STOKE, The Druggist.

A Little of Everything.

This is "McKinley Day" in the public schools. Sleighting parties have been numerous the past few days. Special meetings are still in progress in the Baptist church. The rain Sunday no doubt spoiled many anticipated sleighrides. Richard L. Taafé sprained his right ankle Sunday getting out of a sleigh. Morie Daily slipped and fell several days ago and fractured a bone in left wrist.

Four motherless Italian children were taken from Soldier to the county home Thursday.

The Winslow township school board held their regular monthly meeting at Frank's Tavern Saturday.

Tickets for Champ Clark's lecture will be on sale at Stoke's drug store at 8.00 a. m. next Saturday, February 1st.

The residence of H. B. Plyler, of Brookville, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night. Loss on building $1,500.

Farmers' Institute will be held at Allens Mills on Friday and Saturday of this week, January 31st and February 1st.

The summer outing of the Pennsylvania State Editorial Association will be held at Cambridge Springs, Pa., the week beginning June 15th.

Most of the sidewalks in town have been covered with ice for several days and pedestrians got out in the middle of the streets for safe walking.

Sheriff Chesnut took Henry Mauk and Robert E. Brew, the colored chaps who stole hides from George H. Small, to the penitentiary Thursday. They were sentenced to the "pen" for a term of 36 months.

Special services will be held in the Presbyterian Sunday school next Sunday morning.

Roid Covert held the lucky No. 20, which drew the gold watch raffled off by S. H. Jones.

The icy condition of the public roads has been the cause of numerous upsets and runaway mishaps, but no serious accidents.

Rev. F. B. Williams, Baptist minister of Brookville, and Rev. Shauger, of New Jersey, will be the guests of Dr. A. J. Meek to-day.

The Star Glass Company office will be moved from glassworks to rooms on second floor of H. Alex Stoke's block on corner of Main and Fifth streets.

Guy Fuller, aged about sixteen years, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fuller, of near Emerickville, is convalescing from a severe attack of pneumonia.

There will be a pie social and box supper at the Kline school house on Friday night. Proceeds for school library. Everybody cordially invited.

Liveryman E. C. Burns has bought a new conveyance for taking out large sleighing parties. "Columbia" is the name of the new rig. It is a fine one.

Postmaster A. M. Woodward is an applicant for re-appointment. He is a competitor among the business men for most all of them.

Ex-sheriff Burns, of this place, and Rees Meredith, of Centreville, went to Brownsville, Pa., yesterday to get a horse that was stolen from Mr. Meredith the 16th of last July.

The board of deacons of the Baptist church have recommended seven candidates for baptism, and the ordinance of baptism will be administered in the church next Sunday evening.

Free mail delivery is to be inaugurated at Punxsutawney the first of next July. When the receipts of the Reynoldsville postoffice reach $10,000 a year we will also have free delivery.

A freight car jumped the track near the ticket office in P. R. R. yards at this place yesterday morning. The track was torn up for a short distance, which was the only damage done.

Rev. Jos. A. Stevenson, of Allegheny City, who preached in the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church Monday and Tuesday evenings, will remain here and preach every evening this week.

Last Saturday Mrs. Dr. J. B. Neale gave an exquisite 6 o'clock dinner in honor of the Clinton ladies at her home on Jackson street. The dinner consisted of several courses and was heartily enjoyed by the club.

S. Taylor North, of Young township, candidate for Assembly, was in town yesterday looking after his interests. Mr. North is hustling for the nomination, and if he is successful he will make a good Assemblyman.

An Italian named Thomas Madatine murdered an English speaking miner named James Higgins at Shawmut, Elk county, Saturday night by shooting him through the head. The Italian has not been apprehended yet.

Lawson Ramsey and Miss Margaret Stott, both of Soldier, were married at the home of the bride's parents at Soldier yesterday afternoon by Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church.

C. T. Hauck, of Clayville, candidate for sheriff, was in Reynoldsville last week looking after his interests. This is Mr. Hauck's second attempt for the Republican nomination for sheriff. He would make an excellent sheriff.

