Miss Sutter is the only lady teller in any of the banks in Pittsburg. She is a bright young lady, perfectly competent to hold such a position.

Merchants' Protective Association. A number of Reynoldsville merchants met in Centennial hall Monday evening and organized a Merchants' Protective Association. The following officers were elected: President, A. T. McClure: vice-president, William Copping; secretary, W. H. Moore; treasure, George H. Mundorff. A large number of ou merchants joined the Association. The president will issue a call for the next seeting. An attempt was made a number of years ago to organize a Mer chants' Protective Association in this place, but it did not meet with favor at that time.

Miners' Convention.

The annual convention of United Mine Workers of America, No. 2 District, is being held at Altoona this week. The delegates from Reynoldsville went to Altoona Monday. They are Thomas Guilliford, Samuel Williams, William Broad, representing the miners, John Collins, tipple hands, and James Hetrick, drivers. Thomas Haggerty, National Organizer, of this place, also went to Altoona Monday. The delegates will confer with the perators to-morrow, Thursday. They will make three important demand namely, the eight-hour day, decrease differential between pick and machi mining and mules to haul cars.

ANOTHER MOTHER GONE

Mrs. James P. Dillman Dred Sunday

Mrs. Mary Dillman, wife of James Dillman, died at 5.30 p. m. Sunday, March 9, 1902, at her home on Fourth street. Deceased was born in Centre county, Pa , April 7, 1838, making her almost 64 years old at time of death. Her malden name was Mary Henderson. She was married to Mr. Dillman in Clarion township, Clarion Co., Pa., April 26, 1855. Unto them four sons were born, the second son, Eleazer, died when two years old. The surviving sons are John C., Wilbert and Walter. Mr. and Mrs. Dillman moved to Reynoldsville almost a quarter of a century ago. Mrs. Dillman was an ex sellent woman, a kind wife and loving mother. She joined the Methodist Protestant church a number of years ago and when Rev. Shyrock was pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church she joined that church by letter and remained a faithful member.

Funeral services were held at the resi dence at 2.00 p. m. vesterday, conducted by Rev. W. Frank Reber, pastor Pres byterian church. Interment was made in Beulah cometery. Thus ended the earthly career of a woman who bore patiently and lovingly all the aches and pains and trials that she met in life's Besides her bushand and three sons the deceased is survived by two sisters and three brothers, as follows: Mrs. Agnes Steel, of Cooksburg, Mrs. Alonzo White of Osceola Mills, William Hen derson, of Strattonville, David Henderson, of Sigel, and John Henderson, of Coleman.

Talk of Paving Pike Street.

When the poor farm was established in Jefferson county West Reynoldsville borough had a surplus of $655.00 poor fund in the treasury, which is to be used for street or road purposes, and some of the citizens of that borough are agitating the question of baving town council pave Pike street, between P. R. R. crossing and iron bridge There is almost as much money expended every year on that short piece of street as there is on all the other streets of that borough and those in favoring of paving that portion of street think it would be economy to do so.

At the meeting of West Reynolds ville town council last evening the matter was discussed, but there was no de finite action taken on it.

Tapper's New Building

Work was begun yesterday on Thos Tapper's new livery stable, which will be erected on the site of the stable de stroyed by fire last October. The building will be 37 by 150 feet, and will be built of stone and brick. The front will be pressed brick. The building will be two stories high, with a basement for horses and hay. The first floor off from Main street will be used for an office and keeping rigs in. The front part of econd floor will be used for dwelling. The contract calls for completion of building by 15th of June. Contractor Thomas E. Evans is to erect the building. When finished it will be as fine a last fall. He was the oldest son of An- livery stable as can be found in this section of the state.

Talk of Working Lower Vein.

Several eastern capitalist, who are perienced coal men, will come to Reynoldsville in a few days to see about working what is known as the lower vein of coal under the Tom Reynolds land at this place. There is a good four to five foot vein of coal underlying this property and it is very likely it will be worked in the near future. A shaft would have to be put down to get at the coal. There would be one hundred and fifty acres of this coal to work, which would add some to the business prosper ity of Reynoldsville for several years.

Military Entertainment.

From Reveille to Taps at Assembly ball on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. Insurance Rates Raised.

The Underwriters Association of the middle department, comprising Penuselvania, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey. West Virginia and the District of Columbia, has notified the agents of Reynoldsville of the advance in fire in cance rates, which took effect March 1902. There is a regular increase of 25 per cent on all manufacturing risks and other special hazards, including stocks of merchandise and frame store buildings. Dwelling houses remain the

During the past three years 57 joint stock insurance companies have been forced to re-insure their business and withdraw on account of not receiving mough in premiums to pay their losses This far in 1902 six more companies have been forced to withdraw from business for the same reason.

