The Druggist.

A Little of Everything.

Abraham Lincoln's birthday. This is the first day of lent. Martha Washington Tea, Feb. 22 February 14th is St. Valentine day. Martha Washington tea at Bell's hall. Williams Stock Co. at opera house Feb. 17th. Ice cream and cake at Martha Washington tea. "Little Trilix" at the Reynolds opera house February 20th. A sled load of Prescottville people drove to DuBois Monday. The benefit dance at Frank's Pavilion Monday evening was fairly well attended. The Utopia Society will hold a social at the M. E. parsonage next Friday evening. Miss Bertha Bowser entertained a number of her young friends last Thursday evening. The Williams Stock Company at the Reynolds opera house next Monday night, February 17th. Hopkins mill has a number of large orders for lumber but cannot get the cars to ship the lumber on. Miss Lulu Thomas, of Prescottville, fell down stairs one day last week and sprained one of her ankles. An illustrated lecture of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," will be given in Centennial hall next Friday evening. A large number of the members of Reynoldsville P. O. S. of A. will visit the P. O. S. of A. Camp at Falls Creek Friday evening of this week. The main shaft on engine No. 1, which runs the rope haulage in Big Soldier mine, broke Saturday, causing a few days idleness in that mine. At the last meeting of town council it was decided to take final action on the paving of Fourth street, from Grant to Jackson street. See minutes of council. The Kaffir Boy Choir will appear at Assembly hall Friday evening, February 25th. This same company of African lads gave an entertainment in Assembly hall last winter. An arc light has been put up in center of iron bridge that spans the Sandy Lick creek between Reynoldsville and West Reynoldsville. That was a point where a light was badly needed.

The county commissioners' financial statement shows that the dogs of Jefferson county are fond of mutton, as the sheep claims amounted to $958.74 during 1901.

H. M. Foltz, teacher of Foltz school, Winslow township, resigned and the school board appointed Miss Orpha Beer to teach that school during the balance of present term.

A local institute will be held in the Baptist church at Sykesville next Saturday. There will be two sessions, forenoon and afternoon. A good program has been arranged for the institute.

In our notice two weeks ago of the persons who went from Paradise to Denmark, South Carolina, we unintentionally omitted the name of Jonathan Deemer, who accompanied the party.

Fortunati Barletto, an Italian, died at his home at Soldier, yesterday forenoon, aged 48 years. Pneumonia was cause of death. Funeral services in the Catholic church at this place this afternoon.

The Mothers' Club meeting in Assembly hall last Friday afternoon was well attended and was an interesting meeting. County Superintendent R. B. Tetrick was present and delivered an address.

February 10th, 1902, W. J. Shaffer, agent of the Central Accident Insurance Co., paid Frank J. Black, proprietor of The Mansion, Reynoldsville, Pa., three hundred ($300) dollars for a dislocated collar bone caused by a fall.

Thomas Madatine and Ben Poali, two Italians of Shawmut, had a hearing before Squire Powers at Ridgway Saturday on the charge of murder, and the men were both held for trial at next term of court, which will be held in May. Madatine shot and killed James Hookins January 25th.

Frank Deltz, present proprietor of Hotel Belnap, whose lease expires the 16th of this month, has rented a house on Jackson street and will move out of the hotel next Monday to give W. W. Wiley, the new proprietor, possession. Mr. Deltz has not fully decided yet what he will do in the future.

Miss Arcola Proy, a clever vaudeville actress of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived in Reynoldsville Saturday evening. She and Albert Harris, of Reynoldsville, who has been traveling with a first-class company several seasons, will put several good plays on at this place, assisted by some of the best talent they can get in Reynoldsville.

L. J. McEntire and wife, who were visiting in Clarion county, were snow-bound the first of last week and Mr. McEntire had to leave his wife, horse and sleigh between snow drifts—with friends, however—and come home to look after business matters. Last Thursday he returned to Clarion county and brought his wife and horse and sleigh home.

A. V. Armstrong, generally known as "Mickie," who resided in Reynoldsville a number of years ago, has engaged in the coal business at Mahoning, Pa. James Frazier, formerly of this place, who was interested in the Stratwell, Hibbard & Co. coal mines at Fuller, is mine boss for Mr. Armstrong. In a letter to F. A. McConnell Mr. Armstrong said he needed a number of good coal miners.

John E. Flynn, who was a partner with James E. Mitchell in the merchant tailoring business at this place, and who intended to continue the business here after Mr. Mitchell sold out to him, finally decided to move his shop to Clarksburg, West Va., and at noon Monday he started for Clarksburg. Mr. Flynn is a first-class tailor. His many friends were sorry to see him leave town.

