An Obliging Judge.

Judge Gordon of the Clearfield county bar is very obliging and always willing to accommodate the attorneys when possible. During court last week State Treasurer-elect Harris made a witness testify that a certain man was a liar, to which a prominent attorney quickly added "just like some politicians." Mr. Harris arose and said: "If it was meant as personal he could be seen outside. The attorney promptly agreed and just as promptly Judge Gordon said, 'If you gentlemen want to step outside we'll adjourn court for you.' The matter was amicably arranged, however, without interfering with the functions of the court.

J. F. Shaffer, of Rathmel, was in town Monday looking after his interests as a candidate for the Republican nomination for County Commissioner in Jefferson county. Mr. Shaffer is employed in the mines at Rathmel and has been a resident of Winslow township for twenty-eight years. He is popular among the working men because he is one of them himself and is very popular where he is well known. He is a delegate to the National Convention of Mine Workers which will be held during the month of February and has been delegate to county and district conventions. Mr. Shaffer will poll a good big vote and when they are all counted he will be up among the top-notchers.—Falls Creek Herald.

Life is a race—not for a silver cup, but for character—that is the goal. The prize is Heaven, but the race must always be run, and life, to many, is outward defeat, and to a large number, inward defeat.—January Ladies' Home Journal.
