A Little of Everything.

Howe's moving pictures. License court next Monday. Howe's moving pictures at Assembly hall January 16. The county auditors are now doing their work. Don't miss Howe's moving pictures at Assembly hall to-morrow evening. The Reading Room Association purchased new furniture for the members' room. An exciting game of foot ball will be witnessed at Assembly hall to-morrow evening. O. N. Wilson, of Kittanning, at one time a shoe merchant in Reynoldsville, is in town to-day. The C. L. S. C. meets at residence of Mrs. M. E. Beck on Grant street at eight o'clock next Friday evening. The annual banquet of the Jefferson County Bar Association was held at the American House, Brookville, last night. The Helping Hand Society of the M. E. church will hold a market at Robinson & Mundorf's grocery store next Saturday afternoon, Jan. 18th. R. J. Erwood dramatic and vaudeville comedy company will close a three-nights engagement at the Reynolds opera house this evening. Mrs. M. M. Davis and Mrs. C. Mitchell attended the Jefferson County Bar Association banquet at the American House in Brookville last night. The educational reunion of thirteenth district, consisting of Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville and Winslow township, will be held at this place the 8th of next month. The public school library of this borough is being equipped with book cases. It might not be out of place to say that donations of good books will be acceptable for the new library. Rev. J. C. Ball, pastor New Bethlehem Baptist church, is preaching in the Baptist church at this place this week assisting the pastor, Rev. A. J. Meek, in revival meetings. The services are well attended and the public is invited. Walter H. Clare, manager of the dry department of Milllions store, from Dunkirk, N. Y., Saturday where he had been three days at the bedside of his father. Clare, who was dangerously ill, is recovering.

Daniel Nolan, sr., conductor on Low Grade, has been off duty a few days on account of serious illness of his wife. Mrs. Nolan is getting better. Supreme Generalissimo John Goward, of Phillipsburg, will visit Myrtle Commandery No. 313, Ancient and Illustrious Order of Knights of Malta, at this place this evening. Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, preached a special sermon in the Penfold Presbyterian church Friday evening on "Special Evangelistic Work." Harry F. Reynolds, who has been clerking in Milllions store at Kane fourteen months, resigned his position at that place and returned to Reynoldsville last week to remain a short time. Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Gallagher, of Hawley, Pa., visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Noah Strauss, near this place the past week. They stopped off here on their return from a trip in Kentucky. The following new students have entered Hughes' Business College at this place since our last issue: Walter D. Williams, Miss Hattie Schultze, G. M. London, Joseph Sayers and A. E. Tyson. The new drop curtain for Assembly hall stage is now ready to put up, but may not be up in time for the entertainment to-morrow evening. H. Eugene Phillips, of this place, painted the curtain. Last Thursday afternoon the ladies of the Clonion Club were very pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Ira S. Smith, on Hill street, from 3.00 to 5.00 o'clock. Elegant refreshments were served. James W. Gillespie, manager of the Bing-Stoke Co. department store, had a short sleigh ride one day last week, the first in twelve years. Jim has been residing in Pittsburg where sleigh riding is a luxury at $3.00 per hour for a livery rig. Next Sunday will be decision day at the Baptist church. W. S. Stone, former superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school, will spend the day in Reynoldsville and preach in the Baptist church Sunday evening. Subject "Active Service." The Rev. Edwin L. McVain will preach in the Presbyterian church each evening, except Saturday, until Jan. 24th. He will preach at both services on Sabbath. A most cordial welcome is extended to the public to attend these helpful services. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGinness, of Oil City, who came here Wednesday to bury Mrs. McGinness' father, Aaron Walsh, returned to their home in Oil City Friday evening. Mr. McGinness is superintendent of the Metropolitan Insurance Company's work at Oil City. The school directors of Winslow township are enforcing the compulsory school law in the township. They had four or five cases at Rathmel recently. No one should feel offended at the directors for enforcing the law, because they are compelled to do so under the new law. Frank J. Black has had a brilliant street light erected in front of his new hotel. As our electric lights have not been running for several weeks it is the only street light in town with one exception doing business. It is quite a convenience to that part of the East end of town. The Knights of Golden Eagle of this place installed new officers last Thursday evening and after the installation the members of the Ladies' Temple served hot coffee and other refreshments to the members of Mt. Cliff Castle. It proved to be a very pleasant event for all concerned. Martin L. Hetrick, of Washington township, who keeps blooded chickens, has eggs for sale. Mr. Hetrick began keeping a memorandum the first of this year and his hens had laid sixteen dozen up to 10th inst. He says his hens have paid him 100 per cent. Order eggs from Mr. Hetrick, as he has them for sale. J. H. Null, of Sykesville, candidate for Republican nomination for Sheriff, was in town this week looking after his political interests. Mr. Null has been a resident of Winslow township for many years and is a gentleman of good qualities, and if he gets the nomination and is elected he will make a good official.—Brookwayville Record. Hon. W. O. Smith, editor of Punxsutawney Spirit, has no opposition for the Republican nomination in Jefferson county for congress. Smith is entitled to the nomination and it is right that he should get it without a fight for it. There is no doubt but that Mr. Smith will get the nomination in the district and will be elected congressman this fall. He is an able man and is well fitted to represent this district in Congress. Dr. Harry B. King was to have organized a class in light gymnastics in the Young Men's Reading Association last Friday evening, but on account of the meeting in Centennial hall the class was not organized, but will sometime in the near future. A large number of young men are becoming interested in the reading room, and if the membership continues to increase, the time is not far distant when it will require a special building for the association.