About seven o'clock last Friday evening the hall on first floor of Imperial Hotel was filled with wood smoke and on investigation it was found to be issuing from side of wall in the wash room, where the chimney from heater goes through. The chimney had gotten so hot that the wood against it, where chimney goes through floor, was smoking, but it had been discovered before it began to blaze. Had it occurred in the night it would at least have created some excitement.

The good sleighing is a bonanza for liverymen, but hard on livery horses. Late yesterday afternoon liveryman E. C. Burns took a four-horse load of Baptist ladies to DuBois in his "Columbia" to attend church. He returned home in time to take a load of young ladies to DuBois to attend a dance. Then he brought the Baptist ladies home and returned to DuBois in time to bring the young ladies home after the dance. He took fresh horses for each trip.

James E. Mitchell, the merchant tailor who has been in business at this place sometime but has sold his interests here and expects to locate at Richmond, Ky., left this place Saturday bound for Kentucky. He expects to stop at half dozen towns in Virginia en route to see if he can find anything better than awaits him at Richmond. Mr. Mitchell will leave his wife and daughter in Reynoldsville until he decides definitely on his location. James is a fine young man, his friends are numerous and it is with regret they bade him good bye.

Laid Up With Appendicitis. P. McDonald, the lumberman of this place, who was laid up ten days with appendicitis, is able to get out of the house again. Mr. McDonald did not have to undergo an operation.

Trip to Knoxdale. Thirty-two anti-club ladies of this place drove to Knoxdale Friday and took dinner at Hotel Hopkins. There were just enough snow drifts and narrow escapes from upsets to make the trip real interesting for the ladies.

Dozen Cases of Small-Pox. We were informed Monday that there are at least a dozen cases of small-pox in the neighborhood of Eleanora. That being a fact it will be necessary for people to exercise considerable care that the disease is not carried to other sections of the county.

Church Burned. The M. E. church at Beechtree was burned down Sunday afternoon. An overheated stove is thought to have been the cause of the fire. Several years ago the Methodists of Beechtree lost their church by fire. It is doubtful whether the church will be rebuilt the third time.

Initiation and Stag Social. Six new members will be initiated in Lodge No. 519, B. P. O. E. of Reynoldsville this evening. The new members are from Rathmel, Eleanora and Brookville. That will make the membership number 106. After the initiation a stag social will be held in the Elk rooms. Turkey, oysters and other palatable things will be served.

Swallowed Iodine. John Andrew Walsh, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walsh, of Jackson street, got hold of a bottle of iodine Monday morning and was tasting it when the discovery was made that the little chap had the poison. A doctor was quickly summoned and he administered an antidote and the boy was all right yesterday. He did not swallow enough of the iodine for serious results to follow, but it was a narrow escape.

Hand Injured. G. Clyde Deemer, son of Jonathan Deemer of Henderson township, who was employed at Deemer's furniture factory in Brookville, came very nearly losing his left hand while at work on the "dado." The machine caught him on the fleshy part of the hand, near wrist joint, and took a piece out of hand and also took a piece off the end of wrist bone. Clyde remained in Brookville until Monday under a doctor's care, but he is now at his home. He will be unable to work for a couple of months.

Unjustly Accused. An article was published in the Folio last week about some persons poisoning dogs on Pleasant avenue, and some person clipped the article, put it in a sealed envelope and mailed same to Chauncey Harding. Mr. Harding has no idea who sent the clipping to him, but he takes it as an insinuation that some one thinks that he is the person who has been poisoning dogs. Mr. Harding requested us to state that he is not guilty of putting out the poison, had nothing to do with it and does not know who the guilty parties are.

Quick Turn Causes Upset. A. P. King, who drives a spirited horse, created a little excitement on Main street Monday evening. His horse was standing in front of the Reynolds Hardware Co. store headed the opposite direction from home, and when Mr. King got into the sleigh the horse made a quick turn, upsetting the sleigh and spilling Mr. King out on the street. He hung on to the lines and several bystanders hastened to his assistance and the horse did not get away. After the sleigh was turned right side-up again it was found that no damage had been done.

New Appointment for Dr. Kaucher. We learn that Dr. Howard L. Kaucher has been appointed physician and surgeon on the Schuylkill Division of the P. R. R., with headquarters at Reading, Pa. Dr. Kaucher served as house surgeon at the Harrisburg Hospital and on completion of his term of service at that institution was appointed one of the resident physicians at the Philadelphia Hospital, finishing a year's service at that place on January 1, 1902. He had already opened an office in Philadelphia, but when the above position was tendered to him, with its opportunities and advantages, he concluded to accept it.

