The * Star.

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance. C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1902.

To China Buyers:

Special Price for the next few days on China to close out a small lot left from Christmas. Call and get price at

C. F. Hoffman's, The Jeweler.

* TTELLITER CONTRACTOR OF

Kodak Progress Gompetition

To demonstrate the progress which has been made by the Kodak in the field of photographic art, we offer

$4,000 IN PRIZES,

$2,000.00 in cash, $2,000.00 in Kodaks, for the best work done by the KODAK AND BROWNIE CAMERAS. The terms are simple. Gome in and let us tell you about it.

STOKE,

the same

The Druggist.

A Little of Everything.

Sunday was ground hog day. The woodchuck did not see his shadow Sunday

Lent begins next Wednesday, February 12th.

February election two weeks from yesterday.

Two more weeks and the candidates' struggle for county office will end.

Five persons joined the Presbyterian church as a result of the special meetings held in the church. Frank J. Black, proprietor of The Mansion, went to Bradford to spend Sunday and did not get home until last evening, on account of B., R. & P. R'y trains being snow-bound. J. B. McManiple, better known a "Hooker," who is a large man and is now wearing a blue suit, was mistaken Brady. for a polleeman by a Pittsburger who was in town soveral days ago.

Frank M. Flynn, son of Mrs. P. F. Sunday was a good day for snow drifts and some of the people who drove out in the country to spend the day with friends had to shovel their borses out of snow drifts before they got home

E. L. Moore, who resided in Winslow township twenty-eight years, recently moved from Rathmel to the neighbor hood of Luthersburg, Clearfield county, where he has leased a farm and is opening coal mines.

Albert Arnold, brother of Charles Arnold, West Reynoldsville butcher, recently passed an examination in Pittsburg for locomotive engineer and is now an extra engineer on the Low Grade Division of the P. R. R.

Champ Clark spoke first. The speech was brimful of facts, scintillated with wit, corruscated with epigram and metaphor and had vim and snap enough to awaken the most jaded intellectual appetite.-Pittsburg Dispatch, At Assembly hall Friday, February 7th.

Philip Taylor, janitor for the Young Men's Reading Association, kept an accurate account of the attendance of young men at the rooms during the month of January and the lowest number present any night was 8, and the highest 32. The average attendance was over 15.

Father Driscoll and Father McGiveny, of DuBois, Father O'Sullivan, of New Bethlehem, and Father Weinker, of Lindsey, assisted Father Brady in Forty Hours Devotion held in the Catholic church at this place, beginning Sunday morning and ending yesterday morning. Since our last issue three new pupils have been enrolled in the Reynoldsville Business College, Thomas Thomas, William Warren and C. T. Diekey. A new No. 4 Smith-Premier typewriter, a new design and one of the finest typewriters made, has been added to the equipment of the college.

The B., R. & P. R'y was unable to get trains over the road between Johnsonburg and Mt. Jewett Sunday and Monday on account of snow drifts. The Du Bois Courier said that it was reported that there was ten feet of snow on the railroad track at some points between the two towns mentioned in this article.

Champ Clark is a man of splendid physique, tall, erect, athletic and the picture of health and physical manhood. A bright twinkle in the keen, blue eves betrays the natural humorist, even if it did not crop out in the dry utterances that are the delight of the listener .--Omaha World-Herald. At Assembly hall Friday evening of this week. Tickets on sale at Stoke's.

A meeting of the directors of Sum-

Small Dog.

Samuel M. Whittaker, the Jackson street horse-jockey, has a little dog that he carries in his coat pocket. The dog weighs 15 ounces. It's a year old.

Davis-Hullbert Irvin Davis, the barber, and Miss Elizabeth Hullbert, both of this place, were married at the Catholic church at eight o'clock last evening by Father in the presence of a few friends. Miss Admitted to Bar.

Flynn, of Grant street, who was study ing law in the office of Senator Henry in Philadelphia, has been admitted to the bar in that city. Frank is a bright young man and will, no doubt, be suc cessful as a lawyer.

Will Hold Train at Brookville Persons who want to see Robert Man tell play "Hamlet" at Brookville Thurs day evening can go down on the 5.30 p. m. train and return home after the show, as the train due here at 9.52 will be held at Brookville for the accommodation of those who attend.

Business Change. Matthew Phillips has bought and taken charge of the R. L. Taafe grocery store on Main street, four doors west of THE STAR office. Mr. Phillips, who has been acting as book agent several months, will continue to handle books and will take orders at his grocery store for books. He solicits a share of the public patronage in the grocery business.