Schlabig-Rhoden. E. E. Schlabig and Miss Louisa W. Rhoden, both of this place, were married by Squire E. Neff at his office on Main street at 8:00 p. m. Saturday, January 11, 1902. Signed with Newark Team. Thomas O'Hare, of this place, brother of John O'Hare, of the National Hotel, has signed with the Newark, N. J., base ball team in the Eastern League for season of 1902. "Pepper" is now getting into fast company, but he is a fine player and will be able to keep up with the other members of the club. Directors Elected. The annual meeting of the stockholders of The Star Glass Company was held in this place on Monday, January 13, 1902, and the following directors were elected for ensuing year: Dr. J. C. King, A. T. McClure, Richard Smith, Dr. J. W. Foust, S. B. Elliott, W. F. Marshall, Daniel Nolan, sr., and James Virdin. Small Pox in Brookville. A bad case of small pox has developed in Brookville. Webster Estorline is the man who is suffering with the dread disease. He was exposed to the disease at Kittanning a couple of weeks ago and went from Kittanning to West Virginia when he became so ill that he had to return to his home in Brookville. Bank Officers Elected. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National bank of this place was held in the banking rooms yesterday and the old board of directors and officers were re-elected. Directors: C. Mitchell, Scott McClelland, Dr. J. C. King, John H. Corbett, G. E. Brown, G. W. Fuller, John H. Kaucher. President, C. Mitchell, Vice-president, Scott McClelland; cashier, John H. Kaucher. An Excellent Company. R. J. Erwood and his excellent dramatic and vaudeville comedy company are playing a three-night engagement at the Reynolds opera house this week, beginning Monday evening and closing this evening. It is an up-to-date company. Monday night they played "Power of Gold," last night "Master and Man" and to-night they will present "Under Two Flags." The company is playing to a full house each night. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store. Knights of Golden Eagle Officers. Last Thursday evening the following officers were installed in Mt. Cliff Castle, K. G. E., of this place: P. C., Robert Barker; N. C., Arthur Tyson; V. C., James A. Tyson; H. P., Thomas Justham; Ven. H., Joseph Sayers; M. of R., Edwin Hoare; C. of E., Robert Sayers; K. of E., John Trudgen, sr.; Sir H., Ed. Haas; W. B., Joseph Laverick; W. C., Robert Barker; Ens., Wm. Justham; Esq., Wm. E. Reed; First G., Wm. Tyson; Second G., James Justham; Representative to Grand Castle, P. C., Thomas Justham. Given an Ovation. Misses Catharine Ross, Mary Ross and Mary Kerr, the three young ladies who were sentenced by Burgess Mitchell to pay a fine of $3.00 and costs or go to county jail six days for spelling and pronouncing the word sea in the presence of one of the employees of silk mill, and who preferred to go to jail, returned from the county jail Wednesday evening. A large crowd, headed by the brass band, was at the station to meet the girls, who were hustled into a two seated sleigh and escorted up Main street amidst the glare of red lights, brass band music and cheering of the crowd that marched along. Young Man Died Thursday. Joseph Mark Brennan, son of John Brennan, died at the home of his father in this place on Thursday, January 9, 1902, at 8:15 p. m., from enlargement of the heart and dropsy. He had been ill from 1st day of July, but was not confined to his bed until October 20th. He was a patient sufferer. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church Saturday morning, conducted by Rev. T. Brady, and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. Joseph was born in Reynoldsville in 1885, and was 16 years, 4 months and 26 days old at time of death. The father, John Brennan, is left without any members of his family at home. He has two daughters married and one son in the Philippine Islands as a soldier boy. "Mother Jones." Centennial hall was packed to its fullest capacity last Friday evening by persons who wanted to hear "Mother Jones," of Chicago, deliver an address in the interest of union labor in general and the Textile workers of this place in particular. The editor of THE STAR was knocked out with a severe cold Friday night and was not able to go to Centennial hall to hear Mrs. Jones speak and, consequently, cannot comment intelligently on her address and will not attempt to do so. She talked for two hours and made it interesting for her audience during the entire time. "Mother Jones" travels over the country delivering addresses in the interests of the United Mine Workers of America. This was her second visit to Reynoldsville.