Champ Clark's Lecture. Champ Clark, of Bowling Green, Mo., one of the prominent Democrats now in Congress, who has the reputation in the House of being an orator, lectured in Assembly hall at this place last Friday evening to a large and appreciative audience. Champ was suffering with a very bad cold and was not at himself, however, he delivered a good lecture and for one hour and a half he held the close attention of his audience. The title of his lecture was "Picturesque Public Men." He gave a good description of Congress and what an aspirant to a seat in that body might expect when he got to Washington. He recited a few of the amusing things that occur in Congress.

WE GET ANOTHER INDUSTRY.

Large Woolen Mill to be Erected at Reynoldsville This Spring. It is now an assured thing that George W. Sykes, who has been engaged in the woolen mill business at Reynoldsville twenty years, will erect a large brick mill at this place just as soon as the work can be done. Mr. Sykes expects the building to be completed before the first of May. The building is to be 72x100 feet. It will be erected on Mabel street, near Fourth street. The mill is to be up-to-date in every respect and will be equipped with the latest improved machinery. At least 30 people will be given work as soon as the mill is ready for operation, and the employees will be increased as the work increases.

Another town offered Mr. Sykes good inducements to get him to build his mill there, but having resided here so many years, he preferred to remain here if Reynoldsville people would give him a bonus of $600.00, which was promised and a large part of that amount has already been subscribed. The town could not afford to lose such an industry for the small sum of $600.00.

County Commissioners' Statement. In this issue of THE STAR will be found the county commissioners' annual statement and county auditors' report, which should be carefully perused by the taxpayers of the county. These reports show that the county affairs have been handled in a careful and judicious manner by the present board of commissioners. The taxpayers of the county should congratulate themselves on the fact that a good board of commissioners had charge of the county business during the building of the poor house. Mr. Murray, who is now serving his second term, is not a candidate for re-election, but Mr. Webster is asking the Republicans to nominate him for the second term and Mr. Hawk will come before the Democrats at the proper time for the nomination for second term. Both these gentlemen have proven themselves to be efficient and worthy men for the office of county commissioner and the voters should see that they get a second term.

Daughters of Rebekah. The Daughters of Rebekah, Lady Winslow Lodge, of this place, served a banquet in the I. O. O. F. hall last evening to visiting Daughters from Falls Creek and DuBois. There were 20 members of Ada Lodge, Falls Creek, and 18 members from Leota Lodge, DuBois, present. Mrs. James Davidson, of Brookwayville, and Miss Mary Bell, of Punxsutawney, came here especially to enjoy the feast of good things. After the banquet the regular meeting of Lady Winslow Lodge was held and after that ice cream and cake was served. There were 30 members of the Reynoldsville Rebekahs present, which made quite a large crowd of the fair sex, and it is hardly necessary to add that they had a real pleasant time.

Installed Sunday. Rev. Harry G. Tengarden, Ph. D., was formally installed last Sunday as pastor of the Anita and Eleanora congregation of the Cumberland Presbyterian church. The installation services were held in the Anita church at 3.30 p. m. The sermon was preached by Rev. R. L. Irving, of Punxsutawney. The charge to the pastor was delivered by Rev. J. M. Vanhorn, of Valier, and the charge to the congregation by Rev. Irving. The attendance was fair considering the stormy weather. Rev. Tengarden is an able and earnest preacher. He will do good work at Anita and Eleanora.

Kaffir Boy Choir. The Kaffir Boy Choir of Mr. J. H. Balmer is the most unique, impressive and splendid testimony of its kind given to the public to-day. It bespeaks the prospects of the Dark Continent with unmistakable voice. It shows the colonizing genius of the Anglo-Saxon race to the full. The musical selections are beyond praise. The taste, beauty and tone are simply indescribable. I hear them whenever I have opportunity. S. Sparkes Cadman, Pastor Metropolitan Temple, New York City. At Assembly hall Friday evening, Feb. 28.

Buried Two Sons. John T. Coax, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Coax, of Allegheny City, died week before last and the parents brought body to DuBois for burial and before returning home visited Mr. Coax's mother, Mrs. J. T. Coax, near this place. While visiting there their youngest son, George, Jr., took pneumonia and died Sunday. Was buried in DuBois yesterday.