Burns' talker took a load of Daughters of Rebekah of this place to Falls Creek Thursday evening to visit the Daughters of Rebekah lodge at that place. As usual on such occasions the gentler sex had a real pleasant time.

Arnold McKee brought a garter snake into THE STAR office yesterday that had been killed near a watering trough above Rathmel Monday by Fred Fyo. The snake was about 24 feet long. Rather cold weather for snakes to be crawling around. It may have been one of "Rattlesnake Jim" Thompson's pets.

Mrs. John Burgess, of West Reynoldsville, went to Allegheny City, Saturday to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Lillian Anderson, who is to be married to Charles Gruseck, of Allegheny City. Miss Anderson, who is a daughter of Mrs. Joanna Anderson, formerly of this place, is well known in town.

Charles C. Buffington, of Ringgold township, who is charged with forging a check on a Brockwayville merchant, was arrested at North Freedom last week and taken to Brookwayville, where he was given a hearing before "Squire Keys. He was bound over to court and failing to secure bail was lodged in Brookville jail.

The I. O. O. F. lodge at Falls Creek opened new rooms in the Deemer building at that place last night. A large number of Odd Fellows from Reynoldsville and other places were present. The Reynoldsville Degree staff conferred the initiatory degree. A banquet was spread for the visitors. It was a fine affair. Richard Miller, of this place, won the prize for telling biggest yarn. The contest was between Miller and Ulrich Matson, of Falls Creek.

Sheriff Chesnut Resigned.

J. M. Chesnut, sheriff of Jefferson county, intends resigning the office of sheriff and has a petition out requesting Governor Stone to appoint his son, W. E. Chesnut, as sheriff to fill the unexpired term.

Died At Eleanora.

Edwin Watson, aged two years and a half, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Watson, of Eleanora, formerly of this place, died at 2.15 a. m. Monday, January 27, 1902, from pneumonia. Little Edwin first took sick with measles. Funeral services were held at home of parents at Eleanora at 2.00 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. Harry G. Tengarden. Interment in Reynoldsville cemetery.

Too Much Bromo-Quinine.

George Webb, who came from Clarion county to Wishaw on Tuesday of last week, was taken to the insane department of Jefferson county home last Thursday. Webb had been suffering with a bad cold and was taking Bromo-Quinine. His friends think too much of the medicine is what caused him to become wild. On Thursday he gave his friends a chase of about ten miles over the hills before they captured him.

Gone to Southland.

Isaac Pifer and family, E. Scott Syphrit, James M. Deemer, Jacob Borden, Isaac Huffer, Walter and Binns Reed, of Paradise and that section, started for the southland yesterday morning. They expect to locate near Denmark, South Carolina, where the Miller Lumber Co. has started a new saw mill. The company is composed of G. W. and Adam Miller, bankers of Big Run, and some other capitalists.

Used a Revolver Recklessly.

Last Saturday two intoxicated Italians wanted to take Harry Flickinger's horse and sleigh, which was standing on Main street, near Burns House, and when Harry refused to let them have it, one of them drew a revolver and began shooting at Harry, but missed his mark. He fired three shots and all three shots were a close call for an English speaking man who was nearby. Two bullets went through his hat and the other through his coat sleeve.

Advance for Glassworkers.

The Star Glass Company of Reynoldsville has given the blowers, gatherers, flatteners and cutters notice of an advance in wages over the present scale for remainder of this blast, to take effect January 25th. Following is the advance the men will get: Single-strength blowers and gatherers 15 per cent; double-strength blowers and gatherers, 10 per cent; single-strength cutters and flatteners, 10 per cent; double-strength cutters and flatteners, 10 per cent.

Body Taken to N. Y. State.