Elk County Murderers Captured. Domino Mandatine, the Italian who murdered James Heekins at Shawmut January 25, and his accomplice, Ben Poli, are now in the Ridgway jall.

They were captured in an abandoned mine by four Italians on Sunday. When captured they said they had only had one lunch during the week that elapsed between the time of murder and capture.

How About the Water Plugs? Would it not be a wise thing to test the water plugs this cold weather to see that they are not frozen and are in good working order? This is the time of year that a fire is likely to break out most any time and the fire plugs should all be in working order. Possibly they are all ready for service, but the plugs are most all exposed and might freeze. A test might save a big fire.

Mothers' Club Meeting.

Following is the program for the Mothers' Club meeting to be held in Assembly hall Friday afternoon of this week, February 7th, at 3,30 p. m.: Address, County Supt. R. B. Teitrick: Vocal Solo, Mrs. J. W. Gillespie; discussion, Introduction of Physical Culture into the Public Schools, Miss Minnie Whitmore and Mrs. John M. Hays.

All mothers are cordially invited to attend this meeting. New Engine and Dynamo.

A fifty-horse power gas engine and a new dynamo have been put in the Reynoldsville Woolen Company's plant this week. The dynamo is in working order but will not be connected up to light the mill for a day or two. The dynamo is large enough to run 300 sixteen candle merville Telephone Company was to have been held in DuBois yesterday at what the mill requires now. The new Miller-Siple Nuptials.

Miss Hattie B. Siple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Siple, of West Reynoldsville, and E. S. Miller, of Williams port, Pa., were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at 9.00 p. m., January 29th, 1902, by Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., pastor of the Baptist church, of which the bride is a member. The wedding coromony was performed Eva Carberry, of Brookville, cousin of the bride, was bridesmald, and Al. D.

Siple, brother of the bride, was groomsman. The bride and her attendant were both dressed in white After the nuntial knot was tied and congratulations extended an excellent wedding supper was served. The bride is an estimable young lady who has a host of friends that will extend hearty congratulations Mr. Miller, who is a filer on Clark, Brown & Howe's mill at Williamsport, is highly esteemed in the community where known. Mr. and Mrs. Miller spont Sunday at Penfield. Next month they will go to housekeeping at Williamsport, their future home.

Ladies' Insurance Association.

A branch of the Ladies' Catholic Ben evolent Association is being organized in Reynoldsville. It is likely the Association will start out with thirty chartor momburs. Twenty ladies have al ready been examined by Dr. S. Reynolds, the medical examiner, and a num her of others will be examined. It only requires twenty members to secure a charter. This branch will be known as St. Marys Branch No. 687. The meetings will be held twice a month in the P. O. S. of A. hall, same rooms where the C. M. B. A. meets. It was the intention to try and get the new Association organized before lent, but that cannot be done now. Mrs. P. F. Flynn and Mrs. John Crawley, of this place are members of the L. C. B. A. of Ridgway, and Miss Lyda Phalen is a member of a branch in Pittsburg. These ladies will transfer their membership to the Reynoldsville branch when it is organized.

Meeting of the Textile Workers.

A meeting of all the textile workers of Reynoldsville will be held in P. O.S. of A. hall at 2.30 p. m. to day to take action on a proposition that will be submitted to adjust the trouble between the textile workers and Enterprise Silk

Co. Just what the proposition will be we are not able to state at this time. Thomas H. Flynn, of Pittsburg, nation al organizer for American Federation of Labor, has been in town a day or two with a view of getting the strike settled. Albert Sterns, of New York City, treasurer of the Enterprise Silk Co., is here in the interest of the company. and he and Mr. Flynn had a conference yesterday afternoon. It is to be hoped that the difficulty will be amicably settled this afternoon and that the mill will soon be running full capacity again.

Badly Shaken Up.

A sleighing party from this place drove over to Reynoldsville last Wednesday evening and enjoyed a dance and supper. While passing through Anita on their way home, about five o'clock Thursday morning, the horses got beyond control, and in his endeavors to check them the driver broke one of the would rather die than face the future ines. This steered the team into a Board of Trade.