The losses paid by all companies in United States in January, 1900, were $11,500,000; January 1901, $11,600,000; January 1902, $13,600,000; February 1900, $15,000,000; February 1901, $14,-000,000; February 1902, $22,000,000. If this ratio of loss continues through the present year the companies will have to pay $217,000,000, an excess over 1901 of $65,000,000.

Misstatement In "Grit." We received a letter from W. S.

Stone, of East Brady, yesterday, which we print below:

"My attention has been called to East Brady letter in last issue of Grit, regarding the retirement of Rev. G. Binnie, from the pastorate of Baptist church and Rev. W. S. Stone to take his place. As I have a multitude of friends in Reynoldsville who would be misled by such a statement. I beg you to say there is no truth in it whatever I am trying to do in East Brady as always tried to do in Reynoldsville, assist all I can in the good cause, and taking up the pastorate of any church is farthest from my intentions." Yours Respectfully,

W. S. STONE.

Rathmel Wants Street Cars. Our Rathmel correspondent says this week that the well-to-do people of that town will make an effort to get the Du-Bols street car line extended to Rath mel because the Reynoldsville people are slow about getting a street railway to that place. To use a slang expression, "it is up to Reynoldsville" to take some action in getting a trolly line to our suburban towns or take a back seat. Can we afford to fold our hands and let the trade that justly belongs to this town be carried to some other town? We think not.

Bishop Fowler Coming. On account of being unable to make satisfactory date with John Temple Graves, who was booked to deliver one of the lectures on the public school course, Prof. Lenkerd has engaged Bishop Charles H. Fowler, D. D. LL. D., to deliver the last lecture on course. Bishop Fowler is booked for Tuesday evening, April 22. Subject: "Abraham Lincoln." The Daily News, of Mankato, Minn., says: "Bishop Fowler has a splendid stage presence, a good delivery, and is a most magnetic speaker.

IOHN BENNETT DEAD.

Departed This Life Yesterday Afternoon-

Funeral To-Morrow in M. E. Church. At 2.20 Tuesday afternoon, March 11, 902, John Bennett, who had been suffering one week with bronchial pneumonia, peacefully departed this life. One year ago Mr. Bennett had a severe attack of grip, from which he never recovered, but was able to be out and around until a week before he died. Mr. Bennett was conscious until a few minutes before dissolution took place. He knew that his earthly career was nearing the end, but death had lost its terrors for him. A half hour before his heart ceased to beat he repeated the following verse of a hymn:

My God is reconciled;
His pardoning voice I hear:
He owns me for his child;
I can no longer fear:
With confidence I now draw nigh,
And, "Father, Abba, Father," cry.

John Bennettt was born at Camborne England, September 3, 1842, making him 59 years, 6 months and 8 days old. He was married to Emma Rickard in England in 1864. Mr. Bennett moved his family to America in 1878. moved to Reynoldsville in 1886. wife died here in the fall of 1894. The following year Mr. Bennett and family moved to New York state. February, 1900, they moved back to Reynoldsville. Eight children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, four of whom preceded the parents "into that bourne from whence no traveler e'er returns.' He is survived by one daughter and three sons, Miss Emily, James and Henry, who were at their father's bed-side when he died, and Edward Bennett, of Nutley, N. J., who arrived here last night.

Mr. Bennett was a member in good standing in the Sons of St. George lodge, and a large number of the members of that lodge will attend the funeral in a body.

The deceased was a member of the M. E. church five years, and funeral services will be held in that church to norrow at 2.30 p. m., conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of church, and interment will be made in Beulah beside the wife and daughter of Mr. Bennett.

Dr. Ernst came to see the case Thursday and pronounced it the best defined case of smallpox he had yet seen. Two of the Smith children went to school Wednesday morning and as soon as the directors discovered this they dismissed the scholars, burned the books and fumigated the school building. The authorities have quarantined the Smith house and placed a guard on same .- Big Run Tribune March 7.

Hon. Jack Nominated. Hon. S. M. Jack, of Indiana, present Congressman from this district, who is now serving second term, made possible by the Jefferson county conferees voting for him in conference, was nominated at the recent primary election held in Indiana county. Mr. Jack will certainly instruct his conferees to vote for Hon. W. O. Smith, the Jefferson county nominee, at the Congressional conference to be held in this district the coming summer. Mr. Smith is entitled to the nomination and will undoubtedly get it. Chalk Talk Entertainment,

The "Chalk Talk" given by Prof. William Most, of Edinboro, last Friday evening at the Hall, was all that h advertised, and far more. Some of his work on the board was as fine as any statuary. We speak especially of the face of "Bryant," "The dog and the wolf," "The figure of one fleeing from Jerusalem."
