STOKE,
 The Druggist.

A Little of Everything.

See "Little Trixie" Feb. 26.
 Saturday is Washington's birthday.
 The candidates will be missed for a while.
 Friday is "flag day" in the public schools.
 We owe the ground hog an apology. He did see his shadow.
 The P. R. R. pay car was over the Low Grade Division yesterday.
 The ground hog is making a good record as a weather prognosticator.
 W. C. Elliott, editor of the Volunteer, is confined to his home on account of illness.
 "Little Trixie" at the Reynoldsville opera house Wednesday evening, February 26th.
 The lock-up had one occupant Friday who was charged with being drunk and disorderly.
 An old time party will be given at residence of George Hughes, on Fourth street, this evening.
 Miss Mamie Plyler, clerk in Bing-Stoke Co. department store, has been off duty a week with tonsillitis.
 If all the people who read THE STAR were subscribers our subscription list would be considerably increased.
 Mrs. A. J. Meek served refreshments to the members of the Utopia Society at the Baptist parsonage Monday evening.
 The fellows who kept their "whistles wet" at the expense of the candidates will have to go dry or look for new victims.
 We have some new subscription receipts that we would be delighted to fill out for new subscribers or for those in arrears.
 As soon as the ice goes out of the Sundry Lick creek Hopkins large saw mill, near this place, will be started on this year's work.
 District Deputy D. W. Atwater, of this place, will organize a Protected Home Circle at Anita to-night with a large membership.
 A large sleighing party of Reynoldsville ladies drove to Brookville yesterday and took dinner at the Commercial Hotel.

All the members of the Mothers' Club are requested to be at the school building on Friday evening, the 21st, at 7:30, to receive visitors.

Everything seems to be running nicely at the silk mill now. The old employees are being taken back as fast as the company can arrange the work.

"Little Trixie" a play that pleases the people, will be produced at the Reynoldsville opera house on Wednesday night of next week, February 26.

Glen Himes, snapper at the glass plant, fell into one of the swinging pits, about fifteen feet deep, yesterday forenoon and injured his right hand badly.

For snow drifts and a long continued cold snap the present winter makes the oldest inhabitant scratch his head to recall a winter that goes ahead of this one.

While "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" was being played at Centennial hall Friday night some of the young men of town were playing ten bar rooms in one night.

Captain T. C. Reynolds, of Harrisburg, who votes in this borough, came to town Thursday evening to be here in time to shake hands with some of the candidates before election.

George Harris, of this place, who was before an examining board at DuBois several weeks ago for a mine foreman certificate, passed the examination and has been granted a certificate.

Fifteen members of Reynoldsville P. O. S. of A. visited the P. O. S. of A. lodge at Falls Creek last Friday night. One of them said the Falls Creek lodge has as fine a lodge room as he was ever in.

There will be no meeting of the C. L. S. C. this week on account of Book Reception at Assembly hall. The circle will meet next week with Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Wheeler and will take the two lessons.

Staff Captain and Mrs. Shepard, of the DuBois Salvation Army, and a number of soldiers will visit the Reynoldsville Salvation Army next Tuesday evening, February 25. Everybody invited to attend.

A. U. Moore, of Falls Creek, at one time a resident of Reynoldsville, was in town Monday and called at THE STAR office. Mr. Moore is just recovering from a seven week tussle with grippe and rheumatism.

J. M. Davis, accompanied by his two daughters, Misses Laura and Gertrude, and Miss Effie Spuller, drove to DuBois Friday. They went by way of Falls Creek, where they stopped a few minutes with relatives.

The special offering at the Presbyterian church on next Sabbath will be for the work of "The Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies." The morning sermon will be a study of the Second Commandment.

A. W. George and Miss Maude M. Broeche were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Broeche, in West Reynoldsville last Thursday afternoon, February 13, by Squire J. D. Woodring.

The Brookwayville Record, edited by G. R. Adam, entered its seventeenth year last week. The Record is a live local paper and is deserving the substantial support given it by the citizens of Brookwayville and that vicinity.

