Engine Ploughed Its Way Into Coaches Grawded With Passengers, Victims Mangled-

In the New York Central Railroad tunnel that burrows under Park aveane, New York City, two local trains collided Wednesday. Fifteen passen-gers were killed and twice that number injured. A dozen of the latter were seriously hurt and the roster of the dead may be extended. It was a rear-end collision between a In over the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad and was halted by block signals at the southern end tunnel, and a White Plains across the Ohio river. local that came by the Harlem branch of the New York Central. The occurred at 8:17 a. m., at which hour the trains were crowded by auburbanites. Most of the deaths injury and damage were wrought by ngine of the White Plains train which plunged into the rear ear of the motionless train and was driven through to the middle of the car, amashing the seats and furnishings and splitting the sides as it moved forward. The victims either were mangled in the mass of wreekage carried at the pilot, crushed in the boiler and car sides, or scalded by steam which came hissing from broken pipes and cylinders. The engine in its final plunge of 40 feet. rried the rear car forward and sent twisted iron, broken timbers and fluters crashing juto the coach Lights were extinguished and from the wreckage and darkness came the cries of the injured and calls for assistance by those who escaped Within a few minutes the work of rezenc, marked by herolem and sacri-Alarma that brought every available ambulance in the city, and the firemen of the central eastern districts of Manhaitan, were sounded With police, firemen and surgeons came a score of volunteer physicians and balf a dozon clergy-All get to work attacking the debris with axes and ropes trying to release the imprisoned.
