Married Fifty Years.

Tuesday, April 1st, was the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Morrison-their golden wedding day. Mr. Morrison has been living with a son near Beechtree a year or two and Mrs. Morrison lives with her daughter, Mrs. Hood Knox, on Grant street, but Mr. Morrison was here to enjoy the fiftieth anniversary dinner with his wife. There is one very re markable thing about the married life of this couple, that is death has not removed a child or grand child from them. Few couples have lived to see their fiftieth wedding anniversary who have not had the family circle broken by death.

Big Rush for Shoes.

It is doubtful if ever there was sale in Reynoldsville where there was such a mad rush for bargains as there was at Williams' shoe fire sale in the opera house block Saturday. From the time the doors were opened in the morning until closed in the evening the large store room was crowded with people jostling each other in their efforts to get the best shoes they could find for least money. And as in all such cases there were a number of thieves present and, no doubt, some of them succeeded in stealing shoes, although there were two or three detectives at the door and in the store room. Three men and one woman were caught after they got out of the store room and the shoes taken from them, but no arrests were made. One man who had three pair of shoes in his pockets, was followed a square before he was caught. He gave up the shoes. Women with cloaks on had best advantage to get out of the store with stolen shoes, but several of them, who looked suspicious when stopped at door and asked to show their bundle, denied of having any bundle, stepped back into crowd laid down the shoes they had under their arms and went out without buying shoes. In the two days, Saturday and Monday, Williams sold all his stock-3,000 pairs of shoes.

Tin Wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herpel, of West Reynoldsville, celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage on Monday of this week with a tin wedding. April 6, 1892, P. Henry Herpel and Miss Henrietta Mendel were married in Allegheny City, Pa., but on account of the anniversary occurring on Sunday, the tin wedding was held Monday. A number of ladies were invited for Monday afternoon and in the evening a number of Masons and their wives were invited. The refreshments served were excellent. Those in afternoon received same as those who were present in the evening. evening. The time was pleasantly spent in playing various games and listening to songs, recitations and instrumental music. Mr. and Mrs. Herpel received a number of presents, among which were a gold leaf corner chair and a fine oak side-board. The guests were each given a tin plate as a souvenir. It was a pleasant social event.

Saturday, conducted by Rev. Donahue, and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery beside the bodies of his wife and three daughters, who preceeded him into the Great Beyond.

William Burke was born in Ireland 68 years ago. He was married in England. He came to America in 1868 and in 1872 his family, wife, three daughters and one son, came to America and located in Reynoldsville, where Mr. and Mrs. Burke resided until Mrs. Burke died. New Postmaster.

Ex-Sheriff Edward C. Burns, liveryman, has been appointed postmaster at ceynoldsville. President Roosevelt made the appointment last Wednesday and the Senate confirmed it Saturday. Mr. Buros has not received his commission yet and it will likely be a week or two before he takes charge of the office. Postmaster Woodward's four years expired the first of this month.

Good Singer.

Cortlandt Barker, of DuBois, who was the guest of Wm. Barchart at National Hotel over Sunday, sang in the M. E. church Sunday morning and evening. Those who heard him speak very highly of his singing. His voice is phenomenal both in quantity and quality, is rich and powerful.

The lecture by Bishop Fowler last evening was beyond our power of description. His eloquence, his earnestness, his dramatic and descriptive powers are incomparable, and his dry and harmless wit is seldom equaled. If we mistake not Bishop Fowler stands to-day pre-eminently the orator of the Methodist Church or any other church for the matter.-Blue Earth City Post. MINERS' STRIKE STILL ON.

Proposition Sent Out From Indianapolis Last Week Not Accepted Mass Meeting To-day.

Saturday morning the DuBois Cour er contained an article to the effect that at a meeting of the officers of U. M. W. of A. and L. W. Robinson, gener al manager of R. & P. C. & I. Co., held at Indianapolis, Ind., Friday, April 4, that there was a settlement of the differences between Mr. Robinson's com pany and the miners of this district and that the men were to resume work, immediately, but there seems to have been some misunderstanding, at least the miners' delegates have refused to accept the proposition, and the strike is still on. Following is a copy of the

Indianapolis proposition: "Work to be resumed on same basis of price for mining and day labor and conditions as existed at the beginning of the last scale year. "Except at Eleanora the miners shall push the cars one way in all rooms that are now or may bereafter be equipped with iron rail, otherwise present condi tions of mule haulage to continue. "And at the Florence mine, cars are to be handled after both mule and electricity by pushing one way, except in such places how working and equipped for electric haulage.

"The present conditions of pushing cars to continue until such rooms are ears to continue until such rooms are exhausted, or worked out. After which the cars during present scale year will be hauled one way and pushed one way, as customary after regular mule haul

A convention of the delegates from various works of the R. & P. and J. & C. C. & I. Companies was held at Punxsutawney Monday of this week. Committees waited on Mr. Robinson, but there was no settlement reached, and after reaffirming the resolutions of April 1st the delegates adjourned.

We have been informed that the only basis of settlement that will be considered by the miners is that proposed at Altoona convention.

A mass meeting of the Reynoldsville Soldier, Sykesville and Rathmel miner will be held at 10.00 a. m. to-day. If the weather is favorable the meeting will be held at Fuller's watering trough, and if disagreeable weather prevails the meeting will be held in the K, of L. hall at Rathmel.

Initial Production.

"Our German Friend," a four-act com edy drama, written by Al. F. Harris, of Reynoldsville, was given the initial production at the Reynolds opera house last Thursday and Friday evenings by the author of the play, supported by an able cast of home talent. The play is a good one and it was well produced by Mr. Harris and his assistants. It was given under auspices of the Protective Home Circle of Reynoldsville. Those who took part in the play were: Al. F. Harris, L. L. Gourley, Dr. W. A Henry, Clarence Lierd, L. C. Harris, Mrs. Al. F. Harris, nee Miss Arcole Proy, Miss Lizzie Shughrou, Misse Edyth and Marion Harris. There were several specialties between acts, among which was the comedy quintette be-tween 1st and 2nd acts. The get up of the singers was enough to provoke laughter. The boys captivated the audience and were called back. The quintette was composed of L. C. Harris. Craig King, George Geisler, Carl Kirk, and Frank King. Between 2nd and 3rd act Misses Florence and Marion Harris sang two duets. Al. Harris sang several Dutch songs, cracked a few jokes and did some fancy dancing. Between acts 3 and 4 Misses Zoe Woodward and Jennie Haskins entertained the audience with a duet. They are sweet singers.

Good Impersonator.

One of the best entertainments ever given in this town was given under the auspices of the Century Club on last Tuesday evening, when Mr. Willard D. Howe presented the play of "David Garrick" as a monologue. Every character in the play is good, and it requires a good actor to render any of them well. But on Tuesday evening Mr. Howe took the whole of them is hand and rendered the play as well as a company of players would have done Each part was well acted, the characters clearly drawn, and the grouping of the characters capitally done. It required but little stretch of imagination to people the stage with the various performers so perfectly and easily did Mr. Howe drop out of one character and into another. It was a most artistic performance and Mr. Howe merits the highest praise for his work .- Dover (Del.) Index. At Assembly hall Friday evening, April 18.