The Women's Relief Corps of this place held a "Valentine Social" in the L. O. F. hall last Friday evening. An admission of 10 cents was charged and the ladies took in over $20.00, which shows that the attendance was large.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will hold a Martha Washington Tea and Bazaar on Saturday next from 5.00 to 11.00 p. m. in Bell's hall. Come and get a good chicken supper for 25c. Ice cream and cake only 10c.

Grand Chancellor Dr. Charles Ernest, of Punsutawney, accompanied by Scott Rodgers and Charles Chambers, visited the Knights of Pythias lodge at this place last Wednesday evening. After the regular meeting of lodge the visitors and members present enjoyed an oyster supper.

Edward O'Reilly, ex-street commissioner of Reynoldsville, has opened a barbershop in Punsutawney and will move to that place as soon as he can get a dwelling. Mr. O'Reilly is a member of the famous Keystone band of Reynoldsville. His numerous friends here are sorry to have him leave town.

August Guthrie, who drives one of Fred Burns' teams, was hauling a load of coal to silk mill Monday morning and in going down the steep grade near corner of Fifth and Jackson streets the hind end of sled tried to get down the hill first and an upset was the result. The sled had to be taken to repair shop.

Mr. J. H. Balmer and his party once heard will never be forgotten. Their singing is wonderful. We were favored by having Mr. Balmer and his Africans twice. The whole town was aroused to the highest pitch of admiration.—Thomas Wakefield, Derby, England. At Assembly hall Friday evening, February 28th. Tickets on sale at Stoke's drug store at 8.00 a. m. Saturday, February 23rd.

Republican Primary Election.
 As we go to press the result of the Republican primary election in the county is not known positively, as one township had not been heard from, but the candidates sure of the nomination are as follows: For assembly, C. R. Vasbinder; treasurer, J. B. Means; county commissioners, Newton Webster and Harvey D. Haugh. The vote for register and recorder is so close that it will require the official vote to settle that matter. Vote for sheriff is close between J. W. Curry and C. T. Hawk, with Curry in the lead.

Kicked by a Mule.
 Michael Connell, of Rathmel, a driver in Sprague mine, received an ugly cut over the right eye yesterday morning by a mule kicking him. It was a narrow escape for Mr. Connell.

Young Has Contract.
 James V. Young has the contract to erect the bell building for the new woolen mill that George W. Sykes will start in Reynoldsville. As stated last week, the mill is to be erected on Mabel street.

Fell Through Skylight.
 There is a bowling alley under the Imperial restaurant, with a skylight over it. A thirteen-year-old lad, brother of Mrs. W. C. Euser, who lives over restaurant, fell through the skylight and cut his left arm badly.

Twenty Inch Ice.
 The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is cutting ice off their large dam at Sabula and shipping it to Pittsburgh and other points on the River Division, also on Low Grade Division. The ice is 20 inches thick and as clear as crystal. It is pure mountain spring ice, as fine as can be found in the country.

Valentine Sleighing Party.
 The Ingelow Club girls and eleven invited guests enjoyed a sleighing party to DuBois last Friday afternoon. They had Burns' new "Columbia" with four horses. They stopped at the new DuBois Hotel for supper. The young ladies speak in glowing terms of the fine supper and the hospitality extended to them.

Graves Not Coming To-Night.
 Prof. G. W. Lenkerd received a telegram yesterday that John Temple Graves will not lecture here this evening. Telegram was as follows:
 Cincinnati, O., Feb. 18, 1902.
 Prof. G. W. Lenkerd, Reynoldsville.—Summoned home; imperative domestic emergency; regret exceedingly; new date; letter.
 JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES

Small Blaze Sunday.
 About 10.00 a. m. Sunday Edward McCreight, of Paradise, drove to the residence of his brother, Lawyer Smith M. McCreight, on Hill street, this place, and he discovered that the roof of William Anderson's house—next door neighbor to Smith McCreight—was on fire. Some lively work was done by Smith and Ed. and the fire was extinguished, not however, until after a good sized hole had been burned in the roof. A defective flue was cause of fire.