Town Council. The regular meeting of the Town Council was held on Tuesday evening, January 7th, President Deblie in the chair. Members present, Smith, Cochran, King, Farrell, Pierce and Deblie. Minutes of the previous meeting read and approved. C. Mitchell, chief Burgess, reported fines and licenses collected since last meeting to be $50.00. Messrs. W. T. Cox and Smith M. McCright, representatives of the Electric Light and Power Co. were present and presented a bill of $420.80 for light, for quarter ending Oct. 1st, and a bill of $352.34 for light, for quarter ending Jan. 1st. After a general discussion on the matter the council, by motion, agreed to pay the Electric Co. $400.00 for quarter ending Oct. 1st, and $200.00 for quarter ending January 1st, which was accepted. On motion bills and interest, amounting to $238.80 were ordered paid. Death From Dropsy. John Carroll, who had been ill since last August, died at 4.45 p. m. January 10th, 1902. His death was caused by dropsy. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church at 8:15 a. m. Sunday at which time Requiem High Mass was performed. Interment was made in Catholic cemetery. The Ancient Order of Hibernians, of which deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body. John Carroll was born in England April, 1860. He came to America almost fifteen years ago. His father died 30 years ago and John never married, but always lived with his mother and was a very faithful son. He was a barber by trade and was conducting a shop in the Booth building, corner of Main and Sixth streets, when his health failed. The deceased was a brother of James and William Carroll, well known gentlemen of this place. Mrs. Ann Carroll also survives her son. Old Soldiers Given a Surprise. Monday evening the Grand Army Post at this place installed new officers and about the time the installation ceremonies were over the ladies of the W. R. C. made their appearance, carrying with them a good supply of outables for the old soldiers. It was a complete surprise to the veterans, but they were equal for the occasion and did ample justice to the refreshments served. The little surprise was highly appreciated by the members of the Post, and it proved to be a real social event for all. Following is a list of the new officers installed: Commander, Thomas Clabough; Sr. Vice-Commander, Samuel Sutter; Officer of the Day, Levi Epler; Quarter Master, E. Neff; Adjutant, L. D. Beer. Mr. Beer installed in the new officers. Howe's Moving Pictures. At the opera house two large audiences were delighted with the exhibition of moving pictures, given under the direction of Lyman H. Howe. There was nothing common place in the entirely new program. Jay Paige, the sculptor, scored a decided hit in his creations of clay. Under the spell of his genius shapeless masses of mud quickly took on the semblance of great men and expressionless lumps reflected laughable likenesses which would have paled the funniest cartoon in the current funny books.—Corning (N. Y.) Daily Democrat Nov. 29, 1901. At Public School Assembly hall, Reynoldsville, January 16. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store. McKinley Day. William A. Stone, governor of Pennsylvania, has issued a proclamation in which he recommends Wednesday, January 29th, 1902, as McKinley Day in the public schools for the purpose of raising a fund for the erection of a suitable monument at the grave of William McKinley. To Voters of Reynoldsville Borough. If nominated and elected as Justice of the Peace in this borough, I will serve to the best of my ability. J. M. HAYS. Suggestion Meeting. The Republicans of West Reynoldsville will hold a suggestion meeting in the town hall of that borough at 7.30 p. m. Tuesday, January 21st, to suggest candidates for the primary election to be held on Tuesday, January 28th. Card of Thanks. I take this method of expressing my heart felt thanks to the friends and neighbors for their kind assistance during the illness and death of my son, Joseph Mark Brennan. JOHN BRENNAN. Shirt waists and coats at your price at Sutters. Go to R. L. Taaf's new grocery store the freshest, cheapest and best groceries. Bargains at the Reynoldsville Woolen Mill in ends, seconds, remnants, blankets, flannels, hosiery, shirts, pants, &c. But a small quantity of each of the above. First come, first served. Palmers Rose Leaf Perfume—the proper one, try 10c worth. Reynolds drug store. Coats and capes reduced from $10.00 to $7.50 at Sutters.