Ray S. Jones, of Addison, N. Y., nephew of George H. Jones, deceased, whose death was mentioned in THE STAR last week, arrived here on the 5.30 p. m. train Wednesday and took the body of George H. Jones to Addison, N. Y., Thursday for burial. The only surviving member of deceased's family is one brother, R. S. Jones, who resides at Addison. The parents have been dead some time. George was a single man, was not a member of any order and did not carry any life insurance.

Small-Pox Scare.

The people of Soldier were very much alarmed when they learned last week that Otto Pifer, who was running a country coal bank and was "baching" near that place, had the small-pox. Otto was a member of the family in McCalmont township, where a case of small-pox was found several weeks ago. He was removed to his home and his shanty was thoroughly disinfected. The doctors say there is no danger of any new cases at Soldier as a result of this case.

Miners' Mass Meeting.

The miners of Eleanora were out on strike because they objected to pushing their cars to and from the rope-haulage, work that the miners wanted done by mules. The men claim that in some instances it was impossible for the mules to push the loaded cars. A mass meeting was held at Rathmel Saturday forenoon for the purpose of declaring a general strike in this section unless there was a report at the meeting that the difficulty between the company and miners had been satisfactorily settled. The trouble was amicably adjusted and, consequently, there will not be a strike.

Macaroni Factory.

Early in December of last year mention was made in THE STAR that a macaroni factory was to be built at this place. All arrangements have been completed for the erection of the plant just as soon as the weather will permit. The building will be located to left of foot walk going to glass plant and east of railroad track, near the P. R. R. engine house. The building is to be a two-story brick, 24 x 100 feet. George Hughes, of this place, and C. Marinaro and his brother, of Soldier, are the gentlemen who are to erect this new plant. Thirty men at least will be employed in plant when it is first started and as the business increases the number of employes will be increased.

REYNOLDSVILLE RIOT CASE.

Defendants Not Guilty, But Pay Seven-Eighth of Costs, Was Jury's Verdict. The jury in the Reynoldsville riot case returned a verdict at 11.30 a. m. last Thursday of not guilty, but defendants to pay seven-eighth of the costs and the prosecutors one-eighth of the costs. The jury was out over seventeen hours, having retired at 3.00 p. m. Wednesday. The entire costs in the case, not including attorney fees, amounted to about $540.00. Of this amount the defendants pay about $470.00. Judge Reed's charge to the jury in this case will be found on the first page of this issue of THE STAR. As the charge is somewhat lengthy, we omitted a portion of the judge's definition of the offenses charged against the defendants.

Marshall Resigns; Hammond Appointed.

H. H. Clayton, of Kane, who held a good position with the Star Glass Company, at this place, has resigned to go into the banking business at Kane. Resignation to take effect the last day of this month.

William F. Marshall, who has held a responsible position in the coal company office for a number of years, has resigned that position to accept the position with Star Glass Company made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Clayton. Mr. Marshall's resignation with the coal company took effect yesterday. He takes new position last of February.

Last Thursday evening the following officers were installed in Century Council, No. 789, Royal Arcanum, of Reynoldsville, by District Dept. Grand Regent T. E. Hilliard, of Punxsutawney: Regent, James Orr; Vice-Regent, Thomas E. Evans; Orator, M. E. Weed; S. P. Regent, W. B. Stauffer; Secretary, M. J. Farrell; Collector, Samuel Sutter; Treasurer, W. H. Moore; Chaplain, Jerry Heckman; Guide, W. H. Lucas; Warden, Rufus Kirk; Sentry, W. A. Loding; Trustees, Andrew Wheeler, Dr. J. B. Neale and Dr. S. Reynolds. After installation an oyster supper was served to the Arcanums at Imperial restaurant.

Straitwell Sold Out.

D. M. Straitwell, who was a member of the Straitwell, Hibbard & Co. coal works at Fuller, has sold his interest to Frank Verstine, of Brookville. The deal was closed and the money paid over Saturday. This mine is running full time now with seventy men. When Richard L. Taafé, of this place, accepted the position as superintendent of the plant a few weeks ago it was idle and most all the miners had moved away. It is the intention to enlarge the plant and increase the output of coal.

