The attraction this week at the Grand Theatre is a success. "Little Trixie" is a well-written and clever comedy-drama in which "Trixie" has a good opportunity to show to good advantage. She appears in it in six different characters, and displays her versatility in every one. There are some thrilling situations in the piece and lively and musical climaxes. The girls in the company are pretty and versatile and add some good specialties.—Boston Herald. At Reynolds opera house Feb. 26. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

About one year ago, when Roman E. Koehler, now editor of the Donora American, was foreman of THE STAR office, he made application for a position in the Government printing office at Washington, D. C. Recently he received an appointment to work in "Uncle Sam's" printing office, which came through the civil service commission. The position tendered Mr. Koehler is a good one, but he has decided to remain in Donora.

Vast amphitheater crowded in every available corner—The audience more than delighted. Wonderful. They were enthusiastic and at one point of the program, in response to a signal by Bishop Vincent, gave J. H. Balmer and his band the famous Chautauqua salute. Surprising as enjoyable.—Chautauqua Herald. At Assembly hall February 28th. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store at 8.00 a. m. Saturday, February 23rd.

Lovers of fine music and genteel comedy will enjoy "Little Trixie." The company comes highly recommended and is artistic in every sense. The play is high class and refined, and the special ties first class in every respect. Patrons of the theatre may expect a rare musical and comedy treat. At Reynolds opera house Feb. 26. Tickets 25, 35 and 50 cents.

"The Sin of Lying" was the title of the International Sunday school lesson February 9th, which gave an account of a man and his wife dropping dead for lying. A little tot in one of the Sunday schools of Reynoldsville said if every person dropped dead for lying, there would be lots of dead people. That is a fact. There would be few people left in the world but editors.

In Ready to Wear Garments

We Shall carry nothing but the high-grade WOOLTEX Garments which were so successful with us last fall. WOOLTEX has become popular, even famous, all over the country, especially in the fashionable trade centers. The WOOLTEX people cater entirely to good trade and consequently make nothing shoddy or trashy. They are the only manufacturers in the United States who give every piece of goods an acid test before making up to determine whether the goods is all wool. They make no commercially all wool. It must be strictly all wool. That is what WOOLTEX means.