Men's tan shoes that cost from $2.50 to $3.00 per pair we are selling out at $1.50 per pair. Johnston & Nolan. Big bargains. Why shiver when you can get a heating stove at Priester Bros. at a very price. All coats and capes reduced at Sutters. Bargains in shoes. Men's tan shoes that cost from $2.50 to $3.00 we are selling out at $1.50 per pair. Johnston & Nolan. Try H. W. Eason & Co. for good values in men's and boys' suits.

Shakespearian Drama at Brookville.

Robert B. Mantoll, the eminent tragedian, and his company of players appeared in the Belvedere opera house, Brookville, last Thursday night in that perennial Shakespearian drama, "Hamlet." Mr. Mantoll is a star in his line and the play was well received by the majority of the audience. To some it was apparently a dry play. While there were six or seven hundred people present, yet the attendance was not as large as Manager A. P. Way anticipated. A number of Reynoldsville people attended the show, going down on the 5.30 p. m. train and returning on the late train, which was held at Brookville an hour and a half to accommodate the people from this place and DuBois. Among the Reynoldsville people who went to see "Hamlet," were: Dr. A. C. Wheeler and wife, W. H. Bell and wife, John O'Hare and wife, D. M. Damsmore and wife, M. J. Farrell and wife, Misses Mayme Sutter, Kittle Shiek, Mary Burgoon, Katie Lydon, Minnie Wagner, Mollie Driscoll, Katie Fitzpatrick, Dr. Harry B. King, Prof. G. W. Lenkord, Dr. W. A. Henry, L. L. Gourley, John H. Wagner, Henry Priester and a representative of THE STAR.

Popular at Home. Henry I. Wilson, Esq., of Big Run, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Assembly, is a very popular candidate in his home town. We saw a paper yesterday that had been circulated in Big Run, without Mr. Wilson's solicitation or advice, which was signed by 108 Republican voters of that borough—all the Republican voters of Big Run borough—endorsing him for Assemblyman. The heading of the paper was as follows:

"We, the undersigned Republican voters of the borough of Big Run, do hereby certify that we are well acquainted with Hon. Henry I. Wilson, who has been a resident of this place for about nine years, and we take this opportunity of publicly endorsing his candidacy for re-election as Assemblyman. We know him to be a man of good moral character, being honest, temperate and trustworthy in every respect. We maintain that his record as a man and as representative during the session of 1899 entitles him to a second nomination without opposition, and we urge the Republicans of this county to give him their support."

A Grand Attraction. Theatre-goers will be given a great treat on Monday evening, February 17, when the Williams Stock Company will present that grand success, "A Mountain Hero," at Reynolds opera house. Miss Hilda Tucker, the charming soprano, will be seen in the leading role, supported by an extra strong cast. This play was written for Miss Tucker by Theodore Kramer, a young play-wright of great promise, who has done excellent work for Crane, Mansfield and other stars, of the theatrical world. It is just the sort of a play that appeals to the sympathies of the theatre-goers. It is abounding in life, vigor and pathos; it is intensely real and is replete with charming scenes, which lead up to startling climaxes that are well carried out by this company of players. A strong line of refined specialties will be introduced between the acts, also illustrated songs and moving pictures. The prices for this engagement are only 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Brilliant Orator. John Temple Graves, of Georgia, who lectured in Centennial hall about seven years ago on "The Reign of the Demagogue," and was listened to with pleasure by a large number of Reynoldsville people, who have not forgotten his eloquence, will lecture in Assembly hall on Wednesday evening of next week, February 19th. His subject this time will be "The New Woman and the old."

Lincoln Day. Next Sunday will be observed at the M. E. church with special services. At the morning service the theme will be "Opportunities in the Southland," in the evening an address on "Lincoln the Great." An offering will be taken for educational work in the south. Special music. A cordial invitation to every one.

In the notice of election of officers of the Star Glass Co., appearing in the papers, it was stated that Mr. W. F. Marshall had been elected secretary-manager. Mr. Marshall was elected secretary and engaged as business manager. This does not in any way effect Mr. Bennett, who had previously been engaged as factory manager and has full charge of the production of glass.

Big bargains in ladies' shoes at Johnston & Nolan's. Shoes that cost from $2.50 to $3.00 per pair are now selling at 50 cents to $1.50 per pair. Come and see them. Sleighs, sleighs, sleighs, sleds and hack runners, at a big reduction. L. M. Snyder, Jackson street. If you need a heating stove go to Priester Bros. They are selling stoves at extremely low prices. Blankets at Sutters at cost.

SILK STRIKE ENDED!