We published an article last week 'Squire Jerry G. Allen, of Allens Mills, is one of the public spirited and about resurrecting the old board of trade or organizing a new board. prominent citizens of that neighbut as yet no definite action has been borhood, who took an active part taken along that line. The matter at farmers' institute last week. He has been discussed, but there should and his son, Dillis S. Allen, are be more than talk about this matter, engaged in the mercantile business and this is the time of year to begin under the firm name of J. G. active work. Industries are now look-Allen & Son, and their store is not a ing for locations so that they can have little country store, but it is a large all details arranged and be ready to put general store, equal in size to some of up buildings when spring opens,

This is a matter of vital importance building is 24x76 feet. First floor is used for store and second floor for town to all the property owners, business hall. Jerry Allen, as he is familiarly men and laboring people of the town, but of course they will not all become known, has resided in Beechwoods all interested and help organize a board of his life. He was born at Rockdale Mills. Has resided at present location trade. The work of building up a town and getting new industries here will forty years. Was married to Miss M. fall on a comparatively few, but that is J. Morrison, sister of Robert F. Morrithe way it is in all towns, and the son, thirty-two years ago. Mr. Allen question is can we get the few stirred has had a varied business experience. up sufficiently to get the board of trade having been engaged in lumbering, to become a real live organization? If farming, grist mill, carpentering, meran active board is started there is no cantile business, &c. He is now justice doubt about the results, and that is we of the peace and postmaster at Allens will have more industries in this com-Mills, besides being the leading mermunity within a year than we have chant of Beechwoods. He is a jovial, now. More ladustries means more emgood natured gentleman upon whom ployment for labor and that means more the cares of life seems to rest lightly. noney in circulation. At one time Mr. Allen, who is a stal-

North Dakota

Mrs. Jesse Hover, of Rishee, North Assemblyman, but the nomination did Dakota, who is visiting relatives in this not reach his domicile. He would make section, gave us a copy of the North a good representative. Dakota Jubilee edition, January, 1902, of the Great Northern Bulletin, a magazine published at St. Paul, Minn. The We believe in giving boys all pos Bulletin is devoted entirely to showing sible privileges for having a good time, the advantage of taking up a free home so long as their sport is not injurious to stead in North Dakota, Montana, Idaho themselves or others, but we do think or Washington. The statement is they are over-stepping the line when made that there are millions of acres of they snow ball people driving along agricultural, grazing, fruit and timber the streets in sleighs or sleds. There land along the line of the Great North is an ordinance on the statute books of orn Railway in the four states named this municipality which says in subabove that will be given free by the stance, "that any person or persons government to actual occupants. One who shall engage in snow balling with hundred and sixty acres will be given in the borough, upon conviction of such offense before the burgess, or any justo every man who will live on the land and work it for five years. The hometice of the peace in the borough, forfeit, steads are being taken up fast. In 1900 and pay a fine not exceeding five dolthe population of Towner county, North lars and the costs of proceedings, and Dakota, was 6,491, in 1901 the populain default thereof shall be committed to tion of the same county had reached the borough lockup for a period not ex-10,000. A number of short letters from eeding forty-eight hours." men who have taken up homesteads in We are not anxious to see any of the Dakota appear in the Bulletin, and they oys fined or put in lock-up for snow speak very highly of that section of the balling, but such sport is very annoyountry. ing to people who drive into town, and

Mrs. Soffel Still Living.

Mrs. Kate Soffel, the prominent acto in the first great sensation of the twentieth century, is still living and has fair prospects of recovery. It were better for her and her family if she had met the same fate as John and Edward Biddle, the desperados whom she as sisted to escape from the Allegheny jai last Wednesday night. The writer of a ton cent novel could not imagine a story more thrilling than the true story o this episode. It is beyond the ken of man to conceive how an intelligent woman who professed to be a christian and who had a good home, kind husband and four bright children, could become so infatuated with a murderer who was sentenced to be hung, that she would sacrifice everything for the un certain hope of spending her life with such a villain. Mrs. Soffel now fully duced with all the sumptuous accessor ies which marked its famous metropolitan debut. realizes her awful situation and she Tickets are now on sale at McKnight's drug store, Brookville, and Reynoldsas it now appears to her.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

'Squire, Postmaster and Merchant, wart Republican, had a "political bee" in his hat and aspired to the office of

Snow Balling

Glimpses of the People who are Passing To and Fro.

H. H. Clayson spent Sunday in Kane. Miss Kate Delaney was in Brookville saturday.

Lawyor C. Mitchell was at Mahoning Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kimmel spent Sunday in DuBois.

Charles H. Young, of Tyler, visited the stores in large towns. The store in town a day last week.

> Miss Pearl Calket, of DuBols, visited Miss Annie Harding last week.

Miss Blanche Harding visited friends n DuBois several days last wook.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, of Brookville, is visiting Miss Sophia Heekman. W. L. Strauss, of Columbus, Ohlo, in visiting his mother near this place."