January Term of Court. The January term of Jefferson county court opened in Brookville at ten o'clock Monday morning with President Judge John W. Reed on bench. Six constables were absent when their names were called and Judge Reed said their returns would not be received until 2.00 p. m. Monday as a punishment for their tardiness. The grand jury was called and C. H. Boyles, of Falls Creek, was appointed foreman. In his instruction to grand jury, Judge Reed stated very plainly what was expected of a grand juror. Among other things a grand juror is expected to make a presentation to the grand jury of any gambling devices, houses of prostitution or any breaches of the peace that he knows of in the community he resides in or anywhere in the county. Constable F. R. Crawford, of Washington township, was appointed stipendiary grand juror, and constables C. H. Withrow, of Rose township, L. B. McLaughlin, of Summerville, and Geo. Schultze, of Union township were appointed tip-staves for court room. The Reynoldsville riot case was up before the grand jury when court adjourned last evening. If the grand jury finds a true bill the case will hardly come up for trial before to-morrow. The seventeen Reynoldsville girls who were bound over to court by Squire Woodring are to appear in court on Friday. Funeral of Aaron Walsh. In our last issue we mentioned that Aaron Walsh, who was well known here, having resided in the town many years, had been found dead in bed at home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank McGinness, at Oil City Tuesday morning, January 7, 1902. The body was brought to Reynoldsville Wednesday evening and taken to home of John McGinness, Prescottville. Funeral services were held in the Prescottville Baptist church Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of Reynoldsville M. E. church. Interment was made in Prospect cemetery. The pall bearers were Ninian Cooper, William Copping, Joseph Spears, Matthew Phillips, Mr. Hill and Mr. Henry. Mr. Walsh was 73 years old. He had been ill and Mrs. McGinness had been up all of Monday night caring for him and about 6.20 he said he was feeling better and for her to lie down and rest awhile. She did lie down and fell asleep, but was up again before seven o'clock and when she went into her father's room she found him dead. Death From Stomach Trouble. Peter McCaulley, a coal miner, died at his home near Prescottville Sunday afternoon, Jan. 12, 1902, from ulceration of stomach. He had been confined to his bed eight weeks. He suffered intensely until within a few hours before he expired, when pain ceased and he died easy. Mr. McCaulley was an honest and hard working man, and he labored to support his wife and two children when he was not able to work. Beside stomach trouble, which had been annoying him several years, his eyesight had failed until he was almost blind. The deceased was born in Scotland 38 years ago. Funeral services were held in the Catholic church yesterday morning and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. The deceased was a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and that society attended the funeral in a body. Mothers' Club. Mention was made in THE STAR last week that a Mothers' Club was being organized as an auxiliary to the public schools of this borough. Last Friday a permanent organization was effected and the following officers elected for one year: President, Mrs. V. R. Pratt; Vice-President, Mrs. F. M. Brown; secretary, Mrs. F. K. Alexander. The club will meet once a month—the first Friday of each month—at 3.30 p. m. At 4.30 the teachers will meet with the club. A constitution was adopted which will be printed in THE STAR next week. The club now has fifty members and others are cordially invited to join. There will be no expense connected with it for the members. The next meeting will be held the first Friday of February, at which time a good program will be rendered. Business of Importance. All members of Local Union No. 9295 of American Federation of Labor, Reynoldsville, are requested to attend next meeting, Tuesday Jan. 21, as there is business of importance. Secretary. Full line of Palmers perfumes, toilet waters and sachet powders. Reynolds drug store. Japanese napkins given free to every person buying oysters at Frank's restaurant for festivals or society suppers. Sleighs and sleds, also two good 2nd hand sleighs for sale. L. M. SNYDER. H. W. Eason & Co. will give their first semi-annual clearance sale commencing on Thursday, Jan. 16, and ending Feb. 1st. Read their ad. in next week's paper. Have several pieces good new carpet for sale cheap, also will weave your carpet any day. TROPEL DEMAY, weaver, West Reynoldsville. Mualin at Sutters for 4c cents, by web only. Stop in our cozy corner, have a hot soda and go on your way rejoicing. Reynolds Drug Store.