DEVIL ON THE RAMPAGE.

Town was "Wild and Woolly" Saturday—"John Barleycorn" Took Part.

The devil seemed to stalk abroad in Reynoldsville Saturday. One man attempted to shoot another and shot a hole through one coat sleeve and two through his hat, which might have resulted in murder, there was a cutting affray at glass plant, a number of men congregated at corner of Main and Fifth streets and two talked fight, several other "chewing" encounters and one or two little "scraps" occurred, one man thrown out of a hotel because he persisted in fighting, number of drunken foreigners on the streets, number of intoxicated boys in town during the evening from a neighboring town, who brought bottles of whiskey with them, one man with "snakes" after him, one man in jail as result of a fracas, and other evidences of devilishness were conspicuous. Generally speaking, there is not another town in this section of the country, the size of Reynoldsville, where as few fights occur as do here, or where as few drunken men are seen on the streets as are seen here, but Saturday was an exception.

Cutting Affray at Glass Plant.

Arthur Lutes, a cutter, and Harvey and Richard Scott, gatherers at Star Glass plant, had some trouble Saturday forenoon and Richard Scott drew a knife on Lutes, cutting him on the left arm and cutting clothing on right arm. Lutes had the two Scotts arrested on charges of assault and battery and cutting with a knife, also surety of the peace. They were taken before Squire Neff and he bound them over to court, requiring $500.00 bail for each one on first charges and $500.00 apiece for surety of the peace. They both gave bail, $1,000.00 apiece, and Richard got into a fight several hours afterwards and his ball was withdrawn Saturday night, he was put in lock-up until Monday morning and was taken to county jail to await trial at April term of court. Scott had Lutes arrested on charge of assault and battery and surety of the peace, and he is under $800.00 bail, $300.00 for assault and battery and $500.00 for surety of the peace.

Arm Broken Yesterday.

Yesterday morning Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Pinney, Mrs. Scott McClelland and Mrs. Archie McCurray, of Brookville, started to drive to Reynoldsville and near the M. E. Church, this side of Emerickville, a bolt that held one of the single-trees broke and the sleigh pole dropped to the ground and the horses started to run. Mr. Pinney told the ladies to jump out, if they could, and Mrs. McClelland jumped, but she was the only one to jump, and she fell on her left arm and broke it near the wrist. The horses were stopped before any serious damage was done, but had the pole struck something as it ran along on the ice-covered road, the result might have been serious to those who remained in the sleigh.

Eleanora K. G. E. Celebrates.

The members of Crenshaw Castle No. 355, Knights of Golden Eagle at Eleanora, celebrated the sixth anniversary of the lodge Monday evening with a big supper and dance. A large number of the members of Mountain Cliff Castle, K. G. E., and Pleasant Valley Temple, Ladies of Golden Eagle, of this place, drove to Eleanora to participate in the celebration. Two sled loads upon near J. C. Norris' on their way over to Eleanora. Mrs. John Reed got her nose injured in the upset. "Squire Neff fell out on his head and his wife fell on top of him.

More Supervisors Wanted.

The voters of Winslow township will be given an opportunity on 18th of February to say by ballot whether they want an increase of supervisors in the township or not. A petition signed by thirty-seven voters of the township was presented to Constable John H. Null requesting him to post notices of the proposed election for increase of supervisors in township. There are two supervisors in the township now and we understand the petitioners want four supervisors.

New Manse.

Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will move into the new brick parsonage on Grant street to-day. The new parsonage is commodious and modern throughout. It is a fine dwelling, a credit to the Presbyterian congregation and a substantial addition to town property. J. M. King, of Hopkins, will move into the house that Rev. Reber moves out of. Mr. King will move to-morrow.

The seventeenth annual convention of the Pennsylvania State School Directors' Association will be held in the ball of the House of Representatives at Harrisburg February 12-13, 1902. The following directors are delegates from this county: Dr. J. A. Newcome, J. C. Smith, Dr. J. B. Neale, S. Taylor North, A. J. Elder and George W. Porter.