Nathan George Mysteriously Disappeared.
 Nathan George, who usually makes his home with his sister, Mrs. Samuel Dickey in Winslow township, has mysteriously disappeared. Just before Christmas Nathan was working for John Ernest, in McCalmont township, and he started for Punsutawney with $30.00 or $40.00 in his pocket, and he has never been heard of since. Mr. Dickey said Monday that Nathan was never away from their home longer than two weeks at a time before. He was in the habit of getting intoxicated occasionally and his friends don't know whether he was foully dealt with or whether something happened to him while under influence of liquor, but they will not be surprised to hear of his body being found some place. Nathan was about sixty-five years old. He was lame in one leg and always used a cane to walk with.

Hotel Belnap's New Proprietor.
 Will W. Wiley, a young man of Reynoldsville who has had considerable experience in hotel business, is now proprietor of Hotel Belnap, having taken charge of that hostelry on Monday of this week. The interior of the hotel will be re-papered and re-painted and fixed up in first-class style, and the exterior will receive a new coat of paint. There are to be other improvements on the hotel, and when completed it will be as fine $1.00 a day house as will be found in this section. The town people and traveling public are so well acquainted with Mr. Wiley, and know him to be genial and accommodating, that it is hardly necessary for us to comment upon his qualifications as a landlord.

Mr. Wiley has hired new corps of assistants, as follows: Bartender, William Degnan; restaurant man, Albert Cochran; billiard room man, Charles Scott, assistant in office, Frank C. Wiley.

Mr. Frank Deltz, who has been proprietor of the hotel several years, has moved into a house on Jackson street.

BOOK RECEPTION.
 Refreshments and Entertainment Free at Public School Building Friday Evening.

A book reception for benefit of the public school library will be held in the school building from 7.30 to 10.00 p. m. next Friday evening, February 21st, under the auspices of the Mothers' Club. An orchestra will be stationed on first stair landing, there will be an exhibit of school work in several rooms, and in the library will be an exhibition of some fine pictures that Prof. G. W. Lenkerd secured on his European trip last year. In the auditorium a special program will be given, consisting of songs and recitations. A chorus of fifty school children will sing patriotic and plantation songs. Refreshments will be served; everything will be free. Everybody is cordially invited to attend this reception and take a book with them for the new library. People can feel at liberty to spend the entire two and a half hours in the school building or go and come as they please.

Valentine Social.
 The Utopia Society gave the Twentieth Century Club a "Valentine Social" at the M. E. parsonage last Friday evening. It was the most unique social ever given by the Utopians. The table decorations were fine. Hearts were conspicuous through the whole affair, even the ice cream was served in heart-shaped boxes. A prize was offered to the gentleman who could play "Swanee River" in the most skillful manner on a violin. All the gentlemen present had to take their turn, and as they were all about as familiar with a violin as a four-legged animal is with Latin, their musical productions were almost enough to effect a marble statue. Dr. S. Reynolds carried off the prize. A large heart was pinned on wall, every one present was blind-folded and the one pinning a dart nearest center of the heart was to get a prize. Mrs. James A. McCreight and Mrs. A. T. Bing got the prizes. The social was a very pleasant affair.

Hose Frozen Up.
 A line of hose was attached to the water plug at corner of Main and Fifth streets Monday morning to open the sewer pipe under the H. Alex. Stoke block and when the water was turned on a few sections of the hose was frozen and it required considerable time to get the hose thawed so the water would run through. Had there been a fire it would have gotten beyond control before the water could have been turned on. The hose had been used some time and was put away without draining the water out of same. Great care should be taken to see that the hose and water plugs are in good condition at all times so that there would be no delay in case of a fire breaking out.

The Williams Stock Company played "Master and Man" at Reynolds opera house Monday night under the title "A Mountain Hero," but did not make a big hit. The company decided to stay over and play "All a Mistake" last night. Time for show to begin the company discovered that it was "all a mistake" for them to stay in Reynoldsville the second night. The audience failed to materialize and the company returned to the hotel.