Agreement Signed Yesterday—Some Old Employees Returned to Work This Morning.

ARBITRATORS TO BE APPOINTED. Strike was on Over Five Months—Article of Agreement, which We Publish Below, to Hold Good One Year.

The silk mill strike at this place, which was inaugurated the 3rd of last September, was settled yesterday afternoon and the winders returned to work this morning, warpers will return to work to-morrow morning and the others will be taken back as soon as the company can get ready for them. The article of agreement was signed by the president of the Enterprise Silk Co. at New York City on Saturday, Feb. 8th, and was signed by officers of Local Union No. 250, of this place yesterday, and is now in force and is to hold good for one year. Below we publish a copy of the article of agreement, which is as follows:

ARTICLE OF AGREEMENT. Article of agreement between the Enterprise Silk Company of the first part and Local Union No. 250, Textile Workers of America, of the second part, do hereby agree to arbitrate differences in wages now existing between said parties on the following conditions: 1st. That the arbitration committee shall not be confined to any state or states, or any mill or mills. 2nd. That the old employees will return to work and that the company pay according to the finding of the arbitration committee from day they start to work. 3rd. In case of trouble arising between employer and employees, that the shop committee shall make an appointment with the superintendent for adjustment, and in case of no agreement it shall be referred to the New York office and also the Local Union No. 250 for final agreement. 4th. That the company shall, on each pay day, give a statement accompanying check to signify the number of yards and price per yard, also number of hours and price per hour. 5th. That we resume work at the same hours per day, which means start to work at 7.00 a. m. work until 12.00, take one hour for dinner, resume work at 1.00 p. m. and work until 6.00 p. m., which means ten hours per day. 6th. That our former nightwatchman be reinstated at his former position, or that he be given employment at some work paying the same wages, to take effect on or before March 1st, 1902. 7th. That all warpers, twistors, winders and quillers be started to work, and all weavers to be put to work as soon as possible, all to be employed on or before the 15th of March, 1902. 8th. That the findings of the arbitration committee shall be the prices paid for one year, and that one month's notice to be given if any change is to be made by either side. 9th. That each party appoint one arbitrator and that the two arbitrators appoint a third, the company to pay expenses of their arbitrator and half the expenses of third, and the organization pay expenses of their arbitrator and half the expenses of the third. Copy of above agreement given to Textile Union was signed in New York Feb. 8, by A. Openhy, president Enterprise Silk Co., and the copy given to Enterprise Silk Co. was signed Feb. 11, by officers of Local Union No. 250, as follows: Walter S. Kerr, president; Lizzie Bolger, Secretary; Annie O'Connor, financial secretary.

Flag Day. Friday of next week is Flag Day in the public schools of Jefferson county and from the catalogue and program issued by County Superintendent Tetrick for county institute last December, we clip the following: The relation of a man to his country and his feelings concerning it are no small part of the whole sum of human life. Children should be taught to love their country, to value its institutions, to appreciate all that patriotism stands for. Friday, February 21, 1902, is therefore set apart as Flag Day. It is suggested that each teacher arrange a literary program for a part of the day. Send a cordial invitation to your parents and directors to be present. Make suitable decorations. Let at least one flag float in or over every school in the county on this day. Let the program be a patriotic one pertaining to the flag and appropriate to Washington's birthday.

Old Scale Continued. At the joint conference of miners and operators of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, held at Indianapolis, it was decided Friday night that the same scale of prices be continued that have prevailed throughout the field for the last year, with the following exceptions and modifications: The operators of the Pittsburgh district concede the checkoff system. The Illinois operators will meet the miners in joint conference and arbitrate all disputes arising in that field; local unions will take up the 10 per cent increase demanded by the miners, and if upon the examination of the books of the operators it is shown that there has been an increase of 10 per cent in the amount of business done, or in the price of the commodity, the demand is to be granted by the operators.

A Gifted Orator. George R. Wendling says of John Temple Graves: "I recently heard Mr. Graves in his lecture on the Negro Problem. He impressed me as an orator whose gifts are not surpassed by those of any man on the American platform to-day. I was not only charmed and delighted by his manner and style, but I was also profoundly stirred by his brave, lofty and original presentation of a great question. Here is a voice from the South which I hope this whole nation will hear." At Assembly hall February 19.

Johnston & Nolan are selling shoes at a big sacrifice. See the bargains they are offering. Hair ornaments at Sutters. I am selling sleighs, sleds and hack runners at a "way down" price. Call and see them. L. M. Snyder. Dress skirts at Sutters.
