EDITORIAL STAFF.

Editor-in-chief, G. L. Meek; Assistant Editors, Christine Brown, Annie Klahr; Local Editor, Lena Black.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing month: Pres., Ethelyn Winslow; Vice Pres., Grace Meek; Sec., Goldie King; Critic, Ira Bowser; Program Committee, Verdie Dougherty, Nulu Neale, Tom Nolan.

The program given Friday afternoon was pronounced by the critic as the best given this term. We are glad to state that the persons whose names were carried over from preceding meetings, were prepared and did ample justice to their performances.

Rev. Reber and Rev. McEwen visited us on Friday morning. Rev. Reber conducted the chapel exercises. Rev. McEwen gave us a very interesting talk on "Little Things." He showed clearly to us that it is the little things that count in our lives.

Patrons' Day will be observed Wednesday, Jan. 29. Invitations have been issued to the patrons. The patrons and parents are urged to lend encouragement to the schools by their presence on that day. Special exercises will be conducted from 3.15 to 4.15 p. m., in the auditorium in honor of the birth of William McKinley, our lamented president. The performers have been chosen from the different grades in the school. The Senior class will be represented by Fred Smith and Ethelyn Winslow. The male quartet jr., will furnish music for the occasion.

Miss Daily spent Sunday and Monday in Pittsburg. Miss Sophia Heckman spent the week in Brookville. Dr. Foust visited the schools Friday. The library has been brightened up by the addition of a new book-case. Oh! the vacant shelves.

Why is it that our senior boys are never seen together at the lectures. Can it be possible that they have the same dreadful brain disease.

Teacher: Johnny, use the word "hero" in a sentence.
Pupil: Hero for our flag.
Sleighing has come at last and many of our boys and girls are happy. It brings back many pleasant memories from former years.

Why so many meetings of the Juniors? The Senior class has elected the following officers: Pres., Fred Smith; Vice Pres., Ira Bowser; Sec., Verdie Dougherty.

Wilson's Position.

BIG RUN, PA., Jan. 25, 1902.
Editor Reynoldsville STAR.

Dear Sir:—As a candidate for the Republican nomination for Assembly I declare myself as being unqualifiedly in favor of legislative apportionment in accordance with the Constitution of the State. In the Session of 1899 I drafted and introduced such a bill and did all in my power to secure its passage, but as the census of 1900 was so close, a majority of the members were opposed to it, excusing themselves by saying it would surely be passed in 1901. But true to my prediction made upon the floor of the House, the Legislature failed to pass the bill in 1901. Actions speak plainer than words, but as some of the candidates have seen fit to say publicly that they are in favor of legislative apportionment, I also, hereby pledge myself as not only being ready but anxious to do all that I can to get Jefferson county her two representatives in the House. Should I happen to be the next representative from this county, I will make a fight to pass such a bill. A representative who would not do it would violate his oath.

Very truly,
HENRY I. WILSON.

Card to the Voters.

To the Voters of Jeff. Co.:
I wish to state publicly that if nominated and elected to the legislature I will do all in my power to secure an apportionment that will give Jefferson county two representatives.

Sykesville.

Bells, bells, bells, oh how nice they jingle.

Our band was at Falls Creek Saturday night attending a supper given by the band of that place. They report a good time.

Some of the candidates who were out for township offices feel like the young man who said, when his best girl miltened him, "It was sweet to court but oh how bitter to court a girl and then not get her." They can say 'twas sweet to seek office but oh how sad when the office they were seeking couldn't be had. Miss Clara Zimmerman, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Rosa Lamb, in Pittsburg, for several weeks, has returned to her home in this place.

Our town has worn quite an industrial appearance during the past week, as load after load of logs have been wending their way through town to 'Squire A. W. Sykes' mill.

If the parents of some of the boys in town would see that their boys go to school instead of loafing about the stores and pool rooms, it would be much better for the boys and also for the merchants.

Messrs. Eye and Reber have sold their large store room on Main street to Mr. Allen, of Eleanor. We understand that Mr. Allen intends to open a meat market and general grocery store in the building.

It was with sorrow that our people learned of the death of Miss Lillian Sykes, of Reynoldsville. Miss Lillian was a niece of our townsman, J. B. Sykes, was well known and respected by the young people of our town.

Miss Lottie Walker, of whom mention was made in our letter last week concerning her recovery from a severe illness, has suffered a relapse and at present writing is very low, and little hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Bargains in Coats, Suits and Skirts.

We have a few odd garments left that we don't care to carry over summer. The season is getting late and we would rather let you have these at any price you may suggest than to keep them. Our Clearance Sale is now over and to complete our preparation for the Spring season and to make room for new goods, we are offering bargains that may seem ridiculous, but we can back up our assertion with good honest goods as we always have done. We have some very good coats in Black, Brown, Castor, Tan and Blue in the 27-inch length with and without yoke. These are all very good garments with the same style and workmanship that characterized our garments this season. They range in price from $5.00 to $15.00. Examine these and if any suit you the coat will be yours at a very small price.

We have also a few short jackets that we will close at very low prices. These range in prices from $3.50 to $15.00. We have still a few Suits to close at any price.

Kindly note below the following prices which actually represent garments of real value:

Short Jackets

$3.50, 4.50 and 5.00 to close at $1.75.