"Speaking of snow drifts," said an old citizen yesterday, "I have lived in this country for fifty years, and I don't remember having seen the snow piled up in such quantities before. There are several places between Punsutawney and Reynoldsville where the snow is heaped up in veritable mountains, resembling the Alps, and all the country roads are in many places impassable."—Punsutawney Spirit.

Lewis Ludwick, D. A. Pifer and wife, John Lott and wife, Mrs. Charles Engle and two daughters, of Paradise, drove to Brookville Friday to see the new county home. Mr. Ludwick thinks it is a fine structure, well arranged, and says he would not mind living there himself.

Twenty-seven Elks of Punsutawney attended the "stag social" in the Elk rooms at this place last Wednesday evening. Five new members were initiated and twelve applications were handed in for membership.

D. C. Whitehill, of Falls Creek, formerly a music dealer of Brookville, moved J. B. Nichol's piano from Eleanora to this place Monday. The piano had to be taken apart to get it out of the house at Eleanora.

Sutter's Experience With Balking Pony.
 Francis O. Sutter, of this place, who recently accepted a position as traveling salesman for I. N. Hinch & Co., of Harrisburg, had an experience last week with a balking pony that would disarrange most any good temper. The company owned a team of black ponies which a former agent had left over in Indiana county. Frank went after the rig and when he got his samples in the light sled and was ready to start one of the ponies refused to go. After considerable effort the ponies started on a run and Frank let them run six miles, and just when he was congratulating himself on his success in managing a balking horse he encountered a snow drift and the team stopped and there they stood from 7.30 p. m. to 2.00 a. m. After losing his temper, exhausting his patients, wearing out his whip and breaking the singletree, he unhitched the ponies, left the sled and samples in the snow drift and rode one of the ponies and lead the other to Punsutawney, a distance of five miles. He hired a liverman to go after his sled and samples. When he was ready to leave Punsutawney, after much persuasion, he got the team started and kept them going until they reached Anita, and there he had to hire another horse and lead his balking pony to Reynoldsville. Saturday morning he tried to get the balking pony to work, but it refused to work and Frank finally traded the pony for one that would work and started on his way rejoicing Monday morning.

Child Burned to Death.
 Sykesville, Feb. 17.—Saturday evening a sad accident occurred at the home of George H. McCanna, who resides about two miles below town. Mr. McCanna, who works at the Big Run tannery, was away from home and his wife had gone to the postoffice, leaving their two children, Edgar, aged about 12 years, and Tressa, aged about 5 years, at home alone. In some way Tressa's clothing caught fire and her brother made a brave, but ineffectual, attempt to extinguish the fire, but only succeeded in burning his hands badly. Their screams were heard by Mrs. Kicher, a neighbor, who ran to their assistance and put out the flames, but not in time to save the girl's life, whose clothing was almost entirely burned off her. Tressa was burned about 6.00 p. m. and died at 2.00 a. m. Sunday, after suffering untold agony. The body was taken to Brookville for burial. Mr. and Mrs. McCanna have the sympathy of their neighbors and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. McCanna formerly resided in Reynoldsville.

An Illustrated Lecture.
 An illustrated lecture on "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" was given in Centennial hall last Friday evening by Rev. W. H. Shawger, of Dover, N. J. On account of several "valentine socials" the attendance was not as large as it would otherwise have been, but a fair sized audience was present. There was a little delay in getting the pictures ready on account of a break in the machine, but when ready for operation it worked nicely and the pictures were fine. Rev. Shawger is a good talker and the lecture was impressive, and certainly would have a good effect on the audience. We believe this is one of the effectual ways of delivering a temperance lecture. Rev. Shawger is deserving of large audiences wherever he gives his illustrated lecture.

Directors Elected.
 At the annual meeting of the Reynoldsville Building and Loan Association Monday evening the following directors were elected: John M. Hays, M. S. Sterling, M. E. Fisher and A. J. Postlewait. One auditor, M. C. Coleman, was elected. The association sold $2,000.
