's gold. It must be led them straight to the town, and right before them, among the trees, "There's something on it shines when stood the house they had robbed. "Trapped!" screamed one. you hold it right. That's what flashed.

"Turn round and go back!" They tried to, but they were close in among rushes where the ice was thin Squish, crish, splash! The horse and awed Their House in Two.

house in two from roof to basement began on the roof with large crosseu wagon went through the ice into three The moon was passing out of feet of water, while the boys were runsight. A great black shadow was ning along the beach yelling at the ex-

Record-Herald.

"I know," cried Frye. "Your dad treme height of their shrill voices was talking of it, but I forgot. It's "Help! Murder! Police! Diamonds! an eclipse!" Thieves!"

They roused the town; men rushed Just then a stray beam kissed the from the houses; the burglars were ling, and a shaft of light shot from it. caught; the diamonds were recovered. "Oh! Frye!" cried Joel. "Now I and the boys were rewarded, but-they know-it's a diamond. It's diamonds got well spanked, too, by a judicious that flash like that. Golly! I bet that parent who looks at both sides of a story, - P. Y. Black, in the Chicago ring's worth all of $2!" And then all the light passed away.

and the total eclipse left them in ut terly complete darkness.

Hold it in the moonlight."

the matter with the moon?

"I can't get it right. Say! What's

They looked up and were awestrick

Joel and Frye felt quickly afraid. "Let's go home." they said together. and clasped hands and skated as fast their parents, but neither was willing as they dared in the blackness for the to buy or sell at the price the other shore. was willing to give; and, after much

They were far out now, nearer the dickering they became angry and reocean side of the bay than their own fused longer to hold the property home. They skated and skated, but jointly. It was then agreed to saw the nothing but blackness surrounded them. and the work was begun, and at the di

"We ought to be there!" Joel cried in trouble, "but I can't see any lights or anything, and it looks the same all round. Frye, are you sure we're skat- until the foundation was reached. A ing in the right direction?"

"You ought to know better'n me." tion of the house, and commented on cried Frye, fretfully. "You belong the folly of the brothers. A fence will be run through the middle of the Joel tried in another direction and lot, each brother taking one side .- New and and still hid its face. Frye began to cry. Joel kept peering about into the its population cannot write.

ow them to vote on consolidating with Beaver Falls. Borough Council turned down the request for the privihis lege of voting on the question at the coming election.

At Connellsville the coroner's jury to inquire into the deaths of three Italians killed in the Bluestone quarries Wednesday, returned a ver dict of accidental death. The com pany was exonerated from all blame. The employes of the Penn Bridge Company at Beaver Falls, have or-ganized the Penn Bridge Works Relief Th

Association, with 200 members. members will receive benefits in case of sickness, accident or death. The First Cumberland Presbyterian congregation at Punxsutawney have sold their church property to J. B. Eberhart for $20,000. The congrega-tion will crect a $25,000 edifice in another part of the town.

Owing to the idleness of a majority of the coal mines in the Hazleton dis trict, which have been flooded for three weeks, a coal famine prevails Coal during the last week has advance ed 50 to 75 cents a ton.

Workmen unearthed the skeleton of an Indian in a fair state of preservation ih a sand bank near Sharon Saturday. The bones were exposed to the air and immediately crumbled to dust

The Hollidaysburg Iron and Nail Company has announced that it will addition to its plant 100x200 wild an John and William Arbuckle inherited feet, which will double its capacity, a house and lot at Elwood jointly from William Harts, aged 15, was fatally injured on the railroad at the three culverts west of Altoona Sunday in attempting to board a freight train. The frame business blocks owned by Mrs. Andrew Suever and A. A. Shaffer, at New Wilmington, were burned Sunday night. Loss $3,000.

John Rosenthal, a peddler, was at rection of the two brothers workmen tacked by highwaymen, near Greens burg, Wednesday night, who beat him into insensibility and robbed him of $50 and the best of his stock of goods. saws and each wall was sawn through The tipple of the Osceola mine, near

The tipple of the Osceola mine, near lewin, was burned Sunday, entailing a $10,000 loss.

The public schools of Antis town-ship, Blair county, have been closed on account of smallpox.

WHOLESALE LIQUOR LICENSES.

WROLESALE LAGUOR LICENSES. 1. James B. Phelan and S. E. Wilson, resi-dence Punxuitawney borough, in that one storied brick store building, located on the west side of Jefferson street in the side bor-ough of Punxsuitawney, in the county of Jef-ferson aforesaid, on lot bounded on the north by L. C. McQuown; on the cast by Jefferson street; on the south by an alley; and on the west by an alley. 2. Joseph F. Weist, residence Reynoldsville borough, in the store room occupied by the applicant, situate in said borough of Keyno-oldsville, county of Jefferson and state of Pennsylvania, bounded on the north by Main street; on the south by Gordon alley; on the east by P. McDonald; and on the west by Degnan & McDonald. REWEINS LICENSES.

BREWERS LICENSES.

Burwens LICENSES. 1. Magnus Allgeler, residence Brookville borough, "Spring Browery," Brookville, Pa. 2. S. C. Christ, doing business as The Brookville Prewing Co., residence Brookville borough. "The strookville Brewing Company," Brookville, Pa. 3. Bernhard Schneider and E. B. Hender-son, residence of Bernhard Schneider Punx-sutawney borough, residence of E. B. Hender-son Brookville burough, "Elk Run Brewery," Punxsutawney, Fa. 4. Joseph Raumartrer, residence Punxsu-tawney borough, "The Panxsutawney Brew-ery," Punxsutawdey, Pa.

CIRCS H. BLOOD,

Clerk of the Court of Quarter

TO METHODISTS.

Patronize the Best and Cheapest. THE PITTSBURG

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE Established 1833.

Rev. C. W. SMITH, D. D., Editor.

Organ of the Methodist Episcopa Church in Western Pennsylvania. East-ern Ohio and West Virginia.

I also

Office and ware room in rear of

G. W. Klepfe: 's 5 and 10 cent store.

J. H. Huanes.

Able articles on all the live questions of the day. The contributors include some of the most eminent writers of the church.

The weekly exposition of the Sunday School Lesson is unexcelled. Interest ng news from all the churches.

Special attention given to the Ep-worth League and Young Folks' De-Addres Christian Advocate, 524 Penn Ave., Pittsburg. Pa.

Its departments are all well filled, and among the specialties handled may be men-tioned L. Adler Bros., Rochester, N. Y., Clothing, than which there is none better made; W. L. Douglass Shoe Co., Brockton, Mass., Shoes; Curtice Bros. Co., Rochester, N. Y., Canned Goods; and Pillsbury's Flour.

This is a fair representation of the class of goods it is selling to its customers.

THE 5 AND 10 Undertaking CENT STORE OF and Embalming. FIRST CLASS WORK  GUARANTEED. Main # Street, is headquarters for dolls and I am also headquarters for toys of every description. PIGTURE FRAMING. 1 am closing out Ladies' and I can have your picture enlarged Children's Wool and Heavy at a reasonable price. Fleeced Line Underwear at a Sacrifice. Call and see them. RE-SILVER MIRRORS.

I carry a large line of Queensware, Glassware, Notions, Etc. My prices are away down. G. W. KLEPFER.