Members of Protected Home Circle No. 317 are hereby notified that I have been elected accountant to collect assessments. All members are requested to pay promptly before the last of each month.

NEED A BOARD OF TRADE.

If the Old Board is Entirely Defunct, Organize a New Board.

There was a time in the months gone by when Reynoldsville had a board of trade, but the board has become inactive, if not entirely dead. The plain truth of the matter is that we must have a live board of trade, and if life cannot be injected into the old board, then bury it and organize a new board of trade. Every live town has a board of trade, and it is a reflection on a town the size of Reynoldsville if it does not have a board of trade. Industries seeking a location will not come to a town that has not enough life to have a board of trade. Our town has just as good opportunity to get a chunk of prosperity as any other town, in fact it has a better chance than some when the inducements and advantages the town has to offer large industries are made known. If there was as much energy used in doing something to boom the town as there is wasted in growling and complaining, Reynoldsville would be even a better town than it is to-day. Whining and complaining is contagious and some times you will meet people who are making money, but they have the "blues" because some chronic "kicker" has been wagging his worthless tongue in their presence. This is all foolishness. "What is the use of repining, wherever there's will there's a way." Waken up, get some life in you. Organize a board of trade and start the ball to rolling with more impetus. Unless we do something for ourselves we need not expect outside capitalists to come in to help us along. Where and when will the first meeting be held to organize a new board of trade, or resurrect old board?

Lillian Sykes' Funeral.

The funeral of Miss Lillian Ardel Sykes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Sykes, of this place, whose death occurred in the German Hospital at Philadelphia Monday, January 20, 1902, from typhoid fever, of which we gave a full account last week, was held in the Baptist church at 2.00 p. m. last Thursday, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Baptist church, of which deceased was a member, assisted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the M. E. church. Dr. Meek selected his text from 1 Thes. 4:18. The sermon was an excellent one. The pastor spoke of the noble christian character of the deceased, of her affable and genial disposition, which made her popular, and of her passion for christian work. The services were very touching and impressive. There was a large congregation present. The floral tributes were beautiful. The pall bearers were: W. B. Stauffer, Edward McCright, Asa Sykes, Dr. L. L. Means, Charles Milliren, L. L. Gourley.

In addition to what we said last week we will add that Lillian A. Sykes was born on her grandfather's farm, near Sykesville, July 22, 1876. When two years old her parents moved to Reynoldsville, where Lillian was reared and spent most of her life. She was taken to the German Hospital January 17, but had been sick about a week before going to hospital. She requested that her bible be taken with her to hospital. She always dreaded typhoid fever and just before being removed to hospital she remarked to Mrs. Hoy, with whom she was staying, that she would never return and requested her not to tell her sister, Miss Etta, who was also staying in Philadelphia.

One of "Uncle Ed's" Yarns.

Uncle Ed. Seeley being in a reminiscent mood recently "spun a few" of the days of "auld lang syne," one of which follows: A friend and neighbor, a very worthy man, whom we will call Col. Bumpkins, because that was not his name, had been losing his wheat from where it was stored, and was greatly puzzled, as well as very wrath thereat. After many bushels of the precious bread stuff had gone, an imperious thought came to the Col. He, forthwith, procured a lot of shot and mixed it up in a pot of red paint, then spread the little bits of carmine tinted lead on a board to dry, when that was accomplished he placed the painted shot in his grain and mixed it all up together. Ere long more of the wheat surreptitiously disappeared and the Col. then started out on the warpath, with blood in his eye. He visited a number of his neighbors and told the story of his loss, where upon he was freely shown what each and every man possessed until he came to one who was reluctant to let his wheat be seen, finally, upon pressure, he opened up his bin, when, behold! the little leaden messenger's told their own tale of theft and meanness.

The once thrifty, yet, withal, dishonest farmer lost his farm, his home and friends and was given a long term in the penitentiary for his baseness.