John D. Evans, candidate for register and recorder, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. C. R. Hall Is visiting hor daughter, Mrs. W. T. Darr, in Brookville.

Mrs. Charles S. Kirchartz visited her arents in Brookville the past week.

Father E. M. Driscoll, of Oil Oity, visited relatives in this place this week. Gil C. Reitz, candidate for register and recorder, was (in town yesterday Mrs. C. J. Boyles, of DuBols, visited Mrs. J. Van Reed in this place Saturday.

S. Roy Bartle, of Pittsburg, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Barry, in West-Reynoldsville.

C. J. Rhea, of Oll City, visited his daughter, Mrs. L. M. Simmons, in this place last week.

Will Kinnan, Todd Scoley, Misses Etta Shaffer and Amy Bates were in Brookville Friday.

R. F. Morrison, of Allens Mills, stopped off here yesterday on his way home from attending farmers' institute at Content.

Mrs. Edith McNutt, of New Bethleem, visited her uncle, 'Squire W. L. Johnston, in West Reynoldsville the past week.

Mrs. James Whamond and Mrs. Beveredge, of Dagus Mines, visited Mrs. John Berry on Worth street several days last week.

H. L. Schlabig and wife, of Buffalo, N. Y., who have been visiting the former's parents, returned to Buffalo the ordinance should be enforced and a the first of this week. stop put to such sport, even if some boy

Mrs. T. D. Brewer and Mrs. John Redding visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Marsh, at Punxsutawney the past week.

Francis O. Suttor, who has been clerk at National Hotel a few weeks, went to Harrisburg Monday to see a firm who wants him to travel for them.

Walter H. Clare, manager and buyer. or Millirens dry goods department, is in New York City this week buying a large stock of new spring goods.

Mrs. Minnie Meredith, who recently moved from Meredith to Reynoldsville, took her small son, James, to the Girard College in Philadelphia last week.

L. J. McEntire and wife visited in Clarion the past week. Mr. McEntire returned home the first of week and Mrs. McEntire will extend her visit with Clarion county friends.

D. B. Harding, who has been working at Warrentown, came home Mon-

The country roads in some sections are impassable on account of snow drifts.

The Punxsulawney Spirit made its appearance last week in a new dress of type.

Robert Ainsley, of Soldier, had his right shoulder dislocated one day last week by falling.

Mercantile Appraisor O. H. Broadhead expects to start next week on his trip over the county.

Since the new dynamo was put in operation at the power house the street lights have been excellent.

P. B. Chitester, brakeman on R. & F. C. R'y night crew, dislocated his left ankle last Thursday night while at work.

A number of Reynoldsville people expect to go to Brookville to-morrow evening to see Robert Mantell play "Hamlet."

The eastbound train due here at 12.52 p. m. was almost four hours late yesterday. The Pittsburg papers came on that train.

Rev. A. J. Meek, Ph. D., is in Du Bols this week assisting Rev. Vulkoff in conducting special services in the Baptist church

Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will begin a series of sermons next Sunday on the Ten mandments.

Last Thursday afternoon Mrs. G. M mald held a delightful luncheon at her home on Main street in honor of the Clionian Club. It was a very enjoyable affair.

Dr. John H. Murray was called to Brookville yesterday on account of the an illness of bis nephew, Walter urray, youngest son of County Comner W. C. Murray.

Ten persons were baptised in the arob at this place last Sunevening. Next Sunday morning will be taken into the lie Baptist church.

which time the advisability of extending the Summerville telephone line to Sandy Valley, Falls Creek and Sykesville was to be considered. The meeting was postponed until February 16th. There is little doubt but that the line will be extended to these towns.

Another case of small-pox has been reported in Jefferson county. A young man named Harry Walters, of Sigel, is the victim. It is stated that a large number of persons had come in contact with Walters before it was known that he had small-pox, and consequently the people of that section are considerably exercised over the matter. The authorities have ordered the schools of Sigel to be closed.

