Birthday Surprise Party.

Ralph D. Albright, plumber for Keystone Hardware Company, was twentyyears old last Thursday and he was given a birthday surprise party that evening. It was a very pleasant and complete surprise to him. Only young men were invited. Excellent refreshments were served.

Signed for Another Year. William Bennett, an experienced lassworker, who successfully managed the Star Glass Company factory at this place during the present fire, signed an agreement yesterday to remain with this company another year. Mr. Benhe holds and the company made no mistake in securing his services for another year.

Free Packages of Seeds.

Through the kindness of Congress man S. M. Jack we have received a large number of packages of garden seeds for free distribution among our subscribers. Each package contains corn, lettuce, muskmelon, beet and sough seeds. We want them to go as far as possible and will only give one package to each person who calls at THE STAR office for same, and will not give the packages to boys and girls.

Big Porker.

James Lusk, of Pleasant avenue, had a how butchered last week that weighed 765 pounds when dressed. It was a monster. August Baldauf made his porkship "bite the dust," and J. H. Donhiser, an experience butcher, dressed the hog. The hog was seven feet long and measured five feet in circumference The tusks were 64 inches long and the teeth 44 inches. The hog was three and a half years old; it was a Chester White.

Special Meetings.

The special meetings that were held in the M. E. church the past two weeks closed on Friday evening. The interest it was not a pleasant evening, yet a was good and several started in the Christian life. On Friday evening a score of persons came from DuBois to attend service. By their enthusiastic singing and earnest prayers and testimonies much was added to the interest of the meeting. They returned to Du-Bois on late train. The presiding elder was present and preached.

Fowler's Lecture.

His lecture on "Abraham Lincoln" was a marvel of eloquence, pathos and wit. Every sentence was polished, and respondence department of THE STAR glistened with incarnate genius. For over two hours the people in the audience were held spellbound. At times their enthusiasm broke into loud applause, and again their deep emotion burst into tears. His words cut like knives in places, and thrilled like martial music in others .- Minneapolis Tribune. At Assembly hall April 22.

Altoona Convention.

After a persistent and unsuccessful of each month. effort to come to an agreement, the joint conference of miners and opera No. 2 District adjourned Monday evening to meet again on Tuesday, March 25th. During the convention the following officers were elected for No. 2 District: President, Patrick Gilday, of Morrisdale; Vice-President, George Wilson, of Patton: Secretary-Treasurer. Richard Gilbert, of South Fork. It was decided to hereafter elect all distriet officers by popular vote instead of at conventions.

Good Entertainment.

"From Reveille to Taps" in Assembly hall Thursday and Friday evenings of last week deserved a far larger audience than attended. The entertainment was first class. The colored dissolving pictures portrayed most vividly life, manners and scenery in the Philippines, and the accompaning remarks of Walter Potter, who took most of the photos from life while serving as a soldier, gave the audience a good idea of the hardships and amusements and the difficulties our soldiers are encountering in subduing those troublesome isles.

Printer Dead.

James T. Cartin, who was well known in Reynoldsville, son of H. I. Cartin, deceased, died at the South Side Hospital, Pittsburg, Thursday noon, March 13, 1902 from tuberculosis of the neck and heart trouble. He had been in the hospital five weeks, but his case was not considered critical and none of his friends were at his side when he died. A. M. Applegate, of this place, brother in-law of deceased, went to Pittsburg in time to attend the funeral Friday afternoon. Interment was made in Allegheny cemetery.

James Cartin was born in Birmingham, Huntingdon county, Pa., July 17, 1849. When fifteen years old he began the printing trade in the Greensburg Argus office. He was a good printer. When he took ill he was working for the McClung Printing Co. on Webster Avenue, Pittsburg. In 1878 Mr. Cartin and C. C. Benscotter started a paper in Revnoldsville called The Eye, which was a very spicy paper. The deceased is survived by his mother, Mrs. Margaret Cartin of Reynoldsville, and two brothers and two sisters, Thomas Cartin, of Bridgeville, Pa., Harry Cartin, of St. Louis, Mrs. Mary J. Reed and Mrs. A. M. Applegate, of Reynoldsville, and one son, Homer H., sixteen years old, who lives in Ohio.

Case of Small-pox at Rathmel.

William Hoffman, of Rathmel, who was working at New Florence coal mines, returned to Rathmel yesterday afternoon suffering with a genuine case of small-pox. Word had been sent to Rathmel that Hoffman was coming and one of the old company houses, above old tipple, was made ready and he was put into it when he arrived. Hoffman will receive good attention and every precaution possible will be taken to prevent the disease from spreading at Rathmel A telephone message was sent from Punxsutawney to Reynoldsville at noon yesterday that Hoffman was coming into Reynoldsville on the train. One officer was stationed at the iron bridge to stop him from coming up through town if he came in on P. R. R., and another officer watched for him at B., R. & P. station. He was driven from New Florence to Rathmel in a buggy instead of coming on train.

Ladies' Organization.