Dr. Russel Conwell's Lecture. "Acres of Diamonds" was the subject of Dr. Russel Conwell's lecture in Assembly hall last Thursday evening, and for two hours Mr. Conwell held the close attention of the large audience. There is no denying the fact that Mr. Conwell is a great lecturer, and yet he makes his points so plain that the small boys and girls could comprehend the meaning. The lecture was full of rich thought for nobis and grand things, and the facts were presented in such a manner that they will leave a lasting impression on the minds of many of his hearers, which will inspire them to accomplish something in this life. Figuratively speaking, Dr. Conwell threw some hard bricks at the audience. It is just such lectures as Conwell's that lifts humanity up to a higher plan. It was through Dr. John H. Murray, who has been personally acquainted with Dr. Conwell a number of years, that he was secured to lecture in Reynoldsville. Dr. Murray introduced the speaker. Dr. Conwell did not arrive in Reynoldsville until 8.30 and he had to go on the platform immediately without anything to eat, and then it was 8.45 before he began the lecture. Dr. Conwell came direct from New York City to lecture and had to leave on first train Friday morning to be in Philadelphia Friday evening to attend a congregational meeting in his church. It was only by a train being late that Dr. Conwell was traveling into New York on that kept him from being in the collision in the tunnel at New York where so many lives were lost. Dr. arrived on the scene in time to help carry away some of the dead and dying. "Rattle Snake Jim." "Rattle Snake Jim" Thompson, also known as "Stuttering Jim," who resides at Big Soldier, was in town several days ago and in conversation with a representative of THE STAR Jim said he has eighteen rattle snakes "holed-up" for the winter in a large box under his house. The box is 2x10 feet and it is buried under five feet of earth. Jim has four pot snakes that he keeps beside the stove in his house. He says all his snakes are named and that he can sit down on the floor and get the "whole crowd of snakes" to come to him by calling their names. Christmas Jim gave a snake show to a number of Italians and Slavs at Big Soldier and raked in over $5.00. During that performance he stuck the heads of a rattle snake and copperhead in his mouth at one time. According to Jim's statement he made over $400.00 the past season giving shows and selling rattle snake oil. When asked how he charmed the snakes Jim said that was a secret he would not give away. In conclusion Jim said that he has a suit—pants, coat and vest—made out of rattle snake skins. Permanent Certificates. The committee on permanent certificates, consisting of Prof. G. W. Lenkerd and Miss Margaret Dailey, of this place, and Prof. S. E. Downs, of Brookville, have issued the following notice: "The examination for teachers' permanent certificates will be held in the Reynoldsville public school building, Reynoldsville, Pa., on Friday and Saturday, May 2 and 3. Teachers who desire to enter the examination must notify the chairman of their intention at least ten days prior to the date set for the same. The law requires applicants to furnish the committee recommendations from their boards of directors and from the superintendent of the county. Applicants must be examined in civil government and algebra." W. R. C. Officers Installed. Last Friday evening the following officers were installed in the Woman's Relief Corps at this place by Mrs. Eliza Woodring: President, Edith Phillippi; Senior Vice-President, Eliza Woodring; Junior Vice-President, Carrie Hoppel; Secretary, Clara Wisor; Treasurer, Julia Reynolds; Chaplain, Mary Shaffer; Conductor, Eva Evans; Guard, Mattie Hoffman; Assistant Conductor, Etha Lucas; Assistant Guard, Adella Cathcart; Color Bearers, Tamar Sayers, Nancy Foley, Carrie Albright, Cordelia Saxton. The Corps presented the president, Mrs. Edith Phillippi, with a very pretty rocking chair. Kicked by a Mule. John Adams, of Rathmel, was kicked on left side of face, near ear, by a mule Saturday which came very near ending his earthly career. Card of Thanks. We take this method of expressing our gratitude and thankfulness to the friends, also trustees of Prescottville Baptist church, for their kindness after the death of father, Aaron Walsh. MR. AND MRS. FRANK MCGINNESS. Sheets, Sheets. Defender hemstitched bleached sheets 81 by 90, red tag price 69 cents. Norway bleached sheets, hemmed, 81 by 90, red tag price 55 cents. BING-STOKE CO.