Invitations are out for a benefit ball to be held at Frank's Pavilion, Reynoldsville, February 10th. The dance will be under the auspices of Local Charles Davis, who is located at Mexico City, Mexico, in the employ of the Union No. 542, U. M. W. of A., for bene-Mexican Gold and Silver Recovery Co., fit of the union people who were up for in which Charles stated that he was trial at the recent term of court on charge of riot. Stitler's orchestra will just starting on a trip into Guerrero, a furnish the music. The invitation state south of Mexico, to examine an committee is Henry Bone, Arthur iron mine for his company. He said

Clawson and Charles Bloomsted

out of the dance

have to travel seven days on a mule's A charter has been granted to the back. While in Guerrero, which is on Falls Creek Water company. The the Pacific coast, Charles is to locate a Herald says "that if the company rerailroad to the coast for his company.

ceives the proper encouragement at the hands of the borough council it is their "McKinley Day" In Public Schools purpose to go right on with supplying Last Wednesday being "McKinley the town with one of the best water Day" a special program was given in systems in this section of the state and Assembly hall in the afternoon. Not that work on the same will be comonly all the pupils of the public schools menced as soon as the proper agreement of this borough were present, but a can be made with the council.'

number of parents and patrons were also present. The program was as fol-The largest dance held in Reynolds ville for years was the one held at lows: Song by School, "Nearer My Frank's Pavilion last Wednesday under God to Thee;" invocation, Rev. A. J. the auspices of Division No. 1, Ancient Meek, Ph. D.; Song by School, "Lead Order of Hibernians. It is elaimed that Kindly Light;" recitation, Miss Ethelyn about 175 couples attended the dance. Winslow; Song by School, "America;" Oration, "William McKinley," by Fred There were two sled load of people from DuBois, two loads from Punx-

Smith: Song by School, "All Hall Fair sutawney and one load from Rathmel. America;" Address, Hon. S. B. Elliott Song by School, "Star Spangled Ban-Refreshments were on sale at pavilion. The order realized a soug sum of money ner;" Address, Dr. A. J. Meek; Song School, "We'll Stand by the Fing."

gas engine weighs ten tons. It will be ready for operation about the first of next week.

No Frost on Windows, People who pay much attention to store windows will notice that while all other store windows of town are covered with frost that there is no frost on the display windows of Bing-Stoke Company, Jas. W. Gillespie, a member of the firm, who is a genius, got up a scheme for the windows that keeps them from being covered with frost. We understand that Mr. Gillespie has applied for a patent on this anti-frost contrivance. If properly worked it ought to be a money-maker.

Seven Days on a Mule's Back, The first of this week M. M. Davis, Esq., received a letter from his son, that after leaving the railroad he would picket fence and several of the party received serious injuries. Miss Roberts received a bad cut above the eve, requiring soveral stitches. Miss Eagan was also cut about the head and face. as was also Michael Callanan. The party stopped at the Benson House and had their injuries attended to and drove to this place about 10 o'clock .- Punxsutawney Republican.

New Sheriff Appointed.

Mention was made in THE STAR last week that J. M. Chesnutt, sheriff of Jefferson county, had resigned and that a petition had been sent to Governor Stone requesting that W. E. Chesnutt, son of

J. M. Chesnutt, be appointed to succeed his father as sheriff of the county The appointment was made Thursday W. E. Chesnutt received his commis slon Friday, filed his bonds and is now sheriff. Ex-Sheriff Chesnutt resigned his office to go into the hotel business Mr. Chesnutt has bought the National Hotel in DuBois, the deal was closed Friday. He will take charge of the hotel himself.

"Picturesque Public Men."

Champ Clark is one of the foremos Americans of his day. He is a conspicu ous and unique figure in Congress, a writer of originality and force, a magnetic orator, an enthusiast in everything he undertakes .- Anaconda (Mont.) Standard. At Assembly hall Friday evening, February 7th. Subject "Picturesque Public Men." Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store.

Judge John W. Reed, of this county, is in Clearfield this week assisting Judge Gordon.

Hair ornaments at Suffers.

Gibson's optical work has always been satisfactory. At Hotel Imperial February 13.

All coats and capes reduced at Sutaffairs."

Sleighs, sleighs, sleighs, sleds and back runners, at a big reduction. L. M. Snyder, Jackson street.

Attended Masonic Conclave

Frank A. McConnell, proprietor of Frank's Tayern, and A. P. Weitzel were in Williamsport last week attending the three-days' conclave of Scottish Rite Masons, which closed with a large banquet Friday evening. About 400 Masons, including prominent members of the order from a distance were present. The Masonic Temple banquet hall was not large enough to accommodate all present and the over-flow was accommodated at the Updergraff. Mr. McConnell says the banquet room was a scene of beauty. The decorations were extra fine. The side walls and ceilings were completely covered with drapery, tastly arranged.

Eight colors, yellow, black, purple, green, white, red, ceries and blue were used in the decorations, each color being emblematic of a certain degree.

Prohibition Ticket.