Sorrow Stricken Parents

Last week mention was made in THE STAR of the death of John Russel Levis, two and a half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Levis, who died March 9th and was buried in Beulah cemetery March 11th. Since then the death angel has visited that home again and at 2.00 p. m., Saturday, March 15, Ruth, aged 4 years, 6 months and 12 days, closed her eyes in death. Her death was caused by a relapse from measles. Funeral service was held at residence of parents Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of M. E. church, and interment was made in Beulah cemetery beside the new made grave of the little brother who was buried less than a week before. Mr. and Mrs. Levis need the hearty sympathy of their friends and neighbors in this, their time of great bereavement. Some one has said:

It isn't enough to be "sorry"
For troubles our neighbors may feel;
Quite useless the "pity" we tell of,
Unless we use action to heal.

That Small Pox Scare at Big Run. We published an article last week clipped from the Big Run Tribune, which stated that Will and Jonas Smith, who had been working at Big Soldier, were at their home in Big Run with small-pox. Saturday afternoon two young men stepped into THE STAR office and asked to see the item concerning the small-pox cases at Big Run. After reading the article they smiled and one winked at the other. said that the Smith residence at Big Run was quarantined, but that the young men mentioned did not have the small-pox. When asked if they were the two young men referred to they answered: "We see the Smith boys every day."

Business Change. G. W. Klepfer, who bought the B. T. Cox racket store at this place last September and moved his family here, has sold his store and expects to move into Warren county. He has not fully decided yet where he will locate. Mr. Klepfer is a very pleasant gentleman and during his short business career in Reynoldsville he made numerous warm friends in town who are sorry to see him move away. Miss Margaret Evans, who has had considerable experience as a clerk, has bought and taken charge of the G. W. Klepfer racket store on Main street. Miss Evans will conduct the business # herself.

Trolley Line Communication. Fellow citizens can we not awaken to the fact that we must make an effort to get a street railway from here to Rathnel, Big Soldier, Sykesville and Eleanora? I will not take up space by going into details in mentioning why we should have a trolley line to those places. What I do ask is that a citizens meeting be called at once for the purpose of discussing this matter and lay plans to get the trolley. Let everybody attend that could take $50.00 or more of stock in such a paying enterprise. Don't delay this matter but have a meeting called next week. CITIZEN.

JOHN M'DONALD HAS SMALL-POX. Is Lying at Lumber Camp Near Falls

Creek-Scare at Reynoldsville. John McDonald, oldest son of P. Mc-Donald, the lumberman of Reynoldsville, is lying at a camp above Harvey's Run, several miles above Falls Creek, with a genuine case of small-pox. Dr. J. B. Neale, of this place, is attending McDonald and Joseph Christmas, camp cook, is nursing him and giving him good care. It was reported last evening that the young man was getting along as well as could be expected. McDonald was in Reynoldsville Wednesday and Thursday and when It be came known that he had the small-pox there was quite a scare in Reynoldsville, and several of the persons who were near McDonald on Thursday were as badly frightened as they could be if a doctor would tell them they had the small-pox. One gentleman who came in contact with McDonald took all the preventative precautions possible then made his will and "set his house in order." If more people would be as cautious about this dread disease as they should be it would not be so likely to spread through the country.

There was a scatterment among the woodsmen when it was learned at camp Friday that McDonald had the smallpox. Whether any other men contracted the disease before they left camp remains to be seen. It requires from nine to twenty days for the disease to develope. Too much care cannot be taken to prevent the disease from getting a start in a community.

Bought The St. Elmo.

Frank Dietz, of this place, formerly proprietor of Hotel Belnap, has bought the St. Elmo hotel in DuBois, including all the furniture and supplies on hand. Mr. Fisher takes out only his writing desk and trunk. Mr. and Mrs. Dietz went to DuBois Monday noon and took charge of that hotel. The children will remain here until school closes Mr. Dietz informed a representative of THE STAR Monday forenoon that the purchase of St. Elmo was not conditional. He had bought it regardless as to what may be done about the hotel be ing granted liquor license. He thinks however, that he will be able to get license pext year, if not sooner.

While proprietor of Hotel Belnap Mr. Dietz proved himself to be a good hotel man. The people of DuBois can rest assured that under his proprietorship the St. Elmo will be conducted in as orderly manner as any other hotel in DuBois. Mr. Dietz will keep a firstclass hotel.

Artistic Presentations.

Prof. Wm. Most's chalk delineations drawings in colors, rapid sketching. A profitable and pleasing exhibition of artistic skill, illustrating the principles of art instruction acceptably and intelligently. At Assembly hall Thursday evening, March 20. Prof. Most's work done before his audience is a revelation With a few skillful strokes he exe rutes pictures of a varied character, humorous and artistic, with transformation of form and position. His caricature and marvelous changes, together with the rapidity of execution, do not fail to excite wonder and pleasure. All who see his exhibitions are delightedchildren as well as the older folk, find pleasing and profitable entertainment.