The Prohibitionists of West Reynoldsville nominated the following ticket:

Constable, Al. D. Siple. High constable, Jeremiah East. Town council, G. W. Palen, G. G. Williams, D. B. Stauffer, J. W. Demp-School directors, Philip Koehler, J. C. McEntire.

Auditor, W. B. Stauffer

Judge of election, Geo. W. Dempsey. Inspector, William Burge, jr.

At a meeting of Elk county Democrats, held at Ridgway last Thursday, resolutions were unanimously adopted endorsing Congressman James K. P. Hall, of Ridgway, "as the Democratic nominee for the governorship of Pennsylvania and commend him to all as a gentleman distinguished, reliable, able and worthy the support of all men who desire efficiency, integrity and economy in the administration of gubernatoria

The Elks are talking of moving into as on second floor

Blankets at Sutters at cost.

ville people can order seats by tele phone. The train due here at 9:52 will be held at Brookville until after the show.

Squire Martin Disappears.

John Martin, of Eleanora, the youngest justice of the peace in Jefferson county, left suddenly a short time ago, taking with him $210 he had collected for the Italians besides all the money he could borrow from his friends.

has to be punished.

"Hamlet" at Brookville.

Accompanied by the strongest organ zation on the road and with entirely new costumes, properties and scenery

Mr. Robert Mantell, the eminent tragedian, will appear at Belvedere opera house Brookville, Thursday evening of this week, Feb. 6th. Mr. Mantell's repettoire is replete with dramas and tragedies representing the masterpieces of the world's famous dramatic authors including "Hamlet," "Othello," "Lady of Lyons," "Richard III," "Richelieu

and "Romeo and Juliet." The play selected for his engagement at Brookville is "Hamlet," which will be pro-

Martin was elected justice of the peace of Henderson township three years ago when he was only twenty-five ears of age.

After he received his commission he esigned his job in the mines, thinking he could make enough out of the office to keep him. Business in that line was not rushing, however, and he soon be gan to borrow money from his friends. A short time ago he received an account of $210 from an Italian for collection. He collected the money and disappeared .- Punxsutawney Republican.

Democratic Ticket.

The Democrats of West Reynoldsville nominated the following ticket last Wednesday:

Constable, Fred F. Schurig. Council, Charles Arnold, Richard W. Miller, David Bollinger and Wilson Gross. School directors, James M. Moore and James Hoffman. High constable, Arnold P. McKee. Auditor, William P. Woodring.

Judge of election, L. W. Perrin. Inspector, Andrew Vorscheck.

Children's outing night dresses at Sutters.

Mackinaws and homespuns at half price to close out at Reynoldsville Woolen Mill. 300 yds mackinaw 54 inch, in black, brown, blue, and grey, at 60c. yd., just the thing for overshirts and horse blankets. Also 1.000 yds homespun 54 inch at 35c. yd., these are first class bargains. Did you see those cheap shirt waists day to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harding. He says that ten inches of snow fell at Warrentown Sunday.

Mrs. William Copping and daughter. Miss Bertha, who started from this place for England December 4th, are expected home on Friday of this week. They are coming over on the Cymric and expect to land at New York City to-day.

Arthur McClure, who was a student in the State College, has quit school to accept a position with Miller, Mason & Co., of Pittsburg, dealers in cement, sewer pipes, &c. Arthur came home Friday and went to Pittsburg Saturday to accept the position.

S. H. McDonough, of Emporium, who has charge of the yards of Emporium Iron Co., was in town this week trying to make arrangements to get coke shipped from here to Emporium. Uness the company can get more coke the iron works will have to be shut down.

I. O. O. F. Re-Union at Ridgway.

The Odd Fellows' parade and convention at Ridgway on the 26th of April promises to be one of the most interesting the Order has yet held in this district. The occasion is the celebration of the 83d natal day of the establishment of the Three Link fraternity in America. The Ridgway meeting is under the auspices of the Northwestern Anniversary Association, I. O. O. F., of Pa., an organization composed of the Lodges, Encampments, Cantons and Rebekah Lodges of Erie, Elk, Clarion, Clearfield, Forest, Warren, Jefferson, Crawford and McKean counties, and having for its object the advancement of interest in the Order of Odd, Fellowship in this section of the State, the bringing of the Lodges in the several counties represented into a closer fraternal relation, and the establishment of a suitable observation of the birthday of the Order in America. Speakers of well known ability will be at Ridgway, and the parade will be worth going miles to see. The members of the order in this part of the district are looking forward to a "big day